WASHINGTON STATE

BASKETBALL

WASHINGTON STATE AT IDAHO
WEDNESDAY, DEC. 6 – 7 P.M. – COWAN SPECTRUM (MOSCOW, IDAHO)

FINAL SCORE: UI 91, WSU 64

POSTGAME NOTES

- Junior Robert Franks led WSU with 16 points…he's scored in double figures in seven of WSU's eight games this season…marks his sixth-straight game in double figures.
- Franks was the only Cougar in double figures, marking the first time this season that only one player has scored in double figures.
- WSU tied its season low with 7 made 3-pointers, while Idaho tied a WSU opponent season high with 14 3-pointers.
- WSU shot a season low 3-point field goal percentage, .269 (7-for-26)…previous low was .326 against Texas Southern (Nov. 12).
- WSU has lost the last two games against the Vandals at Idaho.
- The 27-margin of defeat marks the third-largest for WSU in the series and largest since since losing by 37 (94-57), Dec. 20, 1962…which is also the biggest margin of defeat for the Cougars in the series.
- Twelve different players saw action for the Cougars.
- Next up, WSU travels to El Paso, Texas to take on UTEP, Saturday, Dec. 9 at 6 p.m. PT/7 p.m. MT.