

WASHINGTON STATE

B A S K E T B A L L

WASHINGTON STATE at UCLA
THURSDAY, JAN. 14, 2021 – 2 P.M. – PAULEY PAVILION (LOS ANGELES)

FINAL SCORE: STANFORD 91, WSU 61

POSTGAME NOTES

- With the loss, the Cougars:
 - Fell to 9-3 on the year and 2-2 in Pac-12 play and 1-2 on the road
 - 10th-straight loss to UCLA at Pauley Pavilion dating back to 2009
- Cougs used the same starting lineup for the fourth-straight game
 - Started three true freshmen (Abogidi, Jakimovski, Jackson) for the fourth-straight game
 - Efe Abogidi and Noah Williams have started all 12 games for the Cougars
- 91 points, most points allowed since giving up 98 vs Stanford at Palo Alto, 2/28/19
 - First 30+pt loss since falling by 33 (84-51) vs Oregon at Las Vegas, 3/13/19
 - Season-worst 54% shooting allowed
 - 54 points allowed in the first half most allowed since 54 in the second half at Arizona 3/5/20
 - Most points scored in a half for UCLA in the Mick Cronin era
 - Gave up 7 first half three-pointers, most since giving up 10 vs Utah in the first half 2/23/19
- Senior Isaac Bonton scored 23 points
 - 29th-straight double-digit scoring game, 36th career
 - 3rd 20+ pt game in the last four games
 - 4th of the season, 9th of his career
 - Led the team in scoring for the 5th time on the year
 - Tied a season-high with 3 three-pointers
 - Tied a career-high with 10 made field goals
- Senior Tony Miller came up with a career-best four assists
 - First time leading the team in assists in his career
- WSU tied a season high with 17 turnovers
 - Back-to-back games with 17 turnovers