MATCHUP NOTES

- The Cougs and the Gaels face off for the eighth time with WSU holding a 5-2 edge in the all-time series.
 - WSU has won the last five meetings between the two teams while posting a 2-2 record in San Francisco. The most recent trip to USF came in the 2008-09 season with the Cougs winning 82-71 on Nov. 30, 2008.
 - Last season, the dominated the Dons, 73-35, in Pullman as the Cougs put together one of the best defensive performances in program history and arguably the best since the inclusion of the three-point arc.
 - The 35 points allowed was the second lowest point total for a WSU opponent in nearly 40 seasons tying a total given up by the 1979 Cougars in a 76-35 win over Alaska-Anchorage and one off the 34 points given up to Idaho State in 2014.
- Overall, the Cougs held the Dons to just 24.1% shooting in the game and just 13 field goals. WSU forced 35 turnovers on the night which led to 24 points while also blocking six shots.

LAST TIME OUT

A big third quarter run proved to be the difference on the day as Washington State (0-2) fell on the road at Saint Mary's (1-1), 81-75, Sunday afternoon at McKeon Pavilion. Just as the Cougs appeared to be taking total control of the game, Saint Mary's was able to find its offensive rhythm from the free throw line as the Gaels hit six-straight from the charity stripe to kick off a 13-6 run that closed out the third quarter. Down by nine with just over four to play, the Cougs would instantly cut the lead to just four, finishing their quick outburst with a three from Alexys Swedlund, her fourth of the game. However, the outburst would be a flash as WSU went cold for the final three minutes of the game going just 1-for-8 allowing the Gaels to hold on for the win. In addition to the huge discrepancy at the line, the Gaels also benefited from controlling the glass as Saint Mary's held a 43-30 edge on the boards led by Megan McKay's 11. The big center for the Gaels used her advantage underneath to score a game-high 22 points including a back-breaking put-back with just over one-minute to play that essentially sealed the win for Saint Mary's.

BACK AND BETTER THAN EVER

- Back and better than ever, the Cougs return three starters to the 2017-18 lineup after losing Chanelle Molina, Borislava Hristova, and Louise Brown to season-ending injuries last year.
- Returning from injury, Hristova leads the team at 17.0 ppg to start the year. Last season she got off to a hot start as well averaging 14.7 ppg, 11th best in the Pac-12 and had just produced a 25-point effort against #5 Maryland before injury.
- Brown returned to grab a game-best 11 rebounds at UC Davis and then scored 14 points on 4-of-8 from three at Saint Mary's. Last year, she had just found her groove as the junior was averaging 10.3 ppg and 6.9 rpg. She had just scored a career-best 16 against Nebraska before going down injured.
- Molina has struggled to regain her form in the first two games as she is still only 10 months removed from tearing her ACL. She was averaging 12.8 points on 51.5% shooting having started all 17 games. She was coming off of a 33-point outburst in WSU's upset of #7 UCLA two games prior before her injury.
- The Cougs played the final 19 games of the season without all of their injured stars while Hristova missed 27 games and Brown missed 29.
- In total, the Cougs left 42.6 ppg, 12.9 rpg, 6.3 apg, 3.5 spg on the bench from their injured players, all of which are back and fully healthy for the start of the new year.

ITS RAINING THREES - SWEDLUND CLIMBING THE SHARP-SHOOTING CHARTS

- A year after setting the Cougs' single-season record for three's with 75, junior Alexys Swedlund has her sights set on the career record of 161 currently held by Katie (Appleton) Bohnoff from 2005-09.
- With 5 three-pointers on the year, Swedlund now has 112 for her career, moving past a pair of Cougar alums for 9th place alltime. She is 12 away from tying for 8th all-time with Kelli Kronberger (1992-96).
- She sits just 49 three-pointers back of tying the program's all-time record of 161.

MCCLURE LOOKING TO BLOCK HER WAY TO THE TOP OF THE RECORD BOOKS

- The single-game (12) and single-season (68) record holder for blocks, redshirt-junior Nike McClure is in search of the final piece of the puzzle, the all-time record of 158 held by Carly Noyes (2010-13).
- Nike has blocked four shots on the year to put her at 97 career blocks, sixth most in program history.
- Next on the swat list is the Cougs' current video coordinator, Shalie Dheensaw (2011-15), who finished with 98 career blocks.
- She needs 61 blocks to tie the program's all-time record of 158.

BOBI BUCKETS' MARCH TOWARDS 1,000

- Entering the year, Cougar scoring sensation Borislava Hristova, affectionately known as Bobi Buckets, sits as the next in line to join WSU's 1,000-point club. After scoring a freshman program record 490 points and getting a free 132 points last season before injury, she entered the year with 622 career-points as a redshirt-sophomore.
- On the year, Bobi has scored 34 points to bring her career total to 656.
- Bobi needs 344 more points to become the 18th member of the 1,000 point club. With a career average of 16.0 ppg, she is tentatively on pace to reach the plateau on the road at Arizona State on Feb. 4.

COUGARS TURN THEIR BLOCK PARTY INTO A BLOCK RAGER

- In back-to-back seasons the Cougs have rewritten the record book for blocks in a season posting 120 in 2015-16 and a record 152 last year in 2016-17.
- This season, the Cougs are back at it having blocked 10 shots in two games, ranking 18th in the nation in rejections.
- WSU is averaging 5.0 blocks per game led by Nike McClure's 2.0 bpg average.

THE "UNITED NATIONS OF BASKETBALL"

- The 2017-18 Cougar basketball team is represented by student-athletes from seven different countries and four different states. Head coach June Daugherty regards the team as the "United Nations of Basketball."
- The Cougars have seven international players on their 15-player roster, the most of any team in the Pac-12. Overall the Pac-12 welcomed 32 international student-athletes into the fold in 2017-18.

COUGS RUN THEIR WAY INTO THE WNIT FINAL FOUR

- After making the postseason for just the fourth time in the modern NCAA era, the Cougs proved to be a tough out as WSU won four in a row, their longest streak of the year, to advance to the semifinals of the WNIT.
- The wins for the Cougs in the first four rounds marked WSU's first-ever post season victories (in the modern NCAA era). Three times prior the Cougs played in the opening round of the NCAA (1991) and the WNIT (2014, 2015) only to fall short.
- The Cougars earned the conference's automatic bid into the postseason tournament thanks to their seventh place finish in the standings. With the Pac-12 earning a record seven bids to the Big Dance, the Cougars became the conference's first team out making them the first team into the WNIT. The bid into the WNIT marks the third time in the last four seasons the Cougars advanced to the postseason tournament.

WASHINGTON STATE IN THE 2016-17 REGULAR SEASON

- The Cougars finished the regular season with a 12-18 overall record, including a 6-12 mark in Pac-12 Conference play earning a tie for 7th after being picked to finish 10th in the preseason.
- To end the year, WSU split its final regular-season series, falling to Utah, 74-57, before defeating Colorado, 67-56, Saturday on senior day.
- The Cougars lost six games last season that were decided by two possessions (six points) or less or in overtime. Washington State defeated one nationally-ranked opponent this season, upsetting #9/7 UCLA, 82-73, on Jan. 6 in the program's biggest upset ever.
- WSU earned a spot in the WNIT thanks to their 7th place finish in the Pac-12.

MOLINA AND HAILEY GARNER ALL-PAC-12 RECOGNITION

- Then freshman Chanelle Molina and junior Caila Hailey received All-Pac-12 honors as voted on by the conference's 12 coaches.
- Despite playing just six conference games, Molina made her mark in the minds of the Pac-12's coaches as she was named to the Pac-12 All-Freshman Team.
- Hailey continued to be recognized as one of the conference's top defenders as she received an honorable mention to the Pac-12 All-Defensive Team for the second-straight season.

PAVLOPOULOU LEADS THREE COUGS TO PAC-12 ALL-ACADEMIC HONORS

- Then junior Pinelopi Pavlopoulou was named First Team Pac-12 All-Academic as the headliner of three Cougs earning all-academic honor.
- In addition to Pavlopoulou earning top honors, then sophomores Maria Kostourkova and Alexys Swedlund each earned honorable mention for their work both on the court and in the classroom. The award for Pavlopoulou was her second in as many years after earning honorable mention status as a sophomore. For Kostourkova and Swedlund, the honor came in their first year eligible for the distinction.
- To be eligible for selection to the academic teams, a student-athlete must be in their redshirt-freshman season or above and have a minimum 3.0 overall grade-point average, while participating in at least 50 percent of team competitions.

THE COUGS PUNCH THE CLOCK A RECORD NUMBER OF TIMES

- Finishing the season, the 2016-17 edition of the Cougars set a program record for time on the court as WSU clocked 7,275 minutes in 36 games.
- The 36 games for the Cougs also sets WSU's record for most games played in a single season.
- Eight players for the Cougs played in every game on the year with Caila Hailey starting a team-high 33, fifth most by any player in program history.

22 RECORDS FALL IN 2016-17

- Team Single Season: Rebounds (1455), Blocked Shots (152), Blocked Shots Average (4.2), Assists (500), Steals (375), Games Played (36), Minutes Played (7,275), FG Attempted (2,365), 3PT FG Attempted (686).

- Freshman Single Game: Points Scored (33, Chanelle Molina vs UCLA, 1/6), FG Made (13, Chanelle Molina vs UCLA, 1/6)

COUGS HAND OUT TEAM AWARDS TO FINISH THE SEASON

- The Cougs put the finishing touches on their 2016-17 season with the handing out of the team awards.

As voted on by the players:

Best Defensive Player - Caila Hailey

Most Inspirational - Ivana Kmetovska & Krystle McKenzie

The Coug Award (Awarded to those who's efforts may not always show up in the stat sheets and in the scoring column) - Ivana Kmetovska & Pinelopi Pavlopoulou

Most Improved - Alexys Swedlund

Coaches' Award (Given to the Coug who goes above and beyond to make herself and the team better) - Jovana Subasic & Krystle McKenzie

COUGS SIGN THE FINAL PIECE TO THE MOLINA TRIFECTA

- Washington State women's basketball completed the trio of Molina's during the early signing period as head coach June Daugherty announced the addition of Cherilyn Molina through her National Letter of Intent.
- Cheilyn becomes the first recruit to sign to the Cougs during the current recruiting cycle as she will join her sisters, Chanelle and Celena, on the Palouse in 2018.
- A standout point guard at Konawaena High School, Molina enters her final high school season as the reigning Hawaii Gatorade Player of the Year as she took home the top honor for the first time as a junior last season. In addition to Gatorade Player of the Year honors, she was named the Hawaii High School Athletic Association and the Big Island Interscholastic Federation Player of the Year as well as first team all-state after leading the Wildcats to their third-straight state title.

June
DAUGHERTY
Head Coach

Washington State University Head Coach June Daugherty completed her 10th season with the Cougars, having led the charge toward a new era in WSU women's basketball. Just as she had done at each of her two previous stops, Daugherty, who has coached more than 800 career games, has begun turning around the WSU women's program, leading the Cougars into the postseason in three of the last four seasons including a semifinal run in the WNIT in 2017. She continues to bringing in top-ranked recruiting classes, improve attendance numbers and oversee student-athletes who place premiums on academics and community service.

In arguably her best coaching performance in her 10 seasons on the Palouse, Daugherty led an injury-riddled Cougar squad into the postseason in 2017 after earning the Pac-12's automatic bid to the WNIT. Making the most of their new life in the postseason, the Cougars, with Daugherty at the helm, won their first-ever postseason game with a 72-64 victory at BYU on Mar. 16 in the opening round of the WNIT. The Cougs would go on to win three more games and run their way into the WNIT Final Four while playing in four different time zones and traveling over 4200 miles. Most impressively, Daugherty kept a young Cougar team together despite season ending injuries to four players including the team's top three starters. Even without the three starters for much of the year, the Cougs managed to finish seventh in the Pac-12 standings, earning their spot in the postseason. The Cougars finished the regular season with a 12-18 overall record, including a 6-12 mark in Pac-12 Conference play earning a tie for 7th after being picked to finish 10th in the preseason. The Cougars defeated one nationally-ranked opponent, upsetting #9/7 UCLA, 82-73, on Jan. 6 in the biggest upset in school history. The Cougars would go on to set numerous season records on the year including games played (36), minutes played (7,275), rebounds (1,455), assists (500), blocked shots (152), and steals (375).

Off the court, the Cougars continued to shine in the classroom with three Pac-12 All-Academic honorees led by Pinelopi Pavlopoulou on the first team. She would be joined by Alexys Swedlund and Maria Kostourkova as honorable mention recipients.

Under Daugherty, Washington State has reached the Pac-12 Conference Tournament semifinals two times, 30 student-athletes earned all-academic honors in the last nine years, and five players signed professional contracts to play overseas in the last four summers including Lia Galdeira who was selected No. 19 overall by the Washington Mystics in the 2016 WNBA Draft, the first player drafted in program history.

In 2015-16, Daugherty guided a youthful team to the school's best start since the 1989-90 season. WSU went 9-2 in nonconference play before entering Pac-12 play and the toughest RPI conference in the country. Under Daugherty's leadership, freshman Borislava Hristova earned All-Pac-12 and Pac-12 All-Freshman Team honors, breaking WSU freshman records in 20-point games, total points, scoring average, field goals made, and free throw percentage. The Cougars finished the season with a 14-16 record and a 5-13 record in Pac-12 play, finishing ninth with season sweeps of Colorado and Arizona. Daugherty also oversaw the defensive success of WSU's frontline, which tallied a then school-record 120 total blocks. The Cougars picked up a top-25 win over No. 25 USC with a decisive 73-61 victory.

During the 2014-15 campaign, Daugherty hit a personal milestone, earning her 400th career win as the Cougars defeated Utah Feb. 15. Daugherty continued to build on the success of the previous season, as WSU earned a second-consecutive postseason berth for the first time in school history. The WSU women's basketball program earned national recognition, recording one of the biggest wins in program history with a 70-64 victory over No. 10/8 Maryland, an eventual No. 1 seed and Final Four participant, in Puerto Rico, November 29.

During the 2013-14 season, Daugherty led the Cougars to one of the best campaigns in program history, earning a trip to the WNIT, the program's first postseason appearance since 1991, and posted 17 wins, the most since 1995-96. WSU also notched four wins over ranked teams, including one on the road against No. 10 Nebraska and went on to post nine conference wins for the first time since 1994-95. Guards Lia Galdeira and Tia Presley both earned spots on the All-Pac-12 Team, becoming the first pair of Cougar teammates to earn all-conference honors in the same season in program history. The Cougars received some national recognition late in the year, receiving votes in the Top-25 USA Today Coaches' Poll following their Pac-12 Tournament run, becoming the first WSU team to be mentioned in a poll since the 1990-91 season.

In 2012-13, Daugherty led a team that featured six freshmen and three sophomores to the Pac-12 Conference Tournament quarterfinals for the second straight season, beating Arizona State in the opening round before falling to top-seeded Stanford. The Cougars improved three spots in the conference standings from a season ago, finishing eighth. WSU produced some notable wins while playing one of the toughest schedules in the country, beating No. 20 Ohio State, posting a road victory over regional rival Gonzaga and sweeping the season series with Arizona State. The Cougars finished the year with a program record for blocks in a season with 114.

Also under Daugherty's guidance in 2012-13, the Cougars backcourt received recognition from the conference as Lia Galdeira, the second-leading freshman scorer in the country and three-time Pac-12 Freshman of the Week winner, earned a number of All-Pac-12 accolades as a freshman after pacing the Cougars in scoring, rebounding, steals and minutes. Sophomore point guard Tia Presley also earned all-conference honors despite being limited to seven conference games due to injury. Daugherty also saw center Carly Noyes cap off her impressive career by becoming the school's all-time leader in blocked shots, games played and career starts.

The 2011-12 campaign saw Daugherty lead the Cougars to one of the most successful seasons in program history while playing one of the toughest schedules in the country (No. 27). WSU posted the most wins since 1995-96, recording 13 overall victories and the second double-digit win season under Daugherty while improving their final RPI by 50 spots from the season prior. The Cougars saved its best for last, beating UCLA the final weekend of the regular season before posting the program's inaugural wins at the conference tournament. WSU knocked off Oregon State and USC in the first two rounds to advance to the nationally-televised semifinal against California held at the Staples Center in Los Angeles.

Additionally, Daugherty led the Cougs to the program's inaugural win over a Big Ten Conference opponent (Wisconsin) and the first win over a Big East Conference opponent (Marquette) in over 20 years. Daugherty's team followed nonconference play by winning its first three games of Pac-12 play for the first time since 1977-78. The 2011-12 Cougars made their mark on the record book as well, posting the most rebounds, the sixth-most points, fourth-most threes, fifth-most assists and second-most assists in WSU single-season history. 2011-12 also saw Daugherty's first WSU recruiting class cap their impressive careers as a pair of 1,000-point scorers exited along with a three-time academic all-conference selection in addition to the three players who received invites to the WNBA combine. Headlining the group was guard Jazmine Perkins who finished her career as a three-time all-conference selection and WSU's all-time leader in games played and the first player in school-history, male or female, with 1,200+ points, 700+ rebounds and 250+ steals.

2010-11 saw the Cougars take another step forward under Daugherty's guidance while playing the No. 27 toughest schedule in the country. WSU posted the most conference wins, the highest scoring average and highest shooting percentage since 2000-01. The Cougars posted their highest finish since the 1997-98, tying for seventh after posting season sweeps over California and Oregon State and beating Oregon and Oregon State on the same weekend to record their first weekend sweep in conference play since 2001.

Daugherty's players have received quite a bit of postseason attention since her arrival on the Palouse. In her first season guard Katie Appleton garnered her first-career all-conference honor after being named All-Pac-10 honorable mention. Guard Kezia Kelly was named Freshman All-Pac-10 honorable mention. April Cook and Jazmine Perkins took home a slew of honors following the 2008-09 season, earning mention on the All-Pac-10 Team and the Pac-10 All-Freshman Team. Perkins was also named to the Pac-10 All-Defensive Team. In 2009-10, Cook garnered her second-straight honorable mention all-conference honor, and freshmen Carly Noyes and KiKi Moore combined for a number of accolades. Daugherty continued to produce all-conference selections last season as Perkins and Sage Romberg garnered All-Pac-10 honorable mention honors while Romberg was placed on the Pac-10 All-Freshmen team and Ireti Amojor received All-Pac-10 All-Freshmen honorable mention. It marked the third consecutive season that Daugherty had at least one freshman garner all-conference recognition.

Dating back to her years at Washington, Daugherty has placed at least one individual on the All-Pac-10/12 team each year since 1997. A pair of Cougs received All-Pac-12 accolades in 2011-12 as Perkins received all-Pac-12 honorable mention while both Perkins and Carly Noyes earned all-defensive team honorable mention. In 2012-13, Galdeira and Presley received all-conference honorable mention with Galdeira also earning a spot on the all-defensive and all-freshmen teams. This past season, Galdeira and Presley both earned spots on the All-Pac-12 Team, becoming the first pair of Cougar teammates to earn all-conference honors in the same season in program history. Daugherty, whose career record stands at 387-360 (.518), has more than 20 years of experience working with WNBA-caliber talent. She began her head coaching career at Boise State, where she coached for seven years (1989-96) and compiled a record of 123-74 (73-31 Big Sky Conference). Under her watch, the Broncos not only made the NCAA Tournament for the first time in school history, but achieved their first national ranking and won their first regular season conference title. In 1992, the Broncos won the Big Sky regular season championship, and in 1994 they shared the conference crown with Montana and earned an at-large bid to the NCAA tournament. At the conclusion of the 1993-94 season, Daugherty was named Big Sky Co-Coach of the Year. After turning things around at Boise State, Daugherty continued her success at Washington, where she coached for 11 seasons. After finishing ninth in the Pac-10 in 2000, Daugherty led the Huskies to their first conference title since 1990, the greatest turnaround in conference history. She led Washington to nine postseason appearances in 11 seasons - six NCAA Tournament appearances and three WNIT appearances - and led the Huskies all the way to the NCAA Women's Basketball Championship Elite Eight in 2001.

Daugherty helped a number of players earn individual honors at Washington, with Giuliana Mendiola becoming the school's first Pac-10 Player of the Year, and four players earning District VIII All-America honors. Home attendance soared under Daugherty's watch at both Boise State and Washington. The Broncos averaged 500 fans per game before Daugherty's arrival. During her tenure, more than 2,000 fans were coming to watch every game, placing Boise State in the nation's top 30 for home attendance in each of her seven seasons. Washington led the Pac-10 in home attendance in both 2002-03 and 2003-04. The team chemistry formed on the basketball court is a direct result of creating a family atmosphere with Daugherty's staff and players. Daugherty creates a home away from home for her basketball family, consisting of coaches, players and support staff. This environment culminated in 16 players combining for 49 selections to the Pac-10 All-Academic Team at Washington, and 30 student-athletes on the Big Sky Conference All-Academic Team at Boise State. In her six seasons at WSU, ten players have combined for 21 All-Academic selections.

Daugherty's basketball family is involved not only in providing everything necessary to achieve academic excellence, but also the means to becoming involved in community service. Daugherty leads by example, speaking at meetings for the Chamber of Commerce, the Kiwanis and for many women's groups. A major advocate for healthy heart awareness, Daugherty was named the Sudden Cardiac Arrest Association's National Coach of the Year in 2008. Since becoming a survivor of sudden cardiac arrest Daugherty has become one of the nation's most visible spokesmen, filming a nationally-aired commercial, speaking at fund-raisers for the Hope Heart Institute and the American Red Cross and helping WSU sponsor the inaugural "Cougs Have Heart" basketball game to raise awareness for heart disease.

Daugherty is a member of the Women's Basketball Coaches' Association and is a former member of its Board of Directors. She is also a member of both the State Farm Coaches' All-America Team and the Russell Athletic/WBCA Coach of the Year selection committees and is currently serving on the WBCA Ethics Board, the WBCA All-America selection committee for Region 8 and is the captain of the Pac-12 coaches committee. Daugherty often serves as a clinician for the NCAA YES Clinic at the Final Four, and she has been active in USA Basketball and was an assistant coach for the West Team at the 1995 Olympic Sports Festival.

Daugherty also places high priority on keeping the top local high school talent at home in the Northwest. In her first season with the Cougars, Washington's 3A State Player of the Year Katie Grad (Auburn-Riverside) and Shadle Park's all-time leading scorer Lexie Pettersen (Spokane) were each a part of her nationally-ranked recruiting class. Her second recruiting class featured Carly Noyes of Moses Lake, Wash., a three-time conference player of the year at Moses Lake HS. Her 2010 class, two-time Evergreen Conference Most Valuable Player and 2009-10 Seattle Times All-State (all-classifications) honoree Brandi Thomas, of Elma, Wash., went Crimson. This season, Daugherty welcomes Wyoming's two-time Gatorade Player of the Year in Jordan Kelley (Gillette, Wyo.), one of the top-rated low post players out of Canada in 6-3 Shalie Dheensaw (Victoria, B.C.) who has started for the Canadian U17 National Team and speedy three-time all-state selection out of Spokane's Gonzaga Prep Tia Presley (Spokane, Wash.). The 2012 recruiting class featured six players from all over the country including Lia Galderia who was named Hawaii Player of the Year three times.

Several of Daugherty's athletes have gone on to coaching careers at both the high school and collegiate level, including Lisa Fisher, an associate head coach with the Cougars in 2006. Daugherty served as an assistant coach at Stanford under head coach Tara Vanderveer prior to taking over the Boise State program. She helped guide the Cardinal to one of the finest seasons in school history, finishing the 1989 season with a record of 28-3, an undefeated Pac-10 season and a trip to the NCAA Tournament. Daugherty also had a two-year stint on the Kent State staff as an assistant coach from 1983-85.

Daugherty played collegiate basketball at Ohio State from 1974-78, where she led the Buckeyes to the Big Ten Championship in 1977 and 1978. She is still ranked amongst the school's top 25 in career scoring with 1,137 points. She also ranks fifth in career rebounds (829), is tied for 17th in career field goals made (500) and shares the single-game school record for blocked shots (12 against Michigan State in 1976). At the conclusion of her senior season, she earned first-team All-America honors and was a Wade Trophy finalist the first year the award was presented.

Just prior to the start of the 2001 season, The Ohio State University honored Daugherty with an induction into the OSU Athletic Hall of Fame. Daugherty will be inducted into the Westerville High School in December, 2011.

Following graduation in 1978, Daugherty contributed as both a player and coach on several international teams, including a period as a player and coach for the Union Sportive Vierzon Club based in France.

Daugherty, a native of Columbus, Ohio, is the daughter of Naomi and Jim Brewer and has two brothers, Mark and Neil Brewer, and one sister, Ruth Williams. She and her husband Mike are the parents of twins Doc and Breanne.
