

WASHINGTON STATE

B A S K E T B A L L

WASHINGTON STATE at CAL
SATURDAY, FEB. 5, 2022 – 1 PM – HAAS PAVILION (BERKELEY, CALIF.)

FINAL SCORE: WSU 68 – CAL 64

POSTGAME NOTES

- With the win, the Cougars:
 - Improved to 14-7 on the year and 7-3 in Pac-12 contests
 - Ties the best 10 game stretch to start Pac play since the 2006-07 season
 - First five-game winning streak in Pac play since 2006-07
 - First sweep on the road at Stanford and Cal since the 1993 season
 - First back-to-back wins in Berkeley since 1992 & 1993
 - First four game win streak against Cal since 1991-1993
- WSU led at halftime for the 19th time on the year
- 4-point victory marked the smallest margin of victory on the year for the Cougs
- The Cougs had 11 of 13 active players available for the contest
 - Cougs were without Dishon Jackson for the sixth-straight game due to injury as well as Jefferson Koulibaly being an injury scratch for the second-straight game
- Michael Flowers led the team in scoring for the 7th time with 21 points
 - Back-to-back 20+ point games for the first time on the year – 5th 20+ point game of the year
 - 15th double-digit scoring game of the season – 100th of his career
 - Scored double-digits in both the second half (12), ties for team-best 10th double-digit scoring halves of the year
 - Tied a Pac-12 best 4 three-pointers for the third straight game
 - 27-straight games with a three-pointer
- Tyrell Roberts scored 12 points for the second-straight game
 - 13th double-digit scoring game
 - Tied a career high with 2 steals
- Efe Abogidi finished the game with 17 points, 11 rebounds, 2 blocks, 4 steals
 - 2nd Double-double in Pac-12 play
 - Highest point total in a Pac-12 game
 - Tied season high with 11 rebounds
 - Career high 4 steals
 - Season best 7-for-8 from the free throw line
- Mouhamed Gueye finished with 10 points, 5 rebounds, 3 blocks
 - 6th game in double-figures
 - Tied career high in blocks
- Double digit three-pointers (10) for the 10th time
- Second-straight win when being outrebounded improving to 2-4 in such games

- Improved to 3-7 on the year when being outshot from the floor (42.6% - to – 40.0%)