COUGAR NOTES

COUGARS VS SUN DEVILS

Washington State concludes its desert trip in Tempe, Sunday, Oct. 8 against the Arizona State Sun Devils at 12 p.m. PT. The match will be televised on Pac-12 Arizona live from Sun Devil Soccer/Lacrosse Stadium. Last season on the Palouse, the Sun Devils earned a 2-0 win over WSU. The Cougars and Coach Shulenberg are looking to get back to winning ways against a side they haven't beat since 2017 in Tempe. WSU holds an all-time 10-14-3 record against Arizona State, but an 8-4-1 record when playing in Tempe.

DETRIZIO DOMINATION

Margie Detrizio entered her senior season as a Preseason All-Pac-12 selection, the only student-athlete outside of the four California schools to be recognized on the 11-member team, and the Conference's top returning goalscorer. Detrizio has spearheaded the Cougar offense each of the past two seasons, and now sits tied for seventh in WSU history with 23 career goals scored, most recently the equalizing goal in WSU's 2-1 win at Arizona, Thursday evening. The goal increased Detrizio's career point total to 60 and into seventh-most points in Cougar history. Detrizio added an assist in the win over San Diego State, bringing her career total to 14 assists and into a tie for eighth in school history.

SHULENBERGER APPROACHES 100 CAREER WINS

WSU Head Coach Todd Shulenberg earned his 97th career victory in Thursday evening's win at Arizona. Shulenberg holds a .630 winning percentage, 50th among active D-I coaches. Last season, Shulenberg broke the program's win record with his 89th career victory, defeating Utah, Oct. 2, 2022, surpassing Matt Potter with 88 career wins in Pullman.

COPPER GOING THE FULL 90

Redshirt-senior transfer Keeley Copper has played every minute of the 2023 season, giving a full 90 in every contest for a total 1080 minutes of playing time. Including four seasons at Davidson College, Copper has played over 5,000 minutes of college soccer. In Thursday's match at Arizona, Copper made her 60th career appearance.

RIEKEN APPROACHES HISTORIC MILESTONES

Fifth-year senior defender Bridget Rieken is set to eclipse 7,000 career minutes played in a Cougar uniform in Sunday's match at Arizona State. The Idaho native was welcomed back to Lower Soccer Field for another season, seeking redemption for a 2022 senior season which ended in injury and the Cougs outside of the postseason conversation. Since then, Rieken was named the Aug. 28 Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Week, while also making her 81st career appearance (t-9th school history) and starting her 78th career match (t-7th). In her time at WSU, Rieken has centered a backline to the national semifinals, and limited opponents to less than a goal per game.

COOPER RE-WRITING WSU RECORD BOOK

Junior goalkeeper Nadia Cooper is no stranger to re-writing the WSU record book, this season setting her sights on the career goalkeeping lists. In Thursday's match in Tucson, the Houstonian picked up her 25th career win, moving into fifth place in school history. Cooper made a season-high nine saves in WSU's program-first win over Portland, one shy of her single-game career high. The junior netminder eclipsed 4,000 career minutes, the sixth-most minutes between the pipes in program history. She has also made 145 career saves and vaulted up to seventh on the top-10 career saves list.

ARIZONA HOMECOMING

Four Cougars returned to their old stomping grounds in the desert – Margie Detrizio (Chandler, Ariz.), Nat Lewis (Queen Creek, Ariz.), Rajanah Reed (Glendale, Ariz.), and Kiki Smith (Phoenix, Ariz.) all hail from The Grand Canyon State.

MANY MINUTE AND MATCH MILESTONES

Several Cougars are reaching milestones in their collegiate careers. Junior Reese Tappan eclipsed 4,000 minutes played at the start of the month and 50 career appearances. Junior Lindsey Turner reached 2,000 minutes played in Pullman, and surpassed 3,000 minutes in her collegiate career. Fifth-year senior Brianna McReynolds surpassed 5,000 collegiate minutes against Arizona, Oct. 5. Senior transfer Bryana Pizarro made her WSU debut against Seattle U, Sept. 14 and passed 2,000 collegiate minutes when she made her first career Cougar start against USC. Senior Marin Whieldon made her first start of the season last Sunday and reached 60 matches played at Wazzu.

IT JUST MEANS MORE

With the Cougars' win at College Station, Aug. 20, they became one of only three Pac-12 schools to win against an SEC opponent this year, and one of two to do it on the road. Washington State and Southern Cal are the only Conference schools to travel to a Power 5 opponent and win (2-7-1). Against all Power 5 schools, the Pac-12 posted a 10-10-4 record.

COUGS NAMED TOP-20 PROGRAM OVER LAST FIVE YEARS

The Cougars were tabbed as the 20th best team in the country over the last five seasons, SoccerWire.com announced in preseason. The organization generates the standings based on each program's average position in the end-of-season rankings. Rankings are based on a combination of final United Soccer Coaches Polls and Rating Percentage Index (RPI) from each season, with bonuses awarded for NCAA Tournament qualification and College Cup victories. Stanford was the only Pac-12 ranked higher than WSU, named fifth on the list.

RANKED CLASHES HEADLINE START TO CONFERENCE

The Cougars started Pac-12 Conference play with three straight top-25 match at Lower Soccer Field. Previously, Washington State had never hosted three ranked teams in back-to-back weekends in the program's history. The last time the Cougars hosted three-straight ranked opponents, separated by a road series, came in 2017, which featured a 1-0 win over No. 2 UCLA.

BRYANA'S BIG RETURN

Senior transfer Bryana Pizarro made her first-career start in Crimson and Gray in WSU's Sept. 22 match versus Stanford, after making her debut as a sub in the win over Seattle U, Sept. 14. The Oregon State transfer recently returned to the pitch after a spring injury sidelined her for the majority of the nonconference schedule. Pizarro returned to the pitch and quickly eclipsed 2,000 college minutes played.

GOOD THINGS COME IN THREES

In the nonconference finale, Sept. 14, Margie Detrizio and Bridget Rieken each scored their third goal of the season. Three Cougs, including Naomi Clark, now share the lead with three goals a piece. In the win over Seattle U, two first-year Cougs also earned assists – Rajanah Reed and Reagan Kotschau each earned their second career assist.

BROOKS CALLED UP FOR OLYMPIC QUALIFIERS

Freshman goalkeeper Liya Brooks earned a call up to the Jamaican Women's National Team for a pair of Olympic qualifiers. The Jamaican Football Federation most recently called up Brooks for the 2023 FIFA Women's World Cup, where the Reggae Girlz earned a historic first win in the global tournament. Jamaica faced Canada in a two-leg series that began Friday, Sept. 22 in Kingston and finished Tuesday, Sept. 26 in Toronto. Canada won the series and clinched a spot in the 2024 Paris Olympics alongside the United States.

UNDEFEATED IN AUGUST

The Cougars completed August with an unblemished record, the 11th time in program history with nothing but wins in the calendar month. Coach Shulenberg has led Wazzu to a perfect August schedule four times. WSU's five wins last month are the most wins in August in program history.

CLARK QUICK TO THREE GOALS

True freshman Naomi Clark has emerged as WSU's early leading goalscorer. The Colorado native has scored three times, most recently in an August 27th win over Weber State. The curling, left-footed golazo from outside the area earned SportsCenter's No. 7 play on the daily SC Top 10 segment. Clark began the season with goals in the first two games, becoming the first WSU freshman since Kailiana Johnson in 2013 to score goals in the first two games of the season.

SEASON-OPENER DRAWS THREE THOUSAND

When the Cougars took the field against Eastern Wash., Thursday, they did so in front of 3,013 fans, the second-largest crowd in program history and the 6th-largest crowd in the country over opening weekend. Lower Soccer Field has become something of a fan-fortress for the Cougs. In 2021, the team drew an average of 1,238 fans per match, the highest season average in program history. Last season, Wazzu averaged 1,057 fans per game, good for 21st in the country.

REED EARNS FIRST CAREER POINTS

Junior Rajanah Reed had an impactful afternoon in August 27th's win over Weber State. Reed earned her first career assist, finding space up the right side before playing an easy square ball to Detrizio for the goal. Reed wasn't done, adding a goal of her own in the second half. The Glendale, Ariz., native recovered a loose ball on the endline, split a pair of defenders, and hammered home her first career goal and the match's game-winning goal. Reed's second career goal was a golazo game-winner late in the first half to beat Kansas.

MUSUAI ISAIA STARTS IN GOAL

Redshirt-junior goalkeeper Musuai Isaia got the starting nod Sept. 10 against Kansas, making her first career appearance and first career start at WSU. The Oahu native was called upon for two saves in the 1-0 win, providing Isaia her first win and first cleansheet on the Palouse.

GEORGIA WHITEHEAD DEBUTS IN THE HEAT

Freshman Georgia Whitehead made her collegiate debut in the 38th minute at Texas A&M, Sunday, Aug. 20. Whitehead, the granddaughter of longtime WSU football coach Jim Walden, played the remainder of the game, handling an aggressive Aggie attack, spearheaded by forward MaKhiya McDonald. Whitehead would get the starting nod Aug. 24 at Portland, making her first career start for the Cougars.

MARATHON MARGIE

With 71 minutes in WSU's win at Portland, Detrizio cruised past 3,000 career minutes at WSU. The senior has tallied 23 goals and 14 assists in her time on the Palouse. For the second time in her career, Margie Detrizio put together a 3-game assist streak. Spanning to last year's regular season finale against Washington, Detrizio built a 3-game assist streak. Last season, Detrizio went on her first 3-game assist streak, between the Sept. 1 game at Seattle and the Sept. 11 victory versus Cal Poly to become just the 12th student-athlete in program history with a 3-game assist streak. Detrizio, who earned postseason accolades from the Pac-12 and United Soccer Coaches organization last year, returns as a reigning All-Regional Third Team honoree and All-Pac-12 Second Team recognition.

COLORADO FRESHMEN PHENOMS NET DEBUT GOALS

The freshmen duo of Reagan Kotschau and Naomi Clark has a long history, dating back to high school state championships in Colorado. Aug. 17, Kotschau and Clark joined sides and each scored their first career goal to give WSU the win. It marked the second time under Coach Shulenberg when two true freshmen scored in the season-opener and the fourth time in program history. Kotschau, from Thornton, Colorado, and Clark, from Parker, Colorado, became the 18th and 19th freshmen, respectively, in program history to score in the season-opening match.

BROOKS BACK FROM WORLD CUP EXPERIENCE

Incoming freshman goalkeeper Liya Brooks had a short preseason with the Cougs. The Jamaican-American recently returned from a call-up with the Jamaican Senior Women's National Team to the 2023 FIFA Women's World Cup. While Brooks didn't see action on the field, the opportunity provided an experience to work with the veterans of the Reggae Girlz' roster and be with the team as they advanced to their first every Round of 16 match.

PICKING THEMSELVES BACK UP

The Cougars completed the 2022 season with only a single victory after conceding the opening goal and never won when trailing at halftime. To start the 2023 season, Washington State has won three matches after conceding the opening goal, and picked up two wins after trailing at halftime.

FRESHMEN SHINE IN CAREER DEBUTS

Five true freshmen earned minutes in the Cougars' season-opening win over Eastern Washington. Reagan Kotschau and Megan Santa Cruz made their first career starts, while Naomi Clark, Nat Lewis, and Alena Watts all subbed on for their Cougar debuts.

COUGS TABBED FIFTH BY PAC-12 COACHES

Washington State was selected in the top half of the conference for the fifth-straight season, falling behind the four California schools in the preseason ranking at No. 5.

PRO COUGS

Establishing themselves among the elite teams, the Cougs have pushed their best into the pro ranks of the NWSL. Since the 2020 NWSL Draft, Washington State has had more draft selections than every school in the country, except UCLA. Eight Cougars have been called in the last four drafts. In the 2020 Draft, Morgan Weaver went No. 2 overall to the Portland Thorns. The following year Trinity Rodman went No. 2 overall to the Washington Spirit.
