A message from the Chairman

“ Amidst a year of escalating poverty, devastating conflicts, and necessities remaining scarce, Emaan Relief has been honoured in serving countless individuals and families struggling to survive in Africa, Asia, and the Middle East. The ever-growing barriers to lack of a secure home, means to meet daily demands, and access to education is holding back millions of individuals and communities from flourishing and becoming self-sufficient. This year, we have focused on providing these three pillars of fundamental necessities to those most in need around the world.

To envisage a brighter future, we are in the process of completing the building of a village in Pakistan which will include 132 homes, a school, and a mosque. This will foster dignity, promote mental and physical well-being, and create a platform for build a sustainable future. Just as these homes will shield the body, education is equally important to empower the mind. Emaan Relief continues to provide educational opportunities for underprivileged people in Bangladesh through our Emaan Relief Foundation, where 150 students have been housed, nourished, and educated for the past three years. We exist to ensure that communities can create avenues for upward mobility, and equip individuals with valuable skills that can break the cycles of poverty.

While providing secure housing and intellectual tools is vital, we recognise that immediate needs also require attention. By offering financial assistance to the most vulnerable, whether through zakat or voluntary donations, we can ensure access to necessities like food, healthcare, and clothing. This tangible support alleviates immediate hardship, fostering a sense of security and allowing individuals to focus on the future.

We have provided these three pillars of support to thousands of suffering families around the world. You have enabled us not just to provide temporary relief, but the tools and resources to empower individuals and communities to build resilience, nurture hope, and a new chapter of empowerment and self-sufficiency. Your unwavering kindness is a testament to humanity's transformative power in the face of adversity. ”

Water is a sacred gift from Allah ﷻ, the source and sustainer of all life. Emaan Relief continues to honour the gift of water and embraces the opportunity to share it with those in need, ensuring their respect of human dignity and contributing to a world where everyone has access to this life-sustaining resource.

PAKISTAN

Chronic scarcity of water resources is increasingly becoming a source of conflict between provinces in Pakistan. Climate change, uneven distribution, lack of infrastructure, and inefficient standards have caused the country to further plunge into a severe water crisis.

Through your support, we have been able to alleviate the hardships faced by those affected by the water shortage in the Sindh Province of Pakistan. These wells play a pivotal role in relieving the water burden on communities in need. The handpumps and tube wells significantly benefit multiple households, enabling them to fulfill their water requirements for both domestic use and agricultural activities. The installation of solar wells has proven instrumental in sustaining numerous villages. These solar wells provide a reliable and eco-friendly solution.

Together, we are working towards creating a sustainable future, where access to clean water is no longer a luxury but a fundamental right for all.

TOGO

Lack of access to safe and clean water poses a critical issue for communities in Togo. Despite annual rainfall, Togo battles a water crisis due to uneven distribution, pollution, and climate change. Rural areas often rely on contaminated surface water, while urban zones face growing demand and unsuitable infrastructure. This scarcity affects the health and livelihoods of those most in need.

In our effort and commitment to address this pressing concern, we intend to continue installing more wells and extending the reach of safe water access to additional communities in need. By expanding our initial success, we aim to make a lasting impact on the lives of the Togolese people. Through access to clean water, we aim to alleviate the hardships faced by these communities and improve their overall well-being.
