Postgame Notes

No. 12 Stanford 38 def. Washington State 28
Oct. 23, 2010
Stanford Stadium

- James Montgomery's 22-yard rush in the first quarter was his third of more than 20 yards this season and the sixth rush of 20-plus yards by WSU this season.
- Kevin Koyyman's second quarter interception was the first of his career and the first by a defensive lineman since Toby Turpin recroded one against USC, Sept. 22, 2007.
- With his first reception today, junior Jared Karstetter has caught at least one pass in 23 consecutive games, dating back the final three games of his freshman season.
- Jared Karstetter's second-quarter touchdown reception was his fifth of the season, one shy of his total from last year', which led the team.
- Freshman Deone Bucannon recorded back-to-back double-digit tackles in consecutive games, with 16 last week against Arziona and 15 today. Last season Xavier Hicks had three-straight games of double-digit tackels. He is the first true freshman to record back-to-back games of double-digit tackles since Greg Trent in 2005, when he had 10 against Stanford followed by 12 against UCLA.
- Senior punter Reid Forrest's 64-yard punt tied the second-longest punt of his career and was a season-best. A 60-yard punt in the third quarter was his eighth career punt of 60-plus yards.
- Jeff Tuel's 18-yard touchdown pass to Marcus Richmond in the fourth quarter was Richmond's first career touchdown.
- Freshman Marquess wilson recorded six receptions for 150 yards, his fifth 100-plus receiving game os the season, extending the freshman record at WSU. The 150 yards is also a freshman receiver record at WSU, surpassing Phillip Bobo's previous mark of 136.
