

WASHINGTON vs WASHINGTON STATE

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 14, 2025

BEASLEY COLISEUM IN PULLMAN, WASH.

	1	2	F
WASH	44	37	81
WSU	30	39	69

WSU POSTGAME TEAM NOTES

- With the result, the Cougars:
 - Fall to 1-3 this season and 1-2 in home games
 - Fall to 111-190 all-time against Washington and 66-81 against the Huskies in Pullman
 - WSU has lost three consecutive games to UW after a three-game winning streak
 - Fall to 1-2 when wearing white uniforms
 - Fall to 0-3 when trailing at the half
 - Fall to 0-2 making fewer free throws than opponent
 - Fall to 0-2 when outrebounded by opponent
 - Fall to 1-5 when opponent has more blocks
 - Fall to 1-2 when losing the opening tip
 - Fall to 0-2 with 10 or fewer turnovers
 - Fall to 0-2 when outscoring opponents in the second half
 - Were held to a season low 10 free throw attempts, fewest since attempting eight FTs against Gonzaga, Feb. 19, 2025
 - Matched a season low 69 points
 - Matched a season high with four blocks

WSU POSTGAME INDIVIDUAL NOTES

- Eemeli Yalaho scored a career high 15 points
 - Yalaho set a career high with six field goals made on a career-high 11 attempts
 - Yalaho made a career high three 3-pointers
 - Yalaho had a season-high four rebounds
- ND Okafor matched his career high with three blocks
 - Okafor played a career high 25 minutes
- Tómas Thrastarson matched a season high with two assists
- Parker Gerrits set a season high with three rebounds, matching his career high
 - Gerrits delivered a season-high two assists
- Ace Glass finished with 12 points, his second-career game in double figures
 - Glass attempted a career-high eight 3 pointers
 - Glass finished a perfect 4-of-4 at the free throw line, both career highs
 - Glass recorded a career-high two assists
- Adria Rodriguez set a career high with five assists
 - Rodriguez played a career-high 25 minutes
- Emmanuel Ugbo played a career-high 28 minutes
 - Ugbo finished with 11 points, his fourth-consecutive game in double digits
 - Ugbo led the Cougs in rebounding for the third time this season
- Jerone Morton tallied season-highs three made free throws on four attempts
- Rihards Vavers recorded his first block of the season
- Simon Hildebrandt made a season-high three field goals
 - Hildebrandt matched season highs in rebounds (3) and 3-pointers (1)