

WASHINGTON STATE at LOYOLA MARYMOUNT

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 25, 2026

GERSTEN PAVILION

LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA

	1	2	F
WSU	39	27	66
LMU	24	43	67

WSU POSTGAME TEAM NOTES

- With the result, the Cougars:
 - Fall to 12-18 this season and 1-10 in road games
 - Fall to 7-10 in WCC play and 1-7 in conference road games
 - Fall to 5-3 all-time against Loyola Marymount and 1-1 against the Lions at LMU
 - WSU won the meeting, Jan.2, 95-79, splitting the regular season meetings
 - Fall to 3-5 when wearing Crimson uniforms
 - Fall to 4-9 when winning the opening tip
 - Fall to 10-5 when leading at halftime
 - Held LMU without a three-pointer in the first half
 - Held to a season low 27 second-half points
 - First time since opponent shot under 40% and won since Oregon State finished.391 (25-64), Feb. 4
 - Fall to 2-11 when outscored by opponent in the second half
 - Were outscored 22-2 in points from turnovers
 - Riley has used the same starting lineup for eight consecutive games
 - Eemeli Yalaho, Rihards Vavers, ND Okafor, Jerone Morton, and Ace Glass

WSU POSTGAME INDIVIDUAL NOTES

- Ace Glass led the Cougars with 20 points, his ninth 20-point game and 25th double-digit contest this season
- Rihards Vavers scored 12 points, his 10th-consecutive 10+ point game and 17th this season
- Eemeli Yalaho finished with 12 points, his 15th game with 10+ points
 - Yalaho led WSU in rebounding for the 13th time with a conference-play high nine rebounds
- Adria Rodriguez led the team with six assists, his 11th game with 5+ assists
 - Rodriguez matched his career high with a block