THE TEN COUNT

♦ Missouri State returns to the road Saturday when the Bears square off with Washington State in Pullman, Wash. (4 p.m. Central / ESPN+) for MoState's final non-conference road game of the season. The Bears are 1-1 in true road games this season.

♦ Junior standout Vincent Brady II (Indianapolis, Ind.) needs 3 three-pointers to reach 100 for his collegiate career (70 games). This season, Brady is shooting a team-best 42.3 percent from 3-point range and is coming off a 15-point outing against Indiana State -- including three treys -- in his return to the Bears' rotation.

♦ Dez White (So., Jefferson City, Mo.) is coming off a 30-point effort in Missouri State's conference opener against Indiana State. He was 9-for-18 from the field, 5-of-11 from three and 7-for-8 at the stripe with 5 assists and 2 steals. He is the 102nd Bear to score 30 points in a game and first since Alston Mason scored 36 vs. Drake (1/24/24), which was also the last time a Missouri State player had 5 threes in a game.

♦ White is one of 7 Division I players to score in double-figures in every game this season (minimum of 9 games), while leading the MVC in scoring average (18.9) which ranks 44th nationally.

♦ The defensive-minded Bears have forced 10+ turnovers in every game this season and have averaged 15.22 takeaways per contest, which ranks 48th nationally and 1st in the Missouri Valley Conference. The Bears also rank 40th nationally -- and 1st in the MVC -- in steals per game (9.3).

♦ Jalen Hampton (Jr., St. Louis) is 2nd in the MVC in total rebounds (75) and rebounds per game (8.3). Likewise, his 3.0 offensive boards per game ranks 3rd in The Valley. He ranks 56th nationally in rebounds per game.

♦ Michael Osei-Bonsu (Jr., Bolingbrook, Ill.) ranks in the top-5 in the Missouri Valley in three key categories: 2nd in offensive rebounds per game (3.11), 3rd in total rebounds per game (7.7), and 5th in steals per game (1.89). He is averaging 8.5 rebounds over the past four contests and is coming off his first double-double (13 pts., 10 reb.) vs. Indiana State last Saturday.

♦ After last year's 69-64 win at Saint Mary's (12/23/23), the Bears are looking to collect a road win against a WCC foe for the second straight season. The MoState win over the (KenPom) No. 48 Gaels was its best non-conference road victory since a win at No. 40 Missouri (11/18/98).

♦ Allen Udemadu (Sr., Lagos, Nigeria) turns 24 on Saturday. The transfer from Morgan State has played in 5 games this season and is tied for third on the squad in blocked shots (2).

♦ The Bears snagged 11 steals against Indiana State last Saturday, marking the 5th time in 9 games they have recorded double-figure steals. MSU's 84 steals is already more than half of last season's 33-game total (142).

After an extensive national search, Missouri State University announced Cuonzo Martin as its men's basketball head coach on March 27, 2024. The man who orchestrated Missouri State's only MVC regular-season championship run during his first tenure in Springfield originally coached at Missouri State from 2008 to 2011.

Martin begins his second tenure at MoState with a 269-202 (.571) career record in 15 seasons as a Division I head coach with experience at MSU, Tennessee, California and Missouri. His teams have made nine postseason appearances in that span, including four trips to the NCAA Tournament, four appearances in the NIT, and a CIT title with the Bears in 2010.

Coach Martin is also 66-45 (.595) in his fourth season (and second stint) at Missouri State University. Martin is 4-1 in his career against Washington State, all with Cal, including a 2-0 record in Pullman.

Martin also boasts 56 college graduates during his career with stints at MoState, Tennessee (2011-14), California (2014-17) and Missouri (2017-22).

A native of East St. Louis, Ill., Martin was a star player at Purdue from 1991-95 for coach Gene Keady and then played four years professionally. He was on the coaching staff at Purdue for eight years under Keady and Matt Painter before accepting his first head coaching position at MSU on March 26, 2008.

In Martin's first stint in Springfield (2008-11), he was named Missouri State's 16th head coach in time for the program's 100th anniversary season and its inaugural campaign at Great Southern Bank Arena. In his second season (2009-10), Martin guided MoState to a 24-12 overall ledger, a 19-2 home record, and an impressive run to the CIT Postseason Tournament title.

His third season at MSU (2010-11) was one of the program's most memorable, as the Bears finished 26-9 overall on the way to the program's first-ever MVC regular-season title with a 15-3 league record. The Bears fell to Indiana State in the finals of the MVC Tournament in St. Louis and capped an unforgettable campaign by advancing to the second round of the NIT. Martin was named 2011 MVC Coach of the Year and recipient of the Ben Jobe Award as the nation's top minority head coach. Over Martin's last two years at MoState, the Bears were 35-3 at home and did not lose a non-conference home game.

BEARS ON THE AIR

All Missouri State games air live on the Bears Radio Network with Springfield flagship station KWTO (93.3 FM) providing the feed to the five-station network and online at The Varsity Network and RadioSpringfield.com.

Hall of fame broadcaster Art Hains is back for his 44th and final season on the microphone for Bears basketball this season. The legendary Voice of the Bears will handle all home games on the Bears Radio Network from Learfield. Since September 2022, Hains has been battling a life-threatening illness that began with a West Nile Virus diagnosis. He celebrated his 1,000th MSU basketball broadcast on 1/2/13 and his 2,500th MSU event on 11/9/19.

For the third straight season, Missouri State Director of Broadcasting Corey Riggs will handle road play-by-play duties for the Bears Radio Network.

Missouri State men's basketball legend Mike Keltner (1970-74) provides color commentary for all games.

THE SERIES

The Bears and Cougars have met just once previously -- 10 years ago in Anchorage, Alaska.

In the final seconds of regulation, MSU's Dorian Williams drove to the basket for the potential game-winning shot at the buzzer, but his layup off the glass spun around the rim and came out to force overtime. Washington State capitalized on its good fortune and sent Missouri State home with an 89-84 defeat in extra time in the Great Alaska Shootout 4th/6th-place game on Nov. 29, 2014.

Williams finished with 13 points and game highs 6 rebounds and 8 assists for the Bears who led by 12 at the intermission and by 14 early in the second half. Camryn Boone added 19 points for Missouri State before fouling out, while Loomis Gerring and Marcus Marshall each scored 18, and Austin Ruder added 14. DaVonte Lacey led all scorers with 31 points, including 8 in overtime, to lead four Washington State players in double figures in the scoring column. The Cougars went 18-for-27 (.667) from the field after the intermission and shot a solid 83 percent at the foul line to keep themselves in the game. The Bears were in command for most of the game and got a dunk from Boone and pair of free throws from Williams to lead 49-35 with 18:38 to play before WSU's comeback.

30-POINT EFFORT HIGHLIGHTS VALLEY OPENER

The Bears' Missouri Valley Conference opener on Dec. 7 vs. Indiana State at Great Southern Bank Arena was highlighted by a 30-point output from Dez White (So., Jefferson City, Mo.). White was 9-for-18 from the field, 5-for-11 from three and 7-of-8 at the line to post MSU's first 30-point game since Jan. 24, 2024 (Alston Mason vs. Drake), which was also the last time a Missouri State player had 5 threes in a game. The 80-77 loss to Indiana State in MSU's final Valley lid lifter pushed the Bears to 22-13 in MVC openers and 29-6 in MVC home openers (13-4) at Great Southern Bank Arena.

WHITE EARNS VALLEY HONORS ON DEC. 2

Guard Dez White (Jefferson City, Mo.) was named Missouri Valley Conference Newcomer of the Week on Dec. 2 after a stellar week on the court. A transfer from Austin Peay, the junior standout averaged 19.3 points per game for the week with games against Boston College, South Dakota State and Oral Roberts. He was also 50-percent (9-of-18) from 3-point range and made 90 percent of his free throws (17-of-19).

White's week included a game-high 25 points against the ACC's Boston College in a narrow Cayman Islands Classic semifinal loss. He followed that with a team-high 15 points vs. SDSU with four 3-pointers. He then opened December with a team-high 18 points in a road win at Oral Roberts, knocking down four more triples with a game-high five assists. White was MSU's representative on the Cayman Islands Classic All-Tournament Team.

BEARS TAKE FOURTH AT CAYMAN ISLANDS CLASSIC

Missouri State finished fourth in the 2024 Cayman Islands Classic, Nov. 24-26. The Bears knocked off High Point, 71-61, in a highly-competitive opening-round contest with Vincent Brady II collecting 27 points, 10 rebounds and 13-of-14 free throws. MSU lost a semifinal heart-breaker to ACC foe Boston College, 76-74, in overtime with Dez White scoring 25 points and leading MSU's second-half comeback. The third-place game resulted in a 75-55 loss to South Dakota State with White leading the MoState side with 15 points.

BRADY EARNS VALLEY NEWCOMER LAURELS

Standout guard Vincent Brady II (Jr., Indianapolis, Ind.) was named Missouri Valley Conference Newcomer of the Week on Nov. 18. Brady led the Bears to two victories with 21 points against Missouri Southern and followed that with 15 against previously-unbeaten Tulsa. For the week, the transfer from IU Indianapolis led or shared the team lead in scoring (18.0), rebounding (7.0), steals (3.0) and free throws (10) while shooting 52 percent from the field in a 2-0 week. He is the first Bear to earn MVC Newcomer of the Week honors since Dalen Ridginal (1/2/23).

KRAMER WILL MISS 2024-25 CAMPAIGN

After undergoing off-season knee surgery, guard Nick Kramer (So., St. Louis, Mo.) is expected to miss the entire 2024-25 season. One of just two returning players on this year's MSU roster, Kramer earned two starts in eight appearances as a redshirt freshman in an injury-plagued 2022-23 season. He was named MVC Freshman of the Week on Jan. 8 after a breakout week that featured a 10-point effort at home against Northern Iowa (Jan. 3) and 6 points at Bradley (Jan. 6). The transfer from Saint Louis University became the first MoState player to earn the newly-created MVC Freshman of the Week honor.

FIFTY-THREE STRAIGHT WINNING SEASONS AT HOME

Last season's 9-5 ledger at Great Southern Bank Arena secured Missouri State's 53rd straight winning season at home. MSU has been over .500 in home every season since 1971-72, encompassing more than a half century and three different home venues. The Bears are in their 17th season at Great Southern Bank Arena and own a 176-78 (.693) all-time record at "The Vault," including a 47-12 ledger under coach Cuonzo Martin (3-1 this year).

Over Martin's last three seasons as Bears' head coach (2009-10, 2010-11 and 2024-25), Missouri State is 38-4 at Great Southern Bank Arena, including 23 straight non-conference home victories.

BEARS SIGN TWO IN EARLY PERIOD

Head coach Cuonzo Martin announced on Nov. 18 the signing of two players in the early signing period for the 2025-26 season. Joining the Bears next season will be:

- Melakih Cunningham (G, 6-7, 196, Fr., Gary, Ind., Moravian Prep (N.C.)
- Trey Williams Jr. (G, 6-3, 180, Fr., Centralia, Ill., Vashon High School)

Cunningham is originally from Gary, Ind., and is a senior at Moravian Prep National in Hudson, N.C., where he plays in the Elite League for coach Jeremy Ellis. As a junior, he averaged 14.9 points, 8.0 rebounds, 2.2 steals and 1.9 assists per game at Decatur Central High in Indianapolis while shooting 31 percent from three.

Williams has led Vashon High School in St. Louis to three consecutive Missouri state titles, including a 26-6 run in 2023-24. As a junior, he earned all-state laurels for the first time and averaged 12.9 points, 2.5 rebounds and 2.7 assists per game while making 82-of-184 (.446) 3-pointers. He also converted 89 percent at the free throw line.

TRIPLE OVERTIME WIN OVER TULSA

Missouri State's 111-106 triple-overtime home win over Tulsa on Nov. 16 marked the most points by a Bears team since 1976 and set a Great Southern Bank Arena team scoring record. The thrilling victory was Missouri State's first triple-overtime game since an 80-77 senior night win over Bradley on Feb. 25, 2015.

In addition to the scoring landmarks, the game also featured Great Southern Bank Arena records for field goal attempts (89 by Tulsa), free throw attempts (51 by MSU), steals (14 by MSU), personal fouls (34 by Tulsa).

SEVEN IN DOUBLE FIGURES IN MEMORABLE SHOWDOWN

In the Nov. 16 win over Tulsa in triple overtime, seven Bears recorded double figures, including Dez White (20), Chase Martin (18), Michael Osei-Bonsu (17), Vincent Brady II (15), Jalen Hampton (14), Zaxton King (13), Mozae Downing-Rivers (10).

The last time the MSU had seven players score in double figures was a 110-56 win over William Woods on Dec. 30, 2018 when MSU double-figure points from Szymon Wojcik (16), Ross Owens (15), Ryan Kreklow (13), Tulio Da Silva (13), Kabir Mohammed (13), Jared Dixon (11), and Jared Ridder (10). The William Woods game also represents the last time the Bears had scored 110 points in a game.

MOSTATE TAKES BUTLER TO THE WIRE IN OPENER

MSU matched BigEast foe Butler blow-for-blow in the season opener on Nov. 4, but went scoreless during a critical stretch over the last two minutes to decide its fate in a hard-fought 72-65 loss at historic Hinkle Fieldhouse. Dez White led the Bears with 21 points, while Zaxton King scored 12, and Jalen Hampton added 10.

The Bears had four more field goals than the Bulldogs, matched them with nine three pointers and committed just 13 turnovers in a game that featured five ties and nine lead changes. The difference was at the free throw line where Butler finished 21-of-28, while MoState was 6-of-10 in limited opportunities from the stripe.

Down by as many as 12 points in the first half, Missouri State cut its early deficit to three by the half. MSU then erased the deficit entirely with early buckets from Michael Osei-Bonsu and Hampton to start the second period and push ahead 40-39.

Mozae Downing-Rivers knocked down a clutch three with 15:19 to play that pushed Cuonzo Martin's Bears ahead, 45-42. However, a 9-2 run by the Bulldogs followed and shifted the momentum back to the home side down the stretch in a hard-fought, opening-night loss.

Missouri State finished 25-of-67 (.483) from the field, 9-of-28 (.321) from three and 6-of-10 (.600) at the line with 32 rebounds, and 27 points off 19 Butler turnovers.

MISSOURI STATE UNIVERSITY

Missouri State University is a public, comprehensive university system with a mission in public affairs, whose purpose is to develop educated persons while achieving five goals: democratizing society, incubating new ideas, imagining Missouri's future, making Missouri's future, and modeling ethical and effective behavior.

With a current enrollment of 25,038 (Fall of 2024), MSU is the second-largest institution for higher learning in Missouri, and its identity is distinguished by its statewide mission in public affairs. This mission requires a campus-wide commitment to foster competence and responsibility in the common vocation of citizenship. MSU is a selective admissions, graduate-level, teaching and research institution.

Notable alums include: John Goodman (actor), Kathleen Turner (actress), Jake Burger (Miami Marlins), Ryan Howard (2009 NLCS MVP, Philadelphia Phillies), Deidre Goodwin (actress), David Glass (late owner, Kansas City Royals), John Q. Hammons (businessman, hotel developer), Bob Holden (43rd governor of Missouri), Bill Mueller (2003 American League batting champ), and Jackie Stiles (WBB Hall of Famer).

MSU is a member of the Missouri Valley Conference in 15 sports with affiliate membership in the Missouri Valley Football Conference (MVFC) and CUSA (beach volleyball) with newly-added sports of STUNT and acrobatics & tumbling not affiliated with a conference.

The university has announced plans to join Conference USA as a full-time member on July 1, 2025.

MISSOURI VALLEY CONFERENCE

The nation's second-oldest NCAA Division I conference continues to be a leader in college athletics and is one of the nation's most progressive conferences. With the addition of Belmont and Murray State in 2022, the MVC's 12 league members have worked together to compete at the highest level.

In 2018, Loyola University of Chicago advanced to the Final Four, giving the MVC a representative on the biggest stage in college basketball for the second time in six seasons (Wichita State, 2013). MVC participation in ESPN's multi-team events and elite tournaments, have added strong opponents and more national television exposure to non-co-nference scheduling. The MVC also boasts tradition from the likes of Hall of Famers Larry Bird and Oscar Robertson among a list of more than 260 players drafted to the NBA.

MO STATE BEGINS TRANSITION TO CUSA

On May 10, Missouri State announced it had accepted an invitation to join Conference USA as a full-league member, effective July 1, 2025. Missouri State will continue competing in the Missouri Valley for the 2024-25 season with full eligibility for conference championships and NCAA bids. Missouri State football (a member of the separately-organized Missouri Valley Football Conference) is ineligible for postseason play in its final season at the FCS level this fall.

Founded in 1995 and based in Dallas, CUSA's current membership (2024-25) includes 10 schools with Missouri State and Delaware expanding the league's membership to 12 in 2025-26. The transition marks Missouri State's first conference change since it moved from the Mid-Continent to the Missouri Valley in August of 1990.

EXHIBITION GAME

Oct. 29, 2024, Great Southern Bank Arena, Springfield
Missouri State 72, Southwest Baptist 65

Led by 17 points from Michael Osei-Bonsu, Missouri State shot 48 percent from the field and had four players score in double figures to take care of visiting Southwest Baptist, 72-65, in the Bears' only preseason exhibition game of the new season.

Jalen Hampton posted a double-double with 10 points and 10 rebounds for the home side, while Dez White scored 11, and Chase Martin poured in 11 off the bench to contribute to the victory.

Coach Cuonzo Martin's Bears transformed a two-point halftime lead into a double-figure advantage before the first media timeout of the second half. Osei-Bonsu scored twice, Hampton converted a basket at the rim, and MoState collected triples from Wesley Oba and Martin to push ahead 43-33 with 16:04 to play.

Missouri State's lead swelled to 11 points heading into the under-12 media timeout after a Vincent Brady II layup as the shot clock expired made it 51-40.

With nine minutes to go, back-to-back layups by Oba gave the Bears their biggest lead of the night, 55-42.

Down the stretch, Missouri State overcame a sluggish start at the free throw line by converting its charity shots with the game in the balance. The Bears made 11 of their last 12 from the stripe in the final seven-and-a-half minutes to put things away.

For its part, SBU capitalized on Missouri State's mishaps with 21 points off 15 Bears' turnovers. Drenin Dinkins had a game-high 22 points for the Bearcats, including three triples.

The Bears finished 27-of-56 (.482) from the field, 4-of-16 (.250) from long range and 14-for-23 (.609) at the stripe with 41 rebounds and 11 assists, including three apiece from Martin and freshman Zaxton King.

The Bears never trailed in the second half.

In the first half, the Bears shot 48.3 percent from the field and got 10 points from Osei-Bonsu to take a 31-29 lead into the intermission.

There were seven ties and five lead changes in the opening 20 minutes with the visiting Bearcats surviving a clutch 8-0 run from the Bears late in the opening stanza. Back-to-back buckets from White preceded Brady's second dunk of the game, while a layup by Jalen Hampton gave the Bears a 27-23 advantage at the three-and-a-half minute mark.

SBU responded with its fifth three of the opening half with Luke Ogle making it a one-point game. Later, SBU collected a traditional three-point play from Dinkins to knot things up late in the half.

MoState, however, ended the period with a pair of timely stops and Osei-Bonsu's fifth field goal to return the lead to the home side at the break.

Nov. 4, 2024, Hinkle Fieldhouse, Indianapolis, Ind.
Butler 72, Missouri State 65

Missouri State matched BigEast foe Butler blow-for-blow in the season opener but went scoreless during a critical stretch over the last two minutes to decide its fate in a hard-fought 72-65 loss.

Dez White led three Bears in double figures with 21 points, while Zaxton King scored 12, and Jalen Hampton added 10.

The Bears had four more field goals than the Bulldogs, matched them with nine three pointers and committed just 13 turnovers in a game that featured five ties and nine lead changes. The difference was at the line where Butler finished 21-of-28 on 28 called fouls against the Bears, while MoState finished 6-of-10 in limited opportunities from the stripe.

Down by as many as 12 points in the first half, Missouri State cut its early deficit to three by the half. MSU then erased the deficit entirely with early buckets from Michael Osei-Bonsu and Jalen Hampton to start the second half and push ahead 40-39.

Mozae Downing-Rivers knocked down a clutch three at the 15:19 mark to push Cuonzo Martin's Bears ahead, 45,42, but a 9-2 run by the Bulldogs seemed to shift the momentum back to the home side.

Missouri State then embarked on a 9-3 run of its own over a key three-minute stretch to retake the lead, 56-54, on a layup by Osei-Bonsu at the 9:15 mark.

But like they did most of the evening, Butler made its hay at the foul line down the stretch. With the game tied at 56 and just under nine minutes to go, Butler got to the line 10 times with the game in the balance.

Thad Matta's team hit a desperation three at the shot-clock buzzer with just under three minutes to play to extend its lead to six. White, however, responded for the Bears with a triple of his own – his fourth of the night – to make it 68-65.

Butler pushed back ahead by five with a pair of free throws, but Osei-Bonsu's layup in the final minute appeared to get the deficit down to three. But a video review took the goal-tended bucket away and gave the ball back to Butler, which took the momentum to the finish line in a seven-point decision.

MSU was just 3-for-20 from the field over the last 9 minutes of the game.

Jahmyl Telfort led all players with 29 points for Butler, including 11-of-16 from the stripe, while Pierre Brookes scored 13 for the Bulldogs.

Missouri State finished 25-of-67 (.373) from the field, 9-of-28 (.321) from three and 6-of-10 (.600) at the line with 32 rebounds, and 27 points off 19 Butler turns.

In the first half, the Bears erased a 12-point deficit in the final six minutes of the opening period, overcoming a free throw imbalance to tie things up, 36-36, on a stick-back by Jalen Hampton with 15 seconds left. Butler was able to post a traditional three-point play with 1.1 ticks to go in the opening half to take a 39-36 lead into the intermission.

Nov. 11, 2024, Great Southern Bank Arena, Springfield
Missouri State 90, Missouri Southern 61

Vincent Brady II led four Missouri State players in double figures with 21 points as the Bears defeated visiting Missouri Southern, 90-61, in MSU's home opener. Dez White added 16 points for coach Cuonzo Martin's squad, while Zaxton King poured in 14 and Chase Martin added 12. Michael Osei-Bonsu also contributed to the winning cause with 13 rebounds, while Mozae Downing-Rivers dished out seven assists with just one turnover.

The Bears (1-1) shot 58.6 percent from the field and scored 46 points in the paint to lead to an efficient offensive performance. Defensively, Missouri State forced 18 turnovers, including 14 from steals, and held Missouri Southern (0-2) to 34 percent shooting on the night.

After the Bears led by 14 at the half, Missouri Southern cut its deficit to eight points just five minutes into the final period. Brady then ignited a key MSU surge, knocking down back-to-back threes to push the lead back to 14 before Martin's bucket capped the Bears' 8-0 run and made it a 16-point game with just over 10 minutes to play.

The Lions rode the shoulders of freshman Tyrique Brooks who led the visitors with 21 points. His dunk-back with 5:23 to go made it a 65-53 game. But that was as close as Missouri Southern would get. The Bears responded with an 11-2 run over the next two minutes, including an alley-oop dunk by Brady and a triple by Zaxton King that made it 76-55.

MoState closed out the game on a 14-1 run over the final three minutes with third-year man Tommy Pinegar draining his first career three in the final minute. For the night, the Bears were 33-of-64 from the field, 7-of-24 (.292) from three and 17-of-27 (.630) from the line with a 44-38 rebounding advantage. Missouri Southern was 23-of-67 (.343) overall from the field 3-of-25 (.120) from distance and 12-for-15 (.800) at the stripe with nine assists and five blocks. In the first half, the Bears used a 12-5 surge midway through the opening stanza to gain separation from the Lions with White scoring seven unanswered points for the home side.

White's traditional three-point play with less than two minutes to go in the opening period gave the Bears their biggest lead of the half, 41-25. White finished the half with 14 points, while added eight.

GAME 3

Nov. 16, 2024, Great Southern Bank Arena, Springfield
Missouri State 111, Tulsa 106 (3ot)

Seven Bears scored in double figures and Missouri State shot 53 percent from the floor Saturday afternoon in a wild 111-106 triple-overtime victory over Tulsa at Great Southern Bank Arena. Chase Martin's traditional 3-point play with 3:16 remaining in the third overtime put the Bears up for good in a game that they held the lead for more than 44 minutes.

MoState's 111 points are the most the team has scored since putting up 118 against Kentucky Wesleyan on March 6, 1976, and Tulsa's 106 ties the most ever allowed by MSU in a victory with a 130-106 triumph over Central Missouri on Feb. 8, 1975. It was the first triple overtime game for MSU since an 80-77 home win over Bradley on Feb. 25, 2015.

Missouri State owned a 73-60 lead with 4:30 remaining after Dez White's 3-pointer, but went cold from the field after that with only two free throws in the remainder of regulation. Tulsa (3-1) closed on a 9-0 run and then scored the first five points of overtime for a 14-0 run and 80-75 lead with 4:01 on the clock.

White hit a go-ahead trey for 85-82 with 45 seconds remaining and Tulsa hit a half court shot at the buzzer to force a second overtime tied at 87. The second overtime was played within one possession in its entirety, with a Golden Hurricane free throw with 35 seconds left forcing the 95-95 deadlock.

Martin's and-1 broke a 98-all tie with 3:16 left in the third extra period, White followed with a jumper for 103-98 and the Bears led by at least three points the rest of the way.

White led the Bears with 20 points, followed by Martin with 18, including seven in the third overtime. Michael Osei-Bonsu had 17, Vincent Brady II added 15, Jalen Hampton score 14, Zaxton King had 13 and Mozae Downing-Rivers scored 10.

MoState held Tulsa to 35-for-89 (.393) shooting and 6-for-26 (.231) from beyond the arc. The Bears owned 52-51 rebounding edge.

Nov. 19, 2024, Great Southern Bank Arena, Springfield Missouri State 78, UT Arlington 68

Missouri State outscored visiting UT Arlington by 13 points in the second half and pulled away down the stretch to record a 78-68 home win.

Zaxton King led five Missouri State players in double figures with 18 points, while Vincent Brady II added 14, and Jalen Hampton posted a double-double with a dozen points and as many rebounds. The Bears also got 12 points from Dez White and 11 from Chase Martin, including 7-of-8 at the line.

The Bears' third straight victory was not an easy task with seven ties and 14 lead changes dictating the first 30 minutes of the contest. The Mavericks (2-3) led five at the half and pushed ahead by as many as six points twice in the second half.

Near the midway point in the final period, King buried a three from the left wing on an extra-effort pass from Jalen Hampton who leaped out of bounds to save the ball to the MSU freshman. King's triple gave the Bears a 57-55 lead with 10:16 to go, and the home side never trailed again.

In the final five minutes, second-chance buckets by Martin and Michel Osei-Bonsu both extended Missouri State's lead to seven with the latter making it a 73-66 contest with just over two minutes remaining.

From there, MoState made 3-of-4 free throws before White's layup in the final minute gave the Bears their biggest lead of the evening, 78-66.

UTA was led by Jason Ellingsworth who tallied a game-high 19 points off the bench. Darius Burford and Raysean Seamster added 14 points apiece for the Wester Athletic Conference opponents.

The Bears out-rebounded UTA, 24-11, in the second half, including 10 offensive caroms. MSU also scored 17 points off 18 UTA turnovers in the contest with the home club notching double-figure steals for the fourth time in as many games.

Coach Cuonzo Martin's squad finished 22-of-57 (.386) from the field, 5-of-15 (.333) from distance and 29-of-34 (.853) from the stripe with a 36-30 overall rebounding advantage.

UTA shot 25-of-48 (.521) from the field, 5-of-15 (.333) from long range and 13-for-19 (.684) from the foul line with 39 bench points.

Hampton led all Missouri State scorers with 10 points in the opening half on 5-of-5 shooting. The Bears battled through two ties and seven lead changes to lead by eight on two occasions. But, the visitors converted four of their last five field goals before the intermission to lead 37-34 at the halfway point.

The Bears were 12-of-14 at the line in the opening 20 minutes.

Missouri State got career-highs 27 points and 10 rebounds from Vincent Brady II and 13 points from Dez White to turn back previously-unbeaten High Point, 71-61, in the opening round of the Cayman Islands Classic.

The Bears had to fight off a late surge by the Panthers but utilized a 40-26 rebounding advantage and a 17-of-21 effort from the free throw line to secure their fourth straight win.

Missouri State used a 9-0 run early in the second half to transform a five-point halftime lead into their biggest advantage of the night, 50-37 after triples from White and Chase Martin, followed by a Brady free throw and pure jumper from Mozae Downing-Rivers.

High Point responded with a 10-0 outburst of its won to make it a 50-47 game with 8:33 to go as the game became even more physical, resulting in four player technical fouls.

The Bears, however, kept their composure through adversity with Downing-Rivers scoring seven straight for the Springfield club to restore order and push the lead back to nine, 57-48.

Down the stretch, the Bears were rock solid at the line, making 6-of-6 in the final 1:01 and handling the Panthers' full-court pressure to perfection. In the end the Bears collected 8 steals, forced 13 turnovers and snagged a season-high 16 offensive boards to secure the win.

MSU finished 23-of-59 (.390) from the field 8-of-18 (.444) from three and 81 percent at the line (17-of-21) with Downing-Rivers and Zaxton King each distributing four assists.

GAME 6

Nov. 25, 2024, George Town, Cayman Islands
Boston College 76, Missouri State 74 (ot)

Missouri State overcame an 11-point second-half deficit and forced overtime here Monday against Boston College, but an Eagles' three-pointer with 4.1 seconds left in extra time sealed a 76-74 Eagles win in the Cayman Islands Classic semifinals.

Dez White scored a game-high 25 for the Bears, including 10 straight MoState points over the last 1:41 of regulation and first minute-plus of overtime. Jalen Hampton added 15 points and 10 rebounds for his second double-double of the season, while Bears' big man Michael Osei-Bonsu scored 13 points to go with 7 rebounds.

Boston College got 18 points from Fred Payne and Donald Hand Jr. Elijah Strong added 13 points for the Eagles with two three-pointers in overtime, including the game-winner.

Early in the second half, White's elbow jumper made it a 34-33 game before Boston College went on a 14-4 run over the next five minutes to take its biggest lead of the night, 48-37, after a Jayden Hastings bucket off the glass. Zaxton King and Osei-Bonsu then led a 7-0 MoState resurgence to get the deficit back to four at the 10-minute mark.

BC's lead then teetered between six and four until White posted five straight points, King hit a free throw, and Chase Martin's steal and layup with 2:30 remaining in regulation tied the game, 58-58.

White scored MSU's last 6 points in regulation and pushed the Bears up by three, 64-61, on a pair of free throws with 29.6 seconds left in the second half before Hand's triple tied things up, 64-64, to force the extra period.

In OT, White kept the hot hand, scoring the first four points of the bonus period. Osei-Bonsu's then converted a put-back off a White miss to give the Bears a 70-64 lead with 2:52 to go. The scrappy ACC club then responded with a dunk by Hastings and a three by Strong to make it a one-point game,

That margin held until the final minute of overtime when Hand put the Eagles ahead 73-72 on a pair of free throws with less than 30 seconds to play. The tough call against the Bears didn't affect Osei-Bonsu who then flipped the script momentarily with his clutch layup for the Bears at the 15.5-second mark, which handed MoState its final lead, 74-73, just before Strong's buzzer beater won it for BC.

The Bears out-rebounded Boston College, 35-32, on the night with 11 offensive caroms leading to 16 second-chance points.

BC's 10 blocks on the night marked the most against the Bears since 2005.

In the first half, the Bears got a career-high 6 assists from Vincent Brady and 7 points from both White and Hampton but trailed by three after a 9-6 BC run before the intermission.

GAME 8

Dec. 1, 2024, Mahee Center, Tulsa, Okla.
Missouri State 72, Oral Roberts 67

Mozae Downing-Rivers engineered a key 7-1 Missouri State run with five minutes left to help the Bears erase an 11-point second-half deficit and score a 72-67 road win at Oral Roberts.

Downing-Rivers started the rally with a slick pass to Michael Osei-Bonsu to give the Bears a 65-60 lead. Later, he used his shooting touch to bury an elbow jumper and a three-pointer to push the visitors ahead 70-61 with 3:12 to play.

The Golden Eagles would trim their deficit to three inside 30 seconds to play, but Dez White helped seal it with two free throws in crunch time as the Bears secured their first true road victory of the campaign.

White led all Missouri State players with 18 points, while Zaxton King scored 12, Jalen Hampton added 11, and Chase Martin scored 10. Osei-Bonsu finished just shy of a double-double with 9 points and a game-high 10 rebounds.

Oral Roberts was led by Issac McBride with 20 points, while Sam Alajiki scored 16, and Josh Jones added 10 for the home side.

The Bears logged a season-high 10 threes and shot 54.2 percent from the field, also a season-high.

The game was anything but easy for the visiting Bears who trailed 42-30 with 2:08 left in the opening half before cutting their deficit to nine at the break. ORU opened the second half with a bucket by Jones to make it 44-33 with 18:52 to go.

The Bears began to chip away and took less than five minutes to knot the score, 48-48, on the heels of a 15-4 run. White buried three of his four treys in that span with key buckets from King, Osei-Bonsu and Hampton to even things up at the 14-minute mark.

ORU responded a 6-1 surge of its own to lead by five before Downing-Rivers hit a jumper, White knocked down two free throws and Hampton returned the lead to the Bears on a layup with 11:18 to go.

The lead teetered back and forth four more times until White's bucket off the glass at the 9:19 mark gave the Bears a 59-58 lead. MoState would never trail again, and Downing-Rivers efforts pushed the Bears to the nine-point lead until he exited the game with 2:27 to play.

In the first half, the Bears shot 50 percent from the field but a pivotal 13-0 run by the Golden Eagles pushed the home side up by as many as 12 and 42-33 at the intermission.

GAME 9

Dec. 8, 2024, Great Southern Bank Arena, Springfield
Indiana State 80, Missouri State 77

MSU's Dez White scored a career-high 30 points for the Bears, but visiting Indiana State got a clutch layup from Jaden Daughtry with 12 seconds left in the game to push the visitors to an 80-77 victory in the MVC opener for both clubs.

White finished 9-of-18 from the field with five treys and five assists to lead MoState. Michael Osei-Bonsu notched his first double-double of the season with 13 points and 10 rebounds for the home side, while Vincent Brady II pitched in 15 points in his return to the rotation, and Jalen Hampton added 11 off the bench.

Indiana State was led by 23 points from Samage Teel and 20 from Daughtry. Teel hit three of ISU's 10 threes on the night.

After leading by four at the intermission, the Bears converted a pair of early second-half baskets from Osei-Bonsu and Brady to stretch their lead to 44-36 just over a minute into the final stanza.

Indiana State responded with its biggest run of the contest over the next three minutes, going 4-for-4 from the field as part of an 11-0 surge to retake the lead 47-44 before the under-16 timeout.

White wasted little time putting a charge into the Great Southern Bank Arena gathering coming out of a MoState timeout with a corner three as the shot clock expired to knot things up at 47. ISU answered with a quick bucket from Daughtry before Hampton's two charity shots made it 49-49 with 15:26 on the clock.

The Sycamores would hold that lead for the next 10 minutes, stretching their lead to as many as seven and later getting a transition triple from Jayan Walker to make it a 66-60 game with seven-and-a-half minutes remaining.

But a 9-2 Missouri State run over the next three minutes gave the maroon side fresh hope as the Bears held the lead twice more. Osei-Bonsu's left-handed layup and Brady's close-range bucket both restored one-point leads for the home squad, but subsequent three-pointers from ISU's K'Mani Doughty and Josiah LeGree made it 74-69 heading into the final media break.

Down the stretch, the Bears kept clawing with Brady's free throw, White's elbow jumper and Osei-Bonsu's bunny at the rim all making it a one-possession game.

In the final minute, a dunk by Daughtry gave ISU a four-point cushion but Brady's third trey of the night made it a one-point game with 38 seconds left, putting the Bears in a position of needing one defensive stop to complete the comeback.

Unfortunately, Daughtry got loose with just four seconds left on the shot clock and scored on a layup with 12 seconds to go to extend ISU's lead to three. The Bears got a look at two potential game-tying three-pointers in the final moments with long shots by White and Zaxton King narrowly missing to end an other-wise-valiant effort by Missouri State.

The game included nine lead changes – five in the second half.

Cuonzo MARTIN

HEAD COACH

4th Year at Missouri State

B.S. - Purdue, 2000

Hometown - East St. Louis, Illinois

After an extensive national search, Missouri State University announced Cuonzo Martin as its men's basketball head coach on March 27, 2024.

The man who orchestrated Missouri State's only Missouri Valley Conference regular-season championship run during his first tenure in Springfield originally coached at Missouri State from 2008 to 2011.

Martin begins his second tenure at MoState with a 264-198 (.587) career record in 14 seasons as a Division I head coach at MSU, Tennessee, California and Missouri. His teams have made nine postseason appearances in that span, including four trips to the NCAA Tournament, four appearances in the NIT, and a CIT title with the Bears in 2010. Martin also led the Bears to a 2011 Missouri Valley Conference regular-season championship and boasts 56 college graduates during his head coaching career.

A native of East St. Louis, Ill., Martin was a star player at Purdue from 1991-95 for coach Gene Keady and then played four years professionally. He was on the coaching staff at Purdue for eight years under Keady and Matt Painter before accepting his first head coaching position at Missouri State on March 26, 2008.

In Martin's first stint in Springfield, he was named Missouri State's 16th head coach in time for the program's 100th anniversary year and the inaugural season of Great Southern Bank Arena in 2008-09. In his second season (2009-10), Martin guided MoState to a 24-12 overall ledger, a 19-2 home record, and an impressive run to the CollegeInsider.com Postseason Tournament title.

His third season at MSU in 2010-11 was one of the program's most memorable, as the Bears finished 26-9 overall on the way to the program's first-ever MVC regular-season title with a 15-3 league record. The Bears fell to Indiana State in the finals of the MVC Tournament in St. Louis and capped an unforgettable campaign by advancing to the second round of the National Invitation Tournament. Martin was named 2011 MVC Coach of the Year, making him the only MSU sideline boss to receive that honor, as well as claiming the 2011 Ben Jobe Award as the nation's top minority head coach. Over Martin's last two seasons in Springfield, the Bears were 36-3 at home and did not lose a non-conference home game during that span.

Martin has made three head coaching stops since leaving Springfield with stints at Tennessee (2011-14), California (2014-17) and Missouri (2017-22).

In three seasons at Tennessee, Martin guided the Volunteers to a 63-41 (.606) overall record with three postseason appearances and three finishes in the top five in the SEC Standings. The Vols finished second in the SEC in Martin's first season in Knoxville after being picked 11th in the SEC preseason poll. After back-to-back NIT appearances in his first two years as the Volunteers head coach, Martin led Tennessee to a 24-13 record in 2013-14 with an NCAA Sweet 16 trip and a No. 23 national ranking in the season-ending USA Today coaches poll. In the process, Tennessee matched the fourth-best win total in school history. After earning a berth in the NCAA's First Four, the Martin-led Volunteers captured victories over Iowa, UMass and Mercer to equal the most NCAA Tournament wins in program history.

At Cal, Martin led the Golden Bears to a 21-13 mark and NIT appearance in his final season, guiding the 2016-17 squad into the Associated Press Top 25 in the season's second poll while receiving votes in nearly every USA Today coaches poll that year. His squad boasted four All-Pac-12 players, including first-team selection Ivan Rabb. His 2015-16 club went 23-11 and tied for third in the Pac-12 en route to a No. 4 seed in the NCAA Tournament, the highest in program history. The Golden Bears parlayed a consensus top 10 recruiting class into an 18-0 record at Haas Pavilion as part of a school-record 27-game home win streak over Martin's last two campaigns in Berkeley with Cal leading the Pac-12 in both scoring defense (67.3 ppg) and field-goal percentage defense (.396) in year two. Martin was 62-39 (.614) during his three-year tenure at Cal.

His most-recent coaching stop was at Missouri (2017-22) where Martin took over a program that had won just 27 games in the previous three seasons. The Tigers went from eight wins before his arrival to 20 victories in Martin's first season at the helm (2017-18). His Columbia debut season marked Martin's seventh 20-win season in a 10-season stretch and made him the 59th head coach in NCAA Tournament history to lead three different programs to the Big Dance. He later led the Tigers to a second NCAA Tournament run in 2020-21 as Mizzou spent 11 consecutive weeks in the AP Top 25, reaching as high as No. 10 nationally. The Tigers finished the season with three wins over Top 10 teams and seven Quad 1 victories. He was 78-77 (.503) in his five seasons in Columbia.

Martin also has experience as a coach with USA Basketball, serving on the USA Junior National Team staff at the 2011 FISU World University games in Shenzhen, China.

As a student-athlete, Martin was a 1995 first-team All-Big Ten selection at Purdue when he averaged 18.4 ppg and sank 91 3-pointers. He graduated as one of the program's all-time leaders in 3-pointers (179) and among the Boilermakers' career scoring leaders (1,666). Playing under Keady and alongside All-American Glenn Robinson, Martin led Purdue to a pair of Big Ten titles and to a 90-37 four-year record. The Boilermakers went to the postseason each season with Martin, reaching the Elite Eight of the 1994 NCAA Tournament.

Following his collegiate playing career, Martin was selected by the Atlanta Hawks with the 57th overall pick of the 1995 NBA Draft. He played professionally for four years with the NBA's Hawks, Milwaukee Bucks and Vancouver Grizzlies. In 1997, Martin was the leading scorer for Felice Scandone in Italy. Martin returned to his alma mater where he earned his bachelor's degree in restaurant, hotel, institutional and tourism management from Purdue in 2000, and served one season as an assistant on the staff at West Lafayette High School. After earning his degree, Martin joined Keady's Purdue staff for the 2000-01 season as an assistant coach, his college coach, and remained with the Boilermaker program when Painter took over as head coach upon Keady's retirement. He served as the Boilermaker's associate coach during the 2007-08 season before taking the Missouri State post the following season. In his eight-year tenure at Purdue, mentored several all-conference stand-outs, including All-American and current Minnesota Timberwolves forward Robbie Hummel.

Martin has also served on the NABC Board of Directors, the NCAA Oversight Committee and the SEC's Council on Racial Equity and Social Justice.

He and his wife, Roberta, have two sons, Joshua and Chase, and a daughter, Addison.

Chase was a member of the 2024 NCAA national runner-up team at Purdue and is a post-graduate transfer on this year's Missouri State squad.
