KYLE SMITH

HEAD COACH

FIRST SEASON

HAMILTON COLLEGE, 1992

Kyle Smith became the 19th coach in Cougar basketball history April 1, 2019. The newest man in charge, Coach Smith brings his own unique perspective to the game of basketball to the Palouse as he looks to return Washington State to greatness.

"In our next head coach we sought out someone with the DNA of every great coach in the history of our great school," said Director of Athletics Patrick Chun at Coach Smith's introductory press conference. "When you call around and ask about Kyle Smith, they talk about him as a person before they ever talk about him as a coach or a data analyst. He's a teacher, and someone who can recruit and develop character and leadership."

Smith brings nine years of head coaching experience to the Palouse along with 18 years as an assistant coach. He came to WSU having spent the last three seasons at the helm of the University of San Francisco men's basketball program. There he compiled a 63-40 (.612) record, notching 20 or more wins each season and two postseason tournament appearances. Smith's three-straight 20-win seasons marked just the fourth time in school history that USF had 20 or more wins in at least three-consecutive seasons and the first time in nearly 40 years. Prior to his stint in the Bay Area, he served as the head coach at Columbia where he put together a 101-82 overall mark including a CIT Championship his final season (2015-16).

This past season, 2018-19, the Dons finished with a 21-10 mark and 9-7 West Coast Conference record, finishing fourth in the league. In Smith's second season, 2017-18, he led USF to a 22-17 mark and a tie for fourth in the WCC with a 9-9 league record. In his first season on the Hilltop (2016-17), Smith led the Dons to a 20-13 overall record, including a 10-8 mark in the WCC, tying for fourth. It marked the first 20-win season since the 2013-14 season and the program's third since the 1985-86 season. The wins were also the most by a first-year USF head coach since Pete Barry led the Dons to a 24-7 record in 1980-81. All three seasons under Smith saw USF finish fourth in the WCC, while it advanced to the CBI in both 2016-17 and 2017-18, including a runner-up finish in 2018.

In his three seasons at USF, Smith's teams defeated three Pac-12 schools, including wins over both California and Stanford in 2018-19 and a defeat of Utah in the Diamond Head Classic in 2016-17. The Dons broke the school record for 3-pointers made in a season in both 2017-18 and 2016-17 with 333 and 304 3-pointers made, respectively. San Francisco also improved defensively under Smith, lowering its opponent scoring average by more than 10.0 points per game his first season from the previous season (2015-16).

Throughout his tenure at San Francisco, Smith produced seven All-West Coast Conference selections, including two-time first team honoree Frankie Ferrari, two second team honorees and three all-freshman. Ferrari also picked up NABC District 9 All-Region Second Team honors in 2019 as his 73 3-pointers rank third in school history.

Prior to his arrival at USF, Smith got his head coaching start Columbia where he spent six seasons, guiding the Lions to a 101-82 overall record and two postseason appearances. The 101 victories were the most in a six-year span at Columbia since the program posted 107 victories from 1965-71. In his final season (2015-16), Columbia finished with a 25-10 record, third in the Ivy League with a 10-4 mark, and captured the CollegeInsider.com Tournament championship with a 73-67 victory over UC Irvine in the title game. The Lions became only the second Ivy League team to win a postseason tournament after Princeton's 1975 National Invitation Tournament Championship.

As an assistant coach, Smith spent 18 seasons as an assistant coach on the NCAA Division I level, including nine seasons (2001-10) at Saint Mary's College, one season at Air Force (2000-01) and eight years at the University of San Diego (1992-2000).

The 25 victories established a single-season school record while the 10 Ivy League victories were the most by a Columbia team since the 1992-93 squad also went 10-4 in the Ivy. It was Columbia's second 20-win season in three years under Smith, who also guided the Lions to a 21-13 record during the 2013-14 season.

During his last three seasons at Columbia, the Lions compiled a 59-38 (.608) overall record. The 59 wins tied Princeton for the third-highest total in the Ivy League behind Yale (64) and Harvard (63).

During his six-year tenure, Smith also developed 10 players who earned All-Ivy League honors, including Maodo Lo, a two-time All-Ivy First Team recipient who ranks as the Lions second all-time leading scorer and holds the school-record for three-pointers made.

While at Saint Mary's, Smithplayed an integral role in building the Gaels' program into a perennial championship contender in the West Coast Conference. In his nine seasons in Moraga, the Gaels made three NCAA Tournament (2005, '08, '10) appearances and earned one NIT (2009) bid. Saint Mary's averaged 23 wins over his last six seasons on the staff, including an 81-20 record over his final three seasons. In 2009-10, Saint Mary's finished with a 28-6 record, advanced to the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Championship and were ranked 19th nationally in the final ESPN/USA Today Coaches Poll. As the associate head coach under Randy Bennett, Smith was also responsible for coordinating the team's offense and played a key role in the recruitment of all-conference players such as Matthew Dellavedova, Patty Mills, Diamon Simpson and Mickey McConnell. During his one season at Air Force, Smith served as the Falcons' offensive and recruiting coordinator and also took a lead role with player development and scouting. He was instrumental in the recruitment of 2003-04 Mountain West Conference Player of the Year Nick Welch along with all-conference players Antoine Hood and A.J. Kuhle.

Before joining the Falcons, Smith served eight seasons as an assistant coach at San Diego from 1992-2000 under Hank Egan and Brad Holland. During his time at San Diego, Smith helped lead the Toreros to their second-highest win total in school history (20 in 1999-2000) and as associate head coach, orchestrated a defense that allowed the lowest opponent scoring average (62.6) in the West Coast Conference (62.6 in 1999-2000).

Born in El Paso, Texas, Smith graduated in 1992 from Hamilton College with a degree in English literature. He also played basketball and helped lead the Continentals to a 26-1 record and the No. 1 ranking in the nation for NCAA Division III as a junior. He shot a school-record 51.3 percent from three-point range and helped Hamilton to an Eastern College Athletic Conference (ECAC) championship.

Smith also earned a master's degree in educational leadership from the University of San Diego, where he began his coaching career. Kyle and his wife, Katie, have three sons, Rocco, Bo and Luke.

JIM SHAW

ASSISTANT COACH

WESTERN OREGON, 1995

Jim Shaw comes to the Palouse for his first season with Kyle Smith in 2019-20 after four seasons as the head coach at his alma mater, Western Oregon, where he compiled a 102-30 overall record and led the Wolves to No. 1 Rankings and to the NCAA Division II Men's Basketball Tournament three times. Shaw has 25 years of Division I coaching experience, including nine seasons as an assistant coach at Washington.

In his first year leading the program at Western Oregon in 2015-16, Shaw led the Wolves to the Great Northwest Athletic Conference regular season title, its first GNAC Championships tournament title, and the No. 1 seed in the 2016 NCAA Division II Men's Basketball West Regional Tournament. The Wolves defended the home court three times to advance to the NCAA Division II Elite Eight. It marked the first time that Western Oregon advanced to the round of eight in a national tournament since 1982. At the final site, the Wolves defeated Saginaw Valley to advance to the NCAA DII Final Four. In addition, Shaw led Western Oregon to its first No. 1 ranking in program history, as he was named the GNAC Coach of the Year.

He was once again named the GNAC Coach of the Year and West Region Coach of the Year by the National Basketball Coaches Association (NABC) in 2017-18 as Shaw led the Wolves to a 31-2 record, tying the GNAC single-season record for wins, and set a GNAC mark with 19 conference victories. The Wolves led the GNAC in scoring at 83.3 points per game and finished the year ranked No. 3 in NCAA Division II in total steals (322), fifth in scoring margin (+16.4), sixth in steals per game (9.8), ninth in total assists (575) and 10th in field goal percentage (.497).

The Wolves advanced to the NCAA West Regional for the third time under Shaw in 2018-19, falling to top-ranked Point Loma. WOU finished with a 22-11 overall record including a 13-7 league mark, falling to Seattle Pacific, 78-66, in the championship game.

Shaw spent two seasons alongside Randy Bennett at Saint Mary's College as a special assistant to the head coach during the 2013-14 season before becoming an assistant coach in 2014-15. With the Gaels, Shaw helped guide SMC to back-to-back 20-plus wins seasons as well as a pair of postseason appearances.

Prior to Saint Mary's, Shaw spent nine seasons (2004-2013) as an assistant coach at the University of Washington alongside former head coach Lorenzo Romar. During his time at Washington, the Huskies went a combined 208-100, which is the best nine-year record in school history, while also going 118-54 from 2009-2013 to mark the best five-year stretch in school history.

During that span, Shaw was a part of five Pac-10 Championships, five NCAA Tournament appearances, and three appearances in the Sweet 16. He was pivotal in the Huskies' run to their first Pac-10 Tournament championship in 2005 and first No. 1 seed into the NCAA Tournament.

Before Washington, Shaw served the previous five seasons (1999-2004) at the University of Oklahoma on Kelvin Sampson's staff. He helped the Sooners to a 131-37 record, three Big 12 Tournament titles, a Final Four appearance in 2002 and an Elite Eight berth in 2003.

From 1994 through 1999, Shaw served as assistant coach at the University of Portland where he helped the Pilots to a pair of 20-win campaigns and a 1996 NCAA Tournament berth, which was the school's first in over 30 years.

Shaw coached at Oregon State during the 1990 and 1991 seasons alongside Jim Anderson, as the nationally-ranked 1990 Beaver team, which featured Hall of Fame point guard Gary Payton, won the Pac-10 championship and advanced to the NCAA Tournament.

Shaw's first assistant coaching assignment came in 1986-87 at Idaho State where he helped lead the Bengals to an impressive run to the Big Sky Tournament championship and the league's automatic NCAA Tournament berth. That was ISU's first NCAA appearance in 10 years.

A 1985 graduate of Western Oregon State College, Shaw was an NAIA honorable mention All-American and district MVP runner-up as a senior. During his career with the Wolves, Shaw played for WOU Hall of Fame coach Jim Boutin and helped lead WOSC to a win-loss record of 72-20 over a three-year stretch. He earned his master's degree in athletic administration from Idaho State in 1986. A native of Chimacum, Wash., Shaw attended Chimacum High School where he was an all-state performer in both basketball and football.

Shaw has two grown children – daughter Brittany and son Bradley.

DERRICK PHELPS

ASSISTANT COACH
NORTH CAROLINA, 1993

An NCAA National Champion as a player at North Carolina, Derrick Phelps enters his first season as an assistant coach at Washington State in 2019-20.

Phelps joins Smith on the Palouse after spending the previous five seasons with Smith, the last three as the associate coach at San Francisco (2016-2019) and the prior two years as an assistant coach at Columbia (2014-16). The starting point guard on North Carolina's 1993 National Championship team, Phelps also spent three seasons (2011-14) as an assistant coach at Monmouth and one year (2010-11) as the video coordinator at Fordham. An integral member of King Rice's staff at Monmouth, Phelps took a lead role in the recruitment of many of the players who were responsible for leading the Hawks to a school-record 28 wins during the 2015-16 season.

During his two seasons at Columbia, the Lions posted a 38-25 record, which included a 25-10 mark during the 2015-16 campaign which saw the school capture the CollegeInsider.com Tournament.

A native of Queens, NY, Phelps enjoyed an outstanding collegiate career with the Tar Heels under legendary head coach Dean Smith from 1990-94. He earned second-team All-ACC honors as a senior and honorable mention all-conference accolades as a junior. Phelps was an Associated Press honorable mention All-America selection and was also named to the USBWA All-District Team. He also earned second team All-NABC honors. He holds North Carolina records for most steals in a game (9) and a career (247) and ranks fifth all-time in school history with 637 assists. Phelps is the only player in ACC history to amass 600 assists, 400 rebounds and 200 steals.

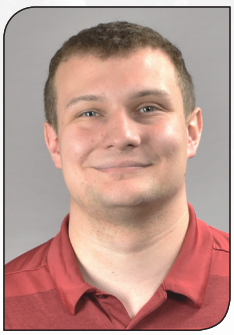

Phelps was the first of only three North Carolina players to earn the Carmichael Cobb Award, bestowed to the team's most outstanding defensive player of the year, on three occasions. He was also named the Tar Heels' team MVP as a senior and played on two Final Four teams, including Carolina's 1993 squad that captured the national championship with a 77-71 victory over Michigan.

Phelps began his professional career in 1994 with the Chicago Rockers of the Continental Basketball Associate (CBA). Midway through the '94 season, he was signed for the remainder of the season by the Sacramento Kings and was selected by the Vancouver Grizzlies in the 1995 NBA expansion draft. He also spent time in preseason camps with the Milwaukee Bucks (1994) and Philadelphia 76ers (1997).

He also played professionally in Germany, France, Poland, Russia, Romania and the Netherlands. He was selected MVP of the Euroleague in 2001 while playing for Alba Berlin. He retired following the 2009-10 season.

JOHN ANDRZEJEK

COLUMBIA, 2013

A top analytics assistant, John Andrzejek enters his first season as an assistant coach at Washington State in 2019-20.

Prior to coming to WSU, Andrzejek spent one year as an assistant coach and offensive coordinator at Dartmouth for the 2018-19 season. While at Dartmouth, Andrzejek took the team's offense to new heights, finishing with their highest offensive efficiency ranking per KenPom.com since the 1997 season. From behind the arc, the Big Green set a school record in three-point shooting hitting an all-time high 264 three-pointers on the year.

Andrzejek enjoyed a terrific season as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Johns Hopkins in 2017-18. The Blue Jays finished the season with a record of 24-5, winning the Centennial Conference regular season and tournament crowns. The team was ranked 12th in the coaches' poll — its highest ranking ever — and advanced to the second round of the NCAA Division III Tournament. His recruiting efforts also landed six players who were admitted via early decision. In addition to his recruiting efforts, Andrzejek oversaw the No. 1 scoring defense in Division III basketball as the team allowed a division low 59.9 points per game while allowing the fewest made three-pointers per game in the country. Andrzejek got his first taste of head coaching during the year as well as he was the acting head coach for the Blue Jays' 85-63 win over Mulenberg.

In 2016-17, Andrzejek was the director of basketball operations at the University of San Francisco, which went 20-13 for the program's second-most wins in a season in over 30 years and was crowned as the most improved program in Division I by KenPom.com. Among his duties were managing the program budget, team travel and player schedules, overseeing study halls and organizing all community outreach programs as part of the university's Jesuit mission.

While completing his undergraduate degree in philosophy in just two and a half years from Columbia in 2013, Andrzejek served as the Lions' team manager during the 2012-13 and 2013-14 campaigns before being hired as the director of basketball operations in July of 2014. In his second season in that role, Columbia racked up the most wins (25) in program history en route to claiming the CIT championship.

In addition to his collegiate coaching experience, Andrzejek has spent time as an assistant coach for USA East Coast All-Stars teams that played throughout Finland, Estonia, France, and Italy in 2014 and 2015.

FRIEL COURT
AT BEASLEY COLISEUM

The Washington State men's basketball team enters its 47th-consecutive season playing at Friel Court inside Beasley Coliseum. WSU won its 200th game all-time at the venerable facility Dec. 2, 1998 when the Cougars defeated Portland State 74-71 and its 250th game Nov. 17, 2007 with a 67-44 victory over Texas-San Antonio. WSU's most recent milestone came with its 300th win at Friel Court, Feb. 19, 2012, a 72-50 victory over Arizona State.

The Cougars first moved to Friel Court Dec. 1, 1973, and christened their new home with an 80-78 victory over LSU in front of 9,000 fans.

WSU has earned a postseason berth 11 times while calling Friel Court home. The 1979-80 season marked the first of those eight occasions as the Cougars advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since the 1940-41 team finished as the national runner-up.

During the 2010-11 season, the Cougars hosted, and won, three NIT games at Beasley Coliseum, advancing to the NIT Semifinals in New York for the first time in school history, while winning a school-most three postseason games.

The following season, 2011-12, the Cougars posted an 11-3 record on their home floor, including wins in their first eight games at Beasley of the season. WSU hosted two College Basketball Invitational (CBI) games that season, winning both.

Friel Court has been the site of NCAA first and second round games (1975, 1982 and 1985). In fact, Friel Court was the first stop on UCLA's 1975 NCAA title run, the 10th and final championship for head coach John Wooden. The Bruins needed overtime to defeat Michigan 103-91.

The arena, which currently seats 11,671 for basketball, was formally dedicated in honor of longtime Washington State Head Coach Jack Friel, who directed the Cougars to the 1941 NCAA title game. In the spring of 1981, the coliseum was named in honor of past Washington State Vice President Wallis Beasley. Prior to the 2007-08 season, the court got a new look after being newly refurbished and painted. Prior to the 2011-12 season, the center-hung scoreboard was added to the coliseum, enhancing the fan experience at basketball games. Also at that time, the floor was refurbished again as part of WSU's rebranding initiative. The Cougars gave Friel Court a fresh look again in 2016-17, when they installed a new floor, complete with crimson free throw lanes.

MEDIA INFORMATION

The overriding goal of the Washington State Athletics Communications office is to assist the media in coverage of Washington State Athletics. Our office provides media members with the latest news surrounding Cougar Athletics, biographical information on coaches and student-athletes, historical and statistical information, media guides, photographs and more. Much of this information is presented on wsucougars.com, the office website for WSU Athletics.

The WSU Athletic Communications office works hand-in-hand with student-athletes and coaches in fulfilling media requests. All interview and credential requests must be arranged through the athletic communications office. Requests for other services, such as photographs, publications or general information should be directed to the sports-specific contact or by calling the Athletic Communications office at 509-335-2684.

If information is desired that is not available on this page or linked to this page, please contact the Washington State Athletics Communications office at 509-335-2684 for more information.

Washington State Athletics appreciates coverage given to the Cougars by the sporting media and invites all press representatives to be our guests at each WSU home contest.

CREDENTIALS: All credential requests should be made at least two days prior to the contest being covered. Credentials will be left at the entrance on southwest corner of Beasley Coliseum.

VISITING MEDIA: All members of the visiting media are asked to make credential requests through the visiting school's SID.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS: Head Coach Kyle Smith will be made available to media following a brief cooling period at the post-game press conference in the Cougar Lounge. Student-athletes also will be made available for interviews at the press conference. Please consult with the WSU Athletic Media Relations staff for procedures. Media representatives are advised to check with the visiting SID as to postgame procedures with visiting student-athletes and coaches.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: All photographers must wear assigned photographer bibs at all times. NCAA rules limit photographers to shoot only from outside the restraining line enclosing the playing surface and bench areas. Photo boxes under the basket may be assigned.

GAME SERVICES: The WSU athletic media relations staff provides pregame notes, game rosters, full statistical summaries and play-by-play packets after each contest.

PARKING: Parking passes can be obtained by contacting the WSU MBB SID at least 24-hours prior to the day of the game.

INTERVIEW POLICY: The WSU athletic media relations office requests that all student-athlete and coach interviews be arranged through the assistant director of athletic media relations. 24-hour, advance notice is required. Coaches' and student-athletes' home and cell phone numbers will not be released.
