ABOUT ARIZONA

Arizona enters the weekend 21-7 including a 5-4 mark in Pac-12 play after sweeping USC last weekend and taking a nonconference game against Arizona State Tuesday. The Wildcats came into the week ranked eighth in the National College Baseball Writers Association and the USA Today national polls. Arizona leads the all-time series with WSU 38-24 after taking two of three last season in Tucson. UA enters the weekend fourth in the county in batting average (.328) and tied for a national lead in runs-per-game (9.0). Last season, the Wildcats went 49-24 and reached the College World Series finals, losing to Coastal Carolina. Head coach Jay Johnson is in his second season with Arizona.

AGAINST RANKED TEAMS

Washington State won two series from ranked teams last season, taking two if three from No. 10 Oregon State in Pullman and later claiming two of three at No. 14 Washington in Seattle.

HOME SWEET HOME

Washington State has opened the 2017 season winning its first three home series and posting a 10-1 record. That mark matches the best home start by a Cougar team since the 1988 John Olerud-led team also started 10-1 and finished the season with a 22-1 record at Bailey-Brayton Field.

LONG BALL AT LONG BEACH

In an 8-7 defeat at Long Beach State March 15, the Cougars launched a season-best four home runs, the most since hitting four against Eastern Michigan in 2013. J.J. Hancock got things started with a solo blast in the fourth inning and Justin Harrer followed with a solo shot, the first back-to-back homers for WSU since Derek Jones and Matt Argyropoulos did so at Cal State Bakersfield in 2011. In the fifth inning, freshman Dillon Plew hit his first career homer and freshman Jon Burghardt hit a pinch-hit three-run shot in the seventh that gave WSU a 7-4 advantage.

BACK-TO-BACK SWEEPS

Washington State has posted back-to-back series sweeps its first two home series of 2016, taking all three games from Stephen F. Austin and four from Utah Valley. WSU also recorded its first back-to-back series sweeps (3 or more games) at home for the first time since 1993 (4 at Hawaii – Hilo, 3 vs. Gonzaga in Richland, Wash.).

FOUR PITCHERS COMBINE TO NO-HIT STEPHEN F. AUSTIN

Four Cougar pitchers combined to no-hit Stephen F. Austin in the series-finale March 5, the second game of a doubleheader. It was the first WSU no-hitter since Kurt Waananen no-hit Rockford College in 1985, the first nine-inning no-hitter since Eric Wilkins (vs. Oregon State – 1976) and first combined no-hitter since 1974 (David Wright and Roger Stein – Idaho). Cougar starter Cody Anderson earned the win after striking out six and allowing just three unearned runs in six innings. The junior left-hander earned his first career win. Junior right-hander Joe Rosenstein followed with 1.1 innings of work and freshman lefty Isaac Mullins got the final two outs of the eighth inning before the junior left-hander Scotty Sunitsch worked a scoreless ninth to post the 24th no-hitter in school history and fifth combined no-hitter.

COMEBACK KIDS

The 2017 Cougars have settled in as the comeback kids, coming from behind in the first seven wins this season before adding another last weekend. It started with the first win of the season at Sacramento State, trailing 3-1 in the eighth inning before scoring three runs in the inning capped by Cory Meyer's go-ahead two-run homer. There have also been a couple big comebacks, erasing a 4-0 deficit in the sixth inning to beat Loyola Marymount Feb. 26 and overcoming a 5-0 third-inning hole against Stephen F. Austin March 5. Against Cal State Northridge, WSU overcame a 2-0 second-inning deficit to win 11-7. It could all be traced back to the season-opening series last year when the Cougars rallied with two runs in the ninth to force extra innings at Texas State and went on to post a 9-8 win in 10 innings, giving head coach Marty Lees his first career victory.

PAC-12 LEADERS

WSU enters the weekend among the top of the Pac-12 Conference in a couple categories. Offensively, the Cougars are second in the league in doubles (57), third in slugging (.406), fourth in on-base percentage (.369) and stolen bases (24). The pitching staff has picked off six baserunners, second in the Pac-12, while the defense is third in the league with 22 double plays turned. Shane Matheny enters the weekend tied for second in the Pac-12 with 12 doubles while Justin Harrer is tied for fourth with 10 doubles and freshman Dillon Plew is seventh in on-base percentage (.441). On the mound, Scotty Sunitsch entered the weekend tied for second in the Pac-12 with seven saves while Cody Anderson is eighth in ERA (2.37) and ninth in strikeouts (33).

MATHENY STAYS HOT

Shane Matheny has been one of the country's top hitters this season, owning a team-best .337 batting average and is tied for second in the Pac-12 with 12 doubles and sixth with a .584 slugging percentage. The junior had an 12-game hitting streak snapped recently but owns a hit in all but six games he has played in this season including eighth multiple-hit games with one four-hit performance. Matheny enters the weekend with a team-best 30 hits and second on the team with 17 RBI.

J.J. HANCOCK HEATS UP

Junior outfielder J.J. Hancock matched Shane Matheny's monster weekend against Utah Valley earlier this season with a .533 batting average after going 8-for-15 with a pair of triples, six RBI and four runs scored during the four-game sweep. Against CSUN, Hancock recorded two doubles and a homer and added another home run Monday at Pacific. He enters the weekend hitting .311, tied for the team lead with four home runs to go along with 14 RBI, four doubles, two triples, three stolen bases and a .533 slugging percentage.

PLEW KEEPS HITTING

Freshman infielder Dillon Plew has opened his career with hits in 16 of his 25 games played and reached base in 22 games. He already owns seven multiple-hit games including a three-hit performance against Utah Valley and added two more hits including his first career home run against Long Beach State. The Kennewick, Wash. native enters the weekend with team-bests of 19 walks, 18 runs scored and a .441 on-base percentage, good for seventh in the Pac-12.

HARRER SETTLES IN

Sophomore Justin Harrer has adjusted well to the outfield after starting 34 games at shortstop last season. The Sisters, Ore. native and former 18th-round draft pick by the San Diego Padres caught fire last weekend at California and Pacific, hitting .667 (8-for-12) with two doubles, two home runs and nine RBI in the four-game road trip. Monday, he collected a career-high three hits including a pair of doubles and a grand slam, finishing the day with six RBI, the most in a game since Derek Jones drove seven against USC in 2010. He has produced a couple nice defensive plays, crashing into the left field wall to make a catch at Sacramento State, throwing out a runner at third in the Loyola Marymount series before turning in two diving catches in the USC series. Harrer enters the weekend tied for fourth in the Pac-12 with 10 doubles and four home runs, and third with a .613 slugging percentage. He upped his average to .313 and owns a team-high 20 RBI.

NEALY NOTCHES THREE STRAIGHT WINS

Junior reliever Colby Nealy enters the weekend with a 4-1 record in 13 appearances, tying for the sixth-most wins in the Pac-12. Nealy suffered the loss in the season opener at Sacramento State but bounced back in a big way, recording the win in each of WSU's three wins beginning Feb. 24 at Loyola Marymount with 1.1 innings of work. He then earned the win Feb. 26 at LMU after throwing just two pitches as his pitch-out helped WSU throw out a baserunner attempting to steal second to end the eighth inning and the Cougars went to score three runs in the ninth for a 7-4 win. Nealy then earned the win after working 1.2 innings of relief against Stephen F. Austin. Against Cal State Northridge, he tallied his fourth win after 2.1 innings of work.

CODY CRUISES ALONG

Junior lefthander Cody Anderson has burst on to the scene in his first season with the Cougars. The Bellevue College transfer has seen WSU win in five of his first seven starts. Anderson struck out seven in his first career start at Sacramento State, threw six innings in the combined no-hitter of Stephen F. Austin before striking out seven against Utah Valley. He was even more impressive in his win at USC, striking out six and allowing just one earned run on five hits in eight innings, firing 16 straight strikes at one point. He owns a 3-2 record, the eighth-best ERA in the Pac-12 (2.37) and a team-best 33 strikeouts.

ABOUT ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH / PITCHING COACH DAN SPENCER

In his first official move as head baseball coach, Marty Lees named Dan Spencer as the Cougars' associate head coach. Spencer oversees WSU's pitching staff and reunited with Lees as the two spent four seasons together at Oregon State, winning back-to-back College World Series titles in 2006 and 2007. Spencer coached three seasons with the New Mexico Lobos after serving the previous four years as the head coach of Texas Tech, compiling a 115-112 record. Before joining Texas Tech for the 2008 season, Spencer spent 11 seasons at Oregon State as the Beavers hitting coach (1997-2003) and pitching coach (2004-2007). He began his head coaching career at Green River Community College (1992-96) in Auburn, Wash. In 1992 and 1994 he was named the Northwest Athletic Association of Community Colleges Coach of the Year. A native of Vancouver, Wash., Spencer received his bachelor's degree in history from Portland State University in 1990. He and his wife, Susie, have three children: Wade, Logan, and Elizabeth.

Marty
LEES
Head Coach

Marty Lees begins his second season at the helm of Washington State Baseball after being named the 15th head coach in program history in 2015. Prior to WSU, Lees spent the last three seasons as the assistant coach/recruiting coordinator at Oklahoma State and the previous 11 at Oregon State. In those 14 years he coached 10 teams that reached the NCAA Tournament, including two national champions with Oregon State (2006-07).

In his first season at WSU, Lees led the Cougars to series wins over No. 10 Oregon State and No. 14 University of Washington, giving WSU its first series win in Seattle since 2004. Washington State finished the 2016 campaign 19-35 including an 11-19 mark in Pac-12 Conference play while improving in batting average, runs scored and home runs from the season prior with a roster that featured just one senior. The Cougars recorded the second-most stolen bases in the Pac-12 and also led the league in stolen bases during conference play and tied for the most double plays turned against Pac-12 opponents. Lees saw three players earn All-Pac-12 Conference accolades led by second baseman Trek Stemp's selection to the All-Pac-12 team and four players earned Pac-12 All-Academic honors. In the Major League Baseball Draft, Lees saw three Cougars drafted and four Cougar signees also picked by MLB clubs. Known as one of the best recruiters in college baseball, Lees and his staff put together a 2016 recruiting class that was ranked No. 28 by D1Baseball.com.

In his final season with the Cowboys posted a 38-20 record, falling in the 2015 NCAA Stillwater Regional, the first time in his three seasons Oklahoma State did not advance to the Regional Championship game. Along with helping lead the Cowboys to the NCAA Louisville Regional final in 2013 and a Big 12 Conference championship and NCAA Super Regional appearance in 2014, Lees thrived as Oklahoma State's recruiting coordinator. The Cowboys' first class with Lees on board was ranked No. 4 nationally by Baseball America and No. 5 by Collegiate Baseball, and followed that with a 2014 class that was ranked No. 5 by Collegiate Baseball for the second-consecutive year.

In January 2013, Lees came in at No. 6 on Baseball America's list of the nation's top 10 college assistant coaches; a list compiled from votes of 70 Division I head coaches across the country, as well as the input of more than a dozen scouts. As the primary coach for OSU's infielders, Lees coached 13 Cowboy infielders who have earned All-Big 12 honors over the last three seasons, and in 2015, Oklahoma State recorded a .975 fielding percentage.

Lees arrived at Oklahoma State after spending the previous 11 years on the coaching staff at Oregon State, including the final three (2010-12) as the Beavers' associate head coach. Lees joined the Oregon State staff as a volunteer assistant in 2002 and moved to a full-time assistant coach in 2004. He helped coach the Beavers to three-straight College World Series berths from 2005-07, including back-to-back national championships in 2006-07.

He worked primarily as the defensive coach for infielders and catchers and also spent his last six years as the team's recruiting coordinator. While in Corvallis, he coached 30 All-Pac-10/12 Conference performers and 10 All-Americans. Under his guidance, Darwin Barney was the 2005 Pac-10 Freshman of the Year, while Chris Kunda was named the conference's defensive player of the year in 2006.

Lees also established himself as a top recruiter as each of his classes as recruiting coordinator ranked in the top 25 nationally. In 2008, the Beavers' signed a class ranked No. 3, and Oregon State's 2011 recruiting class ranked in the top 10 and included Michael Conforto, who earned All-America honors as a freshman in 2012.

A native of Lakeview, Ore., Lees earned his bachelor's degree in physical education from Western Oregon in 1994. He and his wife, Kristy, have three sons, Brandon, Brady and Jake.
