HEAD COACH - LISA FORTIER (10TH SEASON)

Lisa Fortier was named the Head Coach of the Gonzaga University women's basketball program on April 14, 2014 after having spent nearly a decade on staff, including seven years as an assistant. Going into her tenth season at the helm, Fortier has taken the program to new heights.

Fortier is the only coach in program history to have nine 20-win seasons in their first 10 seasons, most recently with the 28-5 mark posted in 2022-23. Going into her 10th year at Gonzaga, Fortier has had four players named the WCC Player of the Year (Kaylynne Truong, Jenn Wirth, Jill Townsend, Jill Barta), the first and second-ever Sixth Woman of the Year (Melody Kempton, Yvonne Ejim), 18 All-WCC First Team selections, six All-WCC Second Team selections, seven All-WCC Honorable Mention selections and five WCC All-Freshman Team performers. She's been named the WCC Coach of the Year five times, and she was selected as the Maggie Dixon Rookie Coach of the Year in 2015 along with being a 2022-23 Naismith Coach of the Year candidate. Fortier's players have also excelled academically as 39 players have been selected to the WCC All-Academic team along with nine players earning Division I-AAA ADA Scholar-Athlete recognition. Fortier also coached 2018 CoSIDA Academic All-District 8 selection Chandler Smith and the program's first ever Senior CLASS Award First Team All-American, Jill Townsend.

2022-23 was another phenomenal year with Fortier leading the Zags to their 18th WCC Regular Season Title and 14th NCAA Appearance. The Zags were ranked as high as No. 15 in the AP Poll during the season, even with facing team injuries and sickness. At one point in the season, the Bulldogs only suited up seven players for a couple of games, but they ended the season with an incredible 28-5 record. Gonzaga had big-time wins over then-ranked No. 6 Louisville in Battle 4 Atlantis, which marked the highest ranked win in GU women's basketball history. The Zags then defeated No. 23 Tennessee two days later to secure third-place in the Bahamas. Gonzaga went on to have a nearly perfect conference slate, going 17-1, overall to win the regular season. Kaylynne Truong was named the WCC Player of the Year and tabbed with AP All-American Honorable Mention honors. Truong and Yvonne Ejim were both finalists for 2023 WBCA NCAA Division I Coaches' All-America as well. As a team, GU led the country in three-point percentage and finished with 40.5% from beyond the arc, which was also a program record. In 2021-22, Fortier led the Bulldogs to an overall record of 27-7, including a 15-2 conference record. Gonzaga won its 10th WCC Conference Championship Tournament title, securing its spot in the NCAA Tournament for the 13th time in program history. Fortier and the Bulldogs were seeded No. 9 in the tournament and defeated No. 8 Nebraska in the first round, 68-55. In the next round, GU battled the No. 1 seeded Lousiville, and fell by only nine points. Three players earned WCC All-Conference recognition, with Melody Kempton and Kayleigh Troung earning All-WCC First Team and Yvonne Ejim winning Sixth Woman of the Year. This marked the second-straight year that a Gonzaga player was named the Sixth Woman of the Year.

In 2020-21, Fortier led the Bulldogs to an overall record of 23-4, including a 16-1 conference record, which secured the fifth-straight West Coast Conference title. The Bulldogs lost in the first round in the NCAA Tournament, but Fortier still led them to a No. 20 ranking in the final rankings. Four players earned WCC All-Conference recognition, with Jenn Wirth named Co-WCC player of the year along with Jill Townsend on the All-WCC First Team. Seven players were recognized on the WCC All-Academic team, including Jill Townsend and Jenn Wirth.

In 2019-20, Fortier led the Bulldogs to their first regular-season Top 10 ranking, reaching No. 10 in the USA Today/WBCA Coaches Poll and a No. 11 ranking in the Associated Press poll, their highest AP ranking ever. Gonzaga put together its best regular-season record (28-2), finished the season with a 28-3 record—the highest win percentage in program history—and secured its fourth-straight West Coast Conference regular-season title with a conference- and program-record tying 17-1 record. Gonzaga was slated to host the NCAA Tournament First and Second Rounds—the first time the Zags would host since the NCAA adjusted hosting rules to include the top 16 seeds in 2014-15—before the abrupt end of the season due to the COVID-19 pandemic. Fortier's Zags further displayed national dominance both offensively and defensively, ranking second in the nation in three-point field goal percentage (39.5) and third in scoring defense (51.9 ppg). Five players earned WCC All-Conference recognition in 2019-20, highlighted by Gonzaga's ninth Player of the Year, Jill Townsend, while six players were named WCC All-Academic. For her efforts, Fortier was named a semifinalist for the Werner Ladder Naismith Coach of the Year award.

2018-19: In 2018-19, Fortier led the Bulldogs a No. 11 USA Today/WBCA Coaches Poll ranking and a No. 12 Associated Press Poll ranking while guiding the Zags to a 29-5 overall record, which ties for the second-best in program history. GU claimed its third-straight WCC regular-season title while Fortier was named WCC Coach of the Year for the fourth time in five seasons, surpassing her own conference record for the award. The Bulldogs advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the 11th time in program history and the fourth time under Fortier, securing the No. 5 seed, the highest in program history. Gonzaga advanced to the NCAA Second Round for the sixth time in history, falling to Oregon State 76-70 in Corvallis, Ore. Fortier coached three Zags to First Team All-WCC honors in Laura Stockton, Zykera Rice and Chandler Smith while Jill Townsend was selected Honorable Mention. Fortier was also selected as a Werner Ladder Naismith Coach of the Year Late Season Candidate in addition to being selected as 20 local Spokane women as part of the 2019 Women in Business Leadership Awards.

2017-18: With a young crew that carried just one senior on the roster, Fortier posted her then-winningest season with a 27-6 record, the program's 10th 25-win season in 11 years. The Zags went 17-1 in conference play, the first WCC Team ever to accomplish the feat, claiming the regular-season title. Gonzaga went on to claim the WCC Tournament title as well, advancing to the NCAA Tournament for the 10th time in history. Three players earned WCC All-Conference recognition, led by Player of the Year Jill Barta, the eighth POY in program history. WNBA Draft pick Jill Barta became the third Zag in history to be named First Team All-WCC three time in her first three seasons.

2016-17: Fortier's Zags swept the WCC regular-season and tournament championships while Fortier became the fastest coach in program history to 50 wins. At 26-7, Gonzaga advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the eighth time in nine years and ninth time overall. Fortier's 2016-17 squad set program records in three pointers made (224), free throw percentage (77.4) along with breaking the single-game three-pointers made record three times, finally settling on 17. Jill Barta became only the second sophomore in the Division I era to score 1,000 career points at GU.

2015-16: In her second year, Fortier led the Zags to the WNIT Second Round behind freshman phenom Jill Barta. Barta was selected First Team All-WCC—the first freshman to earn First Team honors in eight years—while Shelby Cheslek collected Honorable Mention honors. Cheslek was also named WCC All-Academic First Team while Kiara Kudron, Shaniqua Nilles, Emma Stach, Georgia Stirton and Elle Tinkle were honorable mention selections.

2014-15: In her first season as head coach, Fortier led Gonzaga to a 26-8 finish and its seventh-straight NCAA Tournament appearance. The Zags advanced to their fourth Sweet 16 following a pair of upsets in the first and seconds rounds as an 11-seed. Gonzaga set new program records in 2014-15, including a program-best 77.4 percent from the free throw line which also ranked fourth in the country. The Bulldogs also set new marks in free throws made (534) and made three-pointers (211). Fortier was named the WCC Coach of the Year after guiding the Zags to their 11th-straight WCC regular-season title. Four Zags also collected All-WCC honors as Sunny Greinacher and Elle Tinkle were named All-WCC First Team, Keani Albanez picked up All-WCC Second Team honors and Emma Wolfram was selected to the WCC All-Freshman team. Fortier was also named the WBCA Division I Rookie Coach of the Year after completing the best rookie season of any Gonzaga coach to date. Her 26 wins and 76.5 win percentage were both top of the list among first year finishes for any GU women's basketball coach.

In addition to serving as Gonzaga's recruiting coordinator, she has mentored two WNBA draftees in Courtney Vandersloot and Katelan Redmon as well as Haiden Palmer. She also coached Taelor Karr, the 2012-13 WCC Player of the Year. A native of Grass Valley, Calif., Fortier played collegiate basketball at Butte (Calif.) Community College before transferring to Cal State Monterey Bay. At CSUMB, she earned Honorable Mention All Cal-Pac Conference honors as a junior and was an NAIA Academic All-American in 2003. She also earned the 2004 CSUMB Female Scholar Athlete of the Year. Fortier graduated Magna Cum Laude from CSUMB in 2004 with a bachelor's degree in human communications. Fortier earned her master's degree in sport and athletic administration from Gonzaga in 2006. Fortier, who spent two years as the Assistant Coaches Representative on the WBCA Board of Directors, is married to Craig Fortier, who joined the Gonzaga staff as an assistant coach in May of 2014, after previously serving as the associate head men's basketball coach at Eastern Washington University. They welcomed their first son, Marcus, in 2010. Their second son, Calvin, was born in 2012, and they welcomed a daughter, Quincy, in July, 2014.

SCOUTING THE COUGS

- WSU returns eight players from last year's Pac-12 Conference Tournament Championship team including three starters who won a program-record 23 games (23-11, 9-9 Pac-12) and were ranked as high as No. 22 in the AP Poll after captured the program's first Pac-12 Women's Basketball Championship. WSU knocked off three straight ranked teams in Las Vegas en route to the 2023 Pac-12 Tournament Championship and clinched their third-straight trip to the NCAA Tournament. Kamie Ethridge, the 2022-23 National Coach of the Year by The Athletic, will see three All-Pac-12 players return this season led by All-America guard Charlisse Leger-Walker.
- The Cougs are coming off a 78-61 victory over Cal Poly on Monday night. WSU had five players score in double figures in the season opening win.
- For the first time in program history, Washington State was voted to the Preseason Associated Press Top-25 Poll, appearing at No. 24. WSU was picked to finish fifth by the Pac-12 Conference coaches and media, matching the best preseason pick in program history after also being picked fifth ahead of the 1991-92 season.
- Guard Charlisse Leger-Walker and center Bella Murekatete were both named the 2023-24 Preseason All-Pac-12 Conference Team as voted on by the conference's coaches and media. Ledger-Walker earns Preseason All-Pac-12 honors for the third-straight season after an All-America campaign last season.

WBB PICKED TO WIN THE WEST COAST CONFERENCE

SOUTH SAN FRANCISCO, Calif. – The Gonzaga women's basketball team was picked to finish first in the West Coast Conference in preseason polls for the second-straight season. Graduate students Brynna Maxwell, Kayleigh Truong, Kaylynne Truong and senior Yvonne Ejim were also named to the Preseason All-WCC Team as the poll and preseason all-conference team were announced Wednesday morning by the WCC.

The Zags received eight first-place votes that and totaled 64 points in the poll. The poll is voted on by the league's nine head coaches, and coaches are not allowed to vote for their own team. Portland received one first-place vote and was selected to finish second with 50 points, while Pacific and Santa Clara were both voted to finish third with 41 points.

Gonzaga has amassed a conference record of 274-34 (.889) during the last 18 seasons, which includes 17 West Coast Conference regular-season titles and nine WCC Tournament championships.

Last season, Ejim led the Zags in scoring with 16.8 points and 8.8 rebounds a game and recorded 8 double doubles. She scored at least 20 points in 11 games this past season, including a career-high 32-point performance against Queens on Dec. 6.

With her efforts last year, she was named WCC Player of the Week three times, while she averaged 27.5 minutes a game. She was also named a semifinalist for the Becky Hammon Player of the Year and named to the All-WCC First Team.

Maxwell averaged 13.5 points a game last year while being one of the best free throw and three-point shooter in the country. Maxwell shot 94.9 percent from the charity stripe and 48.1 percent from the three-point line to lead the nation for the majority of the year. She scored double figures in 23 games last year as she scored a three-pointer in every game during the regular season. She was also named WCC Player of the Week twice and was tabbed All-WCC First Team.

Kaylynne Truong averaged 15.8 points a game and dished out 166 assists last season. She was named the WCC Player of the Year and an AP All-American Honorable Mention. She scored in double figures 28 times. She recorded her career-high against Pepperdine on Dec. 29, with 26 points and six three-pointers. She broke the school record for most made three pointers in a season with 94. Along with being named WCC Player of the Week twice, she was also All-WCC First Team.

Kayleigh Truong was sidelined due to an injury last season, but still appeared in 10 games and started in four of those. In three games, she scored in double figures, while scoring her season-high of 14 at Wyoming. Against Southern Utah, she dished out seven assists while scoring 11. When she returned from her injury in late February, she immediately made an impact for the team while still having limited minutes.

EJIM, MAXWELL AND TRUONG NAMED TO BECKY HAMMON PLAYER OF THE YEAR PRESEASON WATCH LIST

HOPEWELL, N.J. — Yvonne Ejim, Brynna Maxwell and Kaylynne Truong have been named to the preseason watch list for the 2024 Becky Hammon Player of the Year Award. This year's watch list includes representatives from 23 teams and 16 conferences. Gonzaga is the only team with multiple players on the watch list and becomes the first team to ever place three players on a single list.

Three conferences – the Mountain West, Missouri Valley, and WCC – placed three players on the watch list. Drake, Gonzaga, Princeton, and South Dakota have each now placed four different players on at least one watch list since the award's inception, becoming the only teams to do so. Starr Jacobs becomes the first player to appear on a watch list for multiple teams (Arkansas Pine Bluff this season and UT Arlington last season).

BRYNNA MAXWELL NAMED TO 2024 ANN MEYERS DRYSDALE WATCHLIST

Gonzaga's Brynna Maxwell is one of 20 shooting guards in the country named to the Ann Meyers Drysdale Award watchlist announced today by the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame and the Women's Basketball Coaches Association

(WBCA).
Maxwell averaged 13.5 points a game last year while being one of the best free throw and three-point shooter in the country. Maxwell shot 94.9 percent from the charity stripe and 48.1 percent from the three-point line to lead the nation for the majority of the year. She scored double figures in 23 games last year as she scored a three-pointer in every game during the regular season. She was also named WCC Player of the Week twice and was tabbed All-WCC First Team.
Named after the first player, male or female, selected to an All-America Team in four straight college seasons, the annual award in its seventh year recognizes the top shooting guard in women's NCAA Division I college basketball. A national committee of top college basketball personnel determined the watch list of 20 candidates.

KAYLYNNE TRUONG NAMED TO 2024 NANCY LIEBERMAN AWARD WATCHLIST

Springfield, MASS. — Gonzaga's Kaylynne Truong was one of 20 point guards in the country named to the Nancy Lieberman Award watchlist announced today by the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame and the Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA).
Kaylynne Truong averaged 15.8 points a game and dished out 166 assists last season. She was named the WCC Player of the Year and an AP All-American Honorable Mention. She scored in double figures 28 times. She recorded her career-high against Pepperdine on Dec. 29, with 26 points and six three-pointers. She broke the school record for most made three pointers in a season with 94. Along with being named WCC Player of the Week twice, she was also All-WCC First Team.
Now in its 24th year, the award recognizes the top point guard in women's NCAA Division I college basketball. A national committee of top college basketball personnel determined the watch list of 20 candidates. To be considered for this prestigious award, candidates must exhibit the floor leadership, playmaking, and ball-handling skills of Class of 1996 Hall-of-Famer Nancy Lieberman. Gonzaga's own Courtney Vandersloot won the award in 2011.

A LOOK AT THE SCHEDULE

The non-conference slate is one of the toughest in the country as it includes 10 teams that finished in the top 100 in the NET last year. The first game in The Kennel will be on Nov. 2, for the lone exhibition game, against Warner Pacific.
After hosting the exhibition game, the Bulldogs go on the road to play Montana on Dec. 6. The Griz returns Big Sky Player of the Year, Mack Konig. The Griz returns their top leading scorer from last season, Carmen Gfeller, who averaged 13.8 points per game.
The Zags then go on to play the defending Pac-12 Tournament Champions, Washington State, on Nov. 9. The Cougars went 23-11 last season and returns the Pac-12 Most Outstanding Player, Charlisse Leger-Walker. WSU has seven players returning with an addition to Beyonce Bea from Idaho, who was inside the top 15 in the NCAA in five different offensive categories. This will be the 31st matchup between the two programs with GU winning four of the last five games.
Gonzaga comes back home on Nov. 12 for the regular season home opener against Toledo, who made it to the Second Round of the NCAA Tournament last season. The team went 29-5 and have nine players back, including Quinesha Lockett, who was named the MAC Tournament MVP and All-MAC First Team.
The next home game for the Zags is North Florida on Nov. 15, followed by Wyoming on Nov. 18. North Florida is returning their leading scorer, Lyric Swann, who averaged 14.2 ppg and had the most three-pointers on the team last season. Wyoming advanced to the Mountain West Championship game last year along with the Second Round of the WNIT. The Cowgirls return 10 players, including the Mountain West Freshman of the Year, Malene Pedersen.
For the Thanksgiving tournament this year, GU travels to Katy, Texas, to play in the Van Chancellor Classic. The Bulldogs will play Louisville, Alabama and Liberty.
Louisville went to the Elite Eight last season and finished No. 20 in the NET. The Cardinals have four returners and add five transfers. Olivia Cochran played in all 38 games for Louisville last year and led the team in rebounds and had four double doubles.
Alabama finished the season ranked 29 in the NET and played in the First Round of the NCAA Tournament. The Tide returns six players, including Aaliyah Nye, who finished last season ranked second in the SEC for her three-point shooting percentage, which also ranked seventh in the NCAA at 45.1 percent.
Liberty went 22-9 last season and returns seven players while welcoming five freshmen. The Flames finished 16-2 in their conference and made it to the ASUN Championship. The team advanced to the First Round of the WNIT and played Bowling Green.
After the trip to Texas, the Zags take a short road trip to Cheney to play Eastern Washington on Nov. 29. The Eags return 13 of their players, including Jaime Loera, the 2022-23 Big Sky Defensive Player of the Year. She led the Big Sky in steals with 79 and ranked 21st in the NCAA with 2.63 steals a contest.
On Dec. 3, Gonzaga hosts the Pac-12 Regular Season Champion, Stanford, as the two teams match up for the third-straight season. The Cardinal finished the season ranked No. 4 in the NET and advanced to the Second Round of the NCAA Tournament. Stanford is returning nine players, including Cameron Brink, the two-time WBCA Player of the Year. She averaged 15.1 points, 9.6 rebounds, 1.8 assists and 3.5 blocks, last season to be named the Naismith Defensive Player of the Year.
GU continues the competitive non-conference slate with a trip to Cal (Dec. 7) and Rice (Dec. 9) before returning home to play South Dakota State (Dec. 17).
Cal returns seven players from last season and finished in the top 100 in the NET. Rice finished 23-9 and was in the top 100 in the NET last season as they bring back 10 returners to their team.
South Dakota State had the fifth hardest non-conference schedule last season and finished 24th in the NET. The Jackrabbits won the Summit League Championship and made it to the Second Round of the NCAA Tournament. They return nine players this year, including Kallie Theisen, the Summit League Sixth Woman of the Year and Haleigh Timmer, the Summit League Tournament MVP.
The Zags then take one more trip to Phoenix, Ariz., to play Arizona in the Jerry Colangelo Classic at Footprint Arena on Dec. 20. The neutral site game will be the first time the Bulldogs and the Wildcats have met in program history.
Arizona was 27 in the NET last year and welcomes four transfers and four freshmen this year. Four players also return for the Wildcats, including Helena Puevo, who was named to the Pac-12 All-Defensive Team.
GU closes out the non-conference schedule at home against New Mexico on Dec. 22. This will mark just the second time in program history that the two teams have met. New Mexico has eight returners as the Lobos went 20-13 last year and advanced to the second round of the WNIT.

WCC PREVIEW

SAN MATEO, Calif. - The West Coast Conference announced its 2023-24 women's basketball conference schedule on Friday. The race for the WCC regular season crown will stretch over a nine-week span, featuring 16 conference games. Conference play is slated to begin on Jan. 4 and will conclude on Feb. 29 for Gonzaga.
The Bulldogs have won 17 of the last 19 regular-season WCC titles, along with 10 tournament championship titles.
The Zags open WCC play with a trip to Portland on Thursday, Jan. 4. The Bulldogs then host Santa Clara and San Diego on Jan. 11 and Jan. 13, respectively.
GU goes back on the road to LMU on Jan. 18, and comes back home to take on Saint Mary's on Jan. 20.
The Bulldogs close out January with two-straight away games against Santa Clara on Jan. 25 and San Francisco on Jan. 27.
Gonzaga opens the second half of conference play and the month of February at San Diego on Feb. 1 and returns home for a game against Pacific on Feb. 3. The Zags stay home for the next two games, welcoming Pepperdine on Feb. 8 and LMU on Feb. 10. Gonzaga goes on another road trip to Saint Mary's on Feb. 15 and Pacific on Feb. 17 before returning back to the Kennel for San Francisco on Feb. 22.
The Zags have their last conference road trip to Pepperdine on Feb. 24. The team then wraps up league play at home against Portland on Feb. 28 for Senior Day.
The West Coast Conference Championships will follow on March 7-12 at the Orleans Arena in Las Vegas.
