DAUGHERTY
Head Coach
8th Year

Washington State University Head Coach June Daugherty begins her eighth season with Cougars and has led the charge toward a new era in WSU women's basketball. Just as she had done at each of her two previous stops, Daugherty, who has coached more than 700 career games, has begun turning around the WSU women's program, leading the Cougars to a WNIT appearance in 2014, bringing in top-ranked recruiting classes, improving attendance numbers and overseeing student-athletes who place premiums on academics and community service. Under Daugherty, Washington State has reached the Pac-12 Conference Tournament semifinals in two of the last three seasons, seen at least two players earn all-academic honors in each of the last six years and five players sign professional contracts to play overseas in the last three summers.

This past season, Daugherty led the Cougars to one of the best campaigns in program history, earning a trip to the WNIT, the program's first postseason appearance since 1991, and posted 17 wins, the most since 1995-96. WSU also notched four wins over ranked teams, including one on the road against No. 10 Nebraska and went on to post nine conference wins for the first time since 1994-95. Guards Lia Galdeira and Tia Presley both earned spots on the All-Pac-12 Team, becoming the first pair of Cougar teammates to earn all-conference honors in the same season in program history. The Cougars received some national recognition late in the year, receiving votes in the Top-25 USA Today Coaches' Poll following their Pac-12 Tournament run, becoming the first WSU team to be mentioned in a poll since the 1990-91 season.

Off the court, the Cougars continued to shine in the classroom as the Cougars earned national recognition as part of the NCAA's Public Recognition Awards for the 2012-13 academic year. The honor is given to programs whose multi-year Academic Progress Rate (APR) scores are among the top 10 percent of all squads in their respective sports. WSU posted a perfect four-year average score of 1,000, and was one of 43 women's basketball teams honored for its accomplishments. WSU, along with Stanford, were the only two Pac-12 Conference schools recognized.

In 2012-13, Daugherty led a team that featured six freshmen and three sophomores to the Pac-12 Conference Tournament quarterfinals for the second straight season, beating Arizona State in the opening round before falling to top-seeded Stanford. The Cougars improved three spots in the conference standings from a season ago, finishing eighth. WSU produced some notable wins while playing one of the toughest schedules in the country, beating No. 20 Ohio State, posting a road victory over regional rival Gonzaga and sweeping the season series with Arizona State. The Cougars finished the year with a program record for blocks in a season with 114.

Also under Daugherty's guidance in 2012-13, the Cougars backcourt received recognition from the conference as Lia Galdeira, the second-leading freshman scorer in the country and three-time Pac-12 Freshman of the Week winner, earned a number of All-Pac-12 accolades as a freshman after pacing the Cougars in scoring, rebounding, steals and minutes. Sophomore point guard Tia Presley also earned all-conference honors despite being limited to seven conference games due to injury. Daugherty also saw center Carly Noyes cap off her impressive career by becoming the school's all-time leader in blocked shots, games played and career starts.

The 2011-12 campaign saw Daugherty lead the Cougars to one of the most successful seasons in program history while playing one of the toughest schedules in the country (No. 27). WSU posted the most wins since 1995-96, recording 13 overall victories and the second double-digit win season under Daugherty while improving their final RPI by 50 spots from the season prior. The Cougars saved its best for last, beating UCLA the final weekend of the regular season before posting the program's inaugural wins at the conference tournament. WSU knocked off Oregon State and USC in the first two rounds to advance to the nationally televised semifinal against California held at the Staples Center in Los Angeles.

Additionally, Daugherty led the Cougs to the program's inaugural win over a Big Ten Conference opponent (Wisconsin) and the first win over a Big East Conference opponent (Marquette) in over 20 years. Daugherty's team followed nonconference play by winning its first three games of Pac-12 play for the first time since 1977-78. The 2011-12 Cougars made their mark on the record book as well, posting the most rebounds, the sixth-most points, fourth-most threes, fifth-most assists and second-most assists in WSU single-season history.

2011-12 also saw Daugherty's first WSU recruiting class cap their impressive careers as a pair of 1,000-point scorers exited along with a three-time academic all-conference selection in addition to the three players who received invites to the WNBA combine. Headlining the group was guard Jazmine Perkins who finished her career as a three-time all-conference selection and WSU's all-time leader in games played and the first player in school-history, male or female, with 1,200+ points, 700+ rebounds and 250+ steals.

2010-11 saw the Cougars take another step forward under Daugherty's guidance while playing the No. 27 toughest schedule in the country. WSU posted the most conference wins, the highest scoring average and highest shooting percentage since 2000-01. The Cougars posted their highest finish since the 1997-98, tying for seventh after posting season sweeps over California and Oregon State and beating Oregon and Oregon State on the same weekend to record their first week-end sweep in conference play since 2001.

WSU finished the year with a school-record 208 made three-point field goals and the second-most assists in program single-season history. The past two Cougar teams have produced two of the top block totals in program history, recording 98 in 2009-10 and 100 last year, the second-best mark in the Cougar single-season record book.

In 2009-10, the Cougars started to make their move. Despite having the sixth-youngest team in the country, WSU started earning wins and accolades that hadn't been seen in Pullman for years. The Cougars defeated Arizona State in Tempe, Ariz., in front of a national television audience, their first road win over the Sun Devils in more than 13 years. WSU also defeated USC at Galen Center, the team's first road win over the Trojans in more than 11 years.

Individually, following a 33-point scoring barrage against ASU, guard April Cook garnered WSU's first Pac-10 Player of the Week honor in four years, and just the second by a Cougar in the last 13 years. Then-freshman Carly Noyes broke WSU's single-season blocks record, a mark that had stood for 25 years, and became the first player in school history to lead the Pac-10 in the statistical category. Daugherty also signed her third-straight nationally-ranked recruiting class, and if recent history is any indication, greatness should be expected from the get-go. Multiple players from each of her first three signing classes garnered postseason recognition by Pac-10 coaches and media members following their debut seasons. Following 2008-09, the Cougars ranked among the nation's top 30 teams in both increasing their win total and increasing their RPI ranking. During the regular season the Cougars won six more games than the previous season, ranking 26th nationally and second in the Pac-10 amongst teams making the greatest turnarounds. WSU also moved up 83 spots in the RPI from the previous season, the second-highest increase amongst Pac-10 teams, and tied for the 28th-highest jump nationally.

In year one, Daugherty instilled excitement around Cougar women's basketball, signing the nation's 16th-ranked recruiting class (Blue Star Basketball). The class also received a top-25 nod from HoopGurlz (No. 24), ranked second in the Pacific-10 Conference and was unquestionably the greatest signing class in school history. Fans' excitement translated into a packed Beasley Coliseum, as WSU more than tripled its attendance from the previous season.

In year two, Daugherty guided the Cougars to an eighth-place finish in the Pac-10, WSU's highest ranking in the conference since also finishing eighth in 1998-99, and the team posted double-digit wins for the first time since the 2000-01 season. Daugherty also followed the most heralded recruiting class in school history with another highly-ranked class in 2008-09.

Daugherty's players have received quite a bit of postseason attention since her arrival on the Palouse. In her first season guard Katie Appleton garnered her first-career all-conference honor after being named All-Pac-10 honorable mention. Guard Kezia Kelly was named Freshman All-Pac-10 honorable mention. April Cook and Jazmine Perkins took home a slew of honors following the 2008-09 season, earning mention on the All-Pac-10 Team and the Pac-10 All-Freshman Team. Perkins was also named to the Pac-10 All-Defensive Team. In 2009-10, Cook garnered her second-straight honorable mention all-conference honor, and freshmen Carly Noyes and KiKi Moore combined for a number of accolades. Daugherty continued to produce all-conference selections last season as Perkins and Sage Romberg garnered All-Pac-10 honorable mention honors while Romberg was placed on the Pac-10 All-Freshmen team and Ireti Amojor received All-Pac-10 All-Freshmen honorable mention. It marked the third consecutive season that Daugherty had at least one freshman garner all-conference recognition.

Dating back to her years at Washington, Daugherty has placed at least one individual on the All-Pac-10/12 team each year since 1997. A pair of Cougs received All-Pac-12 accolades in 2011-12 as Perkins received all-Pac-12 honorable mention while both Perkins and Carly Noyes earned all-defensive team honorable mention. In 2012-13, Galdeira and Presley received all-conference honorable mention with Galdeira also earning a spot on the all-defensive and all-freshmen teams. This past season, Galdeira and Presley both earned spots on the All-Pac-12 Team, becoming the first pair of Cougar teammates to earn all-conference honors in the same season in program history.

Daugherty, whose career record stands at 387-360 (.518), has more than 20 years of experience working with WNBA-caliber talent. She began her head coaching career at Boise State, where she coached for seven years (1989-96) and compiled a record of 123-74 (73-31 Big Sky Conference). Under her watch, the Broncos not only made the NCAA Tournament for the first time in school history, but achieved their first national ranking and won their first regular season conference title.

In 1992, the Broncos won the Big Sky regular season championship, and in 1994 they shared the conference crown with Montana and earned an at-large bid to the NCAA tournament. At the conclusion of the 1993-94 season, Daugherty was named Big Sky Co-Coach of the Year.

After turning things around at Boise State, Daugherty continued her success at Washington, where she coached for 11 seasons. After finishing ninth in the Pac-10 in 2000, Daugherty led the Huskies to their first conference title since 1990, the greatest turnaround in conference history. She led Washington to nine postseason appearances in 11 seasons - six NCAA Tournament appearances and three WNIT appearances - and led the Huskies all the way to the NCAA Women's Basketball Championship Elite Eight in 2001.

Daugherty helped a number of players earn individual honors at Washington, with Giuliana Mendiola becoming the school's first Pac-10 Player of the Year, and four players earning District VIII All-America honors.

Home attendance soared under Daugherty's watch at both Boise State and Washington. The Broncos averaged 500 fans per game before Daugherty's arrival. During her tenure, more than 2,000 fans were coming to watch every game, placing Boise State in the nation's top 30 for home attendance in each of her seven seasons. Washington led the Pac-10 in home attendance in both 2002-03 and 2003-04. The team chemistry formed on the basketball court is a direct result of creating a family atmosphere with Daugherty's staff and players. Daugherty creates a home away from home for her basketball family, consisting of coaches, players and support staff. This environment culminated in 16 players combining for 49 selections to the Pac-10 All-Academic Team at Washington, and 30 student-athletes on the Big Sky Conference All-Academic Team at Boise State. In her six seasons at WSU, ten players have combined for 21 All-Academic selections.

Daugherty's basketball family is involved not only in providing everything necessary to achieve academic excellence, but also the means to becoming involved in community service. Daugherty leads by example, speaking at meetings for the Chamber of Commerce, the Kiwanis and for many women's groups.

A major advocate for healthy heart awareness, Daugherty was named the Sudden Cardiac Arrest Association's National Coach of the Year in 2008. Since becoming a survivor of sudden cardiac arrest Daugherty has become one of the nation's most visible spokesmen, filming a nationally-aired commercial, speaking at fund-raisers for the Hope Heart Institute and the American Red Cross and helping WSU sponsor the inaugural "Cougs Have Heart" basketball game to raise awareness for heart disease.

Daugherty is a member of the Women's Basketball Coaches' Association and is a former member of its Board of Directors. She is also a member of both the State Farm Coaches' All-America Team and the Russell Athletic/WBCA Coach of the Year selection committees and is currently serving on the WBCA Ethics Board, the WBCA All-America selection committee for Region 8 and is the captain of the Pac-12 coaches committee. Daugherty often serves as a clinician for the NCAA YES Clinic at the Final Four, and she has been active in USA Basketball and was an assistant coach for the West Team at the 1995 Olympic Sports Festival.

Daugherty also places high priority on keeping the top local high school talent at home in the Northwest. In her first season with the Cougars, Washington's 3A State Player of the Year Katie Grad (Auburn-Riverside) and Shadle Park's all-time leading scorer Lexie Pettersen (Spokane) were each a part of her nationally-ranked recruiting class. Her second recruiting class featured Carly Noyes of Moses Lake, Wash., a three-time conference player of the year at Moses Lake HS. Her 2010 class, two-time Evergreen Conference Most Valuable Player and 2009-10 Seattle Times All-State (all-classifications) honoree Brandi Thomas, of Elma, Wash., went Crimson. This season, Daugherty welcomes Wyoming's two-time Gatorade Player of the Year in Jordan Kelley (Gillette, Wyo.), one of the top-rated high post players out of Canada in 6-3 Shalie Dheensaw (Victoria, B.C.) who has started for the Canadian U17 National Team and speedy three-time all-state selection out of Spokane's Gonzaga Prep Tia Presley (Spokane, Wash.). The 2012 recruiting class featured six players from all over the country including Lia Galderia who was named Hawaii Player of the Year three times. The 2014 incoming class features seven members including four from overseas.

Several of Daugherty's athletes have gone on to coaching careers at both the high school and collegiate level, including Lisa Fisher, an associate head coach with the Cougars in 2006.

Daugherty served as an assistant coach at Stanford under head coach Tara Vanderveer prior to taking over the Boise State program. She helped guide the Cardinal to one of the finest seasons in school history, finishing the 1989 season with a record of 28-3, an undefeated Pac-10 season and a trip to the NCAA Tournament. Daugherty also had a two-year stint on the Kent State staff as an assistant coach from 1983-85.

Daugherty played collegiate basketball at Ohio State from 1974-78, where she led the Buckeyes to the Big Ten Championship in 1977 and 1978. She is still ranked amongst the school's top 25 in career scoring with 1,137 points. She also ranks fifth in career rebounds (829), is tied for 17th in career field goals made (500) and shares the single-game school record for blocked shots (12 against Michigan State in 1976). At the conclusion of her senior season, she earned first-team All-America honors and was a Wade Trophy finalist the first year the award was presented.

Just prior to the start of the 2001 season, The Ohio State University honored Daugherty with an induction into the OSU Athletic Hall of Fame. Daugherty will be inducted into the Westerville High School in December, 2011.

Following graduation in 1978, Daugherty contributed as both a player and coach on several international teams, including a period as a player and coach for the Union Sportive Vierzon Club based in France.

Daugherty, a native of Columbus, Ohio, is the daughter of Naomi and Jim Brewer and has two brothers, Mark and Neil Brewer, and one sister, Ruth Williams. She and her husband Mike are the parents of twins Doc and Breanne.

Mike
DAUGHERTY
 Associate Head Coach
 8th Year

Associate head coach Mike Daugherty begins his eighth year with the Washington State University coaching staff. Husband to head coach June, Daugherty enters his 26th season as a Division I coach.

Prior to joining the Cougars' coaching staff, Daugherty had a reputation for building explosive offenses and he has not disappointed since his arrival in Pullman. The Cougar offense has seen its scoring output increase by nearly 10 points per game since his first season.

Last season, Daugherty helped guide the Cougars to one of the best campaigns in program history, earning a trip to the WNIT, the program's first postseason appearance since 1991, and post 17 wins, the most since 1995-96. WSU also notched four wins over ranked teams, including one on the road against No. 10 Nebraska and went on to post nine conference games for the first time since 1994-95. Guards Lia Galdeira and Tia Presley both earned spots on the All-Pac-12 Team, becoming the first pair of Cougar teammates to earn all-conference honors in the same season in program history.

The offense took another step forward in 2013-14, posting the third-highest scoring average in program history and highest in nearly 20 seasons. Presley and Galdeira combined for the highest scoring duo in program history and finished with the second and fourth-most points in WSU single-season history, respectively.

In 2012-13, a pair of guards earned All-Pac-12 honors in Lia Galdeira and Tia Presley with Galdeira finishing the year as the second-leading freshman scorer in the country at 14.8 ppg, tops among all freshmen in the Pac-12. Galdeira led the Cougars in scoring, rebounding, steals and made 3-pointers, setting WSU freshman records for points, scoring average and double-digit scoring efforts.

In 2011-12, the Cougars grab the most rebounds in school history and scored the sixth-most points in a single-season history. The offense has improved each season as the Cougs knocked down 9+ threes in a game six times last season. In 2010-11, WSU set a school record with 208 made 3-pointers and posted their highest scoring average and shooting percentage since 2000-01.

Daugherty joined the WSU staff after coaching 11 years at Washington, serving his first eight years with the Huskies as an assistant until being promoted to associate head coach in September 2004. He began his coaching career at Boise State, where he coached for seven years.

The Huskies ranked first or second in the Pacific-10 Conference in scoring offense in three of Daugherty's final six seasons. In 2003, UW scored a conference-best 75.6 points per game. Three of Daugherty's student-athletes ranked among Washington's top four in both 3-pointers made and 3-pointers attempted.

A 1977 graduate of Ohio State, Daugherty was a starter on the basketball team from 1975-77. In 1976, Daugherty was named Ohio State's Defensive Player of the Year.

Before transferring to Ohio State, Daugherty played the 1973-74 season at Georgia Tech, initially attending as both a guard on the basketball team and a quarterback on the football team.

Following graduation from Ohio State, Daugherty went on to play professionally in the South American Professional Leagues. His Sirio Brazil team won the world championship at the Jones Cup in 1979. Daugherty also averaged as many as 24 points per game for the Hindu Club of Argentina.

Daugherty, who enjoys fly fishing in his spare time, earned his bachelor's degree in marketing from Ohio State. He and June are the parents of twins Doc and Breanne. His father, Doc, played tailback for one season at Ohio State.

Brian
HOLSINGER
Associate Head Coach
8th Year

Brian Holsinger, the Cougars' recruiting and defensive coordinator, enters his eighth season at Washington State University and his first as an associate head coach after being promoted to the position this past summer.

In his seven seasons as recruiting coordinator with the Cougars, Holsinger helped Head Coach June Daugherty assemble nationally-ranked recruiting classes. His 2007-08 class ranked as high as 16th nationally according to Blue Star Basketball and his 2011 class contained a the program's first Parade All-American recruit. The 2012-13 class featured six freshmen from all over the country highlighted by a pair of talented players from Hawaii including three-time state player of the year Lia Galdeira who earned All-Pac-12 honorable mention, All-Defensive Team honorable mention and to the All-Freshmen Team accolades in her first season with the Cougars. The 2014 recruiting class shaped up to be one of the Cougars most accomplished in program history, receiving praise from Blue Star Basketball as one of the top recruiting classes in the country. The seven-member class features four players from overseas including the ninth-ranked international prospect in 6-3 forward Louise Brown, Washington 2A Player of the Year Nike McClure and Oregon 6A All-State selection Ashley Bolston.

This past season, the Cougars produced one of the best campaigns in program history, earning a trip to the WNIT, the program's first postseason appearance since 1991, and post 17 wins, the most since 1995-96. WSU also notched four wins over ranked teams, including one on the road against No. 10 Nebraska and went on to post nine conference games for the first time since 1994-95. Guards Lia Galdeira and Tia Presley both earned spots on the All-Pac-12 Team, becoming the first pair of Cougar teammates to earn all-conference honors in the same season in program history. The Cougars received some national recognition late in the year, receiving votes in the Top-25 USA Today Coaches' Poll following the Pac-12 Tournament, becoming the first WSU team to be mentioned in a poll since the 1990-91 season. Holsinger also guided the Cougar defense to the post the third-most steals in the Pac-12 Conference and tied for the second-most blocks in school history.

The 2012-13 campaign saw the Cougars advanced to the Pac-12 Conference Tournament quarterfinals for the second straight season, beating Arizona State in the opening round before falling to top-seeded Stanford. WSU produced some notable wins while playing one of the toughest schedules in the country, beating No. 20 Ohio State, posting a road victory over regional rival Gonzaga and sweeping the season series with Arizona State. The Cougars, which contained a roster with six freshmen and three sophomores, also posted a four-game winning streak during Pac-12.

The Cougars continued to produce impressive defensive numbers as well, setting the school record for blocks with 114 along with the sixth-most steals in single-season history. Holsinger oversaw the defense that made the fourth-most steals in the Pac-12, led by Galdeira's conference-best 86.

Not just a star on the recruiting trail, Holsinger has helped lead the charge toward a ferocious Cougar defense. In 2009-10, WSU was the only school to place two individuals on the five-member Pacific-10 Conference Media All-Defensive Team. Then-freshman Carly Noyes became the first player in school history to lead the conference in blocks and she went on to cap her career as WSU's all-time leader in blocks, games played and starts. The 2009-10 and 2010-11 Cougar teams produced two of the top block totals in program history, recording 98 in 2009-10 and 100 in 2010-11, the second-best mark in the Cougar single-season record book.

In 2011-12, Holsinger had two players earn Pac-12 All-Defensive Team accolades as the club grabbed the most rebounds in school-history and made the second-most steals in single-season history. The Cougars also finished second in the Pac-12 Conference in three-point defense and in steals.

Holsinger joined the WSU staff after serving as the head coach for Montana Tech from 2005-07. Holsinger was the sixth head women's basketball coach in Montana Tech history, and during his time there the team earned a top-25 ranking in the NAIA for the first time in school history. He also guided his squad to its greatest turnaround, going from three wins in 2005-06 to 16 wins in 2006-07.

Before coaching at Montana Tech, Holsinger served as the head assistant coach at The Master's College in Santa Clarita, Calif., from 1999-2005. During his tenure, the Mustangs posted a record of 132-58 and were a perennial top 10 nationally-ranked team. The squad also made four NAIA national tournament appearances.

Holsinger graduated from Federal Way High in Federal Way, Wash., in 1994. During his college career, he played his freshman season at Pacific from 1994-95, before transferring to Western Washington to complete his bachelor's of science degree in biology.

Brian and his wife, Stacey have two daughters, Brooklyn and Quinn.

Ashley
GROVER
Assistant Coach
3rd Year

Ashley Grover enters her seventh year working on Washington State's women's basketball staff and her third as an assistant coach after spending the previous two seasons as the team's video coordinator and two years prior as a team manager.

Last past season, Grover helped Cougars produce one of the best campaigns in program history, earning a trip to the WNIT, the program's first postseason appearance since 1991, and posted 17 wins, the most since 1995-96. WSU also notched four wins over ranked teams, including a road victory against No. 10 Nebraska and later went on to post nine conference games for the first time since 1994-95. Guards Lia Galdeira and Tia Presley both earned spots on the All-Pac-12 Team, becoming the first pair of Cougar teammates to earn all-conference honors in the same season in program history. The Cougars received some national recognition late in the year, receiving votes in the Top-25 USA Today Coaches' Poll following the Pac-12 Tournament, becoming the first WSU team to be mentioned in a poll since the 1990-91 season.

In Grover's first season on the coaching staff, the Cougars advanced to the Pac-12 Conference Tournament quarterfinals for the second straight season, beating Arizona State in the opening round before falling to top-seeded Stanford. WSU produced some notable wins while playing one of the toughest schedules in the country, beating No. 20 Ohio State, posting a road victory over regional rival Gonzaga and sweeping the season series with Arizona State. The Cougars, which contained a roster with six freshmen and three sophomores, also posted a four-game winning streak during Pac-12 play and finished the year with a program record for blocks in a season with 114.

Grover earned her bachelor's degree in psychology with a focus in sport management from Washington State in 2009 and recently earned her master's degree in sport management from WSU.

Grover attended Mountlake Terrace High School in Brier, Wash. and was a four-year letterwinner in basketball, serving as team captain her junior and senior seasons. She also earned three letters in both volleyball and in track.

Grover and her husband, Trevor, married this past summer.

Kate
WERNER
Coordinator of Operations
8th Year

Returning to her hometown of Pullman, Wash., Kate Werner joined head coach June Daugherty's staff at Washington State and enters her eighth season as coordinator of operations.

Werner oversees team travel, budget preparation, community service activities and student-athlete academic liaison. The Cougars have had multiple student-athletes placed on academic all-conference teams in each of the last six seasons and had two more receive the honor this past season. As a team, the Cougs have been presented two of the past four WSU Seehafer Awards that recognizes the program with the biggest team GPA improvement from the previous two semesters.

The Cougars continued to shine in the classroom, earning national recognition as part of the NCAA's Public Recognition Awards for the 2012-13 academic year. The honor is given to programs whose multi-year Academic Progress Rate (APR) scores are among the top 10 percent of all squads in their respective sports. WSU posted a perfect four-year average score of 1,000, and was one of 43 women's basketball teams honored for its accomplishments. WSU, along with Stanford, were the only two Pac-12 Conference schools recognized.

Werner also serves as the women's basketball program's liaison within the athletic department, coordinating the unique needs and requests with marketing, event management, sports information, compliance, administration, business office and various community groups. The Pullman, Wash. native assists in the recruitment of prospective student-athletes and monitors daily eligibility reports. Werner also serves as the point person to organize, budget and execute precise and detailed travel itineraries for the Cougars, domestically and internationally.

Werner previously served as director of women's basketball operations for University of Washington, joining the staff prior to the 2003-04 season under Daugherty.

Prior to her work at UW, Werner served as the assistant coach for the Whitworth University women's basketball and softball teams from 2000-03. During her tenure with the women's basketball program, the Pirates posted an overall record of 48-28 and 34-14 in conference play and won the 2003 Northwest Conference Championship.

Werner graduated from Whitworth with a bachelor's degree in business management in 1999. While on staff, she earned a master's degree in education with an emphasis in guidance and counseling in 2003.

Werner was a four-year letterwinner for the Pirates, setting the single-season record for 3-point percentage as a senior, making 31-of-66 attempts. Werner also served as a team captain for a squad that finished 17-8. Werner also played two seasons of softball for the Pirates.

While attending Pullman High School, Werner was a three-year letterwinner in basketball, volleyball and softball, earning All-Frontier League honors as a senior in volleyball and basketball.

Werner is the daughter of Pullman residents Mike and Vivian Werner. Her father Mike played basketball for the Cougars, lettering in 1964 and 1966-67 under coach Marv Harshman.

BOLD DENOTES CURRENT PLAYER

DOROTHEA COLEMAN (1990)

During her tenure at Washington State University from 1948 until her retirement in 1975, Dorothea Coleman was one of the most respected advocates for girls' and women's sports in the nation. The West Virginia native grew up in Illinois, graduated from the University of Iowa in 1941 and later earned a Master's from the University of Oregon and a doctorate from Southern Cal. She was, throughout her career, an advocate of expanded opportunities in sports for women. This posture came long before the more modern Title IX emphasis. She was active in the Northwest College Women's Sports Association, founded in the 1960s, an organization that provided sports competition for women on a regional basis before any comparable organization existed. Coleman was an early leader in rule changes regarding women's sports and was also very active in many non-sports related organizations at WSU, including the University Senate and Academic Standards committee. From her arrival at WSU until 1962 she was the only coach for all women's intercollegiate team sports. Her field hockey, volleyball and basketball teams were very successful during those years. With other coaches joining the staff and taking over field hockey and volleyball in 1962, "Dort" continued her success in basketball, finishing off a distinguished coaching career by winning the NCWSA title in 1971. She started her teaching and coaching career in the public school system of Normal, Illinois, in 1930. During World War II, she was the highest ranking WAC in the European theatre. During her four-year military stint, she achieved the rank of Lt. Col. in the WAAC-WAC and spent 22 months in several European, North African and Mediterranean theatres. Now residing in Payson, Arizona, Dorothea Coleman is unable to be with us tonight. Accepting on her behalf is long-time WSU colleague Marilyn Mowatt.

JEANNE EGGART (1988)

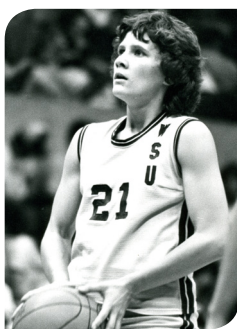

The most prolific scorer in Cougar basketball history, Jeanne Eggart was a standout in both basketball and track during her career at WSU, 1977-82. She scored 1,967 points during her four-year career, more than any Cougar before or since, male or female. The former Walla Walla High All-American set the WSU javelin record as a sophomore and the mark still stands, the oldest record on the books. After pacing WSU in just about every statistical category during her freshman and sophomore basketball seasons, Eggart took a year off from hoops and turned her attention to track in an attempt to make the USA Olympic Team. Her efforts almost paid off when she finished fourth at the 1980 Olympic Trials, missing third place on the team on the last throw of competition. One of WSU's most dominant basketball Athletes of all time, she was an All-Northwest Basketball League pick four times and three times was selected to the Kodak Region IX all-star team. She was an all-academic pick boasting a 3.4 grade point average and was three times named the Inland Empire's Female Athlete of the Year. The former Clarkston High coach is now girls' basketball and track coach at Mead High in Spokane. Married to Mike Helfer.

JENNIFER GRAY (2011)

A native of Puyallup, Wash., Jennifer Gray earned four varsity letters with Cougars and still stands as one of the greatest rebounders in school history. Her 22 rebounds against Western Washington and Boise State, both in 1975, still stand at the top of the WSU single-game leader chart, as she holds the single-season rebounding records with 294 rebounds and 14.7 rebounds per game during her senior season. She holds the school record with a career mark of 9.6 rebounds per game and ranks 22nd in the WSU career record books with 822 points and eighth with a .480 field goal percentage, which at the time was a school record. She also ranks sixth with a career average of 13.3 points per game, also a school record at the time. During her freshman season, the Cougars went on to compete in the Association of Intercollegiate Athletics for Women (AIAW) Championships, the first national basketball championship held for women. As both a junior and senior, Gray led her Cougar teams to second place in the NCWSA, notching a 9-2 mark in 1973-74 and a 10-4 league mark in 1974-75.

KATIE GRAY (2011)

One of Washington State's best all-around athletes of the 1970s, Katie Gray earned four letters in basketball, excelled in track as a jumper and played volleyball and tennis. Gray finished her career with 207 steals, then the second-best mark in school history, while it now ranks tied for fifth. She scored 587 points, averaging 7.6 per game, while grabbing 2.7 steals per game over her four-year career with the women's basketball team. As a senior in 1976-77, Gray averaged 9.3 points per game, shooting at a .594 clip (92-for-238). That season she grabbed 86 steals, eighth-best in a single-season by a Cougar. As a senior, she scored in double-figures 10 times, including a career best 21 points against Alaska-Fairbanks. In her first two seasons, the Cougars were a combined 25-10 and placed second in the NCWSA in each of the respective years.

JENNI RUFF (2012)

Jenni Ruff earned four varsity letters (1992-96) with the Cougars and finished her career with her name sprinkled throughout the WSU record book. The Mossyrock, Wash. native averaged in double-figures her final three seasons and led the team in scoring her junior and seniors seasons while helping the Cougars post 16 and 17 win campaigns, respectively. Ruff capped her career with arguably the best season in Cougar women's basketball history, posting WSU single-season records of 685 points, nineteen 20-plus scoring efforts including seven 30-plus scoring performances and a 23.6 ppg scoring average while starting all 29 games as a senior. Ruff also set single-season records with 203 made free throws made and set the single-game scoring record with 41 points against California. To go along with scoring, Ruff also led the Cougars in rebounding at 8.8 rpg and added 70 steals and 90 assists and averaged 25.6 ppg in Pac-10 games. Following her senior campaign, Ruff was named Honorable Mention All-America by the Associated Press, All-District VIII by the WBCA and First Team All-Pac-10 Conference. Ruff finished her career second in scoring with 1,526 points, second in free throws made and attempted (400-560), third in scoring average (14.0 ppg), tied for third in assists (381), fifth in rebounding (727) and fifth in career starts (96) while playing 109 games. She is one of two players (Jeanne Eggart) to record over 1,000 points, 600 rebounds and 300 assists.

LAURIE TURNER (2011)

In Washington State University Hall of Famer Richard Fry's book, The Crimson and the Gray, Laurie Turner was nicknamed the "Too Tall Guard" as at 5-11 she rose above her competitors in many ways. Her senior year, 1979, was her finest as she scored 13.7 points and grabbed 6.0 rebounds, while recording 57 assists and 57 steals. That same season she scored a then-WSU record 29 points against Seattle University and later was named to the All-Northwest Basketball League second team and to the National Scouting Association AIAW Region IX All-America team. After her playing career was over at WSU, she and Harold Rhodes (later a WSU head coach) were assistants to head coach Sue Durrant before Turner was named head coach at Eastern Oregon State College. At Eastern Oregon Turner added head volleyball coaching duties and later became the athletic director, the start of her career in athletic administration. In 1986 she was named the head basketball coach at the University of Idaho and currently serves as the athletic director at Pacific Lutheran University.

JOANN WASHAM (1982)

JoAnn Washam is the first Washington State University student to have participated in national championships in two sports as a Cougar. She played in the collegiate golf championship in 1971, and in 1972 was a member of the Cougar women's team in the AIAW basketball nationals. Since then, she has been one of the leading money-winners on the Ladies' Professional Golf Association tour, finishing ninth in the final standings in 1980 with winnings of $107,063 and recording an outstanding 73.01 scoring average for 28 tour events. JoAnn began her golfing at the age of 8 and won her hometown club championship in Auburn at the age of 13.
