WSU Opens Season at Weinman Foundation Invit.

Thurs. - Sat., Jan. 4-6 – Honolulu, Hawaii

THIS WEEK: The Cougars travel to Honolulu, Hawaii to compete in the Weinman Foundation Invitational, hosted by the University of Hawaii,Jan. 4-6. Play will begin Thursday at 2 p.m. PT and will consist of doubles first, then singles. The format will be an individual event, with no team scores kept. The Cougars will have seven players competing in the tournament: senior Barbora Michalkova, juniors Aneta Miksovska and Tiffany Mylonas, sophomores Melisa Ates, Guzal Yusupova, and Ege Tomey, and freshmen Michaela Bayerlova.

WEINMAN FOUNDATION INVITATIONAL FIELD: Joining WSU in the Weinman Foundation Invitational will be host Hawaii along with Cal State Northridge.

UP NEXT: The Cougars return to Pullman to open the dual match portion of its spring schedule by hosting Idaho and Montana State in a pair of match, Jan. 20 at Hollingbery Fieldhouse.

LAST TIME OUT: The Cougars concluded their fall season last October by competing in the Wildcat Fall Invitational, hosted by the University of Arizona. WSU dominated the event with Michaela Bayerlova, Guzal Yusupova and Tiffany Mylonas sharing co-titles for the A Flight, and Barbora Michalkova and Aneta Miksovska claiming co-titles in the B Flight. In doubles play, Bayerlova and Yusupova swept all three doubles matches for the A title while Mylonas and Miksovska did the same in the B flight.

BAYERLOVA CAPTURES TITLE AT ITF CHARLESTON: Freshman Michaela Bayerlova gained her second career title at the ITF Charleston Tournament last October. Seeded No. 5, she defeated No. 1 seed Montserrat Gonzalez in the championship match, 2-6, 6-3, 6-3. Gonzalez entered the tournament with a singles world ranking of 438. Bayerlova ended 2017 with a world ranking of 635, after reaching her career-best of 583 in July.

COUGARS IN ITA RANKINGS: Bayerlova was ranked No. 3 among freshmen/newcomers in the Intercollegiate Tennis Association's preseason rankings and junior Tiffany Mylonas was ranked No. 109 in the November ITA singles poll. Bayerlova is the first Cougar to be ranked in the freshman/newcomer poll since the ranking began in the fall of 2010.

ROSTER BREAKDOWN: For the 2017-18 season, the Cougars will have two new players to accompany the five returners. The returning roster consists of senior Barbora Michalkova, junior Aneta Miksovska, and sophomores Melisa Ates and Ege Tomey and Guzal Yusupova. The returning players will be joined by junior Tiffany Mylonas and freshman Michaela Bayerlova.

COACH HART: Lisa Hart is entering her 15th season as the head coach at Washington State. Hart has accumulated 181 wins over her tenure, finishing the last season with a 10-16 record.
