SERIES HISTORY

- The Cougs finally return home to Beasley Coliseum for the first time in over a month as WSU hosts #7 UCLA in the first of two at home against the Pac-12's SoCal schools.
- The Bruins were the preseason favorites to win the Pac-12 and come into the week the highest ranked team in the conference at #7 in the coaches' poll, their highest ranking since 1999. They took down previously unbeaten Utah to start conference play on Friday and have just two losses on the year, both to teams in the top-6.
- All-time, the Bruins hold a 52-7 advantage over the Cougars and have won the last six contests. WSU last won on March 1, 2012 at home in Beasley, taking the game, 76-65.

LAST TIME OUT

- Dominating for 40 minutes on the road, the Washington State women's basketball team kicked off the new calendar year with an impressive 75-59 win over Oregon in Eugene.
- Closing out a month on the road, the Cougs saw all of their work come to fruition as WSU came up with one of their most complete and well-balanced efforts of the season. In the victory the Cougars saw four players score in double-figures led by a career-effort out of their freshman point, Chanelle Molina, who scored 20 points for the first time.
- Not to be outdone, sophomore Alexys Swedlund poured in 16 points for the Cougs while hitting 3-of-7 from deep. Junior Caila Hailey came up with her own career-effort with 12 points while working as the Cougars' defensive catalyst that held Oregon to a season-low 59 points and forced the Ducks into 21 turnovers. Rounding out the scoring, senior Ivana Kmetovska finished her afternoon with 10 points to record her third-straight double-digit game to begin Pac-12 play.

UP NEXT
- The Cougs host a USC team that is receiving votes in the top-25 and enters the week at 10-3. They split their opening weekend of Pac-12 play, beating previously undefeated Colorado before letting one slip away at Utah.
- The Trojans were picked to finish one spot ahead of the Cougars in the preseason poll.
- USC has three players averaging 10+ ppg led by Kristen Simon who is averaging a double-double with 15.5 ppg and 10.2 rpg. As a team, the Trojans are averaging 75.8 ppg while shooting 46.1% from the floor.

MOLINA NAMED PAC-12 FRESHMAN OF THE WEEK
- For the first time in her young career, freshman Chanelle Molina was named the Pac-12 Freshman of the Week, the conference announced Monday, Jan. 2.
- Molina led the Cougars throughout the weekend as she guided Washington State to its first Pac-12 win of the year, while starting conference play with three-straight on the road.
- She averaged 14.0 points per game throughout the week, culminating in her first-ever 20-point effort in the win over the Ducks in Eugene. She finished the weekend shooting .444 from the floor and .333 from deep while also leading the team in assists.

FLYIN' HAWAIIANS
- The future looks bright for the Cougs thanks to a young core of players, none better than the pair of freshmen guards from the islands of Hawaii. The Cougs freshmen tandem of Chanelle Molina and Cameron Fernandez have proven themselves against some of the best and are poised to break out even further.
- Molina has established herself as the leader of the offense at point and is averaging 11.1 ppg while shooting just under 50.0% from the floor. The young point has started all 14 games for the Cougs.
- Fernandez, after looking to potentially redshirt, was pressed into service at Gonzaga and in six games has looked like a veteran. Against #9 Washington, Fernandez scored a team-best 11 points, following up an eight point game at #18 Kentucky. She is averaging 5.3 ppg.

INJURY BUG HITTING THE COUGS HARD
- After a strong start to the season saw the Cougs at 5-2, the injury bug hit the team hard with the losses of the team's top two scorers, sophomore Borislava Hristova, and junior Louise Brown.
- Prior to injury, Hristova was off to a hot start averaging 14.7 ppg, 11th best in the Pac-12 and had just produced a 25-point effort against #5 Maryland.
- In her third season, Brown had just found her groove as the junior was averaging just under a double-double with 10.3 ppg and 6.9 rpg. She had just scored a career-best 16 against Nebraska before going down injured.
- Both top players are listed as day-to-day for the Cougs. Hristova has missed the last 5.5 games while Brown has sat out 7.

FORCING THE OPPOSITION INTO MISTAKES
- In their second year under defensive guru Rod Jensen, the Cougs have found their groove as one of the nation's top teams in forcing the opposition into mistakes.
- On the year, the Cougs are ranked #37 in the nation in forcing turnovers at 20.5 per game. They have done their work in the passing lanes as WSU ranks #28 in the nation in steals and average 10.9 per game.
- Junior Caila Hailey is the catalyst as she ranks #72 among all Division I players and averaged 2.2 spg.
- Thanks to the turnovers, the Cougs have turned it into 300 points as they average 21.4 points per game off of turnovers.

MOLINA FIRMLY IN CONTROL OF THE REINS
- Just 14 games into her freshman season Chanelle Molina has established herself as the leader of the Cougars' attack. The young point guard has started all 14 games and played 25.0 minutes per game.
- At the helm, Molina is averaging a team-best 3.6 assists per game (51 total).
- She has scored 11.4 ppg and has nine-straight double-digit efforts. She has led the team in scoring in 5 of the last seven contests and has one 20-point effort to her name.
- Molina is shooting 49.2% (62-of-126) on the season. From deep, Molina has been dangerous hitting 17-of-42 for a .405 clip.

ITS RAINING THREES
- Opening the season in front of 2,078 fans, the Cougars put on a show draining 13 three-pointers in their 92-45 victory over LMU. The 13 threes were tied for the second-most in WSU single-game history game. Five different Cougs hit two in the win.
- The Cougs would repeat the feat at Saint Louis with 13 on 24 attempts
- Swedlund leads the team with 29 on the year after burying a career-best 6 at Kentucky, the Cougs have hit 102 on the year, tied for 2nd in the Pac-12.

CLEANING UP THE GLASS
- Setting a school record on the boards to start the season, WSU came up with 64 rebounds in its win over LMU. The Cougars held a 64-36 advantage on the glass in the contest.
- Keeping the play alive, the Cougars came up with a cool 28 offensive rebounds that resulted in 27 second chance points.
- WSU is #68 in the nation in rebounds per game (41.8) led by Louise Brown at 6.9 rpg.
- The Cougs are #30 in the nation and second in the Pac-12 in offensive rebounding posting 15.6 rpg on the year. Redshirt-sophomore Nike McClure is a big part as she is eighth in the league at 2.9 offensive boards per game.

SWEDLUND MAKING A RUN AT A DEEP RECORD
- In her second season of action, sophomore Alexys Swedlund is making a run at the Cougs' all-time 3-pt accuracy record as she enters the game shooting .439 from deep.
- Currently, Swedlund's sharp-shooting would rank second all-time in program single season records trailing only Joanna Smith's 1997-98 season when she shot .464 (39-of-84).
- Additionally, Swedlund has hit 29 threes on the year, averaging 2.07 per game. With at least 16 games remainging, Swedlund is on pace to hit 62 on the season which would tie for 3rd in single-season program history.

COUGARS CONTINUING THEIR BLOCK PARTY FROM LAST SEASON
- The Cougars broke the WSU single-season record with 120 total blocks during the 2015-16 season.
- WSU averaged 4.0 blocks per game led by redshirt-freshman Nike McClure and true freshman Maria Kostourkova. The freshmen duo headlined the Cougar frontline with 25 and 23 blocks, respectively, fourth- and fifth-most in WSU freshman history.
- WSU enters the game with 57 blocks on the year and are averaging 4.1 bpg, just above their average from last season.
- Kostourkova leads the team with 18 while McClure is hot on her heels with 15.

DOUBLE-DOUBLES ON THE YEAR
- In 14 contests on the year the Cougars have produced three double-doubles.
- Kicking off the year with a bang, sophomore Alexys Swedlund produced her first career double-double against LMU last week by scoring 14 points and grabbing 12 rebounds. She did a bulk of her work at the line where she went a perfect 6-for-6.
- Two days later, junior Caila Hailey followed suit with her own career first, tallying 11 points and 11 rebounds in the Cougars win over Saint Mary's. The junior guard went 5-for-10 from the floor and cleaned up the offensive glass grabbing a whopping 8 offensive boards.
- Junior Louise Brown came up with her first of the year and second career double-double against Oklahoma State as she posted 11 points and grabbed a career-best 16 rebounds.

YOUTH PREVAILS FOR THE COUGARS
- One of the younger teams in the nation the Cougars sport a roster that features 10 underclassmen including five sophomores and five freshmen while boasting just one senior.
- As was the case last season, the young Cougars are led statistically by Borislava Hristova who is averaging 14.7 ppg on the season after earning All-Pac-12 Freshman Honors a season ago.
- Sophomore Alexys Swedlund leads the team with 29 three-pointers on the year and is averaging a hair under 10 ppg at 9.7.
- Newcomers Kayla Washington, Chanelle Molina, and most recently Cameron Fernandez have proven themselves early for the Cougars as Washington is averaging 5.1 ppg and 3.6 rpg in just 12.3 minutes per contest while Molina has come up with 11.1 ppg after posting nine-straight 10+ pt efforts. Fernandez, in just sixgames, is averaging 5.3 ppg after an 11-point effort at #9 Washington to open Pac-12 play.

NOT SO FAST YOUNG GUNS
- Not to be outdone by the young Cougars who are raring to run, the veteran core continues to be a rock from which the team looks to build.
- Guard Caila Hailey came up with her first career double-double against Saint Mary's in the victory as the Inglewood native posted 11 points and 11 rebounds, eight of which came on the offensive glass. She is 13th in the Pac-12 in offensive rebounding at 2.4 per game.
- Guard Pinelopi Pavlopoulou came up with a carer-best 15 points versus San Diego and has averaged 2.6 assists per game while also showing off her defensive skills with 1.7 steals per contest.
- Junior big Louise Brown averaged 10.4 ppg while grabbing 6.9 rpg before injury while senior Ivana Kmetovska has found her groove in Pac-12 play and has bumped her scoring average to 7.7 ppg.

COUGARS' DEPTH BEING TESTED
- Last season, nine Cougar players appeared in all 30 games during the season, and nine players averaged over 10 minutes per game. WSU's bench players outscored the opponent's bench 24 times last season and the Cougar reserves outscored opponent reserves by an average of 12.1 points per game.
- In 14 games this season, 13 players have seen action with the reserves being forced into more action do to injuries to the starting lineup.
- 11 Cougs are averaging at least 12.3 minutes per game. The bench has scored 372 points on the year and has outscored the opposition in 11 games while playing even in two more.

COUGARS SIGN TWO STANDOUTS TO NLI
Washington State signed guard Celena Molina and center Taryn Shelley to National Letters of Intent. Molina, a 5-10 guard out of Konawaena High School in Kailua-Kona, Hawaii, is the younger sister of current Cougar freshman guard Chanelle. Entering her senior season, Molina is a two-time All-State Fab 15 selection by the Honloulu Star Advertiser and a three-time All-Big Island Interscholastic Federation selection while helping KHS to state titles the past two seasons. Shelley, a 6-3 center out of Shorewood High School in Shorewood, Wash., is a two-time All-Wesco selection and is rated a 3.5 star prospect according to Prospectnation.com. Shelley is coming off an impressive junior campaign where she earned All-Wesco first team honors after leading the team with 13.8 ppg and 7.6 rpg in league play. Shelley averaged 16.3 ppg and 20 rpg during district play last season including a 32-point effort.

June
DAUGHERTY
Head Coach
10th Year

Washington State University Head Coach June Daugherty enters her 10th season with the Cougars, having led the charge toward a new era in WSU women's basketball. Just as she had done at each of her two previous stops, Daugherty, who has coached more than 800 career games, has begun turning around the WSU women's program, leading the Cougars to two-consecutive WNIT appearances in 2014 and 2015, bringing in top-ranked recruiting classes, improving attendance numbers and overseeing student-athletes who place premiums on academics and community service.

In her ninth season at the helm of the Cougars, Daugherty guided a youthful team to the school's best start since the 1989-90 season. WSU went 9-2 in nonconference play before entering Pac-12 play and the toughest RPI conference in the country. Under Daugherty's leadership, freshman Borislava Hristova earned All-Pac-12 and Pac-12 All-Freshman Team honors, breaking WSU freshman records in 20-point games, total points, scoring average, field goals made, and free throw percentage. The Cougars finished the season with a 14-16 record and a 5-13 record in Pac-12 play, finishing ninth with season sweeps of Colorado and Arizona. Daugherty also oversaw the defensive success of WSU's frontline, which tallied a school-record 120 total blocks. The Cougars picked up a top-25 win over No. 25 USC with a decisive 73-61 victory.

Off the court, the Cougars continued to shine in the classroom with four Pac-12 All-Academic honorable mentions in 2015-16. WSU earned national recognition as part of the NCAA's Public Recognition Awards for the 2013-14 academic year. WSU earned the honor for the second-straight season with a multi-year Academic Progress Rate (APR) score among the top 10 percent of all squads in the country. WSU posted a perfect four-year average score of 1,000 in 2014-15, and was one of 43 women's basketball teams honored for its accomplishments. WSU, along with Stanford, were the only two Pac-12 Conference schools recognized.

Under Daugherty, Washington State has reached the Pac-12 Conference Tournament semifinals two times, 27 student-athletes earned all-academic honors in the last eight years, and five players signed professional contracts to play overseas in the last four summers including Lia Galdeira who was selected No. 19 overall by the Washington Mystics in the 2016 WNBA Draft, the first player drafted in program history.

During the 2014-15 campaign, Daugherty hit a personal milestone, earning her 400th career win as the Cougars defeated Utah Feb. 15. Daugherty continued to build on the success of the previous season, as WSU earned a second-consecutive postseason berth for the first time in school history. The WSU women's basketball program earned national recognition, recording one of the biggest wins in program history with a 70-64 victory over No. 10/8 Maryland, an eventual No. 1 seed and Final Four participant, in Puerto Rico, November 29.

During the 2013-14 season, Daugherty led the Cougars to one of the best campaigns in program history, earning a trip to the WNIT, the program's first postseason appearance since 1991, and posted 17 wins, the most since 1995-96. WSU also notched four wins over ranked teams, including one on the road against No. 10 Nebraska and went on to post nine conference wins for the first time since 1994-95. Guards Lia Galdeira and Tia Presley both earned spots on the All-Pac-12 Team, becoming the first pair of Cougar teammates to earn all-conference honors in the same season in program history. The Cougars received some national recognition late in the year, receiving votes in the Top-25 USA Today Coaches' Poll following their Pac-12 Tournament run, becoming the first WSU team to be mentioned in a poll since the 1990-91 season.

In 2012-13, Daugherty led a team that featured six freshmen and three sophomores to the Pac-12 Conference Tournament quarterfinals for the second straight season, beating Arizona State in the opening round before falling to top-seeded Stanford. The Cougars improved three spots in the conference standings from a season ago, finishing eighth. WSU produced some notable wins while playing one of the toughest schedules in the country, beating No. 20 Ohio State, posting a road victory over regional rival Gonzaga and sweeping the season series with Arizona State. The Cougars finished the year with a program record for blocks in a season with 114.

Also under Daugherty's guidance in 2012-13, the Cougars backcourt received recognition from the conference as Lia Galdeira, the second-leading freshman scorer in the country and three-time Pac-12 Freshman of the Week winner, earned a number of All-Pac-12 accolades as a freshman after pacing the Cougars in scoring, rebounding, steals and minutes. Sophomore point guard Tia Presley also earned all-conference honors despite being limited to seven conference games due to injury. Daugherty also saw center Carly Noyes cap off her impressive career by becoming the school's all-time leader in blocked shots, games played and career starts.

The 2011-12 campaign saw Daugherty lead the Cougars to one of the most successful seasons in program history while playing one of the toughest schedules in the country (No. 27). WSU posted the most wins since 1995-96, recording 13 overall victories and the second double-digit win season under Daugherty while improving their final RPI by 50 spots from the season prior. The Cougars saved its best for last, beating UCLA the final weekend of the regular season before posting the program's inaugural wins at the conference tournament. WSU knocked off Oregon State and USC in the first two rounds to advance to the nationally-televised semifinal against California held at the Staples Center in Los Angeles.

Additionally, Daugherty led the Cougs to the program's inaugural win over a Big Ten Conference opponent (Wisconsin) and the first win over a Big East Conference opponent (Marquette) in over 20 years. Daugherty's team followed nonconference play by winning its first three games of Pac-12 play for the first time since 1977-78. The 2011-12 Cougars made their mark on the record book as well, posting the most rebounds, the sixth-most points, fourth-most threes, fifth-most assists and second-most assists in WSU single-season history. 2011-12 also saw Daugherty's first WSU recruiting class cap their impressive careers as a pair of 1,000-point scorers exited along with a three-time academic all-conference selection in addition to the three players who received invites to the WNBA combine. Headlining the group was guard Jazmine Perkins who finished her career as a three-time all-conference selection and WSU's all-time leader in games played and the first player in school-history, male or female, with 1,200+ points, 700+ rebounds and 250+ steals.

2010-11 saw the Cougars take another step forward under Daugherty's guidance while playing the No. 27 toughest schedule in the country. WSU posted the most conference wins, the highest scoring average and highest shooting percentage since 2000-01. The Cougars posted their highest finish since the 1997-98, tying for seventh after posting season sweeps over California and Oregon State and beating Oregon and Oregon State on the same weekend to record their first weekend sweep in conference play since 2001.

Daugherty's players have received quite a bit of postseason attention since her arrival on the Palouse. In her first season guard Katie Appleton garnered her first-career all-conference honor after being named All-Pac-10 honorable mention. Guard Kezia Kelly was named Freshman All-Pac-10 honorable mention. April Cook and Jazmine Perkins took home a slew of honors following the 2008-09 season, earning mention on the All-Pac-10 Team and the Pac-10 All-Freshman Team. Perkins was also named to the Pac-10 All-Defensive Team. In 2009-10, Cook garnered her second-straight honorable mention all-conference honor, and freshmen Carly Noyes and KiKi Moore combined for a number of accolades. Daugherty continued to produce all-conference selections last season as Perkins and Sage Romberg garnered All-Pac-10 honorable mention honors while Romberg was placed on the Pac-10 All-Freshmen team and Ireti Amojo received All-Pac-10 All-Freshmen honorable mention. It marked the third consecutive season that Daugherty had at least one freshman garner all-conference recognition.

Dating back to her years at Washington, Daugherty has placed at least one individual on the All-Pac-10/12 team each year since 1997. A pair of Cougs received All-Pac-12 accolades in 2011-12 as Perkins received all-Pac-12 honorable mention while both Perkins and Carly Noyes earned all-defensive team honorable mention. In 2012-13, Galdeira and Presley received all-conference honorable mention with Galdeira also earning a spot on the all-defensive and all-freshmen teams. This past season, Galdeira and Presley both earned spots on the All-Pac-12 Team, becoming the first pair of Cougar teammates to earn all-conference honors in the same season in program history.

Daugherty, whose career record stands at 387-360 (.518), has more than 20 years of experience working with WNBA-caliber talent. She began her head coaching career at Boise State, where she coached for seven years (1989-96) and compiled a record of 123-74 (73-31 Big Sky Conference). Under her watch, the Broncos not only made the NCAA Tournament for the first time in school history, but achieved their first national ranking and won their first regular season conference title. In 1992, the Broncos won the Big Sky regular season championship, and in 1994 they shared the conference crown with Montana and earned an at-large bid to the NCAA tournament. At the conclusion of the 1993-94 season, Daugherty was named Big Sky Co-Coach of the Year.

After turning things around at Boise State, Daugherty continued her success at Washington, where she coached for 11 seasons. After finishing ninth in the Pac-10 in 2000, Daugherty led the Huskies to their first conference title since 1990, the greatest turnaround in conference history. She led Washington to nine postseason appearances in 11 seasons - six NCAA Tournament appearances and three WNIT appearances - and led the Huskies all the way to the NCAA Women's Basketball Championship Elite Eight in 2001.

Daugherty helped a number of players earn individual honors at Washington, with Giuliana Mendiola becoming the school's first Pac-10 Player of the Year, and four players earning District VIII All-America honors. Home attendance soared under Daugherty's watch at both Boise State and Washington. The Broncos averaged 500 fans per game before Daugherty's arrival. During her tenure, more than 2,000 fans were coming to watch every game, placing Boise State in the nation's top 30 for home attendance in each of her seven seasons. Washington led the Pac-10 in home attendance in both 2002-03 and 2003-04. The team chemistry formed on the basketball court is a direct result of creating a family atmosphere with Daugherty's staff and players. Daugherty creates a home away from home for her basketball family, consisting of coaches, players and support staff. This environment culminated in 16 players combining for 49 selections to the Pac-10 All-Academic Team at Washington, and 30 student-athletes on the Big Sky Conference All-Academic Team at Boise State. In her six seasons at WSU, ten players have combined for 21 All-Academic selections.

Daugherty's basketball family is involved not only in providing everything necessary to achieve academic excellence, but also the means to becoming involved in community service. Daugherty leads by example, speaking at meetings for the Chamber of Commerce, the Kiwanis and for many women's groups. A major advocate for healthy heart awareness, Daugherty was named the Sudden Cardiac Arrest Association's National Coach of the Year in 2008. Since becoming a survivor of sudden cardiac arrest Daugherty has become one of the nation's most visible spokesmen, filming a nationally-aired commercial, speaking at fund-raisers for the Hope Heart Institute and the American Red Cross and helping WSU sponsor the inaugural "Cougs Have Heart" basketball game to raise awareness for heart disease.

Daugherty is a member of the Women's Basketball Coaches' Association and is a former member of its Board of Directors. She is also a member of both the State Farm Coaches' All-America Team and the Russell Athletic/WBCA Coach of the Year selection committees and is currently serving on the WBCA Ethics Board, the WBCA All-America selection committee for Region 8 and is the captain of the Pac-12 coaches committee. Daugherty often serves as a clinician for the NCAA YES Clinic at the Final Four, and she has been active in USA Basketball and was an assistant coach for the West Team at the 1995 Olympic Sports Festival.

Daugherty also places high priority on keeping the top local high school talent at home in the Northwest. In her first season with the Cougars, Washington's 3A State Player of the Year Katie Grad (Auburn-Riverside) and Shadle Park's all-time leading scorer Lexie Pettersen (Spokane) were each a part of her nationally-ranked recruiting class. Her second recruiting class featured Carly Noyes of Moses Lake, Wash., a three-time conference player of the year at Moses Lake HS. Her 2010 class, two-time Evergreen Conference Most Valuable Player and 2009-10 Seattle Times All-State (all-classifications) honoree Brandi Thomas, of Elma, Wash., went Crimson. This season, Daugherty welcomes Wyoming's two-time Gatorade Player of the Year in Jordan Kelley (Gillette, Wyo.), one of the top-rated low post players out of Canada in 6-3 Shalie Dheensaw (Victoria, B.C.) who has started for the Canadian U17 National Team and speedy three-time all-state selection out of Spokane's Gonzaga Prep Tia Presley (Spokane, Wash.). The 2012 recruiting class featured six players from all over the country including Lia Galderia who was named Hawaii Player of the Year three times.

Several of Daugherty's athletes have gone on to coaching careers at both the high school and collegiate level, including Lisa Fisher, an associate head coach with the Cougars in 2006.

Daugherty served as an assistant coach at Stanford under head coach Tara Vanderveer prior to taking over the Boise State program. She helped guide the Cardinal to one of the finest seasons in school history, finishing the 1989 season with a record of 28-3, an undefeated Pac-10 season and a trip to the NCAA Tournament. Daugherty also had a two-year stint on the Kent State staff as an assistant coach from 1983-85.

Daugherty played collegiate basketball at Ohio State from 1974-78, where she led the Buckeyes to the Big Ten Championship in 1977 and 1978. She is still ranked amongst the school's top 25 in career scoring with 1,137 points. She also ranks fifth in career rebounds (829), is tied for 17th in career field goals made (500) and shares the single-game school record for blocked shots (12 against Michigan State in 1976). At the conclusion of her senior season, she earned first-team All-America honors and was a Wade Trophy finalist the first year the award was presented.

Just prior to the start of the 2001 season, The Ohio State University honored Daugherty with an induction into the OSU Athletic Hall of Fame. Daugherty will be inducted into the Westerville High School in December, 2011.

Following graduation in 1978, Daugherty contributed as both a player and coach on several international teams, including a period as a player and coach for the Union Sportive Vierzon Club based in France.

Daugherty, a native of Columbus, Ohio, is the daughter of Naomi and Jim Brewer and has two brothers, Mark and Neil Brewer, and one sister, Ruth Williams. She and her husband Mike are the parents of twins Doc and Breanne.
