WHAT'S AHEAD...

Santa Clara is making their fifth all-time appearance in the NIT and will open on the road against Washington State.

AT A GLANCE...

The Broncos had one of their best regular seasons in recent history, finishing 3rd in the WCC with a 10-5 record, their best finish in the league since finishing 2nd in 2006-07. Santa Clara is 21-11 overall and has their most wins of the Herb Sendek Era.

QUICK HITS...

- Herb Sendek picked up his 500th career victory in the Broncos' 84-70 win at Pacific. He joins Gonzaga's Mark Few as the only active WCC coaches on the 500 Division I wins list.
- With 21 wins this year, Santa Clara now has two 20-win seasons in the last three years. That's the first time the Broncos have done that since 2010-11 through 2012-13.
- The Broncos have posted four-straight winning seasons, their longest stretch since Dick Davey led to team to seven-straight from 1994-95 through 2000-01.
- Santa Clara's 10 WCC wins are their most since 2016-17, Sendek's first season.
- Three Broncos earned All-WCC honors, including two first team members (Jalen Williams and Josip Vrankic). It's the first time SCU has had two first teamers in the same year since 2012-13.
- Santa Clara is 7th nationally in field goal percentage (49.0) and 7th nationally in 3-pt field goal percentage (38.8). They are one of just five teams in the nation that is shooting that well from both.
- The Broncos have shot at least 50 percent in 16 games.
- Santa Clara closed out the regular season 12-3 to lock up third place in the WCC.
- The Broncos are the only team in the WCC with four players averaging 12.0 ppg or better
- Santa Clara's 21 wins are the most of the Sendek Era and most since 2012-13.
- The Broncos have been to 15 combined postseason tournaments between the NCAA Tournament and NIT.
- Santa Clara is 2-4 all-time in the NIT.
- The Broncos are 3-5 all-time against Washington State, but have won the last two in the series (79-71 in 2018 and 70-62 in 2019).

BRONCOS IN THE NIT...

• Jalen Williams earned the reputation as one of the top players in the WCC this season and has the accolades to prove it. The Gilbert, Ariz., product earned First Team All-WCC honors for the first time in his career after leading the league with 18.0 points per game. Williams has posted 12 games of 20 points or more with a career-high of 30 against Hawai'i. Williams reached 1,000 career points in the Broncos win over Portland in the WCC Tournament quarterfinal, finishing with 24 pts, including 4-of-8 from 3pt range.

• After missing eight-straight games due to illness, four-time All-WCC forward Josip Vrankic returned to the Bronco lineup on Dec. 14 against Boise State. Vrankic opened the season with 29 points against Cal State Fullerton and followed with 16 against Stanford. In total he has scored at least 10 points in all but five games, and has five 20-pt games on the year. Vrankic secured his first double-double of the year after leading the WCC in that department a season ago with 20 pts and 10 reb vs. Montana. He had a huge 22 pt/7 reb/4 ast game against San Diego where he scored six of SCU's eight pts in OT to lead them to the win. Vrankic has scored 13 or more in nine of the last 10 games. Vrankic shot a team-best 55.1 percent from the floor in league play (5th in WCC). Vrankic averaged 20.0 ppg and 7.5 rpg in the WCC Tournament, finishing with 19 pts against Portland and 21 against Saint Mary's.

• Transfer guard PJ Pipes has also seen a very productive season, especially in WCC play. The Green Bay transfer averaged 13.7 ppg in WCC play and scored 10 or more in 13-of-15 league games. For the season, Pipes has 22 double-figure scoring games in 29 starts with five 20-pt games. Pipes has scored 20 or more points in thee of the last five games, including 21 pts vs. Portland in the WCC Tournament.

A NIGHT FOR THE RECORD BOOKS...

• Behind some big numbers from PJ Pipes, Jalen Williams and Josip Vrankic, Santa Clara put an end to their 43-game losing streak against ranked opponents by knocking off No. 22 Saint Mary's, 77-72, in their last outing. It was the Broncos' first win over an AP top-25 program since a 77-66 victory over No.4 North Carolina on Nov. 19, 2004. Pipes finished with a game-high 21 points on 5-of-8 3pt shooting while Williams secured just the second double-double of his career with 18 pts and 10 assists. His 10 assists are the most by a Bronco since Trey Wertz dished out 10 against Idaho on Dec. 21, 2018. Vrankic also put up big numbers with 16 points and a team-best eight rebounds. The Broncos finished the game with a 55.4 percent shooting clip and dished out 18 assists.

LAST TIME OUT...

• The Broncos left it all on the court in their first appearance in the WCC Tournament Semifinals since 2016-17. After facing a 15-pt second-half deficit against No. 19 Saint Mary's, Santa Clara used a furious rally to cut the deficit to just one point inside the final 40 seconds as Keshawn Justice buried a corner triple to make it 73-72. After getting a defensive stop, Jalen Williams drove into the paint looking for the go-ahead score with under 10 seconds to go, but his floater was blocked. The Gaels knocked down both free throws after grabbing the board and drawing a must-foul. Williams had one last crack, firing off a 40-foot attempt from the sideline through contact at the buzzer, but his shot bounced off the rim. Josip Vrankic and Justice tied for the team-lead with 21 points each.

SCOUTING THE COUGS...

• Washington State is 19-14 on the season and will be hosting their seventh game in the NIT. Overall the Cougars have made six appearances in the tournament, first since 2011.
• The Cougars finished the regular season with 18 wins, their most since 2011-12. They were 11-9 in Pac-12 play for just their 13th winning season in league play since the Pac-12's inception.
• Washington State holds a 5-3 advantage over the Broncos and are 3-0 in games played in Pullman. However, Santa Clara has won the last two meetings - 70-62 in Santa Clara in 2019 and 79-71 in Spokane in 2018. The last time the teams faced off in Pullman was Dec. 17, 2016 in which the Cougs narrowly escaped with a 69-68 win.

MARK MADE IN NONCONFERENCE PLAY...

• The Broncos finished the nonconference slate with a 10-5 mark, their second 10-plus win tiotal in noncoverence play of the last seasons. Of those wins, several came over quality opponents and in impressive fashion. Santa Clara posted double-digit victories over Stanford (88-72), Nevada (96-74) and TCU (85-66).

• This is the third time in the last four seasons that Santa Clara has posted eight or more wins in nonconference play (eight in both 2019-20 and 2018-19).

GUYS ARE JUST GOOD...

• Santa Clara had three representatives on the All-WCC team. Josip Vrankic and Jalen Williams both earned a spot on the first team while Keshawn Justice was a second team selection. Vrankic has now earned first team honors in back-to-back seasons, the first Bronco to do that since Jared Brownridge (2012,13) and will conclude his career as a four-time all-conference selection.
• Williams' first team nod is the first of his career and second overall honor after being named an honorable mention last season. Both Williams and Vrankic were preseason All-WCC selections as well.
• Justice earned all-conference accolades for the first time in his four-year career.

WE DON'T WANT ANY TROUBLE...

• Santa Clara leads the WCC in fewest fouls committed with just 15.0 per game.

WE DO HOWEVER KNOW HOW TO DISH IT OUT...

• The Broncos are 43rd nationally and 2nd in the WCC with 486 total assists on the season. They are averaging 15.2 per game, good for 43rd nationally and second in the league. Jalen Williams is the team leader at 4.2 per game.

DANGEROUS FROM DOWNTOWN...

• Santa Clara continues to rank as one of the top 3-point field-goal shooting teams in the nation at 38.8 percent (7th nationally and 1st in WCC). The Broncos have seven games with at least 10 3-pointers after finishing with just two in 2020-21. That includes their second to last outing in which SCU was 13-of-27 from beyond the arc against Portland in the WCC Tournament.

• The Broncos have multiple players capable of hurting you from downtown. Six individuals are currently shooting 36 percent or better from 3-point range.

DOUBLE FIGURE SCORING LEADS TO GOOD THINGS...

• Santa Clara has had no problem scoring points this season. The Broncos have had at least four scorers reach double figures in 20-of-32 games, and has six games in which five Broncos have scored in double figures.

• Santa Clara is 16-4 when at least four scorers reach double figures and 5-1 when five scorers reach double figures.

WORTH THE PRICE OF ADMISSION...

Jalen Williams has been a human highlight reel all season long. He has scored in double figures in every game but two, with the exceptions being a pair of 8-pt games, and has 12 games of 20 or more points. He led the WCC in scoring with 18.0 points per game and set a career-high of 30 points vs. Hawai'i. He has scored at least 16 points in 21-of-32 games this year. Williams had a night to remember against No. 22 Saint Mary's, recording just the second double-double of his career with 18 pts/10 ast. He is coming of a 15-point game on the road against No. 1 Gonzaga. Williams leads the WCC and is 54th nationally with 575 points on the year, which is the 11th most in a single-season in program history. He reached 1,000 career points in the WCC Tournament vs. Portland.

• Williams was named to the 2022 Lou Henson Award Mid-Season Watch List, presented annually to the top mid-major player in the nation. He is one of just two players from the WCC on the list (San Francisco's Jamaree Bouyea).

• Williams is averaging 18.0 ppg this season, an increase of 6.5 ppg from a season ago. His 16.9 ppg in WCC play ranked third in the conference and his 4.5 assists per game ranked 4th.

BACK TO HIS OLD SELF...

After missing eight games due to illness, Josip Vrankic has made his way back to the starting lineup, providing a huge boost the Bronco Offense. The four-time All-WCC pick has played in 23 games this season despite dealing with illness for an extended stretch, and has five 20-point games. Vrankic returned from illness against Boise State where he tied for the team lead with 12 points. He then secured his first double-double of the season after leading the WCC in that department a year ago with eight, scoring 20 points to go with 10 rebounds vs. Montana. He has scored at least 10 points in all but five games this year. Vrankic is currently 6th in the WCC with 15.3 ppg, and shot a team-best 55.1 percent from the floor in league play (7th in WCC). He has scored 10 or more in 13 of the last 14 games. His best game of the year was on Senior Day against Portland in the regular-season finale. Vrankic scored 30 pts with seven assists. He averaged 20.0 points and 7.5 rebounds per game in the WCC Tournament, finishing with 19 and 21 points, respectively.

MR. RELIABLE...

Keshawn Justice has been a dominating force on both ends of the floor. He is currently shooting 43.5 percent from 3-pt range with multiple treys in 23-of-32 games. He has nine games with at least four 3-pointers, including a season-high five against Pacific. On the boards, he ranks 33rd nationally with 6.34 defensive rebounds per game. He has reached double-figure scoring in all but six games this season with three20 point outings, including his last against Saint Mary's (21). Justice has eight double-doubles on the season, which is fourth in the WCC. In the last three games alone, Justice is averaging 17.0 ppg and is 15-of-32 from 3pt range.

Vrankic led the West Coast Conference in rebounding at 8.2 per game a season ago. PRESEASON ALL-CONFERENCE...

A pair of Broncos were voted the WCC 10-man preseason all-conference team. Josip Vrankic, a first team selection from a season ago, found a spot on the squad after pacing the conference in both rebounds and double-doubles in 2020-21. Junior Jalen Williams also earned a spot after earning honorable mention All-WCC honors last year.

Herb Sendek

Head Coach

Sixth Season
Carnegie Mellon '85

SANTA CLARA

With a resume that includes 18 postseason appearances and three conference coach of the year awards, along with demonstrated player and staff development, Herb Sendek is in his sixth season at Santa Clara.

Sendek is in his 28th season as a collegiate head coach with stops at Arizona State, North Carolina State and Miami (Ohio). He has posted 39 victories against top 25 teams and earned coach of the year in the Pac-10, Atlantic Coast Conference and Mid-American Conference.

He has led the Broncos to three winning seasons, including a 20-13 mark in 2019-20 and a 12-8 mark during the Covid-shortened 2020-21 season. The program had not recorded three winning campaigns during a four-year stretch since Dick Davey led it to seven in a row from 1994-95 through 2000-01.

Sendek and his staff navigated through an injury-filled 2018-19 season to post a 16-15 overall mark, including two wins over Pac-12 schools (USC and Washington State).

In 2016-17, his first season, despite having seven players miss more than a combined 70 games due to injury, the team posted a 17-16 record and reached the West Coast Conference Tournament semifinals for the first time in six years.

A native of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, Sendek has recruited or coached a number of standout players, including NBA first-round draft choices James Harden (Arizona State), Julius Hodge (NC State) and Wally Szczerbiak (Miami).

Prior to arriving at Santa Clara, Sendek served nine seasons (2006-15) at Arizona State, posting five 20-win campaigns and making five postseason appearances, including two trips to the NCAAs for a program which had only three in the previous 25 years.

Sendek led ASU to three straight 20-win seasons - 2007-08 (21-13), 2008-09 (25-10) and 2009-10 (22-11) - which had not happened since 1961-63. He was the Pac-10 Coach of the Year in 2009-10 when the Sun Devils went 25-10.

Sendek, 55, had a successful 10-year tenure (1996-2006) at North Carolina State, which finished with five straight NCAA Tournament appearances, including four with at least one victory. He earned 2003-04 ACC Coach of the Year.

Sendek earned his first head-coaching job at Miami University when he was just 30 years old. He led the now RedHawks to the postseason in each of his three seasons (1993-96) and his winning percentage (.708/63-26) remains first in school history (minimum three years). He is the only coach ever to lead Miami to postseason play in each of his first three seasons.

After finishing at Carnegie Mellon University in 1985, Sendek began an eight-year stretch as a college assistant coach.

He served as an assistant coach at Providence College for four years (1985-89), starting under Rick Pitino and helping the Friars earn a trip to the 1987 Final Four. He spent his final season under head coach Rick Barnes with the Friars again landing in the NCAA Tournament.

With a reputation as a standout recruiter, Sendek joined Pitino at Kentucky for the 1989-90 season and remained for four years, which include a trip to the 1992 Elite Eight.
