WASHINGTON STATE vs FRESNO STATE

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 27, 2024

ACRISURE ARENA at PALM DESERT, CALIF.

2024 ACRISURE HOLIDAY INVITATIONAL

	1	2	F
SMU	27	50	77
WSU	31	29	60

WASHINGTON STATE POSTGAME NOTES

- With the result, the Cougars:
  - Fall to 6-2 this season
  - Fall to 2-2 at neutral sites
  - Fall to 6-1 in white uniforms
  - Move to 1-1 all-time against SMU
  - Fall to 6-2 when leading at halftime
- WSU used the same starters for the second-consecutive game (Price, L. Watts, Calmese, I. Watts, Erikstrup)
- WSU was held to a season low 60 points
- The Cougars committed a season-low eight turnovers
- The Cougars allowed 51 total rebounds by the Mustangs, the most by a WSU opponent since Arizona grabbed 53 rebounds, Jan. 2, 2021 in Pullman
- Nate Calmese led WSU with a team-high 15 points and game-high six assists
  - Calmese has scored in double figures seven times
- Dane Erikstrup matched a season-high with two assists
  - Erikstrup matched a season-high with two blocks
- Tomas Thrastarson recorded his first career free throw and matched a season-high with one rebound
- Ethan Price scored 12 points, registering his fifth double-digit game this season
- LeJuan Watts finished with 12 points, his seventh double-digit game this season
- Isaiah Watts tallied two blocked shots, matching his career high
  - Watts also grabbed a game-high four steals, one shy of his career high
  - Watts also tallied a team-best five rebounds, the first time in his career leading the team in rebounding
- Kase Wynott scored a career-high three points with his first made 3-point of his career in a season-high 21 minutes