OPENING XI

> Washington State looks to get back on track after suffering its first loss of the season in Seattle against its rival, Washington. The Huskies came away with the win on a goal with 18 seconds to play, stunning the Cougs in Seattle for the second-straight season.

> WSU heads to Boulder to take on Colorado for what will be just the second Pac-12 game of the year for the Cougs after having four conference games cancelled due to COVID-19 protocol. Last season the Cougs dominated the Buffs in Pullman, 4-1, thanks to a historic 4-goal outing by all-American Morgan Weaver.

> WSU is looking for its second win in Boulder all-time and the first since a 3-0 victory in 2015.

> The Cougs are at full health for the first time this season (minus standout left back Bri Alger who suffered a season-ending injury in the opener) after a rash of injuries and COVID-19 protocol wreaked havoc on WSU's ranks throughout the last month.

> The offense has been clicking having scored 12 goals in six games with six difference scorers including a pair of first time scorers.

> Senior Elyse Bennett has been on fire to begin the year scoring five goals, tied for second in the Pac-12 despite only having played six games on the year.

> Senior Makamae Gomera-Stevens, the 27th pick in the 2021 NWSL Draft, has been the catalyst in the middle of the Cougs offense. She scored her second goal of the year at UW last time out giving her 11 career goals.

> The Cougs enter week at #21 in the TopDrawerSoccer.com poll. WSU is the fourth highest ranked team in the Pac-12 (six ranked overall)

> Freshman Margie Detrizio has burst onto the scene scoring two goals and assisting on two more in her first six collegiate contests. She is second on the team with 6 total points.

> WSU's freshmen have made an immediate impact notching three goals (Gray, Detrizio (2)) and five assists (Detrizio (2), Whieldon (2), McGill) in five games.

> The senior class continues to cement its legacy as the most decorated class in program history having won 43 games (record is 50 wins) and advancing to at least the second round in each of their three seasons, a program first.

COUGAR NOTES

COUGS VS COLORADO

The Cougs head to Boulder to take on a Buff team that is coming off one of their biggest wins of the season, a 3-2 come-from-behind victory over #16 USC last week at home. The Buffs have played 10 games on the year, tied for the most of all the Pac-12 teams having gone 6-3-1 overall. WSU is looking to make it two-straight against Colorado after cruising to a 4-1 win over the Buffs last season in Pullman thanks to a historic four-goal effort from all-america Morgan Weaver on senior day. Prior to that, Colorado had won three in a row against the Cougs and have won each of the last two in Boulder with the last Coug win coming in 2015.

LAST TIME OUT

Playing for the first time in nearly three weeks, the Cougs left the Westside with heartbreak as No. 23 Washington took home the first half of the Boeing Apple Cup Series with a 2-1 win at Seattle. For nearly 90 minutes the Cougars fought an uphill battle back into the contest only to see the game literally slip through their hands on a rainy wet night at Husky Soccer Stadium when the Huskies scored with just :18 seconds to go in regulation to grab the victory. The shot by Washington's Karlee Stueckle took advantage of the wet ground to squirt through the hands of senior Marissa Zuchetto who was in position to make the save.

COUGS BACK TO NEARLY FULL STRENGTH

WSU is back to essentially full strength (minus senior standout Bri Alger who suffered a season-ending injury in the opener) after three weeks of battling injury and COVID-19 Protocol. Due to protocol, the Cougs were forced to cancel four Pac-12 contest missing out on chances to compete against Arizona, Arizona State, Stanford, and Cal. Prior to going on pause, the Cougs were unbeaten in five games with their lone blemish coming in the form of a draw against Utah in their lone Pac-12 conference game of the year, to date. In addition to the protocols, the Cougs had a rash of injuries that sidelined both starters and reserves, wreaking havoc to their depth on the pitch.

WSU RANKED #21

Entering the week the Cougars fell to #21 in the TopDrawerSoccer.com poll. WSU was preseason #19 after finishing the 2019 season ranked #4. The #4 ranking was the Cougs' all-time high. The Cougs rank as the fourth-highest team in the Pac-12 trailing #3 UCLA, #19 USC, and #20 Washington. #22 Cal, #23 Stanford come in behind WSU to give the Pac-12 six ranked teams in the poll. With the coaches' poll included, the conference has 7 ranked teams with Arizona State ranked #21 in the USC poll.

SHUTOUTS A PLENTY

While the offense has been clicking the Cougs defense has quietly put together a solid start to the year having allowed just four goals in six games including three clean sheets. Senior Marissa Zuchetto saw her shutout streak end at 383:02 minutes, the longest streak since 2014 (427 min.). She has 22.5 career shutouts (19.5 in three seasons at Texas Tech).

BENNETT BACK IN HER GROOVE

Taking over as the Cougs' primary target up top, senior Elyse Bennett is off to a quick start in 2021 notching a team-best five goals and one assist in the first six games. The game-winner at Seattle U was her 5th career winner. It is the first time in her career she has scored in three-straight games. She ranks second in the Pac-12 in total goals despite having only played six games. Last season, Bennett recorded five goals and five assists, finishing third in scoring on the team. For her career, the senior has notched 15 goals and 8 assists. She is in search of the Cougs' all-time top-10 which starts at 18 goals.

DETIZIO ANNOUNCES HERSELF ON THE COLLEGIATE STAGE

Playing for the first time on the collegiate stage, freshman Margie Detrizio has announced herself as force to be reckoned with as the first-year striker has scored a pair of goals and added a pair of assists in her first six games. The freshman sits second on the team in points with 6 off the bench as a super sub for the Cougs. Detrizio joins teammates MacKenzie Frimpong-Ellertson and Elyse Bennett as freshmen to score in back-to-back games in their first seasons and both went on to be named to the Pac-12 All-Freshman team.

FRIMPONG-ELLERTSON BACK TO WORK

After beginning the year sidelined due to injury, sophomore MacKenzie Frimpong-Ellertson has rounded back into form as the 2019 all-freshman honoree has asserted herself into the offensive mix as a playmaker by setting up a pair of goals in last four games. Her two assists are tied for the team lead with freshmen Margie Detrizio and Marin Whieldon. The second-year forward finished her 2019 season with one assist in 24 games played.

COUGS ADDS TRANSFER ENZI BROUSSARD

Continuing to add to their stable of strikers, Washington State Soccer Head Coach Todd Shulenberg announced the addition of transfer Enzi Broussard (Dallas, Texas) for the 2021 Fall Season. Broussard will have two years of eligibility after spending two years at West Virginia University. For Coug fans, Broussard will look familiar to those who watched WSU's historic run to the College Cup in 2019 as the Dallas native was on the pitch in Charlottesville, Vir. when the Cougs advanced to the Elite 8. As a freshman, Broussard helped lead the Mountaineers to the third round of the NCAA Tournament for the fourth time in five seasons en route to earning All-Big-12 Freshman honors. She would finish the season scoring three goals and tallying two assists in 22 matches played with 14 starts including starting the third round game against the Cougars. As a sophomore, Broussard saw action in eight of WVU's nine contests in a truncated 2020 Fall Season scoring two goals and adding two more assists as the Mountaineers went 7-2 and pushed their way into a top-5 national ranking.

SENIORS CEMENTING THEIR LEGACIES

Despite the loss of some key players from last season, the 2021 Cougars are back and better than ever as seven of 11 starters return headlined by arguably the most decorated senior classes in program history. Throughout their careers, the seniors have won 43 games and advanced to at least the second round in each of their three year, a program first. In addition, the seniors brought the Cougs to new heights as freshmen, advancing to the program's first Sweet 16 before surpassing the feat last season with a trip to the first College Cup. The 2015 senior class holds the wins record at 50 games.

FRESH FACES READY TO CONTRIBUTE

While the Cougs enter the year with one of the top veteran cores in the country, WSU also welcomes in 9 new faces that will vie for playing time immediately. The most experienced newcomer to the Cougars is goalkeeper-transfer Marissa Zuchetto who came to the Palouse last spring from Texas Tech. As a sophomore Zuchetto led the nation in shutouts and led the Red Raiders into the postseason in each of the last two years. In the season opener, the Cougs started three freshmen while Zuchetto took over the reins in goal. Freshman Alyssa Gray scored the first goal of the season for the Cougs which was assisted by freshman Margie Detrizio. The freshman have contributed 3 goals (Gray, Detrizio (2)) and 5 assists (Detrizio (2), Whieldon (2), McGill). Zuchetto in goal has posted 3 shutouts and allowed just 2 goals in three games.

RODMAN GOES #2, ALGER #25, GOMERA-STEVENS #27

For the second-straight year the Cougs had the #2 pick in the NWSL draft as freshman Trinty Rodman became the youngest pick in the history of the league. Unfortunately for the Cougs, Covid robbed the team of getting to see the youngster on the field in the Crimson and Gray. Seniors Brianna Alger and Makamae Gomera-Stevens have continued their ascent into the elite of the college game as the duo went in the third round of the draft, Alger to Chicago and Gomera-Stevens to Houston.

THE FLYIN HAWAIIAN

In a breakout 2019, then junior Makamae Gomera-Stevens was the x-factor for the Cougars throughout the year earning her an invite to the national team camp for the first time in her career. The midfielder was arguably the Cougars' best player in the postseason as she controlled the middle of the pitch for WSU on both ends of the field. The native Hawaiian came up biggest in pressure situations scoring four of her team-best four game-winners against the nation's best. Her first game-winner handed the previously unbeaten Beavers of Oregon State their first loss of the season. She would later go on to nab a golden goal on the road against No. 20 Cal. In the postseason, Gomera-Stevens took it up another notch scoring game-winners against No. 14 Memphis in the first round and again against West Virginia to send the Cougs to the Elite Eight for the first time in program history. In addition, she would tally an assist on the opening strike against No. 3 Virginia in arguably the biggest win in program history. She would finish off her career year with five goals (tied for third-most on the team) and five assists (tied for second-most on the team). Gomera-Stevens becomes just the second player from Hawaii to earn a senior call-up following Natasha Kai. She would be selected as the #27 overall pick in the 2021 NWSL Draft by the Houston Dash.

Gomera-Stevens has started 2021 with two goals and an assist in six games.

ALGER OUT INDEFINITELY

Entering the year with huge expectations, senior Brianna Alger saw her season come to an abrupt end just 40 minutes into the year as the all-region left back suffered a season-ending knee injury at Seattle U.

Alger, the 25th selection in the 2021 NWSL Draft, earned all-region and all-conference honors in 2019 after moving to left back for the first time in her career. She finished the year with 10 assists, ranked 5th in the Pac-12 and first among defenders.

MINNISS NAMED PAC-12 DEFENSIVE POW

For the first time this season captain Mykkaa Minniss was named the Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Week as announced by the conference office Monday afternoon. Minniss is the first Cougar to earn a weekly award in 2021 and the first since all-american Morgan Weaver earned offensive honors Nov. 5, 2019 and the first defensive award for the Cougs since Brianna Alger earned her second of the season Sept. 24, 2019. It is the second career award for Minniss who earned the award as a freshman in her second week of action in 2018.

Leading the team to a perfect 3-0 start to the new season, Minniss propelled the Cougs to a 3-0 shutout of regional rival Idaho Friday night in the Bubble, earning the team's first shutout of the year. When not dominating the defensive end, Minniss made her presence felt on the offensive end of the pitch as well as the junior made good on one of the many Cougar corners in the match, tapping home the would-be game-winner in the 44' of action.

HUGE SHOES TO FILL

As WSU enters the new year the Cougs will have huge shoes to fill with the graduations of some of the greatest to ever wear the Crimson and Gray. Offensively, Cougs will have to make up for the loss of 27 of their 45 goals scored (60%) and 68 of 136 points recorded (50%) in 2019. (15 goals and 35 points coming from the boot of All-American and #2 overall pick in the NWSL, Morgan Weaver).

In addition to offense, the Cougs will look to replace its record-setting goal keeper (and her top backup), Ella Dederick, who came up with 10 shutouts in 2019 including three in the postseason. For her career, Dederick finished with: 53 Wins (1st all-time), 8158:25 Minutes (1st all-time), 90 Games Played (1st all-time), 29 shutouts (2nd all-time), 306 saves (2nd all-time), 0.92 Goals Against Average (4th all-time).

SOCCER SELECTED FOURTH BY PAC-12 COACHES

Coming off a historic 2019 campaign, the Washington State soccer team was selected to finish fourth in the Pac-12 Preseason Coaches Poll for the second-straight season. The fourth place pick ties the highest preseason ranking for the Cougars in the preseason poll.

Stanford, the five-time defending conference champions and defending national champions, were picked to take the title for a record sixth-consecutive season after receiving five first-place votes. UCLA and USC came in just behind the Cardinal in the poll.

COLLEGE CUP SEMIFINALIST

The Cougs advanced to the College Cup for the first time in program history having taken down #14 Memphis (1-0), #3 Virginia (3-2), West Virginia (3-0), and #5 South Carolina (1-0, OT) in their run to the cup. The final four run is the furthest the Cougs have advanced in program history and the deepest postseason run in the history of WSU Athletics in the NCAAAs. The run would come to an end in a 2-1 loss to perennial power North Carolina.

Throughout the run to the College Cup the Cougs took down a No. 1 seed and No. 2 seed, both on the road in hostile environments. In addition, the Cougs defeated the AAC regular season champion, ACC tournament runner-up, and the SEC tournament champion. WSU was in the postseason for the eighth time in the last nine seasons and the 10th time in the last 12 years. WSU sports an 8-11-4 record in the NCAA tournament. The Cougs have been to the third round in two of the last three seasons and have advanced out of the first round a program record three-straight seasons.

WAZZU IN THE 2019 REGULAR SEASON

The Cougs finished the regular season 12-6-1 overall and 5-5-1 in Pac-12 play, good for sixth in the conference. The 12 wins matched their win total from 2018 as the two seasons were nearly identical on the scoresheet. The Cougs biggest win of the year came on the road at No. 20 Cal, knocking off the Bears 1-0 in overtime. The Cougs scored 36 goals and posted 38 assists in the regular season led by Morgan Weavers 11 goals and four assists. On the year WSU took home four weekly awards with Brianna Alger earning two defensive awards while Weaver and Averie Collins each earned one offensive award.

RECORD WINS

With their win at #3 Virginia in the second round of the NCAA Tournament the Cougars tied the single-season record for wins at 14. Two days later the 2019 Cougars put their names above the rest with a record 15th win after defeating West Virginia 3-0 in the third round of the tournament. The win at #5 South Carolina extended the record to 16 victories.

In addition leading his team to a record number of wins, Coach Shulenberg became the first coach in program history to lead his team into the Sweet 16 twice after becoming the first team in program history to reach the third round in 2017.

THREE PUT ON THE RED, WHITE, AND BLUE

After finishing a historic season at Washington State, senior Morgan Weaver, junior Makamae Gomera-Stevens, and sophomore Mykkaa Minniss continue to play on as the trio of Cougars were called into national team duty in Florida in December. The attacking duo of Weaver and Gomera-Stevens joined the senior national team camp in Bradenton, Fla. while Minniss pulled on the U-20 jersey in Lakewood Ranch, Fla to play in the 2019 Nike International Friendlies. Weaver and Gomera-Stevens became the first Cougs in program history to be called into a Senior National Team camp.

DEFENSIVE DOMINANCE IN 2019

In 2019, the Cougars were dominant on the defensive end of the field with 10 shutouts in 24 games. In the two years prior, the Cougs produced 16 shutouts including 11 in 2017, tied for 2nd most in WSU history.

On the year, the Cougs outscored the opposition 45-26. Ella Dederick in goal was credited with nine full shutouts while sharing another with Rachel Johnson.

The Cougs had six shutouts in the last 14 contests and allowed one goal or fewer in 11 of those games. WSU tallied three shutouts in five postseason games including against #5 South Carolina on the road.

COUGS SIGN 8 FOR 2021

Continuing to build the depth and talent of the Washington State soccer roster, head coach Todd Shulenberg announced the signings of eight new Cougars to National Letters of Intent Nov 11. Adding their names to the roster for 2021 are: Nadia Cooper (Rosenberg, Texas), Macey Formanek (Phoenix, Ariz.), Khalia Gathright (Cypress, Calif.), McKenna Pua (Huntington Beach, Calif.), Rajanah Reed (Glendale, Ariz.), Lindsey Saad (Albuquerque, NM), Reese Tappan (Newcastle, Wash.), and Audrey Weir (Kailua Kona, Hawaii).

The crown jewel of the class was Cooper, a stalwart in the US National Team system having been called up to the U17 National Team for multiple tournaments. Most recently she was named to the U17 National Team training camp at the beginning of the year when the team was training for the 2020 Concacaf Women's U17 Championship which was postponed due to the Covid-19 pandemic.
