GESA FIELD HISTORY

CAPACITY: 32,952

1892—Built as Soldier Field.

1895 (November 9)—WSU defeated Idaho 10-4 in the first football game on Soldier Field.

1902—The field was renamed Rogers Field in honor of the Governor of the State of Washington, John R. Rogers.

1936—Washington State College built a completely new football stadium, but retained the same name; the new stadium was an all-wood structure built on concrete pilings. The field also featured new stands, an enlarged press box and an electronic scoreboard.

1970 (April)—Fire destroyed the south stands; a one-million dollar fund drive began after the decision was made to rebuild the stands rather than relocate or build an entirely new stadium; Dan Martin, a Los Angeles businessman, gave $250,000 to the project with the stipulation the stadium be renamed after his father, Clarence D. Martin. Clarence Martin was Governor of the State from 1933-40.

1972 (summer)—first artificial turf (Astroturf) was installed.

1972 (Sept. 30)—WSU met Utah in the first game played in refurbished Martin Stadium;

1975—New north (student) stands were built.

1978 (fall)—Work began on the academic portion of the complex on the south side with the computer center relocating to the complex upon completion of the project in 1979.

1979 (January)—Another renovation of the stadium began to increase the seating capacity from 27,600 to 40,000; the floor of the stadium was excavated 16 feet to add 12,400 seats; the track was removed from the stadium and relocated to the Bailey Baseball Stadium area directly north of the football complex, while a new baseball stadium was then built just south and east of Friel Court, home of Cougar basketball; the entire project, like the one in 1970, was funded through contributions; gift-in-kind and the purchase of "stadium builder" seat options; it marked the first time a collegiate football stadium had been enlarged by digging down rather than building up; the project was also funded in part by the Martin family, with Charlotte Martin, widow of Dan Martin, giving $250,000 to the project; a SuperTurf artificial surface was installed.

1979 (October 13)—WSU celebrated Homecoming by defeating UCLA 17-13 before a record crowd of 32,651 in the first game played in the enlarged Martin Stadium.

1990 (summer)—Installed the sand-filled Omni-Turf playing surface.

2000 (summer)—Installed FieldTurf in Martin Stadium and on Rogers Field.

2006 —Current stadium renovation began.

2006 (summer)—Replaced FieldTurf in Martin Stadium.

2008 —Phase I and II completed. The renovation included a new concourse along the north stands and new concessions and restrooms were also added throughout the stadium. Improvements were also made around the stadium perimeter including the construction of the Cougar Plaza and Cougar Ticket Office at the northeast corner of the stadium, as well as a monumental sign at the east edge of the stadium along Stadium Way. The existing scoreboard behind the west stands was also upgraded.

2012 (summer) —The $80 million Cougar Football Project, which began in Nov., 2011, replaces the old press box on the south stands with a new structure that includes a new press box, club seats, loge boxes, luxury suites and a club room.

2013 (summer) —A $3.5 million scoreboard is added to the east end of Martin Stadium.

2014 (summer) — Construction began on the $61 million, 84,000-square-foot Cougar Football Complex in winter, 2013 and completed in summer, 2014. The facility provides a home for the Cougar football program, including new weight room, lockers, equipment and training rooms for players, in addition to position meeting rooms and coaches' offices. It also features a WSU Football heritage area and a game-day home for Gray W former letter winners.

2021 (March) - In March of 2021, Washington State University Athletics and Gesa Credit Union announced a partnership to provide Gesa the naming rights to the playing surface at Martin Stadium, now named Gesa Field. The 10-year agreement was valued at a minimum $11 million, that will escalate as additional Gesa consumer-based incentives are reached.

Nick Rolovich was named the 33rd head football coach in Washington State history, Director of Athletics Pat Chun announced Jan. 14, 2020.

The 2020 season for Washington State was unlike any in Cougar history, as WSU went 1-3, playing just four of seven scheduled conference-only games due to the COVID-19 pandemic. Having the 2020 spring practice schedule canceled, and delays to the start of fall camp, Rolovich was able to guide WSU to a 38-28 win at Oregon State in the season opener. He is the first Cougar head football coach to win his debut since 2003 and first to win his debut on the road since 1977. He mentored 11 student-athletes who received All-Pac-12 honors and WSU claimed the Pac-12's first two Freshman of the Week awards in 2020. Rolovich's Run and Shoot offense produced two of the Pac-12's top three leaders in receiving yards during the season while the defense led the league with eight forced fumbles. In the spring and summer of 2020, Rolovich did his part during the pandemic, donating meals to front-line workers and assisting businesses in the Pullman area

Rolovich, 40, spent a total of eight seasons at the University of Hawai'i, the last four as head coach. He also served as Nevada's offensive coordinator for four seasons and spent two years coaching quarterbacks at City College of San Francisco. He began his coaching career as an assistant coach at San Marin High School in Northern California.

In his four seasons in Honolulu, Rolovich led the program to a 28-27 record and three bowl games including a 2019 campaign where he guided UH to its first 10-win season since 2010 as the Rainbow Warriors went 10-5, capped by a 38-34 win over BYU in the Hawaii Bowl. It marked just the seventh time in program history Hawai'i reached double-digit wins and its first back-to-back winning seasons since 2006-07 after going 8-6 in 2018.

During his time as a head coach at Hawai'i, Rolovich coached 31 All-Mountain West Conference selections and 39 different student-athletes to a total of 59 All-Academic honors.

The 2019 Mountain West Coach of the Year, Rolovich's offense threw of 338.0 ypg this past season, fifth nationally, while the Rainbow Warriors were 13th nationally in total offense at 471.0 ypg. He opened the season with back-to-back wins over Pac-12 foes Arizona and Oregon State, won five of their final six games while reaching the Mountain West Championship game.

The 2018 season saw a true resurgence of the famed Run-and-Shoot offense. Under Rolovich's guidance, the UH offense racked up more than 5,800 yards of offense, along with 43 touchdown passes. The aerial assault accounted for 30.8 points per game, 310.3 passing yards per game, ninth nationally, and 419 total yards of offense per contest. The production led to the Rainbow Warriors returning to the Hawaii Bowl for a second time under Rolovich, finishing with an 8-6 record.

In 2016, when he took over the program as the fifth-youngest head coach in NCAA Division I FBS at the age of 37 after a four-year stint as Nevada's offensive coordinator, Rolovich promised a refined offense and he came through in the form of a 1,000-yard rusher and a 1,000-yard receiver for just the second time in program history. He also guided Hawai'i to its first bowl game since the 2010 season, a 52-35 win over Middle Tennessee State giving the Rainbow Warriors a 7-7 record.

During his time in Reno (2012-15), Rolovich coached quarterbacks and served as the Wolf Pack's offensive coordinator, helping lead the team to three bowl appearances: the 2012 Gildan New Mexico Bowl, the 2014 R+L Carriers New Orleans Bowl and the 2015 NOVA Home Loans Arizona Bowl.

Rolovich's first coaching stint at UH was wildly productive from 2008-11, directing one of the top passing offenses in the nation. He was the quarterbacks coach all four seasons and spent the final two years as the Warriors' offensive coordinator.

For the latter three years of his time with the Warriors, he had play-calling duties, while UH threw for 13,915 yards—an average of 347.9 yards per game—and 96 touchdowns. That includes the 2010 season in which Hawai'i led the nation in passing offense (394.3 ypg) and finished sixth in total offense (500.6 ypg).

Rolovich was a two-year letterwinner at quarterback for Hawai'i from 2000-01, starting the bulk of the 2001 season and leading the team to an 8-1 record as a starter. He passed for 4,176 career yards and 40 touchdowns and still holds six school passing records. The highlight of his career was perhaps one of the best performances in college football history. Rolovich led the Rainbow Warriors to an upset over previously unbeaten and No. 9 BYU in the 2001 season finale, 72-45, with 543 yards and eight touchdowns. As a senior, he ranked 10th nationally in passing efficiency with a 150.5 rating and broke 19 school passing and eight total offensive records. He ended his college career with three consecutive 500-yard passing games, engineering at least 52 points each outing.

Following his collegiate playing career, Rolovich participated in the Dallas Cowboys mini-camp before signing with the Denver Broncos. He was later allocated to the Rhein Fire of NFL Europe, where he threw for 907 yards and led the Fire to World Bowl XI.

Rolovich got his coaching start in 2002 as an assistant coach for San Marin (Calif.) High School, later reuniting with his college coach, June Jones, in coaching the Run-and-Shoot offense as a student assistant at Hawai'i during the 2003-04 seasons

He returned to Denver in 2003, then started a five-year career in the Arena Football League, beginning with the San Jose SaberCats, where he was a member of their Arena Bowl Championship team. He then spent time with the Chicago Rush, Arizona Rattlers and Las Vegas Gladiators. While with the Gladiators, he threw for 1,248 yards and 23 touchdowns and had a passer rating of 104.8 in 2007 before retiring and accepting a full-time role at his alma mater on Greg McMackin's coaching staff.

The Novato, Calif., native earned his bachelor's degree in economics from UH in 2004 and a master's in human performance and sport from New Mexico Highlands (2007).

Rolovich and his wife, Analea, have three sons, Daniel, William and Patrick, and one daughter, Alana.

Jake Dickert begins his second season as the Cougars' defensive coordinator and linebackers coach.

In his first season in Pullman, the Washington State defense produced four All-Pac-12 Conference selections including linebacker Jahad Woods, who was second on the team with 31 tackles and led the team with 4.5 tackles-for loss. The Cougars led the league with eight forced fumbles and was fourth in rush defense (154.8), a 30-yard improvement from the previous season.

Dickert owns 14 years of collegiate coaching experience and arrived at WSU after working three seasons at the University of Wyoming (2017-19) including the 2019 campaign as the defensive coordinator while working with the linebackers and safeties.

In 2019, the Cowboys were sixth in the country in red zone defense, No. 11 in the country in rush defense (107.1) and scoring defense (17.8), No. 40 tackles-for-loss (83) and No. 43 in total defense. Dickert saw four Cowboys earned All-Mountain West Conference honors led by second-team All-American linebacker and Butkus Award Finalist Logan Wilson while redshirt-freshman defensive end Solomon Byrd was named a Freshman All-American by the Football Writers Association of America.

Dickert originally joined the Wyoming football staff in February, 2017 and coached the safeties for the 2017 and 2018 seasons before he was promoted to defensive coordinator in 2019 where he started the season coaching the linebackers and later coached the safeties. In his three seasons at Wyoming, Dickert coached a pair of future NFL safeties including three-time first-team All-Mountain West Conference pick Andrew Wingard and saw four players earn All-MWC honors in 2019 while another earned 2019 Freshman All-America accolades on the defensive line.

In 2018, Wyoming's defense was among the best in the nation, finishing the season No. 19 in total defense (326.2), No. 25 in rushing defense (129.5), No. 28 in scoring defense (22.0) and No. 32 in pass defense (196.7). Dickert coached senior safeties Andrew Wingard and Marcus Epps as Wingard ended his career tied for the Mountain West Conference career tackle record with 454. Wingard earned First Team All-Mountain West honors for the third consecutive season after being named to the preseason watch lists for the Chuck Bednarik, Bronko Nagurski and Jim Thorpe Awards in both 2017 and 2018. Epps concluded his career as the only three-time team captain in the modern era of Cowboy Football, recorded 325 career tackles and was a finalist for the 2018 Burlsworth Trophy, which is awarded to the nation's most outstanding player who began his career as a walk-on. Epps was selected in the sixth round of the 2019 NFL Draft by the Minnesota Vikings where he played in seven games before playing in eight more with the Philadelphia Eagles. Wingard played in the 2019 East-West Shrine Game, was invited to the 2019 NFL Draft Combine and signed a free-agent contract with the Jacksonville Jaguars where he played all 16 games and made two starts as a rookie.

In his first season at Wyoming, Dickert help the 2017 Cowboy defense become one of the best groups in the country as they led the country in takeaways (38), ranked ninth in scoring defense (17.5), were first in fumbles recovered (18), second in interceptions (20), eighth in defensive touchdowns scored (4 TD), No. 13 in pass defense (174.9) and No. 23 in total defense (335.2). Dickert coached first-team All-Mountain West strong safety Wingard while the safety tandem of Wingard and Epps led the Pokes in interceptions in 2017, with five and four interceptions, respectively.

Before arriving at Wyoming, Dickert spent the 2016 season as the safeties coach and co-special teams coordinator at South Dakota State. Earlier in his career, Dickert was a part of Bohl's coaching staff at North Dakota State from 2008-10.

In his one season on the South Dakota State coaching staff, Dickert helped guide the Jackrabbits to the 2016 Missouri Valley Football Conference Championship and a No. 8 seed in the 2016 NCAA Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) Playoffs, where they advanced to the FCS National Quarterfinals.

As defensive coordinator and linebackers Coach at Minnesota State, Mankato for the 2014 and 2015 seasons Dickert was part of a coaching staff that led the Mavericks to back-to-back Northern Sun Intercollegiate Conference (NSIC) championships and consecutive NCAA Division II Playoff berths, earning their way to the 2014 National Championship Game. Minnesota State posted a combined record of 24-3 over that two-year span. Dickert's 2014 defense ranked second in the nation in scoring defense (12.9), fourth in turnovers gained, No. 12 in pass defense efficiency and No. 15 in total defense. In 2015, the Mavericks ranked fifth in the nation in scoring defense (16.1), third in rushing defense, seventh in pass defense efficiency and sixth in total defense. He coached 16 All-Conference players, three First Team All-Americans and a two-time Northern Sun Intercollegiate Conference Defensive Player of the Year.

In his first season as a college defensive coordinator in 2013 at Augustana, Dickert's defense ranked No. 20 in the nation at the NCAA Division II level in scoring defense, giving up only 19.5 ppg. Augustana ranked second in the NSIC in pass defense, third in rushing defense and third in total defense. He coached five All-Conference players at Augustana.

In 2012, he served as the defensive backs coach at Southeast Missouri State. The Redhawks ranked No. 18 in the nation in turnovers gained (25) and No. 23 in interceptions (13). Southeast Missouri State ranked No. 2 in the Ohio Valley Conference in pass defense. Dickert also coached a First Team All-Conference strong safety at Southeast Missouri.

Dickert spent the 2011 season as the special teams coordinator and defensive backs coach at South Dakota, where the Coyotes ranked second in the Great West Conference in fewest passing yards allowed and interceptions. He coached three All-Conference performers while at South Dakota and his special teams units ranked in the Top 10 in the nation in punting average and net punting and had an individual rank in the Top 10 in punt return yards.

He joined the North Dakota State coaching staff in 2008 as a defensive graduate assistant on Bohl's staff. In 2009 and 2010, he was elevated to serve as safeties coach for the Bison. The 2010 NDSU team advanced to the FCS National Quarterfinals. Dickert began his college coaching career in 2007 as a defensive graduate assistant at his alma mater, Wisconsin-Stevens Point.

He played football at Wisconsin-Stevens Point from 2002-06 where he earned All-Wisconsin Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (WIAC) honors as a wide receiver his senior season of 2006 and was named his team's Wide Receiver of the Year both his junior and senior seasons. Dickert earned his bachelor's degree in secondary math education from Wisconsin-Stevens Point in 2007, and completed his master's degree in general education, also from UW-Stevens Point in 2009.

He and his wife, Candice, have three children, daughter Rylee and sons Jett and Jace.

BRIAN SMITH

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH / OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR
RUNNING BACKS / SECOND YEAR

Brian Smith begins his second season on the Cougar coaching staff as the offensive coordinator and running backs coach, and was promoted to Associate Head Coach following the 2020 season.

In his first season in Pullman, the run-n-shoot offense saw five Cougars earn All-Pac-12 Conference honors while producing the Pac-12's top red zone offense and third-best passing attack. Smith guided the offense that saw All-Pac-12 receivers Renard Bell and Travell Harris finish among the league leaders in catches and in the top three for receiving yards-per-game while running back Deon McIntosh was seventh in the league in rushing yards-per-game.

Smith worked the previous four seasons in the same role for head coach Nick Rolovich at Hawai'i, helping UH to back-to-back winning seasons including a 10-5 mark and Hawaii Bowl win over BYU in 2019. Smith, a former Hawaii offensive lineman (1998-2001), also had a prior four-year stint at Hawaii from 2008-11. Smith owns 15 years of coaching experience and has coached 20 NFL players and six All-Americans.

Smith guided a Hawai'i offense that improved in total offense and passing offense in each of his four seasons, produced the country's ninth-rated passing offense in 2018, the fifth-best passing attack in 2019 and averaged over 30 points-per-game in each of the past two seasons. The Thousand Oaks, Calif. native saw the Hawai'i offense earn 12 All-Mountain West selections in his four seasons highlighted by 2018 Biletnikoff Award Semifinalist and Polynesian Football Hall of Fame College Player of the Year Finalist wideout John Ursua who was later selected in the seventh round of the 2019 NFL Draft by the Seattle Seahawks.

With Smith at the helm of the run-and-shoot the past four seasons, Hawai'i saw a pair of 1,000-yard rushers and five receivers post 1,000-yard seasons including three in 2019, just the sixth team in NCAA FBS history to have a trio of 1,000-yard receivers in the same season.

Last season, Smith mentored two-time All-Mountain West Conference quarterback Cole McDonald who finished 2019 third in the country in passing yards (4,135), seventh in passing yards-per-game (295.4), eighth nationally in touchdown passes (33) and was second on the team with seven rushing touchdowns.

In 2018, Smith saw the Hawai'i offense finish ninth in the country in passing offense, McDonald passed for the sixth-most touchdowns (36) and eighth-most yards (3,875) nationally while wide receiver John Ursua led the country with 16 touchdown catches and was fifth in receiving yards (1,343).

In his first two seasons as offensive coordinator, Smith helped UH produce a dynamic rushing attack as well, averaging 163.8 rushing yards-per-game in 2016 and 168.2 rushing yards-per-game in 2017, Hawai'i's highest averages since 1995. Smith also mentored running back Diocemy Saint Juste who recorded the first back-to-back 1,000-yard seasons on the ground in program history capped by a school-record 1,510 yard-campaign in 2017, breaking 18 school records along the way.

In the 2016, UH featured a 1,000-yard rusher (Diocemy Saint Juste, 1,006) and 1,000-yard receiver (Marcus Kemp, 1,100) in the same season (2016) for just the second time in program history.

Prior to Hawaii, Smith spent three seasons (2013-15) as offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at Occidental College in Los Angeles, Calif., where the team averaged 33.8 points and 480.6 yards of total offense per game in 2015 and featured Conference Player of the Year running back Kwame Do, who ran for a single-season record 1,571 yards (174.6 avg.) and 13 touchdowns.

Prior to Occidental, Smith was the offensive line coach at California Lutheran in 2012, his second stint at the school where he began his collegiate coaching career. Smith helped the Kingsmen to a league championship and second-best scoring offense in NCAA Division III. First full-time coaching job was at Cal Lutheran in 2005, coaching the running backs and receivers.

In his first stint at Hawaii, Smith coached the offensive line in 2008 and running backs from 2009-11 where he saw running back Alex Green break a 60-year-old single-game rushing record by scampering for 327 yards against New Mexico State in 2010 and finished the season with 1,199 yards, then the second-highest total in school history.

Smith started his coaching career as a student assistant at Hawaii under former head coach June Jones in 2004 and later became a graduate assistant at Oregon State in 2006 and coached the offensive line at Portland State in 2007.

Smith played on the offensive line at Hawaii (1998-2001) where he earned his bachelor's degree in 2005 and received his master's degree from Cal Lutheran in 2013.

CRAIG STUTZMANN

CO-OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR / QUARTERBACKS
SECOND YEAR

Craig Stutzmann is in his second season as the Cougars' co-offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach.

In his first season in Pullman, the run-n-shoot offense saw five Cougars earned All-Pac-12 Conference honors while producing the Pac-12's top red zone offense and third-best passing game. Stutzmann coached true freshman quarterback Jayden de Laura to producing the league's fifth-best passing yards-per-game average. De Laura, the first true freshman quarterback to start a season-opener in program history, earned Pac-12 Conference Player of the Week after opening the season with a win at Oregon State.

Stutzmann worked four seasons in the same role for head coach Nick Rolovich at Hawai'I (2016-19), helping UH to three bowl games including a 10-5 mark and Hawaii Bowl win over BYU in 2019. The former Hawaii wide receiver helped direct a Hawai'i offense that improved in total offense and passing offense in each of the past four seasons, producing the country's ninth-rated passing offense in 2018, the fifth-best passing attack in 2019 and an offense that averaged over 30 points-per-game in each of the past two seasons.

In 2019, Stutzmann was named one of six finalists for the FootballScoop National Quarterback Coach of the Year after mentoring two-time All-Mountain West Conference quarterback Cole McDonald. The senior finished 2019 third in the country in passing yards (4,135), seventh in passing yards-per-game (295.4), eighth in touchdown passes (33) and was second on the team with seven rushing touchdowns.

In 2018, Stutzmann helped the Hawai'i offense finish ninth in the country in passing offense as McDonald passed for the sixth-most touchdowns (36) and eighth-most yards (3,875) nationally while wide receiver John Ursua led the country with 16 touchdown catches and was fifth in receiving yards (1,343).

In his first two seasons working the quarterbacks, Stutzmann coached two-year starter Dru Brown, who finished his Hawai'i career sixth on the school's career passing list (5,273) and eighth in total offense (5,586),

The Honolulu native helped the Hawaii offense earn 12 All-Mountain West selections in his four seasons highlighted by 2018 Biletnikoff Award Semifinalist and Polynesian Football Hall of Fame College Player of the Year Finalist wideout John Ursua who was later selected in the seventh round of the 2019 NFL Draft by the Seattle Seahawks.

Prior to his return to Hawai'i, Stutzmann coached two seasons (2014-15) at Emory & Henry College in Virginia where he served as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. As the primary play-caller for E&H's spread-and-shred offense, the Wasps averaged 36.6 ppg and 466 yards/g in his first season and 32.7 ppg and 440.0 yards of total offense in 2015.

Stutzmann spent two years (2012-13) coaching the wide receivers at Weber State in Ogden, Utah and one season (2011) at Division III Rhodes College in Memphis, Tenn., where he helped the Lynx average nearly 300 passing yards per game, which ranked 15th nationally.

Stutzmann began his college coaching career as a graduate assistant at UH under former head coach Greg McMackin during the 2008 season and was part of the offensive coaching staff which included Nick Rolovich and Brian Smith. Stutzmann followed with a one-year stint as wide receivers coach at Portland State (2009), his first full-time coaching position, where he took charge of implementing the pass game and oversaw the kickoff returners and worked the 2010 season as a graduate assistant at Memphis.

Stutzmann coached at Kalaheo High School in Kailua, O'ahu, where he spent the 2003 seasons as a teacher and offensive coordinator before moving on to his alma mater, Saint Louis School, where he coached for four years (2004-07), three as junior varsity head coach. At Saint Louis, he coached Marcus Mariota, the 2014 Heisman Trophy winner and second overall pick in the 2015 NFL Draft for the Tennessee Titans.

Stutzmann was a four-year letterman (1998-2001) and three-year starter at Hawai'i where he ranked fifth on the school's all-time receiving list (2,025 yards) and was a two-time honorable-mention all-WAC selection. He earned his bachelor's degree in 2002 and master's degree in 2014, both at Hawai'i.

KYLE KRANTZ

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR / FIRST YEAR

Kyle Krantz begins his first season as Washington State's special teams coordinator after being hired in February of 2021.

Krantz, a coaching veteran with 12 years of experience, including 10 seasons in the SEC as part of four different programs, arrived in Pullman having spent the previous five years (2016-20) at the University of South Carolina under head coach Will Muschamp. Most recently, he served as the Gamecocks' special teams coordinator while also working with the defensive backs for the 2020 season. He served as the special teams assistant while coaching the Nickels and the SAM linebackers for two seasons (2018-19) after beginning his time in Columbia, S.C. as a defensive analyst before moving to an on-field coaching position in 2018.

Krantz helped the Gamecocks to three bowl appearances during his time, the 2016 Birmingham Bowl, 2017 Outback Bowl and 2018 Belk Bowl.

Prior to South Carolina, Krantz spent the 2015 season as a defensive analyst on Gus Malzahn's staff at Auburn, working again with Coach Muschamp, before reuniting with Muschamp in Columbia the following season.

A 2009 graduate of the University of Northern Colorado with a degree in sociology, Krantz began his career as a student assistant for the defense at UNC from 2007-08 before becoming the linebackers coach at his alma mater from 2009-10. During the summer of 2011, he worked as an offensive quality control volunteer at Northwestern.

Krantz joined the Kentucky staff prior to the start of the 2011 season, serving as a graduate assistant for the Wildcats. After two seasons in Lexington, he moved on to the University of Florida, where he was placed in charge of quality control for the offense in 2013, working primarily with the wide receivers, and for the defense in 2014, working with the defensive backs under head coach Muschamp.

A native of Denver, Colo., Krantz, 34, and his wife, Brittany, have one daughter, Amelia.

JOHN RICHARDSON

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH / RECRUITING COORDINATOR / CORNERBACKS / SECOND YEAR

John Richardson begins his second season on the Cougar coaching staff coaching the cornerbacks and serving as the recruiting coordinator and was promoted to Assistant Head Coach following the 2020 season.

In his first season in Pullman, the Washington State defense produced four All-Pac-12 Conference selections including cornerback Jaylen Watson, who earned honorable mention and saw the Cougars lead the league with eight forced fumbles in a shortened 2020 season.

Richardson, who owns 12 years of college coaching experience, arrived at Washington State after spending the previous six seasons as the cornerbacks coach for the University of Wyoming. Richardson helped the 2019 Cowboys finish sixth in the country in red zone defense, No. 11 in the country in rush defense (107.1) and scoring defense (17.8), No. 40 in tackles-for-loss (83) and No. 43 in total defense. Senior cornerback Tyler Hall capped his career earning All-Mountain West Conference honorable mention for the second straight season.

In 2018, Wyoming's defense was among the best in the nation, finishing the season No. 19 in total defense (326.2), No. 25 in rushing defense (129.5), No. 28 in scoring defense (22.0) and No. 32 in pass defense (196.7). Hall who earned All-MWC Honorable Mention as a junior in 2018.

The 2017 Cowboy defense become one of the best groups in the country as they led the country in takeaways (38), ranked ninth in scoring defense (17.5), were first in fumbles recovered (18), second in interceptions (20), eighth in defensive touchdowns scored (4), No. 13 in pass defense (174.9) and No. 23 in total defense (335.2). Richardson coached second-team All-Mountain West cornerback Rico Gafford who went on to play in the NFLPA Collegiate Bowl and signed a free-agent contract with the Tennessee Titans.

As a unit, the 2016 Cowboy defense ranked first in the country with five defensive touchdowns, No. 10 with 25 takeaways, No. 15 with 12 fumble recoveries, No. 22 with 15 interceptions including five from Richardson's cornerbacks. In 2015, Richardson coached a Wyoming defense that ranked No. 26 in the nation in fewest passing yards allowed (196.9).

Prior to coming to Wyoming, Richardson coached the North Dakota State cornerbacks in 2012-13. He was a member of the NDSU staff from 2009-13, spending the 2009-10 seasons as a student assistant before becoming a graduate assistant coach in 2011. During his time on the NDSU coaching staff, the Bison won three consecutive national titles in 2011-13.

From 2011-13, Richardson helped NDSU to a 43-2 (.956) overall record and a 22-2 (.917) Missouri Valley Football Conference (MVFC) mark on way to its three consecutive FCS national titles. The 2013 NDSU squad became the first undefeated (15-0) FCS National Champion since Marshall went 15-0 to win the 1996 title. NDSU extended its winning streak to 24 consecutive games with the 2013 FCS Championship, tying both the FCS and NDSU records for consecutive victories.

As a coach at North Dakota State (2011-13), Richardson helped the Bison lead the nation in scoring defense for three consecutive seasons, holding opponents to only 12.7 ppg in 2011, 11.5 ppg in 2012 and only 11.3 ppg in 2013.

The 2013 Bison defense also ranked third in the FCS in total defense (255.9); second in the nation in pass efficiency defense (97.5), third in rushing defense (91.3) and eighth in passing yards allowed (164.6). In addition to leading the nation in scoring defense in 2012, NDSU led the country in total defense (234.5), allowed the fewest first downs (12.6), ranked second in pass defense (140.6) and fourth in rushing defense (93.9).

In 2012-13, Richardson coached Consensus First Team All-America cornerback Marcus Williams. Williams signed a free-agent contract with the Houston Texans following the 2014 NFL Draft and defensive back Bryan Shepherd also signed as a free agent with the Washington Redskins following the 2014 NFL Draft.

Richardson was a two-year starter at cornerback for NDSU (2007-08) where he made 85 tackles over his two-year career, 19 pass breakups, two interceptions and two fumble recoveries. He began his college career in his home state of California at Mt. San Antonio Community College.

Originally from Compton, Calif., Richardson earned Missouri Valley Football Conference Honor Roll honors his senior year of 2008 and completed his bachelor's degree in sports and recreation leadership in 2010 from North Dakota State.

He and his wife, Sahfiya, have one son, John Michael, and one daughter, Simone Faith.

ANDRE ALLEN

WIDE RECEIVERS / SECOND YEAR

Andre Allen begins his second season coaching the Cougar wide receivers.

In his first season in Pullman, the run-n-shoot offense saw five Cougars earn All-Pac-12 Conference honors while producing the Pac-12's top red zone offense and third-best passing game. Allen saw receivers Renard Bell and Travell Harris each earn All-Pac-12 Conference honors after finishing among the league leaders in catches and in the top three for receiving yards-per-game.

Allen worked two seasons in the same role for head coach Nick Rolovich at Hawai'i, helping UH to back-to-back winning seasons including a 10-5 mark and Hawaii Bowl win over BYU in 2019. The San Francisco native spent his previous 27 seasons coaching at the City College of San Francisco, helping CCSF to three national titles (2007, 2011, 2015) and eight Northern California Championships. At CCSF, Allen coached graduated Cougar wide receiver Easop Winston Jr., quarterback Anthony Gordon and offensive lineman Robert Valencia, and also coached Rolovich who played quarterback at CCSF (1998-99).

In his two seasons in Honolulu, Allen saw the Hawai'i offense improve in total offense and passing offense while producing the country's ninth-rated passing offense in 2018 and the fifth-best passing attack in 2019. In 2019, three of Allen's receivers recorded 1,000-yard seasons, just the sixth team in NCAA FBS history to have a trio of 1,000-yard receivers in the same season. A pair of Hawaii receivers earned All-Mountain West Conference accolades including first-team selection Cedric Byrd II and second-team pick JoJo Ward who caught 10 and 11 touchdowns, respectively.

In 2018, the Hawai'i offense finish ninth in the country in passing offense and wide receiver John Ursua led the country with 16 touchdown catches and fifth in receiving yards (1,343). Ursua was a Biletnikoff Award Semifinalist, a Polynesian Football Hall of Fame College Player of the Year Finalist and was selected in the seventh round of the 2019 NFL Draft by the Seattle Seahawks.

Prior to joining Rolovich in Hawai'i, Allen spent 27 seasons at the City College of San Francisco where he coached 26 players who earned FBS scholarships including recently graduated Cougar wide receiver Easop Winston Jr., quarterback Anthony Gordon and offensive lineman Robert Valencia. Allen was CCSF's wide receivers coach (1992-96), passing coordinator and wide receivers coach (1997-2004) and offensive coordinator (2005-17). Allen helped CCSF capture three national titles (2007, 2011, 2015), eight Northern California championships, 21 conference titles and coached every Top-10 receiver in the CCSF record book led by Winston Jr.

At CCSF, Allen organized and managed the Athletic Scholastic Achievement Study Hall Program for student-athletes where 90 percent of his players successfully transferred into four-year schools.

Allen played at CCSF (1987-89) and at the University of Tennessee – Martin (1989-91). He earned his bachelor's degree in liberal arts from Ashford.

MARK BANKER

SAFETIES / SECOND YEAR

Mark Banker begins his second season as the Cougars' safeties coach.

In his first season in Pullman, the Washington State defense produced four All-Pac-12 Conference selections, including safety Daniel Isom, who earned honorable mention after making a team-high 32 tackles and saw the Cougars lead the league with eight forced fumbles in a shortened 2020 season.

Banker worked two seasons as the assistant head coach and inside linebackers coach for head coach Nick Rolovich at Hawai'i, helping UH to back-to-back bowl games, including a 10-5 mark and Hawaii Bowl win over BYU in 2019. Banker, a 40-year coaching veteran, mentored a pair of All-Mountain West Conference selections the last two seasons in Honolulu led by 2019 NFL second-round pick linebacker Jahlani Tavai who appeared in 15 games including six as a starter for the Detroit Lions as a rookie.

Prior to Hawai'i, Banker spent 20 years coaching alongside Mike Riley at Nebraska (2), OSU (14), San Diego Chargers (3), and USC (1), has been a part of eight bowl teams at OSU, two at Nebraska and compiled a combined 7-3 postseason record.

Banker served as Nebraska's defensive coordinator from 2015-16 where his defense ranked ninth nationally in rushing yards allowed (109.8) in 2015 and was No. 14 nationally in interceptions (16) and No. 30 in total defense (363.7) in 2016.

Banker spent 12 years as Oregon State's defensive coordinator (2003-14), turning the Beavers into one of the best defenses in the Pac-10/12. The Plymouth, Mass. native coached the linebackers and safeties at OSU and saw his 2007 defense lead the nation in rushing defense, rank eighth in total defense, fourth in sacks, and sixth in tackles for loss. The 2006 defense finished third in sacks and led the nation in tackles-for-loss yardage while the 2003 defense ranked in the Top-10 in total defense, rushing defense, and interceptions. Five of his defenders were selected in the 2009 NFL Draft while more than 70 defensive players earned all-conference honors at OSU.

Banker spent three seasons with the NFL's San Diego Chargers (1999-2001) as the cornerbacks coach and was elevated to interim defensive coordinator midway through the 2001 season. The Chargers ranked No. 11 in the league in total defense and first in rushing defense in 2001.

Banker has also had stints with Stanford (2002), Oregon State (1997-98), USC (1996), and Cal State Northridge (1981-94), the latter of which he spent 11 years as defensive coordinator and made his first stint with Hawai'i after serving as special teams and outside linebackers coach in 1995. He began his coaching career at his alma mater, Springfield College (1978-80), where he was a graduate assistant and quarterbacks and running backs coach.

Banker earned his bachelor's degree in physical education from Springfield College

A.J. Cooper begins his second season as the Cougars' Edge's coach.

In his first season in Pullman, the Washington State defense produced four All-Pac-12 Conference selections including Edge Brennan Jackson who finished the shortened season fourth on team with 19 tackles and second with 3.5 tackles-for-loss and tied for the team lead. The Cougar defense led the league with eight forced fumbles and was fourth in rush defense (154.8), a 30-yard improvement from the previous season.

Cooper, who owns 15 years of college coaching experience, arrived at Washington State after spending six seasons working the defensive ends and special teams for the University of Wyoming. Prior to the 2019 season, Cooper was promoted to serve as the Cowboys' defensive run-game coordinator. He worked the previous eight seasons at North Dakota State including the final five seasons coaching the Bison defensive ends. For Wyoming, he coached five All-Mountain West Conference players including one Special Teams Player of the Year and one Freshman All-American on the defensive line.

Cooper helped the 2019 Cowboys finish sixth in the country in red zone defense, No. 11 in the country in rush defense (107.1) and scoring defense (17.8), No. 40 in tackles-for-loss (83) and No. 43 in total defense. Cooper helped coach All-Mountain West Conference second-team selection punt returner Austin Conway and saw redshirt-freshman defensive end Solomon Byrd earn Freshman All-America honors from the Football Writers of America.

In 2018, Wyoming's defense was among the best in the nation, finishing the season No. 19 in total defense (326.2), No. 25 in rushing defense (129.5), No. 28 in scoring defense (22.0) and No. 32 in pass defense (196.7). On special teams, Wyoming's field-goal unit protected kicker Cooper Rothe, who led the nation in field-goal percentage at 94.1 percent (16-of-17), was named the 2018 Mountain West Special Teams Player of the Year and First Team All-MWC, and a Lou Groza Award Finalist.

The 2017 Cowboy defense become one of the best groups in the country as they led the country in takeaways (38), ranked ninth in scoring defense (17.5), were first in fumbles recovered (18), second in interceptions (20), eighth in defensive touchdowns scored (4), No. 13 in pass defense (174.9) and No. 23 in total defense (335.2). Cowboy special teams matched the impressive numbers, leading the country in kickoff return (28.3) and No. 30 in the nation in punt return (10.2) while the punt return coverage team was No. 27 nationally (4.7). Individually, Cowboy kickoff returner Tyler Hall earned Honorable Mention All-Mountain West honors as a sophomore.

As a unit, the 2016 Cowboy defense ranked first in the country with five defensive touchdowns, No. 10 with 25 takeaways, No. 15 with 12 fumble recoveries, No. 22 with 15 interceptions. For Cooper, sophomore defensive end Kevin Prosser ranked ninth in the conference with 6.5 sacks. Several of Cooper's special teams units excelled as well, the punt team ranked No. 24 in the nation in punt return defense (4.6) while net punting (39.3) ranked No. 31 in the country behind two-time Ray Guy Award Watch List punter Ethan Wood. The kick return team was fourth in the Mountain West (22.2) led by kick returner D.J. May who earned second-team All-MWC honors after averaging 27.9 yards-per-return, ninth-best in the country.

The 2015 season saw Wyoming senior defensive end Eddie Yarbrough earn second-team All-MWC honors and was named to the Rotary Lombardi Award Watch List and the Ted Hendricks Award Watch List as a junior and senior. He concluded his Wyoming playing career as the all-time leader in tackles for loss (39) and ninth all-time in career sacks (21.5), and signed as a free agent with the Denver Broncos following the 2016 NFL Draft. Several special teams' units also performed well in 2015 led by the kickoff coverage team who led the league in allowing 21.3 yards per kickoff return while the punt coverage team ranked was No. 21 nationally (4.6). The Cowboys averaged 23.5 yards per kick return to rank No. 29 in the nation led by kick returner D.J. May averaged 26.2 yards per kickoff return to rank No. 24 in the NCAA.

In 2014, Cooper also coached defensive end Yarbrough, who earned First Team All-Mountain West Conference honors as a junior.

From 2009 through 2013, Cooper coached the North Dakota State defensive ends and added special teams to his coaching responsibilities in 2013. He helped NDSU to a 43-2 (.956) overall record and a 22-2 (.917) Missouri Valley Football Conference (MVFC) mark on way to its three consecutive FCS national titles. The 2013 NDSU squad became the first undefeated (15-0) FCS National Champion since Marshall went 15-0 to win the 1996 title. NDSU extended its winning streak to 24 consecutive games with the 2013 FCS Championship, tying both the FCS and NDSU records for consecutive victories.

As the defensive ends coach at North Dakota State, Cooper helped the Bison lead the nation in scoring defense for three consecutive seasons (2011-13), holding opponents to only 12.7 ppg in 2011, 11.5 ppg in 2012 and only 11.3 ppg in 2013. The 2013 Bison defense also ranked third in the FCS in total defense (255.9, second in pass efficiency defense (97.59), third in rushing defense (91.3) and eighth in passing yards allowed (164.6).

In addition to leading the nation in scoring defense in 2012, NDSU led the nation in total defense (234.5), was first in first downs allowed (12.67), second in pass defense (140.6) and fourth in rushing defense (93.9).

Prior to becoming the defensive ends coach in 2009, Cooper worked with the offensive line and tight ends as a student assistant and graduate assistant with the program from 2006-08.

Prominent players who Cooper coached at North Dakota State included: Coulter Boyer, who in 2011 earned Third Team All-America honors as a defensive end from Beyond Sports College Network and Honorable Mention All-America honors from College Sports Journal. Cooper coached defensive end Cole Jirik, who was a Second Team All-America selection by College Sports Madness in 2012. A third NDSU defensive end who Cooper coached and went on to earn All-Conference recognition was Kyle Emanuel, who was a Second Team All-MVFC selection in 2013.

An outstanding tight end for the Bison in the 2004 and 2005 seasons, Cooper earned Honorable Mention All-America honors from the Football Gazette in '05. He caught 24 passes for 473 yards (19.7 yards per catch) and scored four touchdowns as a senior. He was selected First Team All-Great West Football Conference as a senior, and also earned All-Northwest Region honors. Following his college playing career, Cooper signed a free-agent contract with the Green Bay Packers in 2006.

Originally from Phoenix, Ariz., Cooper began his college playing career at Glendale Community College where he led all junior college tight ends in three different categories as a sophomore, receptions (44), receiving yards (578) and touchdown receptions (8).

Cooper earned his bachelor's degree from NDSU in criminal justice in 2006. He and his wife, Amanda, who is a former NDSU women's basketball player, were married in July 2011. They have two sons, Carter Johnson and Cameron Myles.

RICKY LOGO

DEFENSIVE TACKLES / SECOND YEAR

Ricky Logo begins his second season on the Cougar Football coaching staff as the defensive tackles coach.

In his first season in Pullman, the Washington State defense produced four All-Pac-12 Conference selections, led the league with eight forced fumbles and was fourth in rush defense (154.8), a 30-yard improvement from the previous season.

Logo worked the 2019-19 seasons coaching the defensive line for head coach Nick Rolovich at Hawai'i, helping UH to back-to-back bowl games including a 10-5 mark and Hawaii Bowl win over BYU in 2019.

Logo, who owns 20+ years of coaching experience and helped his teams to eight bowl games, coached four All-Mountain West Conference selections the last two seasons in Honolulu and saw the 2018 defense tally 30 sacks, the most for UH since 2011.

Prior to Hawai'i, Logo worked three seasons at Colorado State (2015-17) as defensive line coach, helping lead the Rams to three bowl appearances. CSU's 2016 defense ranked second in the Mountain West in tackles and No. 42 nationally in tackles-for-loss per game while the 2015 teams ranked No. 21 nationally in tackles-for-loss per game, No. 10 in passing yards allowed and No. 26 in third-down defense.

Prior to CSU, Logo coached the defensive line at Houston (2012-14), helping the Cougars to a 2014 Lockheed Martin Armed Forces Bowl victory and worked the 2011 season at Furman.

Logo coached four seasons in the SEC at Vanderbilt (2007-10) and was part of a staff that led the Commodores to their first winning season since 1982. Logo also worked five seasons at Troy University, two as co-defensive coordinator where he coached a pair of future NFL All-Pro linemen in Osi Umenyiora of the New York Giants and Demarcus Ware of the Dallas Cowboys.

Logo began his coaching career at Tennessee-Chattanooga in 1995 where he worked six seasons as the Mocs' defensive line coach before being promoted to defensive coordinator for one season in 2001. He coached one season at Western Carolina (2002), where he also assumed the title as assistant head coach.

Logo played nose tackle at North Carolina State, helping the Wolfpack to four consecutive bowl games. As a senior in 1992, he was named team captain, earned All-ACC and third-team All-America honors and played in the Hula Bowl, the Japan All-Star Game and the East-West Shrine Game.

The Santa Ana, Calif. native earned his bachelor's degree in sociology from North Carolina State.

MARK WEBER

OFFENSIVE LINE / SECOND YEAR

Mark Weber is in his second season coaching the Cougars' offensive line.

In his first season in Pullman, the run-n-shoot offense saw five Cougars earned All-Pac-12 Conference honors while producing the Pac-12's top red zone offense, third-best passing game and the league's seventh-best rusher. Weber coached three offensive linemen who earned All-Pac-12 honors led by second-team right tackle Abraham Lucas, who earned a spot on the ProFootballFocus College National Team of the Week following the win at Oregon State.

Weber worked two seasons (2018-19) in the same role for head coach Nick Rolovich at Hawai'i where he helped UH to back-to-back winning seasons including a 10-5 mark and Hawaii Bowl win over BYU in 2019. Weber owns 39 years of coaching experience including in the Pac-12 Conference at UCLA and Oregon State and in the ACC at North Carolina. He has coached in 19 bowl games and put a number of offensive linemen into the NFL including 1998 Outland Trophy winner Kris Farris at UCLA.

Weber saw his offensive line block for a Hawai'i offense that improved in total offense and passing offense in each of the past two seasons while producing the country's ninth-rated passing offense in 2018 and fifth-best passing attack in 2019. The Van Nuys, Calif. native produced four All-Mountain West Conference selections the past two seasons in Honolulu while protecting two-time All-MWC quarterback Cole McDonald who passed for 3,875 yards and 36 touchdowns in 2018 and 4,135 yards and 33 touchdowns in 2019. Hawaii also rushed for 2,009 yards and 21 touchdowns as a team in 2019 led by Miles Reed's 908 rushing yards.

Weber joined the Hawai'i coaching staff after working the 2016 season as the run game coordinator and offensive coach at Fresno State, his second stint with the Bulldogs. During his first stop in Fresno (2004-05), Weber saw his offensive line average 40.2 ppg and 227.5 rushing yards in 2004 and 37.8 ppg with just 14 sacks allowed in 2005, which tied for eighth-fewest in the country. In his first two seasons at Fresno State, Weber coached 2005 NFL first-round pick Logan Mankins who went on to play 11 seasons in the NFL and was named to seven Pro Bowls including six with the New England Patriots.

Weber spent three years at Utah State (2013-15) as offensive line and associate head coach, where he mentored 10 linemen who earned All-MWC honors, including second-team All-American and Rimington Trophy finalist Tyler Larsen. Weber has made four stops at Mountain West schools – Fresno State (2004-05, '16), Utah State (2013-15), UNLV (1994-96) and Nevada (1993) and twice coached in the Pac-10/12 – UCLA (1997-2003) and Oregon State (1987-90). Weber also coached BYU offensive line from 2007-12 where the Cougars reached bowl games all seven seasons while producing six first-team All-MWC selections highlighted by All-Americans Dallas Reynolds and Matt Reynolds.

In Weber's time at UCLA (1997-2003), he mentored three freshmen All-Americans and six players who garnered all-Pac-10 honors including 1998 Outland Trophy winner Kris Farris. Weber, who has coached on five conference championship teams, helped the Bruins capture the 1998 Pac-10 Conference title and earned a trip to the 1999 Rose Bowl.

Weber started his coaching career as an assistant at Los Angeles Valley College in 1979 and later worked as a graduate assistant on the Idaho State team that went on to win the NCAA Division I-AA National Championship in 1981.

Weber earned his bachelor's degree in physical education at his alma mater Cal Lutheran in 1980 and his master's degree in physical education from Idaho State in 1981.

JASON CVERCKO

FOOTBALL CHIEF OF STAFF / SECOND YEAR

Washington State head coach Nick Rolovich announced Jan. 31, 2020 that Jason Cvercko has been hired to the Cougar Football coaching staff as the Chief of Staff.

Cvercko worked the past four seasons including the last two years in the same role for coach Rolovich at Hawai'i, helping UH to back-to-back winning seasons, including a 10-5 mark and Hawaii Bowl win over BYU in 2019. Cvercko spent his first two seasons as Hawaii's Director of Recruiting and Retention, and served as the pro football liaison at Hawai'i, Nevada and Stony Brook.

Cvercko made the move to Hawaii after one season as the coordinator of recruiting operations at the University of Nevada, where he worked alongside then-offensive coordinator Nick Rolovich, assisting a program that won the inaugural Arizona Bowl in 2015.

Prior to Nevada, Cvercko served as the director of football operations at Stony Brook University for three years (2012-14) and played a key role on the 2012 Big South Championship team that gave the Seawolves their second Division I Football Championship appearance and assisted the program in its move to the Colonial Athletic Association (CAA).

Cvercko worked at the University of Massachusetts in 2011 as a recruiting and operations assistant where he assisted with the Minutemen's jump to the Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS).

Cvercko worked as a recruiting intern at the University of Connecticut in 2009, assisted with UConn's first BCS Bowl appearance at the 2011 Fiesta Bowl and graduated with his bachelor's degree in physical education in 2011.

DWAIN BRADSHAW

HEAD STRENGTH & CONDITIONING COACH SECOND YEAR

Washington State head coach Nick Rolovich announced Jan. 31, 2020 that Dwain Bradshaw had been hired to the Cougar Football coaching staff as the head strength and conditioning coach.

Bradshaw worked the past season as the Director of Football Athletic Performance for coach Rolovich at Hawai'i, helping UH to a 10-5 mark and Hawaii Bowl win over BYU. Bradshaw's performance system consists of movement, strength/power, and mental conditioning – all of which are collectively integrated for the enhancement of each position group and athlete individually.

Bradshaw went to Hawaii from Texas Tech University under now Arizona Cardinals head coach Kliff Kingsbury. He spent 2018 as the Director of Multi-directional Movement for the Red Raider Football team while also specializing in the training of defensive backs.

Before working at Texas Tech, Bradshaw was a strength & conditioning coach at the University of Southern California where he helped the Trojans win the 2017 Pac-12 Conference Championship and play in the Cotton Bowl.

Bradshaw began his professional career in 2014 as a sports performance intern at his alma mater, Arizona State University, where he also played safety and linebacker. Bradshaw later became a graduate assistant at Auburn University from 2015-17. His primary roles at Auburn were working with defensive backs and assisting in the indoctrination of incoming freshman Stage-0 athletes. Bradshaw also assisted the athletic trainers in the athlete reconditioning and return to play program. He was a key contributor in the return of second-round draft picks running back Kerryon Johnson and defensive back Jamel Dean.

Bradshaw holds certifications for CSCCA-SCCC (Strength & Conditioning College Coach), NSCA-CSCS (Certified Strength & Conditioning Specialist), USAW Lv1 (USA Weight Lifting), FMS Lv1 (Functional Movement Screen), MAT Jump Start (Muscle Activation Techniques).

Bradshaw received his bachelor's degree in exercise and wellness at Arizona State University and his master's degree in adult education & leadership at Auburn University.

He is a native of Chino Hills, Calif.

MAC ALEXANDER

GRADUATE ASSISTANT - SPECIAL TEAMS / SECOND YEAR

Mac Alexander begins his second season with the Washington State Football program working with special teams as a graduate assistant.

In 2019, Alexander coached the safeties at Tarleton State where he helped TSU go 11-1 with a Lone State Conference title and a No. 4 final ranking. During the 2018 season, Alexander coached at Fort Lewis College working as the defensive coordinator and the defensive backs. Alexander worked the previous four seasons at Colorado Mesa where he coached defensive backs and served as the co-special teams coordinator during the 2016-17 seasons. Alexander spent two seasons as a graduate assistant at CMU (2014-15), coaching the defensive line and defensive backs.

Alexander played defensive back for Colorado Mesa (2009-11) and also played for the Mavericks basketball program from 2011-14. Alexander received his bachelor's degree in exercise science from Colorado Mesa in 2014 and his master's degree in human performance and physical education from Adams State University in 2016.

Alexander married his wife, Chazlyn in 2016.

JESSE BOBBIT

GRADUATE ASSISTANT - DEFENSE / SECOND YEAR

Jesse Bobbit begins his first season with the Washington State Football program working with the defense as a graduate assistant.

Bobbit joins Washington State after working the 2019 season in the same role at his alma mater, South Dakota State.

A native of Palatine, Illinois, Bobbit was a four-year letterwinner (2013-16) at linebacker for South Dakota State where he served as a team captain as a senior. Bobbit was a second-team all-Missouri Valley Football Conference selection in 2016, when he racked up a career-high 110 tackles as SDSU earned a share of the league title and advanced to the Football Championship Subdivision quarterfinals for the first time. His registered 306 tackles for his career, recording 90 or more each of his last three seasons.

Bobbit, who twice was honored on the Missouri Valley Football Conference All-Academic Team, graduated from SDSU in 2017 with a degree in physical education and a minor in health education. Following graduation, Bobbit taught elementary physical education in the Omaha Metro area and served as an assistant football coach at Bellevue West High School.

MAX SILVER

GRADUATE ASSISTANT - DEFENSE / FIRST YEAR

Max Silver begins his first season with the Washington State Football program working with the defensive line as a graduate assistant.

Silver joined WSU after spending the previous three seasons on the defensive staff at Eastern New Mexico where he served as the linebackers and defensive line coach. Silver tutored a defensive line unit in 2019 that created a reputation for being one of the Lone Star Conference's most disruptive groups, led by freshman Mazin Richards, who totaled the most sacks in the conference with 12.5 for the year and was named a D2CCA Third Team All-Super Region Four selection at season's end. Richards paired with senior Jamar Claibourne, who earned Honorable Mention All-LSC honors, to consistently effect opposing offenses throughout the season. The defensive unit ranked fourth in the conference in both total defense (360.3 ypg) and sacks (26) in 2019.

Silver began his tenure on staff at Eastern New Mexico as a graduate assistant in charge of the linebacker core in 2018, providing direction for a pair of All-LSC selections in Noah Sweitzer and Brad Hardin. Sweitzer was named a Second Team All-LSC selection while Hardin was an Honorable Mention All-LSC pick on a defense that ranked third in the LSC in scoring defense (22.1 ppg) and led the league in opponent fourth down attempts (30.4 percent).

The Orange, Calif. native began his coaching career at Fullerton College in 2017, helping the program to a record of 13-0 and a CCCAA National Championship. Silver coached the linebackers for that season, developing a unit that featured current UCLA standout Caleb Johnson, who was named a JUCO All-American at season's end.

Silver's playing career was cut short due to injury, but saw the former First Team All-Conference linebacker at of El Modena High School compete for a season on special teams and defense at Trinity International University and for a season at East Los Angeles College as well. Silver earned his master's degree in physical education with an emphasis in sports administration from Eastern New Mexico in 2020 after earning his bachelor's of science degree from the University of Hawaii at Manoa in December of 2015.

Silver was recently engaged to his longtime girlfriend, now fiancée, Cassie McDevitt.

OLIVEA VEA

VIDEO COORDINATOR / SECOND YEAR

Olivia Vea is in her second season as the video coordinator for Cougar football, reuniting with Coach Rolovich after being named to the position in February 2020.

Vea coordinates all videotaping for WSU Football, focusing on gameday, practices and workouts. She also produces highlight packages, specialty projects for the football staff as well as handles all video needs throughout the recruiting process.

Vea arrived a WSU after spending the previous 10 years at the University of Hawai'i, where she worked on Coach Rolovich's staff from 2016-19. In 2019, she was named the Collegiate Sports Video Association's Mountain West Video Coordinator of the Year.

Vea began at Hawai'i as a student manager in 2010 under head coach Greg McMackin and after two years, assumed a graduate assistant position on Norm Chow's staff. In 2015, she was promoted to video specialist, where she produced highlight videos and managed practices and game-day production and took over as video coordinator the following season.

Vea graduated from UH-Manoa in 2011 with a bachelor's degree in creative media. She is a 2007 graduate of Kaimuki High School in O'ahu, where she got her start in athletics and media production.

BAILEY WHITE

DIRECTOR OF CREATIVE VIDEO / FIRST YEAR

Bailey White begins her first season as the Cougars' Director of Creative Video after joining the program in July, 2021.

White worked the 2020 season as a Creative Video Producer for the Air Force Academy Athletic Corporation where she directed and edited the intro-video for five varsity sports, led video creation for all ticketed sports and developed and executed videos for Air Force Football. White also helped lead the video coverage for the 2020 NHL Stadium Series hosted at Falcon Stadium.

White worked two seasons (2018-19) as a video producer at Middle Tennessee State where she created content for all varsity sports and served as the lead video editor for men's basketball.

White played lacrosse at Radford University where she earned her bachelor's degree in communications in 2018.

TIM HEPLER

DIRECTOR OF CREATIVE BRANDING / FIRST YEAR

Tim Hepler begins his first season as the Cougars' Director of Creative Branding after joining the program in July, 2021.

Hepler worked the previous two seasons as the Director of Graphic Design for the Air Force Academy Athletic Corporation, overseeing the branding efforts across all 27 varsity sports. Prior to Air Force, Hepler was an Athletic Media Relations graduate assistant at Eastern Michigan (2017-18) where he served as the main contact for cross country, gymnastics and track and field programs, and the secondary contact for men's basketball and volleyball. Prior to EMU, Hepler was an Athletic Communications student assistant at Central Michigan (2014-17) where he worked as the main sports information contact for baseball and gymnastics.

Hepler earned his bachelor's degree in integrative public relations from Central Michigan in 2017.

BRYCE OLDROYD

DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL DIGITAL MEDIA / FIFTH YEAR

Bryce Oldroyd joined Washington State Athletics in 2016 as the Director of Football Digital Media for the Cougars.

Oldroyd has been a member of the WSU Football program for over five years now, beginning as a graphic designer for the team. Bryce began working with Washington State initially as a media technical assistant for WSU Global Campus, and two years later he the moved on to working as a camera operator for WSU Athletics where he operated sideline cameras for the football video board.

He is currently working on completing his bachelor's degree in journalism and media production and sport management from Washington State University.

WASHINGTON STATE AT OREGON STATE

Nov. 7, 2020 • Reser Stadium • Att.: 0 • TV: Fox Sports 1

CORVALLIS, Ore. – Jayden de Laura passed for two touchdowns and ran for a score in his college debut, leading Washington State to a 38-28 victory Saturday night over Oregon State in the Pac-12 opener for both schools. De Laura, a 6-foot, 195-pound freshman from Honolulu, completed 18 of 33 passes for 227 yards and also rushed for 43 yards. Deon McIntosh had 147 yards rushing and a touchdown as the Cougars amassed 456 total yards. Nick Rolovich got a win in his first game as coach at Washington State, which was without running back Max Borghi. The junior has 28 career touchdowns, including 16 last season. The Beavers rallied late behind quarterback Tristan Gebbia and cut the lead to 31-28 with 2:39 remaining on Jermar Jefferson's 15-yard run, and Gebbia's 2-point conversion pass to Trevon Bradford. But Washington State recovered the on-side kick and scored on the next play — a 44-yard touchdown run by Travell Harris. Gebbia passed for 329 yards and a touchdown, and Jefferson ran for 120 yards and three scores, but it wasn't enough for the Beavers, who haven't had a winning season since 2013. Washington State extended its lead to 28-7 on de Laura's 28-yard touchdown pass to Harris midway through the third quarter. Oregon State answered with Jefferson's 1-yard touchdown run to cut the lead to 28-14. McIntosh ran 49 yards on a third-and-10 draw play, and de Laura's 5-yard touchdown run on the next play gave the Cougars a 21-7 advantage early in the third quarter. THE TAKEAWAY Washington State: Jayden de Laura displayed a strong arm and a dual-threat capability. He should benefit from that experience heading into next week's home opener against Pac-12 favorite Oregon, which defeated Stanford 35-14 in its opening game Saturday. Oregon State: Oregon State's first three drives netted two yards and no first downs. Trailing by 21 points midway through the third quarter, the Beavers found their offensive rhythm a little too late. Defensively the Beavers pressured de Laura, but only had one sack and gave up too many big plays.

NO. 11 OREGON AT WASHINGTON STATE

Nov. 14, 2020 • Martin Stadium • Att.: 0 • TV: FOX

PULLMAN, Wash. – Tyler Shough threw for 312 yards and four touchdowns and No. 11 Oregon came back to beat Washington State 43-29 on Saturday night. Travis Dye caught two second-half touchdown passes to help Oregon improve to 2-0. The Ducks piled up 582 yards of total offense. Freshman Jayden de Laura threw for 321 yards and two touchdowns for Washington State (1-1), which led at halftime but could not stop the Ducks in the second half. Freshman defensive back Ayden Hector recovered three Oregon turnovers in the first half. Oregon scored 29 points in the second half, and it was the second straight game in which the Cougars have given up a lot of points after halftime. Oregon went 92 yards in 15 plays on its first possession, and Shough hit tight end DJ Johnson with a 13-yard scoring pass for a 7-0 lead. Washington State replied with an 18-yard touchdown pass from de Laura to Lucas Bacon. The Cougars attempted a 2-point conversion but de Laura's pass was incomplete. Dye fumbled on the next possession and Hector recovered for the Cougars near midfield. De Laura hit Renard Bell with a 44-yard reception and, three plays later, connected with Bell on a 4-yard touchdown pass for a 13-7 lead. Hector intercepted Shough's pass on Oregon's next possession but the Cougars had to punt. Oregon's CJ Verdell was stripped of the ball on their next possession and Hector pounced on the fumble for his third recovery. But the Cougars had to settle for Blake Mazza's 39-yard field goal. Mazza added a 49-yarder for a 19-7 lead with 20 seconds left in the first half. Oregon was not done. Shough completed a 57-yard pass to Jaylon Redd to the Oregon 3, and Verdell ran in for the touchdown to cut Washington State's halftime lead to 19-14. The Ducks shut down Washington State's offense in the third quarter, holding the Cougars to 30 yards. Meanwhile, Shough threw a 16-yard touchdown pass to Dye late in the third to lift the Ducks to a 21-19 lead. He added a short touchdown pass to Johnny Johnson in the opening seconds of the fourth to push the lead of 28-19. Washington State put together a drive to Oregon's 8, but had to settle for a 25-yard field goal by Mazza to cut Oregon's lead to 28-22. Oregon replied immediately as Shough fired a 71-yard scoring pass to Dye, and then ran in the conversion, to lift Oregon to a 36-22 lead with just over 8 minutes left. Deon McIntosh scored on a 1-yard-run with 4:40 left to cut Oregon's lead to 36-29. THE TAKEAWAY Oregon: The Ducks have won 17 of their past 19 games, and are on track to claim a second consecutive Pac-12 championship. They overcame three consecutive turnovers in the first half to win their first game in Pullman since 2014. Washington State: The game marked the home opener for Rolovich. The Cougars were picked to finish last in the Pac-12 North, but have looked better than that in their two games so far.

WASHINGTON STATE AT NO. 20 USC

Dec. 6, 2020 • Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum • Att.: 0 • TV: Fox Sports 1

LOS ANGELES – Amon-Ra St. Brown caught four touchdown passes from Kedon Slovis in a spectacular first quarter, and No. 16 Southern California cruised to a 38-13 victory over Washington State on Sunday night. Slovis threw five touchdown passes in the first half before finishing with 287 yards as the Trojans (4-0) returned from a one-week absence caused by a COVID-19 outbreak with a dominant performance on both sides of the ball against the Cougars (1-2), who hadn't played since Nov. 14. Talanoa Hufanga and Olaijah Griffin had interceptions in the first half for USC, which led 35-0 midway through the second quarter of a game moved back two nights to allow the Trojans to clear enough players from coronavirus protocol to play. St. Brown made college football history with touchdowns on every one of his four catches in the opening quarter, including two dazzling grabs made with backward dives on difficult throws by Slovis. Along with tying Robert Woods' USC record for TD catches in a game, the junior receiver tied the FBS record for touchdowns scored in any quarter and joined Duke's Corey Thomas in 1997 as the only players in FBS history to make four touchdown catches in a quarter. Freshman Jayden De Laura passed for 134 yards, threw two interceptions and lost a fumble for the Cougars, who showed some rustiness from their layoff. Washington State's secondary also was missing four of its eight regular rotational players — and it showed, although not much could have been done to stop most of St. Brown's impressive scoring catches. The Cougars also played without injured running back Max Borghi. Slovis' first pass was an incompletion, but he completed his next 18 straight passes into the third quarter. The sophomore's throws also had the tight spirals that were missing earlier this season when he got off to a shaky start in the follow-up to one of the most accurate freshman seasons for a quarterback in FBS history. Slovis hit St. Brown for TD catches of 7 and 22 yards on the Trojans' opening two drives. USC's interceptions — including Hufanga's pick of a deflected pass and an incredible hurdle of a would-be tackler on his 37-yard return to the Cougars 4 — then led to two more short TD catches for St. Brown. Vaughns then made a 35-yard TD grab on a beautiful throw from Slovis midway through the second quarter. Travell Harris rushed for Washington State's first touchdown 28 seconds before halftime. De Laura was inconsistent throughout the first three quarters, and he was replaced in the fourth by Gunner Cruz and Cammon Cooper in their Washington State debuts. Cruz threw his first touchdown pass to Renard Bell with 1:37 to play.

WASHINGTON STATE AT UTAH

SALT LAKE CITY – Ty Jordan ran for 154 yards and three touchdowns to rally Utah to a 45-28 victory over Washington State on Saturday. Britain Covey added a career-high 134 yards and a touchdown on six catches to help power the Utes' comeback effort. Backup quarterback Drew Lisk threw for 152 yards in relief of starter Jake Bentley. Utah (3-2, 3-2 Pac-12) outscored Washington State 38-0 in the second half to notch its third straight victory to end the 2020 season. Jayden De Laura threw for 204 yards, a touchdown, and an interception to lead the Cougars. Max Borghi added 95 yards and a touchdown on the ground for Washington State (1-3, 1-3). Lisk breathed new life into Utah's offense after Benchley got benched late in the second quarter. He led Utah on three straight second-half touchdown drives to erase a 21-point deficit. Jordan scored twice on the three drives and tied it at 28 with 12:01 left when he bounced outside on fourth-and-2 and sprinted 33 yards untouched down the sideline for the score. Washington State committed turnovers on its final four drives to open the door for Utah to take the lead and complete an improbable comeback. Clark Phillips snagged two of the turnovers himself. Phillips recovered a fumble by Borghi, setting up Jordan's 13-yard go-ahead run that gave Utah its first lead at 35-28. Then, the freshman returned an interception 36 yards for Utah's final score with 2:06 left. Justus Rogers forced Jordan to fumble on Utah's second drive of the game and Washington State took a 7-0 lead late in the first quarter when Borghi bounced outside and raced 8 yards for a touchdown. The Cougars extended their lead to 14-0 midway through the second quarter on an 11-yard sprint up the middle from Deon McIntosh. Borghi set up Washington State's second touchdown with a 37-yard run on third-and-9. Utah's offense finally showed some life when Covey caught a pass down the sideline and raced 91 yards to put the Utes on the board late in the second quarter. Covey's catch was the second-longest pass play in school history for Utah. The Cougars wasted no time answering the Utes. De Laura completed three passes to Jamire Calvin, capped by an 8-yard touchdown grab, to march Washington State 75 yards in four plays. Then, Bentley threw an interception two plays later to Jahad Woods, who returned it 36 yards to set up a 3-yard touchdown run by De Laura that gave the Cougars a 28-7 lead going into halftime. THE TAKEAWAY Washington State: The Cougars made a series of big plays on both sides of the ball to build a comfortable lead and then unraveled under intense defensive pressure over the final two quarters. Utah: The Utes struggled to get on track until making a change at quarterback on their final series before halftime. Lisk ran the offense during the second half and moved the chains like a poised veteran.

1916 ROSE BOWL

WSU 14, BROWN 0

January 1, 1916, Pasadena, Calif. – A crowd of 10,000 was on hand at the Pasadena Rose Bowl January 1 to watch as undefeated Washington State took on eastern power Brown University in the first of the continuous Rose Bowls. WSU used third and fourth quarter touchdown runs by Ralph Boone and Carl Dietz to shutout the Bruins 14-0. Brown entered the game a two-to-one favorite, despite a modest 5-3-1 record. The Bruins' 3-0 win over Yale was the key accomplishment that earned the Rhode Island team an invitation to play in the Rose Bowl. A cold spell, followed by a heavy rain and some snow for three days prior to the game, turned the playing field into a sea of mud that slowed both teams. Brown came close to scoring twice in the first half, but each time Washington State's defense, which had allowed just one field goal and one touchdown all season, rose to the task and halted the Bruins short of the goal line, once at the four yard line. Bruin star Fritz Pollard gained just 47 yards in 13 carries. Pollard later became the first black named to a Walter Camp All-America team and was the first black head coach in the National Football League. In the second half WSU's size advantage began to pay off as the Cougars took command, scoring once in each quarter. WSU's preparation for the game had been, to say the least, odd. Coach William "Lone Star" Dietz, out of the Carlisle Indian School, and his Cougar squad served as extras in the football film "Tom Brown of Harvard" each morning, then practiced for the bowl game during the afternoon. Each WSU player earned $100 for the 14 mornings of movie work. During practice sessions, Dietz appeared in his "classic" coaching attire: a silk hat, Prince Albert cutaway coat, striped pants, yellow gloves, and a walking stick. Originally known as the Pasadena Tournament of Roses East-West game (it was 1923 when the real Rose Bowl facility was completed that the name changed), the WSU-Brown game was played at Tournament Park.

1931 ROSE BOWL

ALABAMA 24, WSU 0

January 1, 1931, Pasadena, Calif. - The Alabama Crimson Tide used a second-quarter blitz, including touchdown runs of one and 43 yards by quarterback Monk Campbell, to post a 24-0 win over previously undefeated Washington State in the 17th Rose Bowl game, viewed by 65,000 fans. Alabama's coach was Wallace Wade, who had been a member of the Brown University team that lost to WSU in the 1916 Rose Bowl. Wade, during his career, coached in five Rose Bowls.

"Babe" Hollingbery's fifth Cougar team went a perfect 9-0-0 to earn a Rose Bowl berth in 1930, including a 6-0 mark during the Pacific Coast Conference schedule. Included in the list of Cougar victims were California 16-0, USC 7-6, Washington 3-0 and Villanova 13-0. Two members of the WSU team later earned recognition in the College Football Hall of Fame, Mel Hein and Glen "Turk" Edwards.

1981 HOLIDAY BOWL

#14 BYU 38, #20 WSU 36

December 18, 1981, San Diego - Three games in one was more than the 52,000-plus fans at San Diego's Jack Murphy Stadium paid for, but three games is what they saw as the Brigham Young Cougars held on to defeate the Washington State Cougars 38-36. The BYU squad won the first game, a 31-minute affair that generated a 31-7 lead for the team from Provo. The next 25 minutes just as convincingly belonged to WSU 29-7. In the end, however, the game belonged to BYU as much for defense as anything. They stopped the Pullman team with just over three minutes to play by forcing a punt, then ran out the clock to preserve the win. Jim McMahon, in his last collegiate game, completed 27 of 43 passes for 342 yards and three touchdowns. More importantly, he did not throw an interception. The WSU Cougars used the running of Don LaBomme and quarterback Ricky Turner to baffle the BYU team, especially in the second half. Turner gained 92 yards in 12 carries and scored twice, while LaBomme added 79 yards in 14 carries and scored once. Robert Williams and Mike Martin also scored for the Cougars. WSU's failure on a two-point conversion late in the third quarter, an interception BYU's Ron Holmoe returned 35 yards for a touchdown on the third play of the third quarter, and a key sack of Casper on WSU's last possession loomed big in a game that had numerous turning points.

1988 ALOHA BOWL

#18 WSU 24, #14 HOUSTON 22

December 25, 1988, Honolulu - Washington State scored 24 second-quarter points and forced a last-second Houston turnover in notching a 24-22 win over the Texan Cougars Christmas Day. The bowl appearance was WSU's second of the 1980s and evened the Cougars bowl record to 2-2. In a close game there are many heros, but for WSU, none stood out more than senior Victor Wood. He picked up a fumble early in the second quarter and zipped five yards for a touchdown that put his Cougars ahead 7-3. On WSU's next possession, Wood caught a 15-yard scoring pass from Timm Rosenbach to put WSU up 14-3 and well on its way to a bowl victory viewed by a national ABC-TV audience. Wood's heroics were catching as WSU added a Jason Hanson 33-yard field goal and another touchdown, this one by Rosenbach, before halftime to put Washington State in command 24-9. WSU limited the Texas visitors to just five first half firstdowns, 46 yards rushing, and 77 yards passing before intermission. The Cougars picked off two Houston passes, one each by Shawn Landrum and Vernon Todd. In the end, however, it was Tuineau Alipate's hard hit that forced a Houston fumble recovered by Artie Holmes at the WSU five yard line. James Dixon was the recipient of Alipate's jarring tackle after catching a David Dacus pass over the middle that appeared for a moment to set up a potential game-winning score by Houston. The Cougars then controlled the ball for the final 2:44, with a key six-yard Rosenbach to Tim Stallworth pass giving WSU the much-needed first down just before the game ended.

1992 COPPER BOWL

#18 WSU 31, UTAH 28

December 29, 1992, Tucson, Ariz. - Perhaps no college bowl game following the 1992 gridiron season was more offensive minded than the Copper Bowl matchup between WSU and Utah, but after all the running and passing that accounted for more than 1,100 yards, the deciding play was a 22-yard field goal by WSU's Aaron Price. The Cougars scored 21 unanswered points in the first quarter and one additional score just before halftime for a 28-14 lead. WSU then held on until Price gave them their final lead with 5:08 to play. Even then, they had to watch anxiously as Chris Yergensen's 20-yard chip shot sailed wildly to the left with 3:18 remaining. Though the 40,000-plus fans left the stadium talking about the offensive plays that stood out, it was WSU's defense in the fourth quarter that made this win possible. The Utes scored twice in the second quarter and added two more scores to pull even with a quarter to play. Both teams then turned to their defenses. The key play came with 6:29 to play when Utah's Frank Dolce avoided a strong WSU rush and hooked up with Henry Lusk on a short sideline pass. John Rushing then stripped Lusk of the ball and Singor Mobley scooped it up at the Utah 36 yard line. Fifteen yards later, at the Utah 21, Mobley was dragged down, setting up the Cougars with great field position. Drew Bledsoe immediately drove the Cougars to the Utah five yard line before turning the scoring chores over to Price. Like he did the closing seconds of WSU's 23-20 win over Arizona in the same stadium early in the season, Price came through with the kick. Bledsoe completed 30 of 46 passes for a school record 476 yards. Phillip Bobo caught TD passes of 87 (equalling a school record) and 48 yards, and Shaumbe Wright- Fair picked up 123 yards rushing and scored on a pair of three-yard line smashes.

1994 ALAMO BOWL

#24 WSU 10, BAYLOR 3

December 31, 1994, San Antonio - The Washington State offense scored on the opening drive of the game and on the last play of the second quarter to provide all the points the Cougar defense needed as WSU held off Baylor's late challenge in a 10-3 win at the second annual Builders Square Alamo Bowl before a crowd of 44,106. Despite some anxious moments in the closing seconds of the game, the Cougar defense made those 10 points stand up by limiting the record-setting Bear offense to eight first downs, 151 yards in total offense and just one field goal. The Cougars did something against Baylor they had not done all season, take the opening kickoff and drive the length of the field for a touchdown. The drive totaled 91 yards, equalling the longest scoring drive of the season, and ended when Kevin Hicks busted through the left side of the line from one yard out to put WSU on top 7-0. The score came six minutes, 32 seconds after the kickoff. WSU's offense provided three more points just before halftime to give the Cougs a 10-0 lead at intermission. Taking the ball after Baylor's Jarvis VanDyke missed his second field goal attempt of the first half, WSU drove from its own 30 yard line to the Baylor 20 yard line, where Tony Truant banged home a 37-yard field goal with two seconds left in the first half. A sideline pass to Jay Dumas for a key first down, then another similar pass to Albert Kennedy put the ball in perfect position for Truant. Davis, named the game's most valuable offensive player, hit six of eight passes on the drive. Davis, who completed 27 of 35 passes for 286 yards, gave Cougar fans a few anxious minutes in the third quarter when he took a hard blow to the back while scrambling out of the pocket. He was able to return one play later and finished the game. Defensively WSU was especially tough in the first half. Baylor came into the game averaging nearly 33 points per game and 382.4 yards per contest. In the first half WSU's defense, led by the game's most valuable defensive player, Ron Childs, limited the Bears to just 41 net yards, 24 rushing and 17 passing. Childs had 10 tackles in the game, including eight solo, of which two were for negative yardage. Only on its last possession did Baylor come close to the WSU endzone, where Todd Jensen, a senior who backed up John Rushing all year, picked off a Jeff Watson pass to halt any Baylor hope of scoring. The bowl victory was WSU's second in the last three years and third in seven years. Joining Childs defensively were Chris Hayes with seven tackles, Mark Fields with six and Chad Eaton with five.

#1 MICHIGAN 21, #8 WSU 16

January 1, 1998, Pasadena, Calif. - The Washington State Cougars, making their first Rose Bowl appearance in 67 years, pushed national champion and number one ranked Michigan to the last play of the game before falling to the Wolverines 21-16 before 101,219 fans and a world-wide television audience. The victory left Michigan a perfect 13-0 for the season, bumping the Cougars to a 10-2 record. After Michigan thwarted two WSU drives to start the game, the Cougar defense forced a Wolverine punt that would set up WSU's first scoring drive. The Cougs took over on the Michigan 47-yard-line with 6:26 to play in the first quarter. Ryan Leaf completed two passes during the drive, including a 15-yard touchdown toss to Kevin McKenzie with 3:17 left in the first quarter. Rian Lindell's point-after gave WSU the early 7-0 advantage. WSU came close to taking a 14-point lead, but Heisman Trophy winner Charles Woodson halted a WSU drive in the Michigan endzone when he intercepted a Leaf pass from the 12 yard line. The Wolverine's answering scoring drive began from their own 34-yard-line at the 8:04 mark in the second quarter and ended with a 58-yard pass from Bob Griese to Tai Streets that completed the first half scoring. Early in the second half, WSU took over 99 yards from the endzone after Michigan's Jason Vinson dropped a perfect punt just outside the endzone. Shawn Tims put the finishing touches on WSU's 99 yard drive in nine plays, taking a reverse handoff the final 14 yards. Leaf hit four of five passes in the drive that amassed 73 yards. Lindell's PAT attempt was blocked by Michigan's James Hall, leaving the WSU advantage at 13-7. The Wolverines responded immediately, moving the ball on their next possession to their 39 yard-line to set up another Griese-to-Streets touchdown combination, this time 58 yards. Baker's point-after gave Michigan their first lead, 14-13 with 6:07 left in the third quarter. Michigan then padded their lead with a 14-play, 77-yard drive that ended in Griese's third touchdown pass of the game, a 23-yarder to Jerame Tuman. Baker's extra-point kick increased the Michigan advantage to 21-13 with 11:21 to play. Washington State responded immediately with an eight-play, 49-yard drive that set up a 48-yard field goal by Lindell, cutting Michigan's lead to five points, 21-16 with 7:25 remaining. The Wolverines then put together a 51-yard drive that consumed almost seven minutes off the game clock. When Jay Feely's pooch punt rolled dead at the WSU seven-yard-line, the Cougars' victory hopes were 93 yards and 29 seconds away. After two incomplete passes, the Cougars faced third-and-10 with only 16 seconds left. Leaf then found Nian Taylor along the sideline for a gain of 46, to the Michigan 47-yard-line. After a delay of game penalty, Leaf hit Love Jefferson at the Michigan 25 and the Coug tight end lateraled to a streaking Jason Clayton, who managed nine more yards before being brought down in bounds at Michigan's 16 yard line with 0:02 on the game clock. Out of timeouts, WSU was forced to try and spike the ball on first-down, but officials ruled that the final two seconds slipped away before the ball was effectively downed, thus preventing WSU's one final shot at a major upset.

#8 OKLAHOMA 34, #7 WSU 14

January 1, 2003, Pasadena, Calif. – Oklahoma's vaunted defense stifled Washington State's high-flying passing attack and captured the 89th Rose Bowl Game 34-14 in front of 86,848 fans New Year's Day. The Sooners broke the game open with a pair of touchdowns inside the two-minute mark of the first half. The first came on a 12-yard touchdown pass from Nate Hybl, the game's most valuable player. Antonio Perkins extended OU's lead to 17-0 with a 51-yard punt return just :42 seconds later. Hybl connected on 19 of 29 passes for 240 yards and two touchdowns. Sooner running back Quentin Griffin carried the ball 30 times for 144 yards. WSU quarterback Jason Gesser finished his career by completing 17 of 34 passes for 240 yards and a touchdown. Sammy Moore provided the game's final highlight, returning an OU kick 89 yards for a score with just 1:15 remaining. Linebacker Teddy Lehman led the Big XII Champions with six tackles, including two sacks, while free safety Erik Coleman recorded 10 tackles and recovered a fumble for the Cougars.

#15 WSU 28, #5 TEXAS 20

December 30, 2003 , San Diego, Calif. – Washington State reached the 10-win plateau for the third time in as many seasons with a 28-20 comeback victory over Texas in the Pacific Life Holiday Bowl. Facing a 10-7 halftime deficit, the Cougars rallied to score three touchdowns in the third quarter and take a 26-10 lead into the final stanza. The second half fireworks began with a 54-yard touchdown pass from Matt Kegel to Sammy Moore with just over nine minutes left in the third. WSU used a trick play to get in the end zone once again four minutes later. Kegel lined up under center, but instead of taking the snap, ran in motion to the right sideline, leaving running back Jonathan Smith alone in the backfield. Smith fumbled the snap, but recovered and ran 12 yards for a touchdown. Two Texas possessions later, the WSU defense continued the onslaught when Jason David recovered a fumble and took it 18 yards for the Cougs' final touchdown of the game. Washington State's defense forced a fourth quarter safety to push its total to 28. Moore earned most valuable offensive player honors after converting both of his catches for touchdowns and setting up another with a 51-yard punt return. Sophomore Kyle Basler was named the game's most valuable defensive player after pinning the Longhorns inside their own five on four occasions.

2013 NEW MEXICO BOWL

COLORADO STATE 48, WSU 45

December 22, 2013, ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. - With less than two minutes to play and Colorado State down by eight points, Shaquil Barrett knew the Rams needed the ball back quickly to finish an improbable comeback against Washington State. Once down by 22 points in the New Mexico Bowl, the Rams got their chance when Cougars running back Jeremiah Laufasa came barreling toward Barrett. That fumble, at the Cougars 33, set up Kapri Bibbs' 1-yard run score and Donnell Alexander's two-point conversion run that tied it at 45 with 33 seconds left. Then, Washington State's Teondray Caldwell fumbled a kickoff return at the 24, setting up Jared Roberts' 41-yard field goal with 3 seconds left that gave Colorado State a 48-45 victory. It was a quarterback shootout that saw close to 800 passing yards combined and a game largely dominated by Washington State until the last 2 minutes. And Colorado State did not have a led the entire game until that winning field goal. Garrett Grayson threw for 369 yards and Bibbs ran for 169 yards and three touchdowns for Colorado State (8-6). The Rams overcame three early turnovers. Meanwhile, Washington State's Connor Halliday threw touchdown passes to six receivers and finished with 410 yards for Washington State (6-7). Those six touchdown passes tied West Virginia's Geno Smith and Iowa's Chuck Long for an NCAA bowl record. After the first touchdown pass, Halliday got into a shouting match with a Colorado State coach when Halliday ran into the Rams' sideline. That exchange created a social media buzz and McElwain vowed to look into it. Washington State scored 35 points in the first half, but had only 10 in the second.

2015 SUN BOWL

WSU 20, MIAMI 14

EL PASO, Texas – Luke Falk threw two touchdown passes to lead Washington State to a 20-14 victory over Miami on Saturday in the snowy Sun Bowl. Erik Powell added field goals of 30 and 25 yards to help the Cougars (9-4) win a bowl game for the first time since the 2003 Holiday Bowl. Miami (8-5) lost its sixth consecutive bowl game. Washington State led 20-7 at the half and looked in total control, limiting Miami to three first downs over the second and third quarters. The Hurricanes rallied in a blizzard in the fourth. Braxton Berrios' 60-yard end-around run set up Mark Walton' 5-yard scoring run that cut it to 20-14 with 13:10 left. The Cougars, the top passing team in the nation during the regular season, were shut out in the second half, leaving it to their defense to wrap up the victory. Miami had a 5-yard touchdown pass from Brad Kaaya to Stacy Coley called back on a penalty with 5:14 to play. Two players later, Washington State's Marcellus Pippins recovered Walton's fumble at the 4. After a Cougars punt, the Hurricanes were at the Washington State 28, but an end-over-end halfback pass from Joe Yearby was easily intercepted by Shalom Lunai with 2:58 to play to seal it for Washington State. Falk, the game's MVP, was 29 of 53 for 295 yards and no interceptions. He threw touchdown passes of 31 yards to running back Jamal Morrow and 25 yards to receiver Gabe Marks. The scoring play to Morrow, during which he turned up the right sideline and carried two defenders into the end zone, gave Washington State a 7-0 lead. Miami tied it at 7 on a 4-yard pass from Brad Kaaya to Coley. The first quarter ended 7-7, but the Cougars ran off 13 straight points in the second. Kaaya was 17 of 30 for 219 yards with one interception. He appeared to give the Hurricanes a 14-7 lead in the second quarter when he connected in the end zone with receiver Rashawn Scott, but the ball came out of Scott's hands and was intercepted by Peyton Pelluer. One of the keys for the Cougars was winning the turnover battle, 3-1. Washington State fumbled in the second quarter, but the defense forced a three-and-out. On the next series, the Cougars used a 14-play drive to get Powell's first field goal and a 10-7 lead. Washington State made it 17-7 on Falk's TD pass to Marks, and Powell made it 20-7.

2016 HOLIDAY BOWL

MINNESOTA 17, WSU 12

SAN DIEGO - Shannon Brooks caught a tipped pass from Mitch Leidner for a 13-yard, go-ahead touchdown in the third quarter and the Minnesota Golden Gophers, beset by turmoil after 10 players were suspended after a sexual assault investigation, upset Luke Falk and the Washington State Cougars 17-12 in the Holiday Bowl on Tuesday night. It was one of the few exciting plays in an otherwise pedestrian edition of what traditionally has been one of the country's most exciting bowl games. WSU cornerback Marcellus Pippins reached up with his right hand and deflected Leidner's pass in the end zone but it went right to Brooks for the TD and a 10-6 lead. That capped an 84-yard, 10-play drive on Minnesota's first possession of the second half. The Golden Gophers (9-4) were looking to regroup after backing down from a threat to skip this game if 10 teammates suspended after a sexual assault investigation weren't reinstated. Their boycott lasted less than 36 hours, with university leadership never blinking. The players backed down amid pressure from many who read details of the allegations. WSU (8-5) ended on a three-game losing streak and was held to its lowest point total of the season. The Cougars had scored more than 50 points four times this season, a school record. The Golden Gophers frustrated Falk most of the game, holding him to 264 yards - 86 below his average - on 30-of-51 passing. Falk didn't crack 200 yards until the final minutes, when he led a drive capped by an 8-yard TD pass to Kyle Sweet. After three tries due to Minnesota penalties, the conversion attempt failed. Minnesota then recovered an onside kick. Falk came in having completed 71 percent of his passes in throwing for 4,204 yards and 37 touchdowns. The Cougars were ranked second in the nation in passing. Falk was intercepted by Adekunle Ayinde on fourth down with 3:05 left. That set up Rodney Smith's 9-yard TD run with 2:06 left for a 17-6 lead. WSU lead 6-3 after a lackluster first half that included just three field goals. The Cougars couldn't get their vaunted Air Raid offense going and crossed the 50 just twice, getting field goals of 26 and 41 yards by Erik Powell. Powell's second field goal was set up when Nnamdi Oguayo hit Leidner and forced a fumble that Isaac Dotson recovered at the Golden Gophers' 38. Minnesota got a 43-yard field goal by Emmit Carpenter in the second quarter.

2017 HOLIDAY BOWL

NO. 18 MICHIGAN STATE 42, NO. 21 WSU 17

SAN DIEGO - Brian Lewerke threw for 213 yards and three touchdowns, and LJ Scott ran for 110 yards and two scores for No. 18 Michigan State, which took advantage of Luke Falk's absence to rout No. 21 Washington State 42-17 in the Holiday Bowl. Lewerke also rushed for 73 yards for Michigan State (10-3), which rebounded from a dismal 3-9 record last year to reach double digits in wins for the eighth time in program history. Falk, who was photographed earlier in the week with a cast on his left wrist, went through warmups but came out in street clothes at game time. He was replaced by redshirt sophomore Tyler Hilinksi, who made his first start and eighth appearance of the season. It's unclear precisely when Falk injured the wrist on his non-throwing hand, but he had issues with it throughout the season. Coach Mike Leach refused to give specifics during the week. Hilinski led WSU (9-4) to a 45-yard field goal by Erik Powell on the Cougars' second drive, but the Cougars were overpowered by the Spartans. Lewerke threw the first of two TD passes to Cody White, a 7-yarder midway through the second quarter, when he was flushed to the left but found the receiver in the back of the end zone. On MSU's next possession, Lewerke took the snap and glanced at his running back, which froze the secondary and allowed Felton Davis III to get wide open for a 49-yard scoring pass. Scott scored on a 3-yard run to give the Spartans a 21-3 halftime time. Early in the third, Lewerke rolled left and had his pass tipped, but a sliding White caught it for a 7-yard touchdown. Lewerke, who finished 13 of 21, was hit hard on a keeper in the third quarter and came out for a few plays. His backup, Damion Terry, scored on a 6-yard keeper to make it 35-3. The Cougars closed the gap when Hilinski threw a 14-yard touchdown pass to Tay Martin late in the third quarter and a 15-yarder to Tay in the fourth quarter. Scott scored on a 28-yard burst up the middle with about six minutes left to play. Hilinski was 39 of 50 for 272 yards and two touchdowns, with one interception. THE TAKEAWAY Washington State: It was the second straight lackluster Holiday Bowl for Leach's Cougars, who lost 17-12 to Minnesota last year. Besides being without Falk, leading receiver Tavares Martin Jr. was kicked off the team after the regular season and third-leading receiver Isaiah Johnson-Mack left the squad. Michigan State: Scott had his third 100-yard game of the season and ninth of his career. Felton had four catches for 118 yards.

2018 ALAMO BOWL

NO. 12 WSU 28, NO. 25 IOWA STATE 26

SAN ANTONIO – Gardner Minshew II and that glorious mustache conjured up a final bit of magic in a grand finale for Washington State. The graduate transfer quarterback whose whiskered upper lip was loved and mimicked by Cougars fans all season, threw two touchdown passes and ran for another score in sending No. 12 Washington State to a 28-26 win over No. 25 Iowa State in the Alamo Bowl. Minshew's passing and scrambling earned the Cougars (11-2) a school record for wins in a season. He threw for 299 yards, none of them bigger than a play made out of desperation when Iowa State had all the momentum. After watching a 21-10 lead dwindle to 21-20 by early in the fourth quarter, the Cougars stripped the ball from Iowa State running back David Montgomery at the Cyclones' 30. Minshew, who had been held in check in the third quarter, escaped a third-down pass rush to flip a last-second shovel pass to Tay Martin that went for 20 yards. The play stunned the Cyclones, and Max Borghi scored on a 10-yard run the next play. It was just another big fourth-quarter moment for the transfer from East Carolina who coach Mike Leach had lured out West with the promise he could lead the nation in passing. Minshew was the nation's leading passer in yards per game this season and won the Johnny Unitas Award as the nation's top senior quarterback in a season the Cougars fell one game short of playing for the Pac-12 championship. Nearly all of his completions this season were more orthodox than the flip to Martin. None were bigger for the season and the legacy it set for the program. "I want to say thank you to these coaches, this university and these fans for taking me in," Minshew said. "So glad to be a part of this," he said. "One thing I've always been told is to leave a place better than we found it. This place could be really special." The Cyclones did a good job in bottling him up for much of the game. Iowa State's defense held Washington State 10 points and 135 yards below their season averages and two of the Cougars' touchdowns came on short drives after turnovers. But after Minshew found a way to get Washington State in the end zone, the Cougars' defense made the one play it had to at the end. Iowa State's last chance came after quarterback Brock Purdy scored from a yard out with 4:02 left. The Cyclones went for two, but a pass to Montgomery was stopped well short of the goal line after a false-start penalty pushed the line of scrimmage back to the 8. Iowa State had seven false start penalties and had two players ejected for targeting hits on Minshew. Purdy passed for 315 yards and Cyclones receiver Hakeem Butler caught nine passes for 192 yards, six yards shy of the Alamo Bowl record. Montgomery rushed for 124 yards. The Cyclones (8-5) had rallied from a 1-3 start to finish third in the Big 12, the program's best conference finish in 40 years. THE TAKEAWAY Washington State: Minshew completed 9 of 13 passes in the fourth quarter for 78 yards. After Iowa State's final touchdown, he completed three passes, two of them converting third downs, as the Cougars ran out the clock. Iowa State: Turnovers and targeting calls were critical. Purdy threw two first-quarter interceptions and Montgomery's fumble was a game-changer. Iowa State had two key defenders ejected in the second quarter for targeting hits to Minshew. TOUCHDOWN TAUNTING Washington State cornerback Marcus Strong had a long touchdown interception return wiped out in the first quarter when he was flagged for taunting on his way into the endzone. Strong stepped in front of a pass intended for Butler and had a clear path to the goal line. He was penalized because he held the ball out and looked back as Purdy made a futile dive for his feet. Instead of the score, the Cougars got the ball on the Iowa State 20 and scored two plays later when Minshew connected with Renard Bell.

2019 CHEEZ-IT BOWL

NO. 24 AIR FORCE 31, WSU 21

PHOENIX – Air Force clung to a three-point lead, the clock showing plenty of time left for one of the nation's most prolific offenses. A field goal was not going to be good enough. The Falcons needed a touchdown to leave Washington State no chance. Going for it on fourth down was the only option - and it worked. Kadin Remsberg ran for 178 yards and stretched to the pylon for a 3-yard touchdown on a late fourth down, lifting No. 24 Air Force to a 31-21 victory over Washington State in the Cheez-It Bowl on Friday night. The Falcons (11-2) had their triple option working to near perfection, grinding out 371 yards rushing while setting a Cheez-It Bowl time of possession record of 43:24. Donald Hammond III scored two touchdowns and Air Force carried a 10-point lead into the fourth quarter, yet couldn't shake the high-scoring Cougars. Anthony Gordon, the FBS passing leader, kept Washington State within reach, throwing for 351 yards and three touchdowns. He hit Brandon Arconado on a 13-yard TD to pull Washington State (6-7) within 24-21 late in the fourth quarter, giving the Cougars a shot at the comeback finish. Air Force methodically worked the ball down to Washington State's 4-yard line, but failed to punch the ball into the end zone on three tries. After a timeout, Hammond ran an option left and pitched the ball to Remsberg, who got the edge and reached the ball to the pylon with a defender draping him. The touchdown was upheld on review. The 2018 game was dubbed the Cheez-INT Bowl after TCU and California combined for nine interceptions. A year later, Air Force and Washington State brought philosophical differences to the desert. The Falcons like to stay grounded, running 57 times a game while finishing third in the FBS at 292.5 yards per game. The Cougars love to fly, putting it up 56 times a game to lead the nation with nearly 450 yards a game. Washington State started the Cheez-It Bowl quickly, racing down the field with a series of completions, only to get stuffed by an Air Force goal-line stand. The Falcons' opening drive was a yard-churning, clock-winding grind, covering 98 yards in 20 plays and 12:23. Hammond capped it with a 1-yard TD run. Air Force's next two drives took less time combined than the first, ending in Jake Koehnke's 28-yard field goal and Taven Birdow's 3-yard run after Gordon lost a fumble at Washington State's 23. The Cougars had two more quick-hitting drives to pull within 17-14 at halftime on Gordon's two TD passes. Air Force went right back to the ground to open the second half; 13 plays, 75 yards, capped by Hammond's 7-yard TD run. Washington State had another fourth-down failure, this one at Air Force's 5-yard line, but bounced back quickly with Gordon's TD pass to Arconado. The Cougars just couldn't stop Air Force and Remsberg's diving TD run capped another long scoring drive to seal it. THE TAKEAWAY Air Force won the line of scrimmage and its 11th game of the season, second only to 12-win seasons in 1985 and 1998. Washington State was hurt by the two failed fourth downs and its inability to decipher Air Force's triple option. FOURTH-DOWN DECISIONS Leach has been known as a gambler on fourth downs, often preferring to go for it over punting or kicking field goals. He stuck by his decisions at the Cheez-It Bowl, even though neither worked.

KIRK SCHULZ
PRESIDENT

A nationally respected university leader, Kirk H. Schulz became the 11th president of Washington State University and a tenured professor in the Gene and Linda Voiland School of Chemical Engineering and Bioengineering on June 13, 2016.

President Schulz is guiding WSU's transformation into one of the nation's top 25 public research universities, one that offers exceptional research and innovation. He has also pledged a university-wide focus on providing a transformative educational experience to undergraduate and graduate students to ensure their success in the classroom and after graduating from WSU.

Prior to arriving at Washington State, Shultz served as president of Kansas State University for seven years, guiding the university to a number of significant achievements, including:

- Enrollment reached a record 24,766 students in fall 2014.
- Private giving increased from $84.9 million to $211 million in a four-year period.
- With more than 40,00 members, Kansas State has ranked No. 1 in the Big 12 for 18 consecutive years for the percentage of graduates who are members of the alumni association.
- Campus facilities were expanded significantly, including construction of a welcome center, theater, academic facilities and a football complex.
- The University won three Big 12 Athletic Conference championships in two years: football (2012), men's basketball (2013), and baseball (2013).
- KSU was selected as home for the $1.2 billion Department of Homeland Security National BioAgro Defense Facility (NBAF).

In addition, he was the chair of the NCAA board of governors, the association's highest-ranking committees. As chair, he helped oversee issues across the association. His term ended in January 2017.

Under Schulz's leadership, Kansas State University was selected a Friend of the Flint Hills by the Flint Hills Discovery Center Foundation in spring 2014. The award recognizes the university's contributions to the Konza Prairie, one of the last remaining tallgrass prairies in North America.

Before his appointment at KSU, Schulz served as vice president for research and economic development at Mississippi State University. He has also served on the faculty at Michigan Technological University and the University of North Dakota.

Schulz is active in several professional societies including the American Institute for Chemical Engineers and the American Society for Engineering Education. In recognition of achievements in the field of Chemical Engineering, he was selected as a fellow in both the American Society of Engineering Education and the American Association for the Advancement of Science.

He is active in the Boy Scouts of America and served as president of the Coronado Council. In 2013, he was recognized with the Distinguished Eagle Scout Award from the National Eagle Scout Association. Schulz also served various roles on the boards of Cereal Food Processors, the Greater Manhattan Community Foundation, the Kansas Bioscience Authority, and the Accreditation Board for Engineering and Technology.

He is married to Dr. Noel Nunnally Schulz, who serves as a professor in the Voiland College of Engineering and Architecture, Washington State University. Prior to her arrival at WSU, Dr. Schulz served as the associate dean for research and graduate programs in the College of Engineering and the Paslay Professor of Electrical Engineering at Kansas State University.

They have two sons, Tim and Andrew.

PAT CHUN
DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Since arriving in Pullman, Washington State Director of Athletics Patrick Chun has overseen an incredible transformation of Cougar Athletics, both on the fields and courts of competition and off. From record setting student-athlete academic achievements to unprecedented fundraising totals; from transformative facility projects to innovative student-welfare programming, all based on UNLEASH, a comprehensive strategic plan Chun led upon his arrival.

In January 2018, Chun became the school's 14th Director of Athletics and the first Asian-American athletic director to lead a Power Five school. He also had another first in 2019, becoming the first WSU athletics leader to be named Under Armor Athletic Director of the Year. Chun include the development of UNLEASH, a strategic plan for the advancement of WSU Athletics

Under his leadership, Cougar programs have reached NCAA Championships in 10 sports, while 46 WSU student-athletes earned All-American honors, 110 All-Conference honors, 638 Academic All-Conference honors and five conference champions. The Cougars have seen program-best performances from multiple sports, with football entering the 2021 season having played in five-consecutive bowl games for the first time in school history, while women's soccer reached the College Cup in 2019 for the first time. Women's volleyball enters 2021 with five-straight NCAA appearances while men's basketball in 2019-20 had its most wins since 2011-12 and won its Pac-12 Tournament opening round for the first time since 2009.

In the classroom, the academic performance of WSU student-athletes has set or tied program highs for cumulative GPA in five of the last six semesters entering the Fall of 2021, including a department record 3.35 semester GPA in the Spring of 2020. WSU also posted its highest Graduation Success Rate ever in 2018-19.

Chun has spearheaded several initiatives to improve the student-athlete experience and their welfare, including enhancements to mental health awareness, which resulted in WSU Athletics being awarded the Washington State Psychological Association's Public Citizen Award in 2018. WSU Athletics is also committed to diversity and inclusion efforts, working closely with WSU's Student-Athlete Advisory Committee and the Black Student-Athlete Association to increase education and programming.

Under his leadership, Cougar fundraising has been revitalized, setting all-time highs in annual giving and total donations since his arrival. In March of 2021, Chun's guidance secured an $11 million field naming rights agreement with GESA Credit Union, through a partnership with Learfield | IMG College, resulting in Gesa Field at Martin Stadium. WSU Athletics raised a record $7.6 million in annual fund donations and a record $15 million in overall contributions in his first year. WSU improved on both totals in 2018-19 and, in 2019-20, WSU Athletics raised a program-record $26 million in overall giving. In 2020-21, Cougar Athletics raised a program-record $30 million. Prior to the 2019-20 academic year, WSU completed fundraising for a $10 million renovation of its baseball stadium, the first athletics facility at WSU funded completely by private donations that was completed in the Fall of 2020.

Chun has been a national and conference leader since 2018, serving a four-year term on the prestigious NCAA Division I Council, a high-level group responsible for the day-to-day decision-making for Division I. Chun also serves on the NCAA Division I Strategic Vision and Planning Committee as well as on the NCAA Division I Committee on Competitive Safeguards and Medical Aspects of Sports. In the Spring of 2021, Chun was appointed as the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics's (NACDA) 3rd Vice President and serves on its Executive Committee. Most recently, he was selected as the Pac-12 Conference's lone representative on the NCAA's Constitution Committee. In 2020, he was named co-chair for the newly formed Pac-12 ImPACt Leadership Council which serves as an advisory group for Social Justice & Anti-Racism within the conference. Chun completed a three-year term on the NCAA Division I Baseball Committee in 2016 and served on the Division I Baseball Rules Committee from 2016-17. He previously served on the executive committee for the National Association for Athletics Development Directors (NAADD) and was a longtime board member for the Columbus, Ohio chapter of the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame.

Prior to arriving in Pullman, Chun spent five-and-a-half years leading Florida Atlantic University Athletics and the previous fifteen years at Ohio State University in a multitude of roles from 1997 through 2012, culminating in his role as the executive associate athletics director.

During his time at Florida Atlantic, Chun guided the Owls to unprecedented successes across academics, athletics, student-athlete development and fundraising. His top priority upon arriving at FAU was academics, which saw tremendous growth. During his tenure, FAU student-athletes posted a combined GPA above 3.0 for the first time in school history. School records were also posted for Graduate Success Rate (GSR) and Academic Progress Rate (APR) in 2016-17.

FAU Athletics rose to some of its greatest heights in competition during Chun's tenure, winning multiple championships, both individual and team, and numerous national and conference awards. Chun's focus on the complete student-athlete was highlighted by the 2016 National Association of Academic Advisors (N4A) Model Practices Award, awarded to FAU for displaying best practices in their programming for student-athletes. In December 2015, the university announced the largest single gift in its history, $16 million from the Schmidt Family Foundation.

Prior to FAU, Chun spent fifteen years at his alma mater, Ohio State. In his last role at Ohio State, Chun provided leadership and oversight for all facets of the external relations division from 2009-12. In the four years of overseeing the external relations division, Chun oversaw record fundraising years of $42 million in 2012, $41 million in 2011, and $39 million in 2010. Chun also was a lead member of the athletics department senior team that negotiated the then-largest multimedia rights deal in intercollegiate athletics history: a 10-year, $128 million partnership with IMG College in 2009. Chun also served as the daily administrative liaison with the football program.

A native of Strongsville, Ohio, Chun earned a Bachelor's Degree from Ohio State University and a Master's degree from Duquesne University. He and his wife, Natalie, also an OSU alumna, have three daughters (Vanna, Kennedy and Gretta) who enjoy their dog (Little Brother).

BRYAN BLAIR

DEPUTY DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS
CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

Bryan B. Blair is in his fourth year at Washington State, currently serving as the Deputy Director of Athletics and Chief Operating Officer (COO) for the athletic department, which includes 17 sports and over 450 student-athletes competing in the Pac-12.

A veteran leader and former Division I football student-athlete, Blair has broad college athletics experience, including the Pac-12, SEC, SoCon, C-USA and NCAA national office. As Deputy AD, he oversees many of the day-to-day functions of the department, and is charged with the development and ongoing execution of WSU Athletics' Strategic Plan, UNLEASH. He has also spearheaded WSU Athletics' efforts regarding name-image-likeness.

Blair has assisted Director of Athletics, Pat Chun, on several coaching searches, including the hiring of Head Football Coach Nick Rolovich, Head Men's Basketball Coach Kyle Smith, Head Baseball Coach Brian Green and Head Women's Tennis Coach Raquel Atawo. He also leads the group of sport administrators charged with providing day-to-day oversight of WSU's varsity sports. The group develops consistent policies/procedures and each sport administrator oversees all aspects of their respective program(s), including public relations, personnel, budgeting, capital projects, fundraising, student-athlete welfare and overall program evaluation.

Blair personally serves as sport administrator for nine of WSU's 17 sports - Swimming, Tennis, Men's and Women's Cross-Country, Men's and Women's Indoor and Outdoor Track and Field, and Football.

His work with Cougar Football has included negotiating with Home Box Office (HBO) for the Cougar's appearance on the inaugural "24/7 College Football" series, one of four programs selected nationally, overseeing postseason bowl selection/planning, representing WSU on the Pac-12 Football Working Group, and leading non-conference scheduling. The Cougars' future football scheduling is highlighted by securing an SEC opponent to visit Pullman for the first time in school history.

In addition to his senior leadership and sport oversight responsibilities, Blair supervises several department units:

- Student-Athlete Development
- Strength & Conditioning
- Equipment Services
- Performance Nutrition
- Sports Medicine
- Gray W Dining Services
- Cougar Concessions

He also manages the Cougars' relationship with Nike, and serves as the department's first ever Chief Diversity Officer. Since arriving at WSU, Blair has led several diversity and inclusion initiatives, including the formation of the department's Diversity, Equity & Inclusion Council in August of 2019.

Since arriving at WSU, Blair has engaged the broader university as a campus partner highlighted by his appointment to the Executive Budget Council co-chaired by WSU's Provost and VP/CFO, which has been charged with proposing a holistic budget model that incentivizes revenue growth, supports the system strategic plan and promotes accountability/transparency. He was selected by WSU's President Kirk Schulz to serve on one of five Campus Culture & Climate Working Groups, and as co-chair of the Student Experience concept team for WSU's system-wide strategic planning efforts.

Blair's work has been recognized nationally, where he has been featured as an author, speaker, and industry leader on various topics. In 2021, he was selected for the inaugural LEAD1 Diversity Fellowship Program. The LEAD1 Association ("LEAD1") represents the athletic directors of the Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS). For this inaugural class, the Committee executed an exhaustive search process to select the 12 candidates most ready to assume the athletics director position. He was also named one of the top Assistant ADs in the nation by Silver Waves Media. Silver Waves Media compiled the list after months of research and consulting with coaches, presidents, search firms and numerous influencers in the college sports industry.

In 2020, Blair was selected to USA Weightlifting's Nominating & Governance Committee. USA Weightlifting supports US athletes in achieving excellence in Olympic and World competition. Blair was also named to the National Sports Forum's Steering Committee. The National Sports Forum is the largest annual cross-gathering of sports executives from marketing, sales, sponsorship, and more. Attendees represent a broad spectrum of teams, leagues, agencies and corporate partners (e.g. NFL, NBA, MMA, Racing, etc.). He was also named to the Board of Directors for the Minority Opportunities Athletic Association (MOAA).

He currently serves as a charter member of the Wofford College Young Alumni Leaders Council. The group was formed with the intention of helping to review key issues facing the college, and to think strategically about Wofford's position in its segment of the national higher education community. In addition, Blair annually serves as a judge for the Women's Sports Foundation Tara VanDerveer Fund, and previously served on the Board of Directors for the National Association for Athletics Compliance (NAAC) and the NCAA Progress-Toward-Degree Waiver Committee.

In 2017, Blair was selected as one of 25 senior-level administrators from across the country to participate in the prestigious NCAA Pathway Program. The year-long, experiential learning program is designed to elevate those currently in senior-level positions within athletics administration to the next step in reaching their goal of becoming directors of athletics. Blair is also a proud graduate of the NCAA's Dr. Charles Whitcomb Leadership Institute, where he was peer-selected as the graduation speaker for the 2013 class.

Blair arrived in Pullman after spending the previous four plus years at Rice University, where he served as a senior associate athletic director. At Rice, he served as a member of the athletics department's senior leadership team, overseeing sports medicine, strength & conditioning, sports nutrition, compliance, and six of the department's 16 NCAA Division I sports. In addition, Blair served as the advisor for the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC).

Previous stops in his career include the University of South Carolina, where he served as the primary compliance contact for Women's Basketball and hall of fame coach Dawn Staley, a previous position at Rice and the NCAA national headquarters.

A former Division I football student-athlete, Blair graduated from Wofford College in Spartanburg, S.C. As a team captain of the perennial FCS power, he served on SAAC and was recognized as Defensive Lineman of the Year, his final season. The Bennettsville, S.C. native went on to receive his law degree from the University of South Carolina School of Law.

Blair and his wife, Jenna, are loving parents to daughter Brielle, son Beau, and "puppy", Kongo.

ANNE MCCOY

DEPUTY DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS
SENIOR WOMAN ADMINISTRATOR

Veteran intercollegiate athletics administrator Anne McCoy has served Washington State University since 2001 and was promoted from associate director to senior associate director of athletics in 2004. Her appointment to senior woman administrator came in the summer of 2007 and in 2013 she was named deputy director of athletics.

In her current capacity she is charged with supervising all aspects of WSU's day-to-day operations along with several areas within the department, She also serves as the sport supervisor for men's and women's basketball, volleyball, soccer and rowing.

McCoy currently serves as the liaison to the Pac-12 Men's and Women's Swimming and Diving Coaches. She has completed positions on several other conference committees, including Vice President of the Executive Committee, Pac-12 Women's Basketball Tournament and Nom inating Committees, and the Diversity Leadership Initiative. She is the past chair of the NCAA Women's Rowing Committee and is a past vice president of the Pac-10 Conference.

A Wisconsin native, McCoy earned a bachelor's degree in sports management in 1989 from the University of Massachusetts. While an undergraduate, she worked for the Pittsburgh Penguins professional hockey organization, expanding the club's season ticket base. McCoy also served an internship as the assistant athletic business manager at the University of Connecticut, and was instrumental in designing and implementing a comprehensive computerized budget-tracking system.

McCoy served in several capacities at the University of Maine from 1989-1995, lastly as associate director of athletics and senior woman administrator. At Maine, she supervised men's basketball, men's and women's soccer, men's and women's swimming and softball in addition to the athletic business office, ticket office, retail store and cheerleading staff and operations. She took a similar administrative positive at Saint Louis University from 1995-96.

In 1996, McCoy joined the staff at Portland State University as associate director of athletics and senior woman administrator, and was promoted to senior associate director of athletics in 1998. At PSU, she managed all internal staff and the daily operations of the department, representing the director of athletics as needed. McCoy also supervised men's and women's golf, cross country/track and field, and women's volleyball, soccer, tennis and softball.

McCoy and her husband Brian have two children, daughter Taylor, a swimming student-athlete at Washington State, and son Jake.

NANCY SWANGER

FACULTY ATHLETICS REPRESENTATIVE

Dr. Nancy Swanger begins her fifth year as WSU's Faculty Athletics Representative to the Pac-12 Conference. Dr. Swanger is the Associate Dean and Director of the School of Hospitality Business Management in the Carson College of Business at Washington State University, starting back in 2000.

In addition to her administrative duties, she teaches various courses in the curriculum—professional development, cost controls, and special topics focusing on current trends or industry issues. Dr. Swanger has more than 40 years of restaurant experience as a co-worker, manager, district manager, and owner. She and her husband, Larry, owned and operated up to eight Subway restaurants from 1988-2017, and they own two independent concepts in Moscow, Idaho—Gambino's and the Varsity Diner.

Her research interests lie in the areas of quick-serve restaurant operations, food safety/sanitation, and hospitality curriculum. Prior to coming to WSU, Nancy taught at the University of Idaho and Lewis-Clark State College.

Nancy and her husband Larry have four children.

CHRIS PARK

DEPUTY DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS
EXTERNAL RELATIONS

Chris Park was named Deputy Athletic Director, External Relations in July 2020 after joining Washington State as Washington State's Senior Associate Athletic Director for External Relations in August 2018. Park's duties include oversight of athletic communications, marketing and fan experience, ticketing, creative services units to include graphic design, social media, and creative video, while also serving as the sport administrator for baseball and WSU's liaison with Learfield for multimedia rights and ticket solutions.

Under his direction, the Cougars external units have excelled with an expanded social media presence, hosted noteworthy events such as ESPN's College Gameday, the Klay Thompson and George Raveling jersey retirement ceremonies, as well as improving the partnership with Learfield. Park worked to secure an $11 million Field Naming Rights agreement with GESA Credit Union in March 2021, through a partnership with Learfield, resulting in Gesa Field at Martin Stadium.

Park has worked diligently to brand Cougar Athletics, resulting in improved ticket sales revenue for football, and men's and women's basketball. In 2020, His guidance helped WSU Athletics received the gold honor for the category of "Single Game Sales Campaign" from the 2020 National Association of Collegiate Marketing Administrators (NACMA) Best of Awards. Park also serves as co-chair of the Revenue Optimization committee within WSU Athletics Unleashed Strategic Plan.

In his role as sport administrator, Park served as chair of the committee to hire baseball coach Brian Green in the summer of 2019 and has worked closely with internal and external groups on the construction of the $10 million, privately-funded Project B.T.O., the start-of-the art facility baseball facility that opened in January of 2021.

Prior to coming to WSU, Park spent six years (2012-18) as the Deputy Athletic Director for External Operations and Development at UTEP, after joining the Miners in July of 2012 to serve as the Associate Athletic Director for Development. At UTEP, Park oversaw external operations, including ticketing, marketing and video production & graphic design, while serving as the liaison with IMG, UTEP's multimedia rights holder. He was heavily involved in athletic fundraising and served on the athletics senior staff and as the sport administrator for football and men's golf. In 2014, Park served as the Co-Chair for the Conference USA Men's & Women's Basketball Tournament and in 2015-16 chaired the university and citywide committee tasked with commemorating the 50th Anniversary of the 1966 NCAA Championship. During the spring of 2018, Park was credited for his leadership and assistance in raising over $10 million toward the $15 million renovation of the Sun Bowl which was completed in 2020.

Prior to El Paso, Park spent six years (2006-12) at Texas State University as the assistant athletic director for development. During his time on the senior administrative staff in San Marcos, Texas, Park oversaw the Bobcat Club and served as a major gift fundraiser. He played a vital role in the school's transition from Division I FCS to FBS.

Park joined the Texas State staff after more than two years at Sam Houston State, where he served as the Bearkats' first athletic development and marketing coordinator from January 2004 to July 2005 before spending August 2005 through July 2006 as the school's external operations coordinator.

Prior to Sam Houston State, Park held a pair of positions in the department of athletics at his alma mater, Texas A&M University. While at A&M, Park worked in both the marketing and media relations offices.

At Texas A&M, Park held the position as the 12th Man team rewards program coordinator, where he managed the program's $100,000 budget, oversaw the program's marketing efforts, hired and scheduled staff, and developed corporate sponsorships.

Park's athletic administrative career began in his hometown of Fort Worth, Texas, as a marketing intern at Texas Christian University, where he developed corporate sponsorship proposals, worked with ticketing and executed marketing research for the department.

A 2002 graduate of the Lowry Mays School of Business at Texas A&M, Park also holds a master's degree from the College of Education and Human Development at Texas A&M, which he completed in 2004.

He is married to the former Anna Johnston and the couple has a son, Matthew.

MITCH STRAUB

DEPUTY DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS
COUGAR ATHLETIC FUND

Mitch Straub enters his second year as Deputy Director of Athletics, Cougar Athletic Fund (CAF) after joining Washington State in May of 2018. Straub oversees all facets of Cougar Athletics fundraising and development, including major gifts, the CAF annual giving program and facility improvement. At the time of his promotion, Straub became the youngest Deputy Athletic Director in the Power Five at the age of 34.

Since arriving in Pullman, Straub has led the CAF to its four highest years, including more than doubling the previous record prior to his arrival by raising over $30 million in 2020-2021. Over the past three years alone, the CAF has secured five of the six largest gifts and 50 of the 70 largest cash gifts in WSU Athletics history. Further, after averaging 14 six figure gifts, the past two years have seen a total of 90 such donations to the CAF.

Under Straub's leadership, four capital projects have been or will soon be finalized, including Project: Back to Omaha, Indoor Golf Facility Renovation, Taylor Sports Complex and the Champions Complex.

Other notable recognitions include the 2019 Paciolan Innovation of the Year, 2019 CASE Gold Circle of Excellence, the 2019 CASE Silver Circle of Excellence, and team member, Josh Jordan, receiving the 2020 NAADD Rising Star Award.

Beyond his development responsibilities, Straub supervises the Men's and Women's Golf programs and co-chairs the Revenue Optimization committee. The committee has seen success in expanding the athletic department's efforts in social media, video, creative, website, tickets and concessions.

Prior to WSU, Straub spent the previous eight years at Ohio State University, progressing through the development department. While in Columbus, he was part of a team that brought in $209 million over his last three years, which was the most successful stretch in university history. He also personally cultivated and secured over $42 million in major gift commitments, including two lead gifts totaling $8.1 million to name Ohio State's Indoor Tennis Facility and a $7.5M gift, which was the largest donation from an alum in OSU Athletics history.

Prior to his work at Ohio State, Straub served as a development intern for the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA), which followed a one-year marketing internship at his alma mater, the University of New Mexico. While at UNM, he was a two-year letterwinner on the Lobo football team, and a two-time Mountain West Scholar-Athlete Award Winner and academic all-conference honoree.

Straub currently serves on the NAADD Executive Committee and the Pac-12 imPACt Fan Conduct and Education Committee. He holds a bachelor's degree in business administration from New Mexico and a master's degree in business administration from Ohio State. He and his wife, Sami, have three children, Wes, Ty and Maya.

WASHINGTON STATE SPORTS NETWORK from LEARFIELD

Cougar football games are broadcast live on the radio throughout the Pacific Northwest via the Washington State Sports Network from Learfield. The 20-station football network reaches from British Columbia to Oregon and can be heard worldwide via the internet and XM Satellite radio. Cougar football broadcasts begin an hour before kickoff, carry through the game and conclude with post-game interviews with players and coaches.

The Washington State Sports Network also features radio coverage of WSU men's basketball, baseball, women's basketball and women's volleyball, and the Cougar Coaches Show in the fall and winter seasons.

Learfield manages corporate marketing opportunities and on-site promotions at WSU football and basketball games as well as oversees sales for all signage at Gesa Field, Friel Court at Beasley Coliseum and all Cougar competition sites.

COUGAR FOOTBALL BROADCAST TEAM

MATT CHAZANOW

Matt Chazanow, a veteran of Atlantic Coast Conference and Big East football and basketball broadcasts, begins his seventh season as the Cougars play-by-play announcer. Chazanow calls the action for Cougar football and men's basketball broadcasts. Additionally, Chazanow serves as the voice of Cougar baseball broadcasts.

Chazanow has extensive experience in broadcasting at the highest level of collegiate football, including calling national play-by-play broadcasts for ACC football, Big East and ACC postseason basketball, along with SEC and ACC postseason baseball. As a senior network manager at IMG College in Winston-Salem, N.C. prior to joining the Cougars, Chazanow spent the previous seven years managing eight IMG college network broadcasts (Washington State, Arizona, Cal, Gonzaga, Oregon, Texas, UCLA and Washington).

ALEX BRINK

Alex Brink begins his fourth year as an analyst on the Cougar football broadcasts. As a student-athlete for WSU, Brink was a three-time All-Pac-10 quarterback from 2004-07, setting school records for career touchdowns and passing yards. He is also the only starting quarterback in school history to lead the Cougars to three Apple Cup victories. The Eugene, Ore. native was also a three-time All-Academic honoree and a National Football Foundation Scholar-Athlete during his senior year. Brink was selected in the seventh round of the 2008 NFL Draft by the Houston Texans, where he played two seasons before spending six seasons in the Canadian Football League.

Brink is co-founder of EForce Sports, a performance training, skill development and fitness company in Portland and has served as a quarterback coach at the Elite11 Quarterback Competition. He has previously been part of the IMG Cougar Roadshow pregame broadcast and was a contributor on NBCSports Northwest as well as ESPN 1080 and Rip City Radio in Portland.

JESSAMYN MCINTYRE

Jessamyn McIntyre returns for her ninth season as a sideline reporter for Cougar football. McIntyre is an executive producer for Q13 FOX in Seattle and previously worked as an executive producer for 710 ESPN Seattle (2009-20) and for ESPN Radio in Bristol, Conn. (2005-09). Additionally, she hosted the Seattle Seahawks postgame show on Northwest Cable News and served on the board of directors for the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society.
