COUGARS VS GAELS

Washington State concludes its nonconference schedule with a trip to Moraga, Calif., to face Saint Mary's Sunday at 1 p.m. The Gaels hold a 2-1-2 advantage in the series history. The programs last met Aug. 27, 2017 in Pullman, Wash., where the Cougs earned their first win over the Gaels, a 1-0 victory. Maddy Haro scored the game's lone goal from the penalty spot in the 28th minute.

DETRIZIO DOMINATION

Margie Detrizio leads the Cougs this season with 16 points. The junior forward is currently on a five-match point streak with at least one assist or goal. She is the first Cougar with a 5-game point streak since Micaela Castain tallied points in 5-straight games in September of 2013. Most recently, Detrizio scored a brace in a win over Northern Colorado, tallying her second multi-goal game of the season and the third of her career. Detrizio became just the sixth Cougar in program history with three multi-goal matches in their career, and the first since Carly Dobratz from 2006-09. In the previous win over Cal Poly, Detrizio notched two assists, becoming the 40th player in program history to record a multi-assist game. Detrizio is currently tied for 4th in the Pac-12 in goals scored and tied for 16th in the country. The Chandler, Ariz., native is also leading the conference with 4.71 shots per game, also tied for 3rd nationally.

OFFENSIVE FIREPOWER CARRYING COUGS

So far this season, Wazzu has scored 19 goals (2.17 per game) from 10 different Cougars, led by Margie Detrizio with six goals. The Cougs are outshooting opponents 161-41 through seven matches and the average of 23.0 shots per game ranks sixth nationally and second only to Stanford in the Pac-12. WSU is putting shots on frame at a 38.5% clip (62-of-161) and have limited opponents to just 19 total shots on target.

CAREER COUG MYKIAA MINNISS

With her 80th career start Sunday against Cal Poly, fifth-year senior Mykiaa Minniss moved into sole possession of 5th all-time in WSU career matches started, excluding goalkeepers. Minniss has started every single match of her Cougar career. If Minniss starts all the regular-season matches this year, she would finish as WSU's all-time career starts leader with 92, besting former teammate Sydney Pulver, who finished her career with 91 starts in Crimson & Gray.

MARGIE & MYKIAA DYNAMIC ASSIST DUO

Mykiaa Minniss and Margie Detrizio have each put together a 3-game assist streak this season. Minniss recorded an assist in three-straight game from Aug. 28 vs Eastern Washington, through the Sept. 4 contest against Denver. Detrizio went on her own 3-game assist streak, between the Sept. 1 game at Seattle and the Sept. 11 victory versus Cal Poly.

COOPER CLOSING ON WSU RECORD BOOK

Sophomore goalkeeper Nadia Cooper is no stranger to re-writing the WSU record book, this season setting her sights on the career goalkeeping lists. With the Cougs' win against Northern Colorado, Cooper moved into a tie for 8th all-time in career wins (15). Picking up her first cleansheet of the season in the home opener against Portland, Cooper earned her eighth-career shutout and pushed herself onto the WSU all-time goalkeeper shutout list (tied 10th). Cooper has spent all but 15 minutes of the 2022 season in goal, bringing her career total to 2,073 minutes in goal, 10th-most in program history.

SHULENBERGER APPROACHES HISTORIC RECORD

In his eighth season, Shulenberger enters this weekend with 86 career wins, two shy of the all-time wins record held by former coach Matt Potter. Currently, Shulenberger could tie the record as early as WSU's Pac-12 opening match at Oregon State and break the record with an 89th win in Pullman against Colorado. Shulenberger also holds the second-best win percentage in program history. In his career, he has a .648 win percentage.

LYNCH BACK WITH A BANG

Senior forward Grayson Lynch hopes to continue a strong run of form from last season. She notched her third goal of the 2022 campaign, Sunday versus Cal Poly, scoring a golazo from the outside of the penalty area. It was her third-straight match with a goal, becoming the 22nd Cougar in program history with a 3-game goal streak.

STUDER'S LAST-MINUTE STUNNER

PRESEASON PRAISE

The Cougs picked up some of their highest preseason honors in program history. WSU was selected No. 19 in the TopDrawerSoccer preseason poll, matching the highest preseason ranking in team history. Wazzu was also voted No. 20 in the United Soccer Coaches preseason poll, tying its best-ever preseason selection in a national coaches poll.

SISTER DUOS POWERING NCAA SOCCER

When junior Jenna Studer transferred to Pullman, she joined her sister and fifth-year senior Sydney on the Cougar roster. The duo are one of 50 sets of sisters playing on the same team in Division-I soccer this season. The Cougs also have junior Marin Whieldon with older sister Shayna serving as the team's coordinator of operations. Wazzu is one of just 10 programs in the country with two sister pairings and the only with a staff-athlete combination.

COUGS TABBED THIRD BY PAC-12 COACHES

Washington State was voted third by coaches of the Pac-12 Conference in this fall's preseason poll. The placement marks the highest selection in program history, including a pair of first-place votes for the first time.

UNITED SOCCER COACHES NAME THREE TO PRESEASON WATCHLISTS

Three Cougs were named to the United Soccer Coaches Division I Players to Watch. Sophomore Nadia Cooper was named to the goalkeepers watchlist. Fifth-year seniors Mykiaa Minniss (D) and Sydney Studer (M) were also named as players to watch at their positions. Only returning student-athletes who were named to a USC All-Region team last season are eligible for the preseason watchlists.

THREE COUGS RETURN WITH ALL-REGION HONORS

A program record five Cougars were named to the 2021 United Soccer Coaches NCAA Division I Women's All-Pacific Region Team. Three return for the 2022 season, including first-team honorees Nadia Cooper and Mykiaa Minniss, alongside Sydney Studer on the second team.

COOPER RETURNS AS REIGNING GOALKEEPER & FRESHMAN OF THE YEAR

Sophomore goalkeeper Nadia Cooper returns for her second season, as the reigning Pac-12 Freshman and Goalkeeper of the Year. It was a historic run for the young netminder, becoming the first player in program history to earn not only the top freshman award but also the top goalkeeper award. Putting herself among the best to ever do it, Cooper finished the regular season 9-1-3 between the posts while tallying seven solo shutouts despite not taking over the starting job until Sept. 12. She would go on to set the Cougs' all-time record for consecutive shutout minutes with 523:56 minutes to begin her career.

DEFENSIVE CORE RETURNS

Defensively the Cougs were one of the best teams in the country last season, finishing the year with 12 shutouts and just 13 total goals allowed for a 0.59 GAA, the second-best goals against average in program history. They show no signs of letting up, returning a veteran backline, anchored by fifth-year senior captain Mykiaa Minniss and senior Bridget Rieken in the middle. The all-conference duo has been the heart of the Cougs' defense since joining forces in 2019 including leading the team to the College Cup as underclassmen and have played nearly every minute together for the last three seasons. Also, making her return in the lineup is Aaqila McLyn, a redshirt, fifth-year senior who suffered a season-ending injury last preseason and returns for a final campaign.

PRO COUGS

Establishing themselves among the elite teams in the nation has its perks as the Cougs now have pushed their best into the pro ranks of the NWSL with eight current pros having put on the Crimson and Gray. In each of the last two drafts the Cougs have seen their players go No. 2 overall with Morgan Weaver (2020 - Portland Thorns) and Trinity Rodman (2021 - Washington Spirit). In addition Averie Collins (2020 - Washington Spirit) and Makamae Gomera-Stevens (2021 - Houston Dash) have established themselves in the league while Ella Dederick was signed two a two-year deal by Houston. Outside of the five in the league, Brianna Alger who was selected by the Chicago Red Stars in 2021 heads to the league after completing her fifth season at WSU. In 2021, Elyse Bennett would go No. 7 to Kansas City while Sydney Pulver went No. 25 to new franchise San Diego. The Cougs seven picked in the draft ranks as the second-best in the nation.

WAZZU IN 2021

The Cougs finished the 2021 regular season third in the Pac-12 having posted a 7-1-3 record in conference play. The seven wins tied for the most in program history while the .773 win percentage was the highest in the history of Cougar soccer in conference action. Overall, the Cougs finished 14-3-4, tying for the second-most wins in program history after an NCAA Second Round exit to #6 Tennessee. Individually the Cougs took home a slew of awards led by All-American Elyse Bennett. Freshman keeper Nadia Cooper capped her stellar first year on the Palouse being named the Pac-12 Freshman of the Year as well as Goalkeeper of the Year while also earning all-region honors. In the NWSL draft, Bennett would go No. 7 while Sydney Pulver was taken No. 25 overall to give the Cougs seven draft picks in the last three seasons.

SOCCER WELCOMES TOP-10 FRESHMAN CLASS

Reloading once again, Washington State added seven incoming freshman to the ranks for 2022. The Cougs class was ranked in the top-10 by TopDrawerSoccer.com.
