

Which courses require which tests?

Any student applying for a joint honours course that requires more than one exam, must sit two exams

BMAT

Biomedical Sciences
Medicine
Pharmacology
Veterinary Science

Don't forget to check the UKCAT for these subjects
Other Universities requiring the BMAT

Brighton and Sussex Medical School
Imperial College London
Lee Kong Chian School of Medicine
Royal Veterinary College
University College London
University of Leeds

LNAT

Oxford & other universities:
Law
Law as part of a joint honours course

Other universities requiring the LNAT

Durham University
Kings College London
School of Oriental & African Studies
University College London
University of Birmingham
University of Bristol
University of Glasgow

MAT

Only Oxford:
Computer Science
Mathematics
Mathematics & Comp Science
Mathematics & Philosophy
Mathematics & Statistics
And Imperial College London

PAT

Only Oxford:
Engineering
Engineering, Economics & Management
Materials Science
Materials, E&M
Physics
Physics & Philosophy

TSA Cambridge

Computer Science
Engineering
Economics
Land Economy
Natural Sciences (Physical and Biological)
UCL also have a TSA test very similar to the TSA Cambridge

TSA Oxford

Economics & Management
Experimental Psychology
Geography
Philosophy & Linguistics
Philosophy, Politics & Economics
Psychology and Linguistics
Psychology and Philosophy

Cambridge Law Test

Only Cambridge
Law
(Doesn't apply at all colleges)

ELAT

Only Oxford
English
English with a Modern Language
English with Classics

HAT

Only Oxford
History
History as part of a joint honours degree

Cambridge Language Test

- applies to some colleges for modern languages

MLAT

Only Oxford
Any Modern Languages Course, or joint