COUGS ADVANCE TO THE NCAA SWEET 16

For the first time in program history, the Cougs moved on to the NCAA Third Round after besting #20 Tennessee on penalty kicks in the second round...the PK victory was the first for the Cougs since 2011 after losing their last two shootouts in the postseason in 2012 and 2013...the 2-2 draw was the sixth double-overtime game for WSU in the postseason...the Cougs returned to the postseason for the eighth time in the last 10 years and the third time in the last four...WSU sports a 3-8-4 record in the NCAA tournament.

WSU RANKED #19 IN FINAL POLL

After playing its way into the third round of the NCAA Championships, the Washington State women's soccer team earned a national ranking of No. 19 in the United Soccer Coaches (USC) final poll...Throughout the year the Cougs flirted with a top-25 ranking, routinely receiving votes in the national poll. The Cougs first picked up votes in the week one poll of the season after a 0-0 draw with No. 19 Minnesota...The Cougs' No. 19 ranking is their first ranking inside the top-25 since picking up a No. 23 ranking in the Nov. 10 poll in 2015

KEEPING IT CLEAN ON THE SCORE SHEET

The Cougs finished the season with 11 shutouts on the year, ranking tied 2nd all-time in WSU history...on the year, the Cougs ranked 39th among all teams in Division I soccer in shutout percentage...of the 11 shutouts, the Cougs have shutout five top-25 teams and two top-10 teams.

WAZZU IN THE REGULAR SEASON

The Cougs finished the regular season 9-7-3 overall including a big win over No. 2 UCLA, 1-0, on Oct. 19 that handed the Bruins their first loss of the season...The Bruins earned a No. 2 national-seed in the tournament, one of the seven Pac-12 teams to be included in the 2017 tournament field...WSU ended the conference season in 7th place after posting a 4-6-1 record against the nation's best rivals...While the Cougs shutout the Bruins, they also shutout nine other opponents as one of the top defensive teams in the country...WSU and redshirt-junior keeper, Ella Dederick, came up with 10 clean sheets on the year ranking 12th in the nation.

WEAVER EARNS ALL-REGION HONORS

Capping off a stellar sophomore campaign, second-year forward Morgan Weaver was named to the 2017 United Soccer Coaches NCAA Division I Women's All-West Region Third Team...With the award, Weaver joined an elite list of players from across the country and in Washington State history...The award was the first of Weaver's career and first for WSU since four Cougs were named to the all-region teams in 2015.

THREE COUGS EARN ALL-PAC-12 HONORS

Three Cougs earned Pac-12 All-Conference honors as announced by conference commissioner Larry Scott office Tuesday afternoon...Ella Dederick and Morgan Weaver were named to the third team while Elyse Bennett was awarded all-freshman team honors. Dederick - The captain of the Cougs' defense, Dederick led the way to 10 shutouts on the year, a mark which ranked the redshirt-junior 12th in all of Division I. Her 10 shutouts in the regular season placed her second all-time in WSU single-season annals. Weaver - The University Place native finished the regular season as the Cougs' top scorer as she netted six goals including four game-winners. Her four game-winning strikes ranked second in the Pac-12 with her biggest coming against then No. 14 Nebraska in a 1-0 shutout on Sept. 1. Bennett - After knocking on the scoring door throughout much of the year, Bennett broke through for her first collegiate goal against then No. 6 USC on Oct. 22. She would add her first game-winner four days later at Arizona State, heading home a cross from Weaver. The two would also hook up for the game-winner at Oregon on Oct. 5 when Bennett found Weaver after the pair broke through the Ducks' defense.

UPSET FOR THE RECORD BOOKS

In conference play, the Cougs posted a win for the ages as WSU upset #2 UCLA, 1-0, at home at Lower Soccer Field...the win tied for the biggest upset in program history after beating #2 Washington, 1-0 (2OT) on Nov. 3, 2000...The win marked the Cougs ninth win against a top-10 opponent all-time.

EIGHT COUGS EARN ALL-ACADEMIC HONORS

Continuing the release of postseason awards, the Pac-12 Conference office announced the 2017 All-Academic team with eight Cougars earning honorable mention honors. Earning the distinction for their work in the classroom were Jordan Branch, Kelsee Crenshaw, Ella Dederick, Grace Hancock, Chelsea Harkins, Maddy Haro, Katie Jones, and Maegan O'Neill...for the duo of Dederick and Branch, the award marks the third-straight year the two captains have earned honorable mention honors together...to be eligible for selection to the academic team, a student-athlete must have a minimum 3.0 overall GPA, have been at the institution for one-full year, and appear in at least 50 percent of their team's games.

USA U-23 INVITE FOR WEAVER AND DEDERICK

Continuing to shine on a national level, Cougar standouts Morgan Weaver and Ella Dederick were invited to train with the U-23 National Team...Weaver was invited to camps in Orlando and LA while Dederick joined Weaver in LA for the opening training camp of 2018...the duo add their names to the list to some of the greatest Cougs to ever don the WSU jersey and who were called into national team camps. Some of the most recent camp invitees and all-time greats include Kiersten Dallstream (U20 Full Team Member 2006-08, U23 Camp 2009), Carly Dobratz (U21 Camp 2006), Micaela Castain (U20 Camp 2011, Puerto Rico Full Team), and Nicole Sutterland (Canadian Full Team 2011, U20 and U17 World Cup participant).

WEAVER LEADING THE WAY

As she did last season as a freshmen, sophomore sensation Morgan Weaver finished the regular season tied for the team lead in points with 14 while adding a team-best six goals...She finished second in the Pac-12 in game-winning goals with four...additionally, the scorer added a pair of assists including the game-winning pass to Elyse Bennett at Oregon...she added to her lore in the NCAA Championships with her first career postseason goal in the Cougs 2-2 draw with #20 Tennessee in the NCAA Second Round.

HARO HONES HER OFFENSE FROM THE BACK

Despite moving to the backline in 2017 as a wide defender, junior Maddy Haro finished the season with an impressive 15 points while dishing out a team-best seven assists...she tied for seventh most in the Pac-12...she scored four goals as well including two from the penalty spot as she netted one of just two goals scored against #1 Stanford in Pac-12 play...she would pick up her seventh assist and first-ever postseason point on Weaver's goal against #20 Tennessee in the NCAA Second Round

FRESHMEN MAKE AN IMPRESSION

A youth movement was afoot at WSU with the freshmen making their presence felt...WSU routinely started at least three freshmen each game with as many as six seeing major time together on the field...In all, six freshmen scored on the year with Elyse Bennett and Brianna Alger each netting a pair of goals...Makamae Gomera-Stevens and Aaqila McLyn led the way with two assists each...additionally, the freshmen had their "hands" in 13 of the 26 goals.

AIR O'NEILL TAKES OFF AGAINST THE TOP-25

Entering the season without a goal, junior midfielder Maegan O'Neill came up with three goals on the year, third most on the team...O'Neill scored all three goals at home and all three off of corners...Her first two goals came against #24 Utah...she added her second game-winner against #2 UCLA, tapping home a loose ball off the corner...O'Neill's goal at 3:50 marked the fastest goal scored for the Cougars in 2017.

HANCOCK PROVES TO BE THE ROCK OF THE DEFENSIVE WALL

The leader of the defensive backline, junior Grace Hancock helped guide the Cougs to 11 shutouts on the year, second most single-season WSU history...the third-year center back started all 22 games for the Cougs while playing all but six minutes on the season (2089 min)...she missed just six minutes due to injury after throwing her body in front of a shot at Arizona, however, she would return to the field almost immediately...she has played the most minutes of anyone in a Cougar uniform outside of goal...in addition to defense, she added one goal on the year.

DEDERICK CLIMBS THE RECORD BOOK

With seven shutouts through her first two seasons, redshirt-junior Ella Dederick nearly doubled that mark in 2017 laying claim to being one of the best keepers in the country...At the conclusion of the season, she posted 11 clean sheets (five against the top-25) 9th most in the country in 2017...Her 11 shutouts ranks second in WSU single season history... She now has 18 in her career, tied for 3rd most in WSU history...in addition to the shutouts, Dederick's 32 career wins ranks second all-time in WSU history.

WINNERS FOR WEAVER

The Cougs' leading scorer in each of her first two seasons, sophomore Morgan Weaver has produced 15 career goals..Making the most of her goals, Weaver has come up with seven game-winners, scoring the winner with nearly half of her strikes...her seven game-winners ranks tied for fifth all-time in WSU records just half way through her Cougar career.

SENIORS SAY GOODBYE

The Cougs will graduate Sofia Anker-Kofoed, Jordan Branch, Kelsee Crenshaw, and Chelsea Harkins...together the four have been part of 42 victories including a program record 14 wins in 2015 as well as three NCAA Tournament berths in their four seasons including leading the Cougs into the third round for the first time in program history this season.

HARO NAMED PAC-12 DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK

For the first time in her career, junior Maddy Haro captured Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Week recognition on Sept. 5...Haro led the Cougs to a pair of shutouts including a 1-0 win over then-unbeaten #14 Nebraska...she also tallied a pair of assists in the Cougs 5-0 win over Georgia Southern Sunday afternoon.

DEDERICK NAMED PAC-12 GOALKEEPER OF THE WEEK

Just one week into the new year Cougars' goalkeeper, redshirt-junior Ella Dederick, has been recognized for her play on the field as the WSU captain took home the first Pac-12 Goalkeeper of the Week award as announced by the conference office Aug. 22...The weekly award was the second career award for Dederick who also won the award as a freshman...Facing off against the reigning Big 10 champions, Dederick not only stymied the opposition's attack for 90 minutes of regulation, but tacked on an extra 20 minutes of overtime action for good measure... In all, Dederick faced 14 shots while making three saves to post her first shutout of the season and eighth of her career.

WSU EXTENDS UNBEATEN STREAK AGAINST HUSKIES

With a 0-0 draw in the 2017 regular season finale, WSU extended its unbeaten streak against Washington to 14 games...in that span, which began with a 3-2 victory in 2004, the Cougars have outscored the Huskies by a total of 18-7, going 8-0-5...in the most recent meeting, the two teams battled to a draw in Seattle as neither offense could crack the scoring code in 110 minutes of action.

WASHINGTON STATE HEAD COACH TODD SHULENBERGER

Cougar Head Coach Todd Shulenberger finished his third year at Washington State...In 2015 Shulenberger became the seventh head coach in program history after spending the previous two seasons as the associate head coach at Texas Tech...he led the Cougs to a record 14 wins in 2015...In three seasons at the helm, Shulenberger has led the Cougs into the postseason twice including picking up WSU's first tournament win since 2009 this year with a 1-0 win over #8 UCF...he became the first coach in program history to lead his team into the NCAA Third Round with the Cougs' advancing past #20 Tennessee before falling to #20 Florida.
