WASHINGTON STATE vs. IDAHO STATE
SUNDAY, NOV. 17, 2019 – 1 P.M. – BEASLEY COLISEUM (PULLMAN, WASH.)

FINAL SCORE: WSU 72, ISU 61

POSTGAME NOTES

- WSU defeated ISU for the eighth-straight time and improved to 10-1 in the all-time series including 7-0 at home.
- The Cougs shot 53.1% in the first half, a season-best mark. Overall, the Cougs finished the game shooting 43.8%.
- CJ Elleby scored 23 points to post his third-straight double-digit scoring game of the year and second 20+ point game of the year. He has scored double-figures in 28 of 35 career games and 20+ in 10 games.
 - He led the team in scoring for the 2nd game on the year, both at home, and 14th time in his career.
 - His 13 points in the 1st half was one point shy of his career-best in a half done twice including in the first half opener against Seattle U.
 - Elleby nabbed a career-best 7 steals. He became the first Cougar to record 5+ steals in a game since Charles Callison vs Washington, Feb. 26, 2017. The 7 steals is one shy of WSU's all-time record of 8 shared by Don Collins (1/5/80) and Mike Bush (12/20/99).
 - His 8 rebounds were a season-high.
- Isaac Bonton scored 15 points, the third-straight game in double-figures to start his WSU career.
 - He has recorded 4 assists in all three games on the year.
- Jeff Pollard with a season-best 11 points including a season-best 3-of-3 free-throws. Pollard became the first Cougar other than Elleby and Bonton to score in double-figures in 2019.
