The BSAA has hosted multiple, department-wide informational meetings covering wide-ranging topics such as social justice, police brutality and Black Lives Matter. Additionally, department programming from the DEI Council, created in 2019, has focused on Diversity, Equity and Inclusion, Women's History Month, Black History Month, Voter Registration and NCAA Inclusion, to name a few, continue to support matters important to our student-athletes.

2024 GAME RECAPS

PORTLAND STATE AT WASHINGTON STATE

Aug. 31, 2024 • Gesa Field • Att.: 20,089 • TV: The CW

PULLMAN, Wash. – Redshirt-sophomore quarterback John Mateer threw for five touchdowns and 352 yards, and rushed for another score, as Washington State overcame an early deficit and cruised to a 70-30 win against the Portland State Vikings, Saturday, at Gesa Field in the season opener for both teams. "The biggest thing I told the team is the mission was to be 1-0, there was no score expectation, it was just to go out there and get the win and we did that," WSU Head Coach Jake Dickert said. "We're going to take a lot of positives from this game. We're also going to take a critical eye on what we need do to get better and be a team on the rise. Excited about the way we played. We had to respond in many different ways from special teams to offense to defense." Playing under a Heat Advisory with temperature rising into the 90s, and even hotter on the field, the Vikings wilted under the relentless pressure from the Cougars after taking a 7-0 lead less than two minutes into the game. WSU scored seven first-half touchdowns, all 30 yards or longer. The blitz started when Mateer connected with Kris Hutson for a 30-yard touchdown pass to tie the game. A 39-yard TD pass from Mateer to Tre Shackelford put the Cougars up for good and Mateer closed out the first quarter with a 58-yard touchdown pass to Kyle Williams that put WSU up 22-7 after a successful two-point conversion. After a Vikings' field goal, the Cougars returned to their big plays when freshman Wayshawn Parker scored on a 54-yard touchdown run, which was followed by a Mateer-to-Parker 52-yard touchdown connection. The defense got in the act when redshirt-junior Stephen Hall returned an interception 100 yards for a touchdown, the longest pick-six in program history. Mateer's six total touchdowns were the most by a Cougar quarterback in their first start going back to at least 1976. He added 55 yards rushing, including a 40-yard touchdown run that capped the Cougars' 49-point first-half scoring explosion. The Cougar offense rolled up 637 yards in total offense, including 224 yards rushing. Williams led a contingent of 10 WSU receivers who caught at least one pass with 141 yards. Parker rushed for 96 yards on eight carries. The 70 points scored by the Cougars tied for the six-most in program history and most since a 77-7 win over SW Louisiana in 1997.

TEXAS TECH AT WASHINGTON STATE

Sept. 7, 2024 • Gesa Field • Att.: 27,372 • TV: FOX

PULLMAN, Wash. – Quarterback John Mateer rushed for 197 yards and one touchdown, Wayshawn Parker burst 43 yards for a TD as part of a 14-point blitz in 16 seconds in the second quarter, and Washington State raced past Texas Tech 37-16 on Saturday night. Djouvensky Schlenbaker added a pair of short TD runs as the Cougars (2-0) dominated their highest-profile opponent to visit Pullman during this season of transition for Washington State. Texas Tech (1-1) was one of two Power Four opponents on the Cougars schedule. Mateer added one TD pass, but it was his legs that made the difference and he set a school record for yards rushing by a quarterback. Washington State finished with 301 yards rushing as a team, just the sixth time since 2000 the Cougars topped 300 yards on the ground and first since 2022. "They kept dropping eight on us so we just ran the ball and it was working," Mateer said. "The (offensive) line was getting after it. They're good. Like, straight up, the line's very good." The matchup of the two schools that were once coached by the late Mike Leach came on the weekend Leach was inducted into Washington State Athletics Hall of Fame. The schools each wore pirate themed stickers on the back of their helmets and Leach was recognized at halftime with the rest of the inductees. Leach would have loved the points on the board, although it wasn't exactly a game of offensive efficiency. The first half alone featured interceptions thrown by quarterbacks for both teams, and Texas Tech turned the ball over on downs twice in its own territory and had a critical fumble. "I do know this, coach Leach would be really disappointed: 'Why the hell are you running your starting quarterback?'" Washington State coach Jake Dickert joked. "I think a lot of things are possible for John." Texas Tech QB Behren Morton threw for 323 yards and one TD on 58 attempts, but was intercepted twice. Texas Tech played without star running back Tahj Brooks a week after he rushed for 153 yards and a touchdown in the Red Raiders' opening victory over Abilene Christian. The Red Raiders had a 20-yard double pass TD from Coy Eakin to Cam'Ron Valdez in the second quarter. Washington State took a 14-3 lead midway through the second quarter when Parker darted down the sideline for his long TD run. It came one play after Tech's Jalin Conyers was stopped on fourth-and-1. On Tech's next offensive play, Josh Kelly - who played last year for Washington State - was stripped by Buddah Al-Uqdah and returned the fumble to the 2. Schlenbaker immediately scored and Washington State's lead was 21-3. "I told him before that we were going to get after him. I was going to get after him," Al-Uqdah said. "And a few plays later I had my chance and I took full advantage of it." The Cougars extended the lead in the final seconds of the first half after Morton was intercepted. Kyle Williams caught a deflected pass in the corner of the end zone to give Washington State a 27-10 lead at the break. Texas Tech: The Red Raiders were too sloppy for the caliber of opponent. It started on the opening kickoff, which the Cougars chipped short in a modified onside attempt and recovered. Throw in the two turnovers on downs and the Red Raiders gave the ball away five times in the first half. Washington State: Mateer was terrific on the ground but the pass game must improve to have a chance next week. Mateer was 9-of-19 passing for 115 yards.

2024 GAME RECAPS

WASHINGTON STATE VS. WASHINGTON

Sept. 14, 2024 • Lumen Field • Att.: 57,567 • TV: Peacock

SEATTLE – The night before the strangest Apple Cup in recent memory was contested at a neutral site and as a non-conference meeting for the first time in more than 60 years, Kingston Fernandez was given a task. Washington State head coach Jake Dickert wanted cigars for the coaching staff to celebrate should the Cougars prevail. And he tasked his assistant director of operations with making sure they were on hand. "I texted him yesterday and said, 'don't tell any of the coaches, but be ready,'" Dickert said, with his celebratory cigar sitting on the table in front of him. The Apple Cup was reclaimed by Washington State on Saturday behind three total touchdowns from quarterback John Mateer and a late goal-line stand in a 24-19 win over rival Washington. Mateer ran for two scores and threw for another, and the Cougars stopped Washington on a fourth-and-goal running play from the 1 with 1:07 remaining to take home the Apple Cup trophy for just the third time since 2008. It will be housed on the third floor of the Washington State football complex. Dickert would like to keep it there permanently. "I think we might retire this trophy. I think it's a Pac-12 trophy. I think that might stay in our place a long time and we'll bring a new one next year," Dickert said. The realignment chaos of the past year threatened to end the rivalry game with Washington now in the Big Ten and Washington State's Pac-12 uncertainty. The Cougars did find some future security this week with news that the Pac-12 is starting to rebuild thanks to the addition of four schools in 2026. But winning the game felt more meaningful to the Cougars after being left out in the reshuffling of schools, conferences and allegiances. And while purple may have outnumbered crimson in the crowd for the game played at Lumen Field, the Cougars were the ones celebrating on the field at the end. "Coach kept saying we worked 9 1/2 months for this moment, just trust our preparation and everything," Mateer said referencing last November's 24-21 loss to the Huskies. "Looking back on those 9 1/2 months to come out here and perform, and it wasn't our best, and we still got it done." Mateer ran for touchdowns of 23 and 25 yards and threw a 16-yard touchdown to Josh Meredith in the third quarter that gave the Cougars (3-0) a 24-16 lead. Mateer finished 17 of 34 passing for 245 yards and added 62 yards rushing. The 25-yard touchdown run came on third-and-20 in the final seconds of the first half and was a significant momentum swing that gave the Cougars a 17-13 halftime lead. The TD capped a 91-yard touchdown drive and Washington State never trailed again. "End of the half and end of the game, we let up seven points on third-and-20 and we didn't score on fourth-and-1 one the 1. That's the story," Washington coach Jedd Fisch said. The fourth-and-1 play Fisch referred to will be debated for a long time in Apple Cup lore. The Huskies reached the Washington State 10 and on third-and-goal, Denzel Boston was forced out at the 1, setting up the final play. Following a time out, the Huskies called an option play to the short-side of the field and Jonah Coleman had nowhere to go, getting stopped for a 2-yard loss. "(Washington's) not really a speed option team, for them to run that I was kind of surprised," Washington State defensive lineman Andrew Edson said. "But, you know, we stopped it." Coleman, who topped 100 yards rushing in the first two games of the season, was limited to 75 yards on 14 carries. Will Rogers threw for 314 yards and a touchdown for Washington (2-1) and Giles Jackson had eight catches for 162 yards, including a 31-yard TD in the first quarter. But the Huskies were forced to settle for field goals on three trips inside the Washington State 25 and that proved the difference. "It's never fun losing, especially to a rival, and just kind of feeling the pressure of the success some of my other teammates have had," Rogers said. "I want to win, that's all I really care about." The takeaway Washington State: The Cougars will lament some of their fourth-quarter execution on offense. Mateer threw one interception, nearly threw another, and the Cougars threw incomplete on third-and-10 with 3:46 left. Not only did Washington State not get a first down, but the clock stopped. Washington: After being fairly clean with penalties the first two games, Washington's discipline was awful. The Huskies were called for 16 penalties — third-most in school history — for 135 yards. Several were critical calls that kept drives alive for the Cougars.

SAN JOSE STATE AT WASHINGTON STATE

Sept. 20, 2024 • Gesa Field • Att.: 24,808 • TV: The CW

PULLMAN, Wash. – Redshirt-sophomore quarterback John Mateer accounted for 501 total yards and five touchdowns, as Washington State rallied from a 14-point fourth quarter deficit to defeat the San Jose State Spartans, 54-52 in two overtimes, Friday night, at Gesa Field. Washington State improved to 4-0 while San Jose State dropped to 3-1. "They found a way. That's what player-driven teams do," WSU Head Coach Jake Dickert said. "They never stopped believing tonight and I'm really proud of this football team." In a game that featured a combined 1,118 total yards from both offenses, it was the Cougars' defense that came up big in the end, stopping the Spartans' two-point conversion attempt in the second overtime when Quinn Roff sacked quarterback Emmett Brown. After each team exchanged interceptions in the first overtime, Dylan Paine scored on a seven-yard touchdown run and Mateer ran in the two-point conversion, which was confirmed by replay review, to put the Cougars up 54-46. Brown connected with Nick Nash on a four-yard touchdown pass to pull the Spartans within two before the Cougars' defensive stand. Down 24-17 at the half, San Jose scored 21 unanswered points in the third quarter to take a 38-24 lead into the fourth quarter. The Cougars responded with 19 unanswered points of their own to gain a 43-38 lead with 4:56 remaining in the game. The Spartans answered with an eight-play, 72-yard drive, capped by a 20-yard TD pass from Brown to TreyShun Hurry on fourth down. A successful two-point conversion gave San Jose a 46-43 lead with 26 seconds left in the game. Mateer engineered a four-play 40-yard drive that was capped by Dean Janikowski's game-tying 52-yard field goal as time expired in regulation. Mateer threw for 390 yards and four touchdowns and ran for 111 yards and a touchdown, as the Cougars rolled up 627 yards of total offense.

2024 GAME RECAPS

WASHINGTON STATE AT NO. 25 BOISE STATE

Sept. 28, 2024 • Albertsons Stadium • Att.: 37,711 • TV: FOX Sports 1

BOISE, Ida. – Ashton Jeanty ran for 259 yards and four touchdowns as No. 25 Boise State surged past Washington State 45-24 on Saturday night. Playing its first game as a ranked team since 2020, Boise State (3-1) pulled away in the fourth quarter against its future Pac-12 Conference rival. Washington State (4-1) had no answer for Jeanty - and no ground game of its own. Jeanty, who entered the game leading the nation in rushing yards per game with 195.3, wasted little time pilling up the yards. On Boise State's fifth play from scrimmage, he broke four tackles around the line of scrimmage before outracing the rest of the defense on a 64-yard TD run. He finished with 26 carries and had a 7-yard reception. The Cougars responded with a quick strike of theirs own when quarterback John Mateer needed only three plays to go 65 yards, firing a 14-yard TD pass to Cooper Mathers. Jeanty added a 14-yard touchdown run late in the second quarter to give the Broncos a 17-10 halftime lead. Despite stifling Boise State's offense early in the second half, Washington State coach Jake Dickert gambled on a fourth-and-inches from his own 27 late in the third quarter. But Boise State's defense stiffened, denying Mateer the half-yard he needed. Three plays later, Maddux Madsen hit Lauter on a 22-yard scoring strike to push Boise State's lead to 24-10 with 1:22 left in the third quarter. Then, after another Washington State touchdown halved the deficit, Jeanty ripped off another electrifying run, this time racing 59 yards by breaking three tackles and eluding another on the goal line to dive in for the score. Mateer threw for 327 yards and a pair of touchdowns. Wayshawn Parker led Washington State in rushing with 35 yards. Madsen threw for 184 yards and two touchdowns for Boise State. THE TAKEAWAY Boise State: The Broncos appear to be in the driver's seat for a playoff bid among the Group of 5 conferences-and on a collision course with Mountain West conference foe UNLV. The two teams clash on Oct. 25 and could meet again for the conference title with a playoff bid on the line. Washington State: The Cougars will use their off week to work on shoring up a porous defense that has given up 52 and 45 points, respectively, in their last two outings.

WASHINGTON STATE AT FRESNO STATE

Oct. 12, 2024 • Valley Children's Stadium • Att.: 41,031 • TV: FOX Sports 1

FRESNO, Calif. – Ethan Connor's 60-yard interception return for a touchdown gave Washington State a fourth-quarter comeback 25-17 victory at Fresno State Saturday evening. Fresno State held a 17-16 lead early in the fourth quarter before O'Connor's house call gave the Cougars a 22-17 lead with under seven minutes left. Dean Janikowski added a 23-yard field goal with 1:46 remaining for the eight-point advantage and the WSU defense turned the Bulldogs over on downs as time expired to give WSU their first 5-1 start since 2018. Cougar quarterback John Mateer rushed for 46 yards and a touchdown while freshman running back carried 12 times for 63 yards. Wideout Kris Hutson caught a team-high six passes for 45 yards and had a two-yard rushing touchdown. Janikowski connected on both field goal attempts, hitting from 34 yards out in the third quarter before his 23-yarder capped the scoring. Janikowski also averaged over 51 yards on three punts and kicked off six times. Defensively, Buddah Al-Uqdah made a team-high seven tackles while Kyle Thornton and Tyson Durant each added five with Durant adding an interception for the second straight game. Keith Brown and Khalil Laufau each recorded a sack for the defense who picked off a pair of passes, recorded a pair of sacks and held an opponent under 20 points for the third time this season. Washington State took the opening kickoff and capped the opening 75-yard drive with a one-yard touchdown run by Mateer and Hutson's two-yard rushing score on an end-around gave the Cougars the lead later in the first quarter. WSU nearly took a lead into halftime but FSU made a diving interception in the end zone right before the half to keep the Cougar lead 13-6 at the break. The Bulldogs took a 14-13 lead with a touchdown midway through the third quarter, Janikowsi's first field goal allowed WSU to regain the lead but Fresno State's fourth-quarter 13-play drive was capped by a field goal for a 17-16 advantage. Minutes later, O'Connor stepped in front of a Bulldog pass attempt on the ensuing drive and raced 60 yards for the go-ahead score.

2024 GAME RECAPS

HAWAI'I AT WASHINGTON STATE

Oct. 19, 2024 • Gesa Field • Att.: 25,112 • TV: The CW

PULLMAN, Wash. – Redshirt-sophomore quarterback John Mateer accounted for 329 total yards and five touchdowns, and the Washington State defense forced three turnovers, as the Cougars cruised to a 42-10 Homecoming victory against the University of Hawai'i Rainbow Warriors, Saturday at Gesa Field. With the win, Washington State earned bowl eligibility improving its record to 6-1. Hawai'i dropped to 2-5. "We want to be more aggressive," WSU Head Coach Jake Dickert said. "After playing San Jose State and that run and shoot, we just came away saying 'we got to go attack,' then we came away with three sacks and three takeaways and a lot of them are effort plays. "Offense did a good job of taking those takeaways and turning them into points," Dickert added. "Great team football today." The Cougars, in their first home game since their 54-52 overtime victory against San Jose State, Sept. 20, rolled up 444 total yards. Mateer threw for 295 yards, connecting on 23 of 27 pass attempts, and three touchdowns. In addition, Mateer rushed for 34 yards and two touchdowns. As proficient as the Cougar offense was, the defense stymied Hawaii throughout the game, limiting the Rainbow Warriors to 300 total yards while recording three sacks and three turnovers that set up three of the Cougars' touchdowns. In addition, the WSU defense prevented Hawaii from converting a third or fourth down conversion in the game, 0-8 on third down and 0-1 on fourth. After a Hawai'i field goal on its opening possession, the Cougar offense answered with a 32-yard TD connection from Mateer to Carlos Hernandez to take a 7-3 lead in the first quarter. Two more Mateer touchdown passes followed in the second quarter, both set up by turnovers forced by the WSU defense. The first turnover occurred when Jamorri Colson stripped Hawaii receiver Nick Cernacle and Kapena Gushiken recovered the fumble. A nine-yard connection from Mateer to Cooper Mathers followed, extending the Cougars' lead to 14-3. Later in the second quarter, a Taariq Al-Uqdah interception set up the Cougars once again, and, once again, the offense took advantage when Mateer connected with Kris Hutson on a nine-yard touchdown pass to go into half with a 21-3 lead. Hawai'i opened the second half on a seven-play 75-yard drive, capped by a 17-yard touchdown pass from Brayden Schager to Tylan Hines to cut the deficit to 21-10. The Cougars erased any doubt by answering on their next possession with a 14-play, 75-yard drive, punctuated by a nine-yard touchdown run by Mateer. On the Rainbow Warriors' next possession, Parker McKenna sacked Schager forcing a fumble recovered by Bryson Lamb. WSU took advantage of the turnover when Mateer opened the fourth quarter with a 14-yard touchdown run and Leo Pulalasi scored on a three-yard touchdown run later in the fourth quarter to cap the game's scoring.

WASHINGTON STATE AT SAN DIEGO STATE

Oct. 26, 2024 • Snapdragon Stadium • Att.: 26,937 • TV: CBSSN

SAN DIEGO – Washington State used a pair of fourth-quarter touchdown drives to post a 29-26 road win over San Diego State at Snapdragon Stadium Saturday evening. WSU improved to 7-1 with their third fourth-quarter comeback win of the season to give them their best start since 2018. The Cougars trailed 26-14 early in the fourth quarter before John Mateer connected with Carlos Hernandez for a 34-yard touchdown and linebacker Buddah Al-Uqdah intercepted an Aztec pass inside WSU territory to set up the game-winning drive. Mateer capped a seven-play 63-yard drive with a two-yard rushing touchdown with 5:03 remaining and made it a three-point lead after catching the two-point conversion from wideout Kris Hutson. The Washington State defense forced a San Diego State punt with 2:19 remaining and the Cougar offense picked one first down before the Aztecs were called for roughing the punter with 22 seconds remaining, awarding WSU the game-sealing first down. The Cougars rushed for over 100 yards for the seventh time this season with Mateer rushing for a pair of scores, one and two yards, respectively. Mateer also threw for 257 yards including a pair of touchdowns, 26 yards to tight end Cooper Mathers and the fourth-quarter strike to Hernandez. The Cougar defense tallied season-highs of eight tackles-for-loss and four sacks including a career-high three from defensive tackle Ansel Din-Mbuh. Al-Uqdah's interception was WSU's 15th takeaway of the season, matching the 2023 total. The Cougars held a 14-12 lead at halftime but the Aztecs took a 19-14 lead midway through the third quarter after a WSU muffed punt. SDSU pushed their lead to 26-14 with an 11-play touchdown drive early in the fourth quarter before the Cougars began their comeback.

Jake Dickert begins his third full season as the Cougars' Head Football Coach after being named to the position Nov. 27, 2021. Dickert became the 34th head football coach in program history.

The 2023 season began 4-0 under Dickert, including wins over nationally-ranked Wisconsin (#19) and Oregon State (#14). It marked the second-straight season Dickert led the Cougs to a win over the Badgers. A convincing 56-14 win over Colorado accounted for WSU's fifth win in a 5-7 season. Four of WSU's seven losses came by one possession. The Cougar defense continued its aggressive play from previous years as WSU led the nation in defensive touchdowns with five on the season, the third-most defensive scores dating back to the 1996 season. In 2023, WSU had five players named to All-Pac-12 teams, led by second-team edge Brennan Jackson. In the 2024 NFL Draft, three Cougars, all defensive players, were drafted, led by safety Jaden Hicks to Kansas City (4th round). Jackson (5th, Los Angeles Rams) and cornerback Chau Smith-Wade (5th, Carolina), were also selected, giving WSU is most draft picks in a season since the 2005 NFL Draft.

Dickert began the 2022 season, his first full year leading WSU, with three-straight wins, including a victory at No. 19 Wisconsin. The win was WSU's first in three meetings against the Badgers and WSU's first regular-season nonconference road win over a ranked team since 2003. The Cougars captured three of its final four games and reached a bowl game, the Jimmy Kimmel L.A. Bowl, for the seventh-straight season, then the second-longest current streak in the Pac-12. Under Dickert's leadership, WSU again was strong defensively, finishing in the top four of numerous Pac-12 categories, including second in Red Zone defense and tackles-for-loss, third in scoring defense and turnovers gained, and fourth in sacks. WSU also led the Pac-12 in Red Zone offense. In 2022, WSU had 10 All-Pac-12 players, including first-team linebacker and third-team All-American Daiyan Henley, while safety Jaden Hicks garnered third-Team Freshman All-America honors. Henley was selected in the third round of the NFL Draft by his hometown Los Angeles Chargers.

Dickert spent the final five games of the 2021 regular season serving as the Cougar's acting head coach, leading WSU to a 3-2 record with wins over Arizona State, Arizona and a dominating 40-13 Apple Cup victory in Seattle before WSU earned a trip to the Tony The Tiger Sun Bowl. The Apple Cup win snapped a seven-game skid to Washington and was WSU's largest margin of victory in series history.

Under Dickert's leadership, the Cougar defense was a huge spark in 2021, leading the Pac-12 with 29 takeaways, fifth-most nationally, while also leading the Pac-12 and tied for ninth nationally in turnover margin. Last season, 14 players earned All-Pac-12 honors including first-team selections in right tackle Abraham Lucas, kicker Dean Janikowski and EDGE Ron Stone Jr. while punter Nick Haberer was named a Freshman All-American. In the 2022 NFL Draft, offensive lineman Abraham Lucas was selected in the second round by the Seattle Seahawks and cornerback Jaylen Watson went in the seventh round to the Kansas City Chiefs.

Entering the 2021 season, Dickert was in his second year as WSU's defensive coordinator and linebackers coach. In his first season in Pullman, the Washington State defense produced four All-Pac-12 Conference selections including linebacker Jahad Woods, who was second on the team with 31 tackles and led the team with 4.5 tackles-for loss. The Cougars led the league with eight forced fumbles and was fourth in rush defense (154.8), a 30-yard improvement from the previous season.

Dickert arrived at WSU after working three seasons at the University of Wyoming (2017-19) including the 2019 campaign as the defensive coordinator while working with the linebackers and safeties.

In 2019, the Cowboys were sixth in the country in red zone defense, No. 11 in the country in rush defense (107.1) and scoring defense (17.8), No. 40 tackles-for-loss (83) and No. 43 in total defense. Dickert saw four Cowboys earned All-Mountain West Conference honors led by second-team All-American linebacker and Butkus Award Finalist Logan Wilson while redshirt-freshman defensive end Solomon Byrd was named a Freshman All-American by the Football Writers Association of America.

Dickert originally joined the Wyoming football staff in February, 2017 and coached the safeties for the 2017 and 2018 seasons before he was promoted to defensive coordinator in 2019 where he started the season coaching the linebackers and later coached the safeties. In his three seasons at Wyoming, Dickert coached a pair of future NFL safeties including three-time first-team All-Mountain West Conference pick Andrew Wingard and saw four players earn All-MWC honors in 2019 while another earned 2019 Freshman All-America accolades on the defensive line.

In 2018, Wyoming's defense was among the best in the nation, finishing the season No. 19 in total defense (326.2), No. 25 in rushing defense (129.5), No. 28 in scoring defense (22.0) and No. 32 in pass defense (196.7). Dickert coached senior safeties Andrew Wingard and Marcus Epps as Wingard ended his career tied for the Mountain West Conference career tackle record with 454. Wingard earned First Team All-Mountain West honors for the third consecutive season after being named to the preseason watch lists for the Chuck Bednarik, Bronko Nagurski and Jim Thorpe Awards in both 2017 and 2018. Epps concluded his career as the only three-time team captain in the modern era of Cowboy Football, recorded 325 career tackles and was a finalist for the 2018 Burlsworth Trophy, which is awarded to the nation's most outstanding player who began his career as a walk-on. Epps was selected in the sixth round of the 2019 NFL Draft by the Minnesota Vikings where he played in seven games before playing in eight more with the Philadelphia Eagles. Wingard played in the 2019 East-West Shrine Game, was invited to the 2019 NFL Draft Combine and signed a free-agent contract with the Jacksonville Jaguars where he played all 16 games and made two starts as a rookie.

In his first season at Wyoming, Dickert help the 2017 Cowboy defense become one of the best groups in the country as they led the country in takeaways (38), ranked ninth in scoring defense (17.5), were first in fumbles recovered (18), second in interceptions (20), eighth in defensive touchdowns scored (4 TD), No. 13 in pass defense (174.9) and No. 23 in total defense (335.2). Dickert coached first-team All-Mountain West strong safety Wingard while the safety tandem of Wingard and Epps led the Pokes in interceptions in 2017, with five and four interceptions, respectively.

Before arriving at Wyoming, Dickert spent the 2016 season as the safeties coach and co-special teams coordinator at South Dakota State. Earlier in his career, Dickert was a part of Bohl's coaching staff at North Dakota State from 2008-10.

In his one season on the South Dakota State coaching staff, Dickert helped guide the Jackrabbits to the 2016 Missouri Valley Football Conference Championship and a No. 8 seed in the 2016 NCAA Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) Playoffs, where they advanced to the FCS National Quarterfinals.

As defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Minnesota State, Mankato for the 2014 and 2015 seasons Dickert was part of a coaching staff that led the Mavericks to back-to-back Northern Sun Intercollegiate Conference (NSIC) championships and consecutive NCAA Division II Playoff berths, earning their way to the 2014 National Championship Game. Minnesota State posted a combined record of 24-3 over that two-year span. Dickert's 2014 defense ranked second in the nation in scoring defense (12.9), fourth in turnovers gained, No. 12 in pass defense efficiency and No. 15 in total defense. In 2015, the Mavericks ranked fifth in the nation in scoring defense (16.1), third in rushing defense, seventh in pass defense efficiency and sixth in total defense. He coached 16 All-Conference players, three First Team All-Americans and a two-time Northern Sun Intercollegiate Conference Defensive Player of the Year.

In his first season as a college defensive coordinator in 2013 at Augustana, Dickert's defense ranked No. 20 in the nation at the NCAA Division II level in scoring defense, giving up only 19.5 ppg. Augustana ranked second in the NSIC in pass defense, third in rushing defense and third in total defense. He coached five All-Conference players at Augustana.

In 2012, he served as the defensive backs coach at Southeast Missouri State. The Redhawks ranked No. 18 in the nation in turnovers gained (25) and No. 23 in interceptions (13). Southeast Missouri State ranked No. 2 in the Ohio Valley Conference in pass defense. Dickert also coached a First Team All-Conference strong safety at Southeast Missouri.

Dickert spent the 2011 season as the special teams coordinator and defensive backs coach at South Dakota, where the Coyotes ranked second in the Great West Conference in fewest passing yards allowed and interceptions. He coached three all-conference performers while at South Dakota and his special teams units ranked in the Top 10 in the nation in punting average and net punting and had an individual rank in the Top 10 in punt return yards.

He joined the North Dakota State coaching staff in 2008 as a defensive graduate assistant on Bohl's staff. In 2009 and 2010, he was elevated to serve as safeties coach for the Bison. The 2010 NDSU team advanced to the FCS National Quarterfinals. Dickert began his college coaching career in 2007 as a defensive graduate assistant at his alma mater, Wisconsin-Stevens Point.

He played football at Wisconsin-Stevens Point from 2002-06 where he earned All-Wisconsin Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (WIAC) honors as a wide receiver his senior season of 2006 and was named his team's Wide Receiver of the Year both his junior and senior seasons. Dickert earned his bachelor's degree in secondary math education from Wisconsin-Stevens Point in 2007, and completed his master's degree in general education, also from UW-Stevens Point in 2009.

Dickert and his wife, Candice, have three children, daughter Rylee and sons Jett and Jace.
