MATCHUP NOTES

- The Cougs finish off their home weekend with a tilt against Utah Sunday afternoon.
- The game is WSU's annual Cougs Have Heart game as WSU plays to bring awareness to heart health.
- Last season, the Cougs split Utah with both teams winning on the road. At home in the loss the Cougs struggled to get their offense going despite 19 points out of Alexys Swedlund. Swedlund had 13 at Utah in the Cougs win.
- Utah holds the 14-6 advantage and has won three of the last four meetings between the two teams.
- The Utes enter the game 11-3 on the year and 2-1 in Pac-12 play with wins over Arizona and most recently Washington.

LAST TIME OUT

From beginning to end the night was owned by Borislava Hristova as the redshirt-sophomore poured in a career-best 36 points to lead Washington State (8-7, 1-2 Pac-12) to the convincing 89-75 win over Colorado (10-4, 1-2 Pac-12) Friday night at Beasley Coliseum. Setting the tone early, Hristova got the Cougs out and running as the third-year gunner scored WSU's first 10 points of the game and 12 of the opening 20 to give the Cougs the early lead. After a brief moment lapse that allowed Colorado to take its only lead of the game to open the second quarter, Hristova and the Cougs began to separate from the Buffaloes late in the half with a 4-0 finishing run. The six point advantage at the break would swell to 13 just four minutes into the third quarter when the Cougs put together a 1:16, 9-0, run thanks to their junior center, Maria Kostourkova, who scored five of her eight in the quarter during the onslaught. From there, Colorado would never get closer than two-possession as the Cougs used another 9-0 run to swell the lead to as much as 17 before holding off the physical Buffaloes for their first Pac-12 win of the season.

UP NEXT

- The Cougs hit the road for California where WSU will take on Stanford and Cal.
- Last season, the Cougs split with the two California schools at home, falling to Stanford while taking down Cal. Two months later, the Cougs faced Stanford once again in the Pac-12 tournament with the Cardinal prevailing en route to taking the Pac-12 championship title.
- WSU is looking for its first win over the Cardinal with Stanford holding a 63-0 record against the Cougs all-time.

HRISTOVA CATCHES FIRE, SCORES 36

- For Borislava Hristova the redshirt-sophomore caught fire against Colorado en route to scoring a career-best 36 points, the most points scored by a Pac-12 player in a game this season.
- Hristova's 36 points tied for 3rd all-time in WSU single-game history and the 38th time a Coug has scored 30-points in a game.
- The 36 points marked the second time in her career the super-sophomore scored 30+ points after posting 30 points against San Jose as a freshman.
- Additionally, Hristova tied the single-game record for field goals made with 15, hitting 15-of-21 from the floor including a career-best four three-pointers.

PAC-12 HOME OPENERS

- After starting the Pac-12 schedule on the road, the Cougs returned home for the first time in 2018 taking an 89-75 win over Colorado Friday night.
- In 11 seasons under coach Daugherty, the Cougs are 5-6 in Pac-12 home openers including picking up back-to-back wins including their biggest upset in program history last season with an 82-73 win over #7 UCLA on Jan. 6, 2017.

DOUBLING UP THE STATS FOR BROWN

- Finding her form after a year away from the game, redshirt-junior Louise Brown has come up with three double-doubles in the Cougs last eight games including back-to-back efforts on the road at Boise State and Nebraska.
- She recorded her first of the year with 14 pts and 11 rbds against Saint Louis before adding 12 pts and 10 rbds at Boise State and 12 points and 12 rebounds at Nebraska.
- She has now recorded five double-doubles in her career, tied for 18th on the Cougs all-time list of double-doubles.
- Entering the game, Brown leads the team in rebounding at 7.2 rpg while sitting third in scoring at 7.8 ppg.

HAILEY PLAYS HER 100TH GAME

- The backbone of the Cougars' defense, Caila Hailey has done it all for WSU as the senior played in her 100th career game on Nov. 26 against Rutgers.
- She was one of eight Cougs to play in a program-record 36 games last season en route to the WNIT Final Four.
- Hailey is on her way to cracking WSU's top-10 for games played when she plays in her 118th career game against Oregon State on Feb. 9.
- If she were to play in every game on the year and with one guaranteed game at the Pac-12 tournament, Hailey is on pace to finish her career with 124 career games played a mark that would place her 7th all-time. The record for games played sits at 129 by Sage Romberg (2010-14).

BACK AND BETTER THAN EVER

- Back and better than ever, the Cougs return three starters to the 2017-18 lineup after losing Chanelle Molina, Borislava Hristova, and Louise Brown to season-ending injuries last year.
- Returning from injury, Hristova is 2nd in the Pac-12 at 18.4 ppg. She has led the team in scoring in 11 of 14 games with five 20+ point efforts on the year including a 36 point effort vs Colorado.
- Working back into form, Brown has found her groove with three double-doubles. She is shooting 39.2% (20-51) from deep.
- Molina, returning from injury, found her stroke with 17 points at #17 Oregon State and 10 vs Colorado while leading the team at 2.4 assists per game.
- Combined, the three missed 75 games last year as the Cougs left 42.6 ppg, 12.9 rpg, 6.3 apg, 3.5 spg on the bench from their injured players.

BOBI BUCKETS' MARCH TOWARDS 1,000

- Entering the year, Coug scoring sensation Borislava Hristova, affectionately known as Bobi Buckets, sits as the next in line to join WSU's 1,000-point club. After scoring a freshman program record 490 points and getting a free 132 points last season before injury, she entered the year with 622 career-points as a redshirt-sophomore.
- On the year, Bobi has scored 239 points to bring her career total to 861. She currently ranks tied for 2nd in the Pac-12 in scoring at 18.4 ppg.
- Bobi needs 139 more points to become the 18th member of the 1,000 point club. With a season average of 18.4 ppg, she is tentatively on pace to reach the plateau at Arizona on Feb. 2.
- On her current pace, Hristova would hit 1,000 points in her 60th career game which would be the second-fastest run to 1,000 in program history.

ITS RAINING THREES - SWEDLUND CLIMBING THE SHARP-SHOOTING CHARTS

- A year after setting the Cougs' single-season record for three's with 75, junior Alexys Swedlund has her sights set on the career record of 161 currently held by Katie (Appleton) Bohnoff from 2005-09.
- With 25 three-pointers on the year, Swedlund now has 132 for her career, moving into 7th place. She is 1 away from tying for 6th all-time with Heather Norman (1988-92).
- She sits just 29 three-pointers back of tying the program's all-time record of 161.

MCCLURE LOOKING TO BLOCK HER WAY TO THE TOP OF THE RECORD BOOKS

- The single-game (12) and single-season (68) record holder for blocks, redshirt-junior Nike McClure is in search of the final piece of the puzzle, the all-time record of 158 held by Carly Noyes (2010-13).
- Nike has blocked 30 shots on the year and is one of just five Cougs all-time to block 100 career shots. She needs 5 blocks to post another top-10 season in WSU history (35)
- With 123 career blocks she sits at No. 3 all-time. Next on the swat list is No. 2 Holly Zapel (Bertus) (1981-85), who finished with 147 career blocks.
- She needs 35 blocks to tie the program's all-time record of 158.

DOUBLE-DIGIT SCORING STREAK FOR HRISTOVA

- Listed as a redshirt-sophomore after missing most of last season due to injury, Borislava Hristova is pushing her way up the Cougs second-year scoring lists with her performances this season.
- Entering the game Hristova has scored in double-figures in 8 straight-games, needing one more to reach the top-five. For the season, Hristova has scored in double-figures in 12 games needing to post 18 games to reach the top-10.
- Her 5 20-point scoring efforts is 9th among all Cougar sophomores.

PAVLOPOULOU TAKING CHARGE

- After beginning the year coming off the bench, senior Pinelopi Pavlopoulou move into the starting lineup has paid off big as the Cougs are 7-3.
- In 10 games as a starter, Pavlopoulou is averaging 6.4 points on 38.7% shooting while posting 2.6 rebounds and 2.6 assists per game.
- Last season, Pavlopoulou moved into a starting role due to injury and led the Cougs to the Final Four of the WNIT.

COUGARS SWATTING SWAY THE COMPETITION

- In back-to-back seasons the Cougs have rewritten the record book for blocks in a season posting 120 in 2015-16 and a record 152 last year in 2016-17.
- This season, the Cougs are back at it having blocked 63 shots in 15 games, ranking 66th in the nation in rejections.
- WSU is averaging 4.2 blocks per game, just under their record-setting mark of last season and ranked 2nd all-time, led by Nike McClure's 2.0 bpg average.

THE "UNITED NATIONS OF BASKETBALL"

- The 2017-18 Cougar basketball team is represented by student-athletes from seven different countries and four different states. Head coach June Daugherty regards the team as the "United Nations of Basketball."
- The Cougars have seven international players on their 14-player roster, the most of any team in the Pac-12. Overall the Pac-12 welcomed 32 international student-athletes into the fold in 2017-18.

COUGS RUN THEIR WAY INTO THE WNIT FINAL FOUR

- After making the postseason for just the fourth time in the modern NCAA era, the Cougs proved to be a tough out as WSU won four in a row, their longest streak of the year, to advance to the semifinals of the WNIT.
- The wins for the Cougs in the first four rounds marked WSU's first-ever post season victories (in the modern NCAA era). Three times prior the Cougs played in the opening round of the NCAA (1991) and the WNIT (2014, 2015) only to fall short.
- The Cougars earned the conference's automatic bid into the postseason tournament thanks to their seventh place finish in the standings. With the Pac-12 earning a record seven bids to the Big Dance, the Cougars became the conference's first team out making them the first team into the WNIT. The bid into the WNIT marks the third time in the last four seasons the Cougars advanced to the postseason tournament.

MOLINA AND HAILEY GARNER ALL-PAC-12 RECOGNITION

- Then freshman Chanelle Molina and junior Caila Hailey received All-Pac-12 honors as voted on by the conference's 12 coaches.
- Despite playing just six conference games, Molina made her mark in the minds of the Pac-12's coaches as she was named to the Pac-12 All-Freshman Team.
- Hailey continued to be recognized as one of the conference's top defenders as she received an honorable mention to the Pac-12 All-Defensive Team for the second-straight season.

PAVLOPOULOU LEADS THREE COUGS TO PAC-12 ALL-ACADEMIC HONORS

- Then junior Pinelopi Pavlopoulou was named First Team Pac-12 All-Academic as the headliner of three Cougs earning all-academic honor.
- In addition to Pavlopoulou earning top honors, then sophomores Maria Kostourkova and Alexys Swedlund each earned honorable mention for their work both on the court and in the classroom. The award for Pavlopoulou was her second in as many years after earning honorable mention status as a sophomore. For Kostourkova and Swedlund, the honor came in their first year eligible for the distinction.
- To be eligible for selection to the academic teams, a student-athlete must be in their redshirt-freshman season or above and have a minimum 3.0 overall grade-point average, while participating in at least 50 percent of team competitions.

- Cheilyn becomes the first recruit to sign to the Cougs during the current recruiting cycle as she will join her sisters, Chanelle and Celena, on the Palouse in 2018.
- A standout point guard at Konawaena High School, Molina enters her final high school season as the reigning Hawaii Gatorade Player of the Year as she took home the top honor for the first time as a junior last season. June
DAUGHERTY
Head Coach
11th Year

Washington State University Head Coach June Daugherty completed her 10th season with the Cougars, having led the charge toward a new era in WSU women's basketball. Just as she had done at each of her two previous stops, Daugherty, who has coached more than 800 career games, has begun turning around the WSU women's program, leading the Cougars into the postseason in three of the last four seasons including a semifinal run in the WNIT in 2017. She continues to bringing in top-ranked recruiting classes, improve attendance numbers and oversee student-athletes who place premiums on academics and community service.

In arguably her best coaching performance in her 10 seasons on the Palouse, Daugherty led an injury-riddled Cougar squad into the postseason in 2017 after earning the Pac-12's automatic bid to the WNIT. Making the most of their new life in the postseason, the Cougars, with Daugherty at the helm, won their first-ever postseason game with a 72-64 victory at BYU on Mar. 16 in the opening round of the WNIT. The Cougs would go on to win three more games and run their way into the WNIT Final Four while playing in four different time zones and traveling over 4200 miles. Most impressively, Daugherty kept a young Cougar team together despite season ending injuries to four players including the team's top three starters. Even without the three starters for much of the year, the Cougs managed to finish seventh in the Pac-12 standings, earning their spot in the postseason. The Cougars finished the regular season with a 12-18 overall record, including a 6-12 mark in Pac-12 Conference play earning a tie for 7th after being picked to finish 10th in the preseason. The Cougars defeated one nationally-ranked opponent, upsetting #9/7 UCLA, 82-73, on Jan. 6 in the biggest upset in school history. The Cougars would go on to set numerous season records on the year including games played (36), minutes played (7,275), rebounds (1,455), assists (500), blocked shots (152), and steals (375).

Off the court, the Cougars continued to shine in the classroom with three Pac-12 All-Academic honorees led by Pinelopi Pavlopoulou on the first team. She would be joined by Alexys Swedlund and Maria Kostourkova as honorable mention recipients.

Under Daugherty, Washington State has reached the Pac-12 Conference Tournament semifinals two times, 30 student-athletes earned all-academic honors in the last nine years, and five players signed professional contracts to play overseas in the last four summers including Lia Galdeira who was selected No. 19 overall by the Washington Mystics in the 2016 WNBA Draft, the first player drafted in program history.

In 2015-16, Daugherty guided a youthful team to the school's best start since the 1989-90 season. WSU went 9-2 in nonconference play before entering Pac-12 play and the toughest RPI conference in the country. Under Daugherty's leadership, freshman Borislava Hristova earned All-Pac-12 and Pac-12 All-Freshman Team honors, breaking WSU freshman records in 20-point games, total points, scoring average, field goals made, and free throw percentage. The Cougars finished the season with a 14-16 record and a 5-13 record in Pac-12 play, finishing ninth with season sweeps of Colorado and Arizona. Daugherty also oversaw the defensive success of WSU's frontline, which tallied a then school-record 120 total blocks. The Cougars picked up a top-25 win over No. 25 USC with a decisive 73-61 victory.

During the 2014-15 campaign, Daugherty hit a personal milestone, earning her 400th career win as the Cougars defeated Utah Feb. 15. Daugherty continued to build on the success of the previous season, as WSU earned a second-consecutive postseason berth for the first time in school history. The WSU women's basketball program earned national recognition, recording one of the biggest wins in program history with a 70-64 victory over No. 10/8 Maryland, an eventual No. 1 seed and Final Four participant, in Puerto Rico, November 29.

During the 2013-14 season, Daugherty led the Cougars to one of the best campaigns in program history, earning a trip to the WNIT, the program's first postseason appearance since 1991, and posted 17 wins, the most since 1995-96. WSU also notched four wins over ranked teams, including one on the road against No. 10 Nebraska and went on to post nine conference wins for the first time since 1994-95. Guards Lia Galdeira and Tia Presley both earned spots on the All-Pac-12 Team, becoming the first pair of Cougar teammates to earn all-conference honors in the same season in program history. The Cougars received some national recognition late in the year, receiving votes in the Top-25 USA Today Coaches' Poll following their Pac-12 Tournament run, becoming the first WSU team to be mentioned in a poll since the 1990-91 season.

In 2012-13, Daugherty led a team that featured six freshmen and three sophomores to the Pac-12 Conference Tournament quarterfinals for the second straight season, beating Arizona State in the opening round before falling to top-seeded Stanford. The Cougars improved three spots in the conference standings from a season ago, finishing eighth. WSU produced some notable wins while playing one of the toughest schedules in the country, beating No. 20 Ohio State, posting a road victory over regional rival Gonzaga and sweeping the season series with Arizona State. The Cougars finished the year with a program record for blocks in a season with 114.

Also under Daugherty's guidance in 2012-13, the Cougars backcourt received recognition from the conference as Lia Galdeira, the second-leading freshman scorer in the country and three-time Pac-12 Freshman of the Week winner, earned a number of All-Pac-12 accolades as a freshman after pacing the Cougars in scoring, rebounding, steals and minutes. Sophomore point guard Tia Presley also earned all-conference honors despite being limited to seven conference games due to injury. Daugherty also saw center Carly Noyes cap off her impressive career by becoming the school's all-time leader in blocked shots, games played and career starts.

The 2011-12 campaign saw Daugherty lead the Cougars to one of the most successful seasons in program history while playing one of the toughest schedules in the country (No. 27). WSU posted the most wins since 1995-96, recording 13 overall victories and the second double-digit win season under Daugherty while improving their final RPI by 50 spots from the season prior. The Cougars saved its best for last, beating UCLA the final weekend of the regular season before posting the program's inaugural wins at the conference tournament. WSU knocked off Oregon State and USC in the first two rounds to advance to the nationally-televised semifinal against California held at the Staples Center in Los Angeles.

Additionally, Daugherty led the Cougs to the program's inaugural win over a Big Ten Conference opponent (Wisconsin) and the first win over a Big East Conference opponent (Marquette) in over 20 years. Daugherty's team followed nonconference play by winning its first three games of Pac-12 play for the first time since 1977-78. The 2011-12 Cougars made their mark on the record book as well, posting the most rebounds, the sixth-most points, fourth-most threes, fifth-most assists and second-most assists in WSU single-season history. 2011-12 also saw Daugherty's first WSU recruiting class cap their impressive careers as a pair of 1,000-point scorers exited along with a three-time academic all-conference selection in addition to the three players who received invites to the WNBA combine. Headlining the group was guard Jazmine Perkins who finished her career as a three-time all-conference selection and WSU's all-time leader in games played and the first player in school-history, male or female, with 1,200+ points, 700+ rebounds and 250+ steals.

2010-11 saw the Cougars take another step forward under Daugherty's guidance while playing the No. 27 toughest schedule in the country. WSU posted the most conference wins, the highest scoring average and highest shooting percentage since 2000-01. The Cougars posted their highest finish since the 1997-98, tying for seventh after posting season sweeps over California and Oregon State and beating Oregon and Oregon State on the same weekend to record their first weekend sweep in conference play since 2001.

Daugherty's players have received quite a bit of postseason attention since her arrival on the Palouse. In her first season guard Katie Appleton garnered her first-career all-conference honor after being named All-Pac-10 honorable mention. Guard Kezia Kelly was named Freshman All-Pac-10 honorable mention. April Cook and Jazmine Perkins took home a slew of honors following the 2008-09 season, earning mention on the All-Pac-10 Team and the Pac-10 All-Freshman Team. Perkins was also named to the Pac-10 All-Defensive Team. In 2009-10, Cook garnered her second-straight honorable mention all-conference honor, and freshmen Carly Noyes and KiKi Moore combined for a number of accolades. Daugherty continued to produce all-conference selections last season as Perkins and Sage Romberg garnered All-Pac-10 honorable mention honors while Romberg was placed on the Pac-10 All-Freshmen team and Ireti Amojor received All-Pac-10 All-Freshmen honorable mention. It marked the third consecutive season that Daugherty had at least one freshman garner all-conference recognition.

Dating back to her years at Washington, Daugherty has placed at least one individual on the All-Pac-10/12 team each year since 1997. A pair of Cougs received All-Pac-12 accolades in 2011-12 as Perkins received all-Pac-12 honorable mention while both Perkins and Carly Noyes earned all-defensive team honorable mention. In 2012-13, Galdeira and Presley received all-conference honorable mention with Galdeira also earning a spot on the all-defensive and all-freshmen teams. This past season, Galdeira and Presley both earned spots on the All-Pac-12 Team, becoming the first pair of Cougar teammates to earn all-conference honors in the same season in program history. Daugherty, whose career record stands at 387-360 (.518), has more than 20 years of experience working with WNBA-caliber talent. She began her head coaching career at Boise State, where she coached for seven years (1989-96) and compiled a record of 123-74 (73-31 Big Sky Conference). Under her watch, the Broncos not only made the NCAA Tournament for the first time in school history, but achieved their first national ranking and won their first regular season conference title. In 1992, the Broncos won the Big Sky regular season championship, and in 1994 they shared the conference crown with Montana and earned an at-large bid to the NCAA tournament. At the conclusion of the 1993-94 season, Daugherty was named Big Sky Co-Coach of the Year. After turning things around at Boise State, Daugherty continued her success at Washington, where she coached for 11 seasons. After finishing ninth in the Pac-10 in 2000, Daugherty led the Huskies to their first conference title since 1990, the greatest turnaround in conference history. She led Washington to nine postseason appearances in 11 seasons - six NCAA Tournament appearances and three WNIT appearances - and led the Huskies all the way to the NCAA Women's Basketball Championship Elite Eight in 2001.

Daugherty helped a number of players earn individual honors at Washington, with Giuliana Mendiola becoming the school's first Pac-10 Player of the Year, and four players earning District VIII All-America honors. Home attendance soared under Daugherty's watch at both Boise State and Washington. The Broncos averaged 500 fans per game before Daugherty's arrival. During her tenure, more than 2,000 fans were coming to watch every game, placing Boise State in the nation's top 30 for home attendance in each of her seven seasons. Washington led the Pac-10 in home attendance in both 2002-03 and 2003-04. The team chemistry formed on the basketball court is a direct result of creating a family atmosphere with Daugherty's staff and players. Daugherty creates a home away from home for her basketball family, consisting of coaches, players and support staff. This environment culminated in 16 players combining for 49 selections to the Pac-10 All-Academic Team at Washington, and 30 student-athletes on the Big Sky Conference All-Academic Team at Boise State. In her six seasons at WSU, ten players have combined for 21 All-Academic selections.

Daugherty's basketball family is involved not only in providing everything necessary to achieve academic excellence, but also the means to becoming involved in community service. Daugherty leads by example, speaking at meetings for the Chamber of Commerce, the Kiwanis and for many women's groups. A major advocate for healthy heart awareness, Daugherty was named the Sudden Cardiac Arrest Association's National Coach of the Year in 2008. Since becoming a survivor of sudden cardiac arrest Daugherty has become one of the nation's most visible spokesmen, filming a nationally-aired commercial, speaking at fund-raisers for the Hope Heart Institute and the American Red Cross and helping WSU sponsor the inaugural "Cougs Have Heart" basketball game to raise awareness for heart disease.

Daugherty is a member of the Women's Basketball Coaches' Association and is a former member of its Board of Directors. She is also a member of both the State Farm Coaches' All-America Team and the Russell Athletic/WBCA Coach of the Year selection committees and is currently serving on the WBCA Ethics Board, the WBCA All-America selection committee for Region 8 and is the captain of the Pac-12 coaches committee. Daugherty often serves as a clinician for the NCAA YES Clinic at the Final Four, and she has been active in USA Basketball and was an assistant coach for the West Team at the 1995 Olympic Sports Festival.

Daugherty also places high priority on keeping the top local high school talent at home in the Northwest. In her first season with the Cougars, Washington's 3A State Player of the Year Katie Grad (Auburn-Riverside) and Shadle Park's all-time leading scorer Lexie Pettersen (Spokane) were each a part of her nationally-ranked recruiting class. Her second recruiting class featured Carly Noyes of Moses Lake, Wash., a three-time conference player of the year at Moses Lake HS. Her 2010 class, two-time Evergreen Conference Most Valuable Player and 2009-10 Seattle Times All-State (all-classifications) honoree Brandi Thomas, of Elma, Wash., went Crimson. This season, Daugherty welcomes Wyoming's two-time Gatorade Player of the Year in Jordan Kelley (Gillette, Wyo.), one of the top-rated low post players out of Canada in 6-3 Shalie Dheensaw (Victoria, B.C.) who has started for the Canadian U17 National Team and speedy three-time all-state selection out of Spokane's Gonzaga Prep Tia Presley (Spokane, Wash.). The 2012 recruiting class featured six players from all over the country including Lia Galderia who was named Hawaii Player of the Year three times.

Several of Daugherty's athletes have gone on to coaching careers at both the high school and collegiate level, including Lisa Fisher, an associate head coach with the Cougars in 2006. Daugherty served as an assistant coach at Stanford under head coach Tara Vanderveer prior to taking over the Boise State program. She helped guide the Cardinal to one of the finest seasons in school history, finishing the 1989 season with a record of 28-3, an undefeated Pac-10 season and a trip to the NCAA Tournament. Daugherty also had a two-year stint on the Kent State staff as an assistant coach from 1983-85.

Daugherty played collegiate basketball at Ohio State from 1974-78, where she led the Buckeyes to the Big Ten Championship in 1977 and 1978. She is still ranked amongst the school's top 25 in career scoring with 1,137 points. She also ranks fifth in career rebounds (829), is tied for 17th in career field goals made (500) and shares the single-game school record for blocked shots (12 against Michigan State in 1976). At the conclusion of her senior season, she earned first-team All-America honors and was a Wade Trophy finalist the first year the award was presented.

Just prior to the start of the 2001 season, The Ohio State University honored Daugherty with an induction into the OSU Athletic Hall of Fame. Daugherty will be inducted into the Westerville High School in December, 2011.

Following graduation in 1978, Daugherty contributed as both a player and coach on several international teams, including a period as a player and coach for the Union Sportive Vierzon Club based in France.

Daugherty, a native of Columbus, Ohio, is the daughter of Naomi and Jim Brewer and has two brothers, Mark and Neil Brewer, and one sister, Ruth Williams. She and her husband Mike are the parents of twins Doc and Breanne.
