THIS WEEK
The Washington State swim team travels to Federal Way, Wash. to compete in the Pac-12 Championships...the events will take place in the Weyerhaeuser King County Aquatic Center...action begins on Wednesday Feb. 22 and will continue through Saturday Feb. 25...the events will be all day…last year, the Cougars finished seventh at the Pac-12 Championships for the first time since the 2010-11 season.

LAST TIME IN THE WATER
The Cougars recorded top times in 11 of the 14 events and sophomore Jasmine Margetts led the way with three wins en route to WSU's 151-111 victory over the Utes at Gibb Pool Saturday...the win marked the third-consecutive victory over the Utes...Margetts continued her impressive sophomore campaign by contributing a meet-high 27 points...the Torrance, Calif., native took first place in the 400 IM clocking a time of 4:19.05, good for an NCAA 'B' Standard mark...she also logged first-place finishes in the 200 back (2:00.03) and the 100 back (55.88)... the Cougars started the meet off strong, securing the top spot and 11 points in the 200 medley relay…the team of Hannah Bruggman, Angela Mavrantza, Anna Brolin and Addisynn Bursch clocked a time of 1:43.21 for the victory...Washington State built upon its lead in the 1000 free sweeping the competition…senior Kendra Griffin touched the wall in 10:23.07, ahead of freshman Ryan Falk (10:26.32) and Jessica Marston (10:36.23)...with four events remaining and WSU leading 97-91, Falk recorded her fifth win of the season with an impressive performance in the 500 free, clocking a time of 4:58.96 and junior Rachel Thompson took third with a 5:01.68...the Cougars followed by sweeping the top three spots in the 100 fly, pulling away for good...Brolin clocked a first-place time of 56.08, followed by senior Elise Locke who finished 56.54 and senior Haley Rose Love touched the wall in 56.97...Bursch added a victory in the 200 free with a time of 1:51.83 while Mavrantza recorded her seventh victory of the season, finishing in first in the 100 breast with a 1:03.34...Bruggman added 13 points to the Cougars' total...She took first in the 50 free with a time of 23.87 and finished second in the 100 free, touching the wall in 51.87...the Cougars finished the dual with a victory in 400 free relay…the team of Bruggman, Thompson, Bursch and Love juts out-touched Utah's 'A' relay team to notch the win touching in 3:26.25...with Saturday's victory, the Cougars closed the regular season 4-3 in dual meets.

MAKING HISTORY
Washington State's 143-119 defeat over No. 23 UCLA marked the first win over the Bruins in school history…Saturday was the 11th dual meet against UCLA in program history…the Cougars claimed 10 of the 14 events against the Bruins.

COUGAR SWIMMING EARNS CSCAA SCHOLAR ALL-AMERICA HONORS

The Washington State swimming team has been recognized as a College Swimming Coaches Association of America (CSCAA) Scholar All-America Team for exemplary academic performance during the fall 2016 semester...the Cougars earned a 3.43 team GPA last semester to earn the reward, the second-highest in the Pac-12...during the fall semester, 15 student-athletes earned over a 3.00 GPA...additionally, 15 swimmers were named to the WSU Athletics All-Academic Team for achieving over a 3.00 GPA for the spring and fall 2016 semesters...a record 638 teams, representing 394 institutions, earned the honor... in total, 73 percent of all CSCAA member programs posted GPA's above 3.00, with 91 percent of Division I women's teams meeting the mark...to qualify for the award, a team must have achieved a cumulative team grade point average of 3.00 or higher during the fall 2016 semester.

WSU SWIMMING TRAINED IN FLORIDA DURING WINTER BREAK

The Washington State swim team took a break from the cold Pullman weather and traveled south to Delray Beach, Fla., to train for 10 days over winter break...the team started every day with calisthenics on the beach, followed by a pair of two hour training sessions in the pool, with a break in between...the athletes also spent two hours a day in the weight room building strength and embarked on open water ocean swims to increase endurance...the trip marked the fourth-consecutive year the WSU swim team trained in Florida over winter break.

COUGAR SWIMMING INKS SEVEN TO NATIONAL LETTERS OF INTENT

Seven incoming student-athletes signed National Letters of Intent to the Washington State swimming team, head coach Tom Jager announced last week…the 2017 signing class is comprised of Taylor McCoy (Pullman, Wash.), Maia Petrides (Honolulu, Hawaii), Chloe Larson (Rapid City, SD), Alba Fores (Lund, Sweden), Sam Howell (Austin, Texas), Kelly Morgan (Edmonds, Wash.) and Emily Cook (Portland, Ore.)…"We are very excited about this recruiting class," Jager said. "They are athletic, fast, smart and each and every one of them is a great person. This class will help us further climb in the Pac-12. I can't wait to coach them and be a part of their success."

FRESHMEN CONTINUE TO IMPRESS

Freshman Angela Mavrantza recorded her seventh win of the season with an impressive performance in the 100 breast against Utah, clocking a 1:03.34...against Oregon State, she dominated in the100 breast (1:04.61) and the 200 breast (2:20.11)… at the Ohio State Invite, she finished 14th, with a personal-best 2:15.29, the sixth-fastest time in school history and good for an NCAA 'B' Standard time…she notched her fourth win of the season with an impressive performance in the 200 breast, touching the wall in 2:19.81 against the Northern Arizona Lumberjacks…the Athens, Greece, native's pervious three victories came in the 100 Breast against USC, California and UCLA…fellow freshman Ryan Falk continued her impressive freshman campaign against Utah, taking first in the 500 free with a 4:58.96...at the Ohio State Invite, she placed 36th in the 500 free with a time of 4:53.60, good for the ninth-fastest time in school history and a personal best time…she then touched the wall 23rd at 17:03.84, the tenth-fastest time in school history in the 1650 free…she contributed 18 points to the Cougars' total against Northern Arizona…the Portland, Ore., native took first place in the 1000 free with a time of 10:20.76, and later added a first place finish in the 500 free touching the wall in 5:00.02...the wins marked Falk's third and fourth victories of the season…her previous two victories came in the 200 free and 500 free against UCLA.

HEAD COACH TOM JAGER TO THE PAC-12 MEN'S ALL-CENTURY TEAM

Washington State University Swimming Head Coach Tom Jager was named to the Pac-12 Men's Swimming Olympic Sports All-Century Team...Jager was inducted for his excellence in freestyle sprints in Pac-12 Swimming at UCLA in 1984-87...he earned five individual NCAA championships and one relay championship...individually, Jager won two NCAA titles in the 100-yard freestyle in the 1983 and 1984, two in the 50-yard freestyle in 1984 and 1985 and one in the 100-yard backstroke in 1985...in 1984, he was named the Pac-10 Swimmer of the Year and later earned two Olympic Gold Medals as a member of relay teams...a panel of 20 coaches, swimmers, administrators and members of the media selected the team consisting of 26 swimmers and six divers, plus a Coach, and Swimmer & Diver of the Century...after college, Jager added two more Olympic Gold medals from relays and a silver medal in the 50-meter freestyle in the 1988 Olympic Games...he closed out his Olympic career in 1992 with a gold medal in the 4x100 freestyle relay and a bronze medal in the 50-meter freestyle.

LAST SEASON

The Cougars finished last year seventh in a tightly contested Pac-12...WSU notched eight dual meet victories last season, including wins over Arizona State, Oregon State, Nebraska and Utah...the Cougars won six-straight dual meets to close out the season for the second-consecutive year...Washington State earned 65 individual wins during the course of the season... WSU broke four school records last season, across four events and recorded 33 WSU top-10 performances.

2016-17 COACHES

Tom
JAGER
Head Coach
Sixth Season

Washington State Head Coach Tom Jager led the 2015-16 WSU swim team to a winning dual-meet record for the second-straight year. The Cougars finished 8-2 in dual meets, including six-straight dual-meet victories. Jager led the Cougars to a seventh-place finish at the Pac-12 Championships, the highest finish for Cougar swimming since 2011. In the process, Washington State defeated Pac-12 foes Arizona State, Oregon State and Utah. The Cougars earned victories over three different conference opponents for the second time in school history.

Last season, the Cougars set 33 WSU all-time top-10 performances during their 2015-2016 campaign. Jager led the Cougars to four record-breaking performances during the 2014-15 season. At the Pac-12 Championships, Feb. 24-27, junior Addisynn Bursch broke two school records. The first was in the 200 IM clocking a time of 1:59.87, while the second came in the 400 IM where she touched the wall in 4:15.51. WSU's 800 free relay team of Addisynn Bursch, Elise Locke, Rachel Thompson and Jasmine Margetts broke the school record at the Pac-12 Championships with a time of 7:18.03. The Cougars' 200 medley relay team of Haley Rose Love, Frederikke Hall Anna Brolin and Hannah Bruggman broke the school record finishing in 1:39.13. In addition, senior Presley Wetterstrom notched a school record in the 800 free, clocking a time of 2:11.24 at the Ohio State Invitational.

Jager encourages his student-athletes to be successful both in and out of the pool, which is exemplified in the team's performance in the classroom. Nine Cougar swimmers were named to the Pac-12 All-Academic teams, including two student-athletes on the Pac-12 All-Academic First Team. In Jager's five years, the Cougars have boasted 47 Pac-12 All-Academic honors, including 14 Pac-12 Conference All-Academic First Team members.

In 2014-15, Jager led the Cougars to an eighth-place finish at the Pac-12 Championships. The year was highlighted by dual meet wins over Arizona State, Oregon State and Utah. Four WSU school record breakings performances At the Hawkeye Invitational, Dec. 5-7, junior Presley Wetterstrom clocked a lifetime best of 2:12.96 in the 200 breast and set a school record. WSU's 200 free relay team of Alison Mand, Hannah Bruggman, Nicole Proulx and Haley Rose Love broke the school record twice over the course of the season. At the Hawkeye Invitational the team finished in 1:31.56 before besting the record once more at the Pac-12 Championships, Feb. 25-28, with a time of 1:31.09. In addition, senior Nicole Proulx closed her WSU career with a school record in the 100 free, clocking a time of 49.75.

Jager led the Cougars to an eighth-place finish at the Pac-12 Championships in 2013-14, their best finish since a seventh-place finish in 2011. The Cougars' 200 medley relay team of Emma Johansson, Frederikke Hall, Alison Mand and Nicole Proulx broke the school record at the Championships, in a time of 1:39.45. The finish was one of two record-setting finishes by WSU on the season, as the relay team of Emma Johansson, Alison Mand, Haley Rose Love and Anne Kenney finished the 200 free relay at the Hawkeye Invitational in 1:31.66 seconds. In addition, five individual swimmers received the CSCAA Honorable Mention Scholar All-America Award in 2013-14.

During Jager's second campaign with the Cougars, WSU finished 6-6 in dual meets. The Cougars placed ninth at the Pac-12 Championships. Loree Olson highlighted the season by becoming the Cougar all-time record holder in the 400 IM. Olson also placed second all-time on the Washington State records list in the 200 back. Emma Johansson placed in the top three of the Cougar all-time lists in the 50 free, 100 back and 100 butterfly. Shelbi Luchini notched the third-best time in Cougar history in the 200 back, as did Kelly Tannhauser in the 400 IM. A total of eight Cougar swimmers made the Cougar all-time top-10 lists.

In his first season with the Cougars, Jager led the team to two dual meet victories. The Cougars took ninth place at the Pac-12 Championships, qualifying for 16 (2013-21, 2014-25) spots in evening sessions, including a 21st-place finish by Shelbi Luchini in the 400 IM with a time of a 4:21.18, landing her second on the WSU all-time list.

Jager was named to the Pac-12 Men's Swimming Olympic Sports All-Century Team in 2016 for his success in the water. A 1987 graduate of UCLA, Jager joined the program in May 2011 after seven seasons as the head coach at the University of Idaho. Jager took charge of the Vandal program in January 2004, reviving the Idaho program that had been dormant for nearly two decades. He also helped into diving to the school beginning in the 2008-09 season.

A native of Collinsville, Ill., Jager earned six NCAA championships, including five individual, and two Olympic gold medals (1984) as a member of relay teams by the time he graduated from UCLA. He added two gold medals on relay teams and a silver medal in the 50-meter freestyle at the 1988 Olympic Games. In 1992, he closed out his Olympic career with a gold medal in the 4x100 freestyle relay and a bronze medal in the 50-meter freestyle. Jager is a member of the International Swimming Hall of Fame, the UCLA Athletic Hall of Fame and the USA Swim Team of the Century. He is a former captain of the U.S. national team, won 11 national titles and held the 50-meter freestyle world record three times, including a 10-year run from 1990-2000.

Jager and his wife, Becky, have two sons, Wyatt and Cy.

COACHING STAFF

Becky
JAGER
Assistant Coach
Second Season

Rebecca Jager is in her her second season as the Cougars assistant coach after spending the previous 10 years teaching at the University of Idaho and running Gold Medal Swimming since 1988.

Jager served as the volunteer coach for the Idaho swim team from 2004-11 and has owned and operated the Gold Medal Swim Club and Camps in Pullman since 2004. Jager, coached her husband, WSU Head Coach Tom Jager, during his training for the 1988 and 1992 Olympic Games where he earned a total of three gold medals during those games.

Jager earned her PhD in history from the University of New Mexico in 2007 and spent the past five years as an assistant professor of history and a member of the American Indian studies faculty at Idaho. Jager specializes in topics such as Twentieth Century America, Sports History, Native American Studies and Gender. She has been invited to speak at a number of seminars and has published several scholarly works, including Malinche, Pocahontas and Sacagawea: Indian Women as Cultural Intermediaries and National Symbols to be released in October, 2015.

Michelle BERRY

Volunteer Assistant Coach
First Season

Michelle Berry enters her first season as a member of the Washington State University coaching staff after spending last season as a member of the WSU swim team.

Berry swam for Jager during her final season of eligibility in 2015-16. As a senior, she claimed the ninth-fastest time in school history in the 200 breaststroke at the Pac-12 Championships. She earned season-best times in the 'B' final in the 100 breaststroke at the Ohio State Invitational, in the 200 freestyle against Arizona State and in the 400 IM at the Pac-12 Championships.

A native of San Jose, Calif., Berry was named to the Pac-12 Conference All-Academic Second Team before earning her bachelor's degree from WSU.

Presley WETTERSTROM

Student Assistant Coach
First Season

Presley Wetterstrom joins the Washington State coaching staff after ending an outstanding four-year career as a student-athlete for the Cougars.

Last season, Wetterstrom finished the year with 11 individual wins, tying for the second-most wins on the team. She broke the school record at the Ohio State Invitational in the 200 breaststroke and also finished with the fourth-fastest time in school history in the 100 breaststroke, an NCAA 'B' Standard Time. At the Pac-12 Championships, she finished with the seventh-best time in school history in the 200 IM.

As a junior, she broke the school record in the 200 breaststroke and had a career-best performance in the 100 breast at the Hawkeye Invitational. During her sophomore campaign, Wetterstrom took first in 400 IM, third in 200 breaststroke, and fifth in 100 breaststroke at Stanford. She also placed first in the 200 breaststroke against USC.

A native of Colfax, Calif., Wetterstrom was named to the Pac-12 Conference All-Academic First Team three times. Her 3.98 GPA was tied for the second-highest on the team last season.
