COUGAR VOLLEYBALL STORYLINES

RETURN OF THE FIVE... PLUS A FEW MORE.

>> Washington State's 2023 team features seven fifth-year players, four true seniors, and one redshirt senior.
>> The group of Karly Basham, Julia Norville, Magda Jehlářová, Weronika Wojdyla, and Pia Timmer, announced their return for a fifth season in November of 2022.
>> The Cougars then dipped into the transfer portal, adding DI veterans Iman Isanovic, Peyton Claus, Magdalena Juric, and Lana Radakovic, respectively, to their 2023 roster.

SIX ROTATIONS: EIGHT NATIONS

>> The makeup of the 2023 WSU roster is split down the middle with eight international players and eight United States natives. Current and past Cougs have consistently seen the court at the highest levels of international volleyball.
>> Magda Jehlářová (Czech Republic), Iman Isanovic (Bosnia & Herzegovina), and Argentina Ung (Mexico) have each played major impact roles on their respective senior national teams in recent years.
>> Ung has spent the past three years as a starting setter for Mexico and won the 2022 NORCECA Final Four Tournament MVP and Best Setter awards.
>> Jehlářová and Isanovic each competed in the opening round of the 2023 CEV Women's EuroVolley Championships (Aug. 15-23) earlier this season.
>> Former Washington State volleyball players Jocelyn Urias ('15, '17-'18) and Taylor Mims ('15, '18) have also represented Mexico and the United States, respectively, on their senior national teams earlier this year.
>> Mims recently helped Team USA win a Gold Medal in the 2023 Pan American Games earlier this summer.
>> Katy Ryan was a 2022 U.S. Collegiate National Team selection while head coach Jen Greeny has also spent time as a USA Volleyball Assistant Coach.
>> Freshman Emma Barbero was a starting libero for an Italian Junior National Team that won a Junior World Championship. She also brings playing experience from the top Italian club volleyball league, Serie A, one of the top club volleyball leagues in the world.

RECORD WATCH

>> Magda Jehlářová goes into the weekend only seven blocks shy of becoming the all-time career leader in Pac-12 History. With only three more blocks, Jehlářová will become the NCAA Division I career leader for the rally scoring era (since 2001).
>> Pia Timmer heads into the week 159 points shy of setting the all-time WSU record for career points.
>> Timmer is third all-time at WSU in career aces (142) and is just nine aces shy of setting the all-time WSU career record.
>> Karly Basham and Julia Norville became the 13th and 14th members of the 1,000 career digs club, respectively, earlier this season.
>> Pia Timmer begins the week just 15 digs shy of reaching 1,000 digs for her career, putting her over 1,000 career kills and digs in her college career.
>> With her 1,000th career dig, Timmer would become only the third player to reach 1,000 career kills & digs club, joining assistant coach Shannon Wyckoff (Hunt), and LaToya Harris (1999-2002). She would also become the only player in program history to reach 1,500 career kills and 1,000 career digs.
>> Timmer is also only 126 kills away from tying Kyra Holt (1,777) for second all-time in WSU history in career kills.

POSTSEASON SUCCESS

>> WSU is one of ONLY 12 Power 5 programs (13 overall) selected to the NCAA Tournament in each of the last seven seasons (2016-2023).
>> With seven-consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances under 12th year WSU Head Coach Jen Greeny, WSU volleyball has sustained the longest run of postseason success in the history of Washington State Athletics team sports.
>> Coach Jen Greeny has been a part of 13 postseason trips for WSU, having played for the Cougars in the NCAA Tournament (1995, '96, '97) before returning as an assistant coach for WSU's postseason runs in 2000, 2001 and 2002 as well.

GREAT EXPECTATIONS

>> With so much returning and incoming talent on the 2023 roster, Washington State saw some of its highest preseason expectations in recent memory with a No. 2 selection in the 2023 Pac-12 Preseason Coaches' Poll.
>> The No. 2 preseason Pac-12 ranking was its highest preseason selection since being picked to finish second in the 1996 preseason poll.
>> The Cougs began the season at No. 21 in the AVCA Preseason Top-25, the first time cracking the preseason top-25 since 2021 (No. 18) and the third time overall under coach Greeny.
>> The Cougs began the season at No. 21 in the AVCA Preseason Top-25, the first time cracking the preseason top-25 since 2021 (No. 18) and the third time overall under coach Greeny.
>> Magda Jehlářová, Iman Isanovic, and Pia Timmer were each named to the Preseason All-Pac-12 Team.

WASHINGTON STATE IN THE POLLS

>> WSU stayed at No. 11 in this week's AVCA Top-25 Coaches' Poll, moving down two spots from last week's poll following a split weekend in Bohler Gym.
>> Washington State has appeared in 190 AVCA Top-25 polls — No. 20 all-time among Power Five schools — while finishing 13 seasons in the final top-25 poll — also ranked No. 20 all-time among Power Five schools.
>> Washington State set a program record with eight-consecutive week inside the top-25 earlier this season. WSU has spent a total of 39 weeks all-time ranked inside the nation's top-10.
>> WSU also came in at No. 11 in this week's Volleyballmag.com Super 16 Poll.
>> The Cougs came in at No. 5 in the second NCAA Women's Volleyball Committee Poll of the season which was announced on Oct. 29.
>> Washington State reached as high as No. 4 in the AVCA Top-25, the program's highest ranking since being ranked No. 5 back in October of 1995.

STUDENT ATHLETE OF THE MONTH

>> Katy Ryan was named the Washington State Athletics' Student Athlete of the Month for the month of October.
>> Ryan, a junior from Rathdrum, Idaho, is an Elementary Education major.

WASHINGTON STATE VOLLEYBALL COACHING STAFF

JEN GREENY | WSU '99

13th Season | 231-174 overall (.570)

Since taking over the reins of her alma mater as Washington State head volleyball coach in March of 2011, Jen Greeny and her staff have brought Washington State back into national prominence within the landscape of Division I volleyball with seven-consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances and 10 AVCA All-American selections. Greeny and staff have had the Cougars in the final AVCA Top-25 poll five times overall, including each of the past three seasons. Cougar volleyball has also seen numerous players over the past decade who have gone on to compete both internationally and professionally.

Having been a part of the two best postseason runs in program history as both a player (1996 NCAA regional appearance) and as an assistant coach (2002 NCAA regional appearance), coach Greeny inherited a team that went 0-18 in conference play in 2010, the year before her return to the Palouse. She and her staff have since transformed the program into a perennial force in the Pac-12, reaching the NCAA regional as a head coach for the first time in 2018. The Cougars matched the volleyball program record for most conference wins (14) in a single season in 2022 after a third-place finish in the final Pac-12 standings of the season. The third-place finish for the Cougs was the best conference finish during Greeny's 12-year tenure and the best since the 2002 WSU team that reached the NCAA Elite Eight.

WASHINGTON STATE VOLLEYBALL COACHING STAFF

BURDETTE GREENY | WSU '99

13th Season

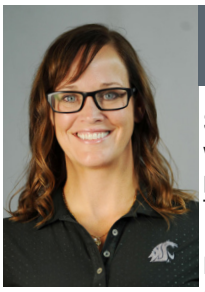

WSU Associate Head Coach Burdette Greeny brings a driven competitive nature and a dynamic intensity as both a coach and the lead recruiter to the Cougars volleyball program.

"Burdette has emerged as one of the best recruiting coordinators in the country and it definitely shows with the amount of talent and character in his recruiting classes," Cougar Head Coach Jen Greeny said. "The recruits have said Burdette is easy and fun to talk to, is an amazing communicator, and is extremely passionate about Washington State and Pullman. Burdette cares not only about a player's skills in the recruiting process but also about everyone and if they will fit in with our team's core values."

Greeny recently completed his 12th season with the Cougars in 2022 and has been instrumental in WSU's seven consecutive NCAA tournament appearances. He joined the Cougar volleyball program in March 2011 as an assistant coach and was promoted to Associate Head Coach in February 2017. Washington State has since finished the season in the AVCA Top-25 in four of the last five years including each of the past three seasons.

Burdette Greeny assisted his wife Jen at Lewis-Clark State College from 2007-10 as an assistant coach. He was one of 20 assistant coaches nominated for the 2009 NAIA National Assistant Coach of the Year Award. He was promoted to Associate Head Coach at LCSC in 2010. Greeny's recruiting resume at LCSC included three junior college first team all-Americans, one second team all-American, one Gatorade State Player of the Year, two state players of the year, and 12 first team all-state selections.

Greeny was an all-league selection in both basketball and baseball at Port Angeles (Wash.) High School. He was named one of the top ten pitchers in the state by Tacoma News Tribune (1993) and was drafted by the New York Mets, but instead played basketball and baseball at Tacoma Community College (1993-95). He earned second-team All-West Region honors both years as a third baseman and set a school record with 17 strikeouts in one game. He pitched for WSU in 1997, winning the team's award for strength and conditioning. He later signed as a free agent with the Milwaukee Brewers before the 1998 draft and was with the organization for two seasons.

SHANNON HUNT | WSU '98

13th Season

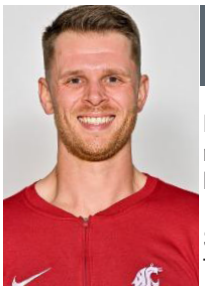

Shannon Wyckoff Hunt has played a pivotal role in the seven-consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances for Washington State volleyball since returning to her alma mater prior to the 2011 season. Hunt, a teammate of Jen Greeny (Stinson) during their playing days at Washington State, was both an opposite hitter and outside hitter as a Cougar and has been a part of 11 NCAA Tournament appearances with the Cougars – four as a player and seven as an assistant coach.

Hunt joined the Cougar volleyball program as a volunteer coach in August 2011 and was promoted to assistant coach in the spring of 2013. She was an outstanding student and athlete at WSU from 1994 through 1997, helping the Cougars volleyball team to earn four consecutive NCAA Tournament bids with one sweet sixteen finish and the program's first trip to the NCAA elite eight.

After graduating from WSU in the spring of 1998 with a degree in education, Hunt taught at the elementary level in Vancouver, Wash., and coached volleyball at Heritage High and Hockinson High Schools.

Prior to returning to WSU Hunt taught and coached in the Vancouver, Wash., area for a dozen years. She was the head volleyball coach at Prairie High School in Brush Prairie, Wash., from 2000 through 2003 and earned one state championship tournament berth. She also saw three players advance from prep to collegiate volleyball careers and was later inducted into the Prairie High School Hall of Fame in January of 2015.

Hunt moved to the newly constructed Hockinson High School, also in Brush Prairie, Wash., where she was the head volleyball coach from 2004 through 2010. At Hockinson, Hunt led two Hawks' volleyball teams to state championship tournaments and had five players play collegiately after their prep volleyball careers.

KOREY SCHROEDER | UW-PLATTEVILLE '2015

1st Season

Korey Schroeder joined the Washington State women's volleyball staff as an assistant coach in the Spring of 2023. Schreoder made the move The Palouse after being a part of three 20-win seasons over the past five years as a women's volleyball associate head coach/ recruiting coordinator at the University of Wisconsin - Green Bay.

Schroeder's time in Green Bay began with a Horizon League Championship in 2018 and the ensuing automatic bid into the NCAA Tournament, the program's first tournament appearance since 2003. His five-year stint with Green Bay culminated last season with the program's highest win total (23) since 2003. Prior to making the move to Green Bay, Schroeder helped UW-Platteville get off to its best start in program history (7-0) before the team finished above .500 on the year for the first time since the 2012 season.

Schroeder got his coaching start as the assistant coach at WIAA power Newman Catholic High School in Wausau, Wis. In his two seasons at Newman, Schroeder helped the team capture the WIAA State Championship in both 2015 and 2016. He helped coach a pair of All-State players and assisted the team to a 74-8 record in his two seasons on the sidelines.
