WASHINGTON STATE
BASKETBALL

WASHINGTON STATE AT CALIFORNIA
SATURDAY, JAN. 14, 2017 – 1 P.M. – HAAS PAVILION (BERKELEY, CALIF.)

FINAL SCORE: CAL 58, WSU 54

POSTGAME NOTES

- Freshman Malachi Flynn returned to double-figure scoring as he finished with a team-high 20 points, marking a career best for points in a Pac-12 game…his previous Pac-12 high for points was 16 at Washington, Jan. 1.
- Flynn had 10 of his points in the first half and 10 in the second half and added 3 assists.
- Sophomore Robert Franks had a career-high with 3 3-pointers made…he made all three of his 3-pointers in the first half.
- Franks finished with 9 points, 2 shy of his personal Pac-12 best.
- Senior Josh Hawkinson had his first double-figure rebounding game since Jan. 4 against Oregon State…he finished with 12 rebounds and 7 points.
- Senior Conor Clifford had his ninth double-figure scoring game of the season and his fourth of five Pac-12 games…he finished with 10 points.
- Sophomore Viont'e Daniels had a career-high 4 assists and played a career-high 32 minutes, adding 3 points and a rebound.
- Senior Ike Iroegbu had 5 points and moved into a tie for 33rd on WSU's career scoring list.
- WSU returns home to host Utah and Colorado…first up is Utah, Wednesday, Jan. 18 at 6 p.m. at Beasley Coliseum…WSU then hosts Colorado, Saturday, Jan. 21 at 1 p.m. at Beasley Coliseum.