OREGON STATE AT WASHINGTON STATE
WEDNESDAY, JAN. 4, 2017 – 8 P.M. – SPOKANE ARENA (SPOKANE, WASH.)

FINAL SCORE: WSU 75, OSU 62

POSTGAME NOTES

- Senior Josh Hawkinson led WSU with 20 points and 11 rebounds...he moved into third all-time on WSU's career rebounding list and now has 848.
- Hawkinson passed both Ted Werner (1963-65) and Jim McKean (1966-68) to move into third.
- Hawkinson's double-double is his ninth of the season and the 49th of his career...he's four away from the Cougar record.
- Senior Ike Iroegbu finished with 15 points, 4 assists and 6 rebounds...he's just 5 points away from 1,000 points in his career.
- Freshman Malachi Flynn scored in double figures for the third-straight game and has scored in double figures in both his career Pac-12 games as he finished with 13 points.
- Flynn scored 11 of his points in the second half after scoring 13 of his 16 points in the second half against Washington Sunday.
- Five Cougars scored in double figures as senior Conor Clifford scored 13 and sophomore Robert Franks had 10.
- The only starter not in double figure scoring was senior Charles Callison who led the team with 6 assists.
- The Cougars shot a season-high .933 from the free throw line (14-for-15), as Oregon State shot a season low for a WSU opponent, .308 (4-for-13).
- The Cougars started 2-0 in conference play for the first time since 2007-08.
- Next up for WSU is No. 15/14 Oregon back in Pullman at Beasley Coliseum, Saturday, Jan. 7 at 4 p.m.
