THE STARTING FIVE

>> Washington State is looking to make program history this Saturday in the Bay Area. WSU is currently tied for second in the Pac-12 heading into the final game of the regular season. The Cougars are 10-6 in Pac-12 play and 18-9 overall. With a win over Cal, Washington State will set the program record for most Pac-12 wins in a season and most overall wins in a season in the NCAA era.

>> WSU heads into the week tied with Oregon for second place in the Pac-12 standings with two games left to play. With a win, Washington State can secure either the No. 2 or No. 2 seed in the Pac-12 Tournament for the first time in program history. WSU is currently the No. 3 seed in the tournament, as Oregon holds the tiebreaker with the Cougars thanks to the Ducks' win in Pullman earlier this month.

>> Saturday's matchup between Washington State and California will be the 74th all-time meeting between the two schools. WSU has won three-straight games over the Golden Bears, which includes a 69-42 win at Beasley Coliseum back on Dec. 31. Cal leads the all-time series 48-26.

>> With a win this week, Washington State will secure a winning road record for the 2021-22 season. WSU is currently 6-6 in true road games this season and 7-7 away from Beasley Coliseum. The last time WSU won eight-or-more games in a season outside of Pullman came in 2014-15 when the Cougars collected 10 wins in away or neutral contests.

>> Head coach Kamie Ethridge has once again put Washington State up against some of the nation's best teams this season. The Cougars head into the week having played the fifth toughest schedule in NCAA Division I this season according to the Massey Ratings. Washington State also holds an RPI of 34 according to HerHoopStats.com.

KAMIE ETHRIDGE

HEAD COACH FOURTH SEASON AT WSU TEXAS - '86

Kamie Ethridge was named the head coach of WSU women's basketball on April 15, 2018.

Ethridge lifted Washington State to new heights in her third season at the helm in 2020-21, as she guided the Cougars to their first NCAA Tournament berth in 30 seasons. Washington State earned a No. 9 seed in the 2021 NCAA Tournament, where they took on No. 8 -seed South Florida in Austin, Texas. Ethridge also led Washington State to its first-ever ranking in the Associated Press top-25 poll, coming in at No. 25 in the Jan. 11, 2021 poll.

Washington State ended its third season under Ethridge at 12-12, marking the first time the program has posted a .500-or-better overall record since the 2014-15 campaign. The Cougars knocked off three top-25 teams in 2020-21, which included a 67-63 win over No. 5/4 UCLA on Feb. 5, 2021 in Pullman. The win over the Bruins marked the program's first victory over a top-five opponent. WSU also defeated the eventual national runner-up Arizona in Beasley Coliseum, as the Cougs knocked off the Wildcats, 71-69 in overtime, on Jan. 10, 2021 in Beasley Coliseum. Washington State won nine Pac-12 games during the 2020-21 season, which is tied for the second-most Pac-12 wins in a single season in program history. Academically, the Cougars posted their highest cumulative grade point average in program history in 2020-21 with a team GPA 3.629. Washington State was selected to the 2020-21 Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) Academic Top 25 Team Honor Roll for the first time in program history, posting the 20th-best team GPA in all of NCAA Division I women's basketball that season.

Ethridge has recruited elite talent from all over the globe during her tenure at Washington State, which includes New Zealand native Charlissee Leger-Walker, who was a 2020-21 USBWA All-American Honorable Mention selection and the 2020-21 Pac-12 Freshman of the Year. Players such as Ula Motuga (Australia), Johanna Teder (Estonia), Bella Murekatete (Rwanda), Krystal Leger-Walker (New Zealand) Jessica Clarke (Canada) and Tara Wallack (Canada) have went on to play for their national team programs.

The 2019-20 campaign featured a challenge like no other Washington State women's basketball team had seen before. Coming into her second season in Pullman, Ethridge scheduled a school-record 15 games against teams ranked inside the top-25, with 11 of those contests coming in Pac-12 Conference play. The tough sledding proved to be fruitful for the Cougars, as they posted a two-win improvement from year one under Ethridge's guidance, finishing at 11-20 in 2019-20.

Ethridge helped guide Borislava Hristova and Chanelle Molina to their second All-Pac-12 selection under her direction. Hristova earned All-Pac-12 honors four a program record fourth time, as the forward ended her career as WSU's all-time leading scorer with 2,269 career points.

Ethridge won her 100th career game as a head coach on Jan. 5, 2020 with a 96-75 victory at Cal. The win at Cal also featured Borislava Hristova becoming Washington State's all-time leading scorer, breaking Jeane Eggart's 38-year-old school record. The Cougars outscored the Bears 31-6 in the first quarter en route to the 21-point victory. The 31 points were the most ever points scored in an opening frame in WSU history.

The 20 victories collected by Ethridge during her first two seasons on the Palouse is the second-most by head coach through two seasons at Washington State. Ethridge won her first game at WSU Nov. 16, 2018 in with an 87-84, (2OT) victory over Nebraska at home at Beasley Coliseum. She would nab her first Pac-12 win against rival Washington, 79-76, Dec. 30, 2018 in her first-career Apple Cup contest. The win over Washington would be her first of two on the year as she led the Cougs to a sweep of the Huskies for just the second time since 1970. In addition, Ethridge guided her team to its most lopsided win over Washington in the NCAA era as the Cougs defeated the Huskies by 33, 94-61, Feb. 15, 2019, to complete the series sweep.

With Ethridge at the helm, the Cougs put a two on the All-Pac-12 postseason team with Borislava Hristova earning first team honors while Chanelle Molina was named an honorable mention as well as to the all-defensive team.

Ethridge came to Pullman following four seasons as the head coach at the University of Northern Colorado, where she posted a combined 83 victories and led the Bears to their first NCAA Tournament appearance in her final season.

In four seasons at Northern Colorado (2014-18), Etheridge posted three 20-plus win seasons during that time, including a school-record 26 wins en route to being named the Big Sky Coach of the Year in 2018. She led UNC to a then-school record 22 wins in her first season before topping that mark in 2018. In addition, she guided the Bears to two postseason appearances in her four years.

Prior to UNC, Etheridge established herself as one of the premier teachers in the game. Her reputation was not just as a coach, but also as a player, earning a gold medal with the United States at the 1988 Olympics, winning an NCAA National Championship as a player at the University of Texas, and being inducted to the Women's Basketball Hall of Fame in 2002.

Ethridge spent 18 seasons (1996-2014) as an assistant coach at Kansas State, where she was part of a staff that took teams to nine NCAA postseason tournaments, four WNIT postseason tournaments (including winning the 2006 WNIT Championship), and two Big 12 Championships. The Wildcats advanced to six Sweet Sixteen while totaling a record of 350-226 over that span.

In addition to her service with the Wildcats, Etheridge served a four-year term on the USA Basketball Women's Player Selection Committee, which is responsible for the selection of numerous teams, including the World University Games, Pan American Games and Jones Cup teams. In the summer of 1999, she was invited to lead a point guard camp in Colorado Springs, Colo., for current, past and prospective USA Basketball talent.

Prior to Kansas State, Etheridge spent five seasons with Vanderbilt as an assistant coach from 1991-96. The Commodores won the SEC postseason tournament twice en route to advancing to the Sweet Sixteen all five seasons, including one Final Four trip in 1992-93. Etheridge played a major role in recruiting five high school Kodak All-Americans and 13 Gatorade State Players of the Year.

In her first year of coaching, Etheridge joined the Northern Illinois program that advanced to the WNIT Postseason Tournament.

Ethridge had a prestigious playing career at the University of Texas, including leading the Longhorns to the 1986 national championship, where she was named the Most Valuable Player. She served as a team captain for the Longhorns while putting together the first perfect season in NCAA Division I history, finishing the campaign 34-0. Etheridge and Texas advanced to the NCAA Sweet Sixteen every season while moving on to the Elite Eight twice.

A two-time Kodak All-American, Etheridge was honored with the Wade Trophy and the Honda Broderick Cup, awarded to the top female student-athlete in the country, in 1986. The final jewel in her awards crown was the Frances Pomeroy Naismith Player of the Year Award, presented annually to the nation's top senior collegian under 5-foot-6 in height, that same season.

Ethridge continued her playing career after Texas while competing on the international level. She was a member of the U.S. gold medal-winning Olympic team at the 1988 Summer Olympics in Seoul, Korea. Etheridge also won gold medals for Team USA at the 1986 Goodwill Games, 1986 World Championships and the 1987 Pan American Games.

Ethridge had her #33 jersey retired at Texas in September of 1919 as she became the first female athlete in Long Horns Athletics history to earn the honor.

STONY BROOK, N.Y. –The Washington State women's basketball team closed out its non-conference schedule Sunday, Dec. 19, with a 69-62 loss at Stony Brook to end the Cougar's two-day, two-game cross-country trip.

Washington State, who was playing its second game in a 24-hour stretch against teams that played in last season's NCAA Tournament, battled the Seawolves throughout the afternoon. The game featured 13 ties and five lead changes. The two teams were tied at 57-57 after junior Grace Sarver hit a 3-point field goal with 5:08 remaining in the game. Stony Brook scored 12 of the game's final 17 points to hand the Cougars a seven-point defeat to close out non-conference play.

With the loss, Washington State heads into Pac-12 play at 8-3 on the year. The eight wins are the most collected by the Cougars going into conference play under head coach Kamie Ethridge.

Sophomore Charlissee Leger-Walker once again filled up the stat sheet on Sunday against Stony Brook. The guard from Waikato, New Zealand scored a team-high 19 points, collected five rebounds, dished out five assists and added three steals to her ledger.
