LAST TIME OUT

The Cougars came up with yet another big upset of #8 UCLA, knocking off the Bruins 1-0 for the second-straight season. Morgan Weaver caught lightning in a bottle in the 61' minute on a perfect counter-attack to supply the game-winning goal while Rachel Thompson and the defense supplied the shutout. The win was the Cougs' sixth top-10 victory all-time and first over UCLA in Los Angeles since 1993.

RECORD START FOR WSU

For the first time in program history the Cougars have started a season 8-0-0 breaking their record from 2015. The 2015 season was a record-breaking season for WSU as the Cougars won an all-time high 14 games and finished third in the Pac-12 in head coach Todd Shulenberg's first year in Pullman.

In addition to the record start, the Cougars' eight-straight wins set the record for the program's longest single-season win-streak, breaking the record of seven-straight done twice prior. WSU's longest win streak spanning multiple seasons is 10 games from Oct. 14, 1990 to Sept. 11, 1991.

WSU RANKED #9

For the first time in program history the Cougars cracked the top-10 of the United Soccer Coaches poll as WSU enters the week ranked #9 in the country. WSU's previous best ranking was in 1993 when the team checked in at #11 in their first time ranked. The seven week stretch ranked in the coaches poll is the longest run by the Cougars in program history, the previous best was five-straight weeks.

In the two other polls the Cougs have garnered even more recognition as they sit at #8 in TopDrawerSoccer and #5 in SoccerAmerica.

COUGS SWEEP PAC-12 WEEKLY HONORS

Coming off their biggest win of the season, the Washington State soccer team was rewarded for their efforts as the Cougars picked up a clean sweep of the Pac-12 Player of the Week awards. Junior Morgan Weaver picked up the offensive award, sophomore Aaqila McLyn earned the defensive award while redshirt-junior Rachel Thompson was named the conference's top netminder for the week. Weaver put the game-winner in for the Cougs against UCLA while McLyn not only came up with a defensive save but assisted on Weaver's winner. For Thompson, the redshirt-junior produced a career-best nine saves to earn her first-career shutout in just her third-career start. For all three Cougars, the awards marked the first-career weekly awards for the trio while it was the first time in program history WSU swept the weekly honors. It was the fourth time in as many seasons a school has taken all three weekly awards.

COUGS IN THE RPI

With all the Cougs success in the 2018 season WSU enters the week #27 in the RPI. The Cougs are the 4th highest ranked team in the RPI trailing Stanford (#1), Oregon (#14), and USC (#16).

HARO'S HELPERS

A year after posting a career-best seven assists, senior Maddy Haro is back to her old tricks as she has already recorded eight assists in eight games. Her eight assists ranks No. 2 in single-season history, three short of the all-time record.

For Haro, her eight helpers ranks third in the country while her 1.00 assists per game average leads the nation.

Additionally, Haro has posted two separate streaks of three-straight games with an assists tying for the longest streak in WSU history.

WEAVER LEADING THE WAY, CLIMBING THE RECORD BOOKS

As she has done each of her first two seasons, junior star forward Morgan Weaver is at the forefront of the Cougar attack with a team-best six goals. She has a pair of multi-goal games on the year giving her four for her career, tying for sixth all-time.

Her 21 career strikes puts the junior tied for sixth all-time in scoring alongside of Katrina Stroh (1999-2002) and Brandi Vega (2009-12).

Additionally, Weaver picked up her 9th game-winner at UCLA moving her into sole possession of third all-time in WSU history.

OFFENSIVE DEPTH TAKING CENTER STAGE

With two-deep depth at every position it is no surprise that the overall depth has shown through as the Cougars' have nine different goal scorers accounting for 19 goals. The Cougs also have six different game-winners on the year.

In addition, nearly half the goals have come from the youth as three freshmen and two sophomores have netted nine goals, including four of eight game-winners, on the year.

AIR O'NEILL TAKING OFF AGAIN

A year after scoring her first three goals of her career, senior defensive midfielder Maegan O'Neill is back at it after scoring two goals in five games. For O'Neill, all five of her career goals have come off of Cougar corners and four have come from headers including both this season. Additionally, O'Neill has scored all five goals off of assists from Maddy Haro.

LATE GAME SUCCESS

A trend forming for the 2018 Cougars is their resilience late in games as WSU has come up with late game-winners in five of nine games on the year, including their exhibition win in San Diego. Against USD, WSU scored twice in the final seven minutes of the contest to win 2-1. To open the regular season it was two second-half strikes that proved the difference and three goals after falling behind 1-0 early in the game. Versus GCU, despite a massive shot differential, the Cougars lone tally of the game came in overtime. At Nebraska, the Cougars scored two second half goals to comeback from an early one goal deficit to take the victory. The team added to its lore at #8 UCLA with a game-winner in the 61'. In all, WSU has scored 9 goals after halftime.

OH SO FAST

In the last two home games for WSU, the Cougars scored on their opening shot of the contest, netting the opening goal of the game at 1:57 against Montana and 2:33 against Cal Poly. Makamae Gomera-Steven's goal against Montana was the fastest goal for WSU since a 1:47 strike by Morgan Weaver to open a 5-0 win over North Dakota State Sept. 4, 2016

COUGARS BACK AND BETTER THAN EVER

The Cougars return 17 letterwinners from a season ago and bring back 93% of their scoring. A season after advancing to the NCAA Third Round the Cougs lost just two starters but welcomed in seven freshmen who all have made an immediate impact. All three of the Cougars' All-Pac-12 players from 2017 return including leading scorer Morgan Weaver, star goalkeeper Ella Dederick, and all-freshman honoree Elyse Bennett. However, Dederick was lost for the season against Idaho.

30 SEASONS OF COUGAR SOCCER

With the start of the 2018 season, the Cougars kick off their 30th season on the field. WSU soccer began in 1989 under the guidance of Lisa Fraser and joined the Pac-10/12 Conference in 1995. Entering the weekend, WSU has posted a 291-220-58 record having outscored opponents, 928-684. 11 times the Cougars have advanced to the postseason including six of the last seven seasons.

MINNISS SHOWING UP AND SHOWING OUT

Just a freshman, Mykiaa Minniss has been a rock in the center of the Cougars' staunch defense as the Colorado native is the lone Cougar to have played every minute in eight games, all 721:26. Minniss took over a starting center-back role from graduated captain Jordan Branch, making a smooth transition from high school/club to Pac-12 soccer. Minniss has already earned one defensive player of the week award and has been a central figure in a defense that has produced four shutouts and given up just four goals.

KEEPING IT CLEAN ON THE SCORE SHEET

In 2018, the Cougars have picked up where they left off last season posting four shutouts in eight games, including one top-10 shutout, having relinquished just four goals. The Cougs finished 2017 with 11 shutouts on the year, ranking tied 2nd all-time in WSU history. On the year, the Cougs ranked 39th among all teams in Division I soccer in shutout percentage. Of the 11 shutouts, the Cougs shutout five top-25 teams and two top-10 teams.

OVERLAND ROUNDING BACK INTO FORM

After missing the entire 2017 season due to injury, redshirt-junior Alysha Overland has begun to find the form that made her the Cougars second-leading scorer in 2016. Always a threat, Overland found the back of the net for the first time in 2018 at Nebraska, scoring the game-winner for the Cougars in a 2-1, comeback, victory. She added her second goal against Cal Poly. In eight career goals, Overland has hit the game-winner five times, as the Coug veteran has picked her spots at key moments.

COUGS PICKED 7TH IN PAC-12 PRESEASON POLL

Despite coming in to the season ranked No. 21 in the country and fresh off a third round run in the 2017 NCAA Tournament, the Cougars were picked to finish 7th in the Pac-12 Preseason poll. The Cougars were picked to finish 7th a season ago as well and finished 7th in the conference at 4-6-1 in Pac-12 play. Stanford, the back-to-back-to-back reigning conference champions and the defending national champions were picked to take home the conference crown once again.

DEDERICK OUT FOR THE YEAR

Entering the year one of the top keepers in the country, star netminder Ella Dederick saw her season come to an abrupt end against Idaho after suffering a season-ending injury. The fifth-year Coug was off to another stellar start having posted three shutouts and five wins to start the year. In all, Dederick is among the best to ever play in goal for the Cougs with career rankings of: Win percentage (5th, 0.606), wins (2nd, 35), saves (5th, 234), goals against average (2nd, 0.87), minutes in goal (3rd, 6072), shutouts (3rd, 20.5). In Dederick's absence Rachel Thompson has taken over and picked right up where the star left off winning her first three starts including a shutout of then #8 UCLA.

MINNISS NABS PAC-12 DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Two weeks into the 2018 season the defense of the Washington State soccer team continued to make a name for itself as freshman center-back Mykiaa Minniss nabbed the Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Week award on Aug. 28. She became the first freshman of the season to earn a weekly award in the Pac-12 Conference. For the week she led the defense to another shutout while scoring her first collegiate goal as well.

HARO NAMED PAC-12 DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK

For the second time in her career, junior Maddy Haro captured Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Week recognition, earning the first award of the season in the conference on Aug. 21. Haro led the Cougs to a pair of wins on opening weekend including a shutout of GCU in which her defense allowed just two total shots. Additionally, Haro was the catalyst to the Cougars' offense, assisting on three of the four goals scored over the weekend including the game-winner in overtime against Grand Canyon.

WASHINGTON STATE HEAD COACH TODD SHULENBERGER

In just three seasons, coach Shulenberger reshaped the Cougar program in his image, taking the Cougars to new heights in 2017. For the first time in program history, the Cougars, under Shulenberger, advanced to the third round of the NCAA Tournament. Traveling across the country, WSU took down No. 8 UCF, 1-0, to open the tournament before advancing past No. 20 Tennessee in a shootout to advance to the sweet 16. The Cougars finished the season ranked No. 19 in the final United Soccer Coaches' poll. In addition to their run in the postseason, Shulenberger guided the Cougars to their biggest upset in program history when WSU took down No. 2, and eventual national runner-up, UCLA, 1-0, at home on Oct. 19. Throughout the season, the Cougars would boast the 12th ranked strength of schedule while shutting out five top-25 teams. In all, the Cougars would shutout 11 opponents on the year, the second most in program history. In his fourth season, the Cougars have won 40 games including a program-record 14 victories in Shulenberger's first season.
