Collegiate Head Coach

- > FOUR AVCA Regional Coach of the Year Awards

Jen Greeny is in her sixth season at the helm of the Washington State University volleyball program with six returning starters including All-Pac-12 team selection Kyra Holt and Pac-12 All-Freshman team honoree McKenna Woodford.

Greeny and her staff have tirelessly worked to return the Cougars volleyball program to the national prominence it received when Greeny was a player and an assistant coach.

The Cougars compete in the country's strongest volleyball conference, the Pac-12 Conference, where for the last 16 consecutive seasons the conference has had six or more teams compete in the NCAA Championship tournament including the record of 10 teams in 2014. In five years, Greeny's WSU teams have posted a 51-8 non-conference record and have produced the best two-season win totals in the last 13 years of the program with 16 in 2015 and 18 in 2013. She has also changed the academic culture of the program with nine semesters of a team grade point average of 3.0 or better.

Tough competition has brought out great performances by Cougar players. In 2015, there were 16 player records written into the WSU Single Season Top Ten, Career Top Ten and the Match Top Five lists. Kate Sommer, the first recruit signed by Greeny, claimed the school digs record with 1,954 digs. Holt enters her senior season with 1,293 career kills and 91 aces. Holt, the 2013 AVCA Pacific North Region Freshman of the Year as well as an All-Pac-12 Honorable Mention and Pac-12 All-Freshman First Team selection, was a member of the 2016 summer Pac-12 All-Star squad that competed in China. Woodford and Casey Schoenlein played, and Greeny was an assistant coach, on the 2016 USA Volleyball's U.S. Collegiate National Team - Europe Tour that won the 12th Annual Global Challenge tournament in Croatia. Tani Stephens, a senior defensive specialist, found great success in summer sand volleyball tournaments including playing in the AVP Seattle Open. Stephens plans to pursue her graduate degree and play collegiate beach volleyball next spring.

Greeny became the 12th coach in the history of the WSU volleyball program in March 2011. She has compiled a five-year record of 69-92 at WSU and has a nine-year career record of 181-116. As a player, she became the seventh player in WSU history with 1,000 career kills. A three-time All-Pacific-10 selection, Greeny's statistics are still prominent in WSU's all-time career lists ranking fourth in block assists (360) and in total blocks (419), and sixth in solo blocks (59). She trained with the 1997 U.S. National volleyball team. She was WSU's Athlete of the Year in 1998-99, a CoSIDA District VIII Academic All-America first-team and second-team selection her final two years and was a Pac-10 Volleyball All-Academic selection three times. She received her bachelor's degree in education from WSU in 1999.

Under Greeny's mentoring in 2011, Megan Ganzer became the fourth All-America player in WSU history, the first since 1996. Greeny, and her assistant coach Burdette Greeny, have coached eight All-Americans and several players who have had successful professional careers including Ganzer (Puerto Rico, Romania, and Germany), Camryn Irwin (Austria and Sweden), Chelsie Bettinson (Sweden) and Anile Clemente, a three-time All-American at Lewis-Clark State (Denmark).

As the head volleyball coach at Lewis-Clark State College (Lewiston, Idaho) from 2007-10, Greeny accumulating an impressive 112-24 record (.824) while turning the Warriors' program into one of the premier NAIA teams with four consecutive Frontier Conference regular season titles and four consecutive berths to the NAIA National Tournament. The Warriors finished in the top 13 each year and ended the 2010 season at 31-3 (.912), the best mark in the program's history. Greeny was a four-time Frontier Conference Coach of the Year and the American Volleyball Coaches' Association's Northwest Region Coach of the Year.

Greeny spent four and one-half years on WSU Head Coach Cindy Fredrick's volleyball staff and had been involved in six of the 10 seasons Cougar volleyball qualified for postseason action: three as a player and three as an assistant coach. During her playing career, WSU was ranked as high as fifth in the country and made the Elite Eight of the NCAA Championships. Greeny was instrumental in WSU's second and only other NCAA Elite Eight appearance as an assistant coach in 2002.

Greeny and her husband, Burdette Greeny, a former standout pitcher at WSU and an assistant volleyball coach at WSU, have two daughters, Lauren and Leah. She is a member of the Pullman Regional Hospital Foundation. The Greenys were honored with a City of Pullman Chamber of Commerce Walk of Fame plaque in 2015.
