OPENING XI

> WSU to take face off against Oregon State Friday night for the second-straight season at home having defeated the Beavers 2-1 last season to open Pac-12 play.
> Under head coach Todd Shulenberger, the Cougs have been dominant against the Beavers having won four of five, falling just once in 2017 in a 1-0, 2OT, loss on the road. In the five games WSU has outscored OSU 8-4 having scored two goals in four of the five contests.
> The Cougs have a chance to finish the Pac-12 season near the top of the pack despite entering the weekend 1-2-1 in conference action. A late push could secure WSU a fourth-straight trip to the postseason.
> WSU heads back to Lower Soccer Field for the first time since 2019 where the Cougs have gone 23-6-3 and outscored opponents 75-to-28 over the last three seasons.
> Senior Makamae Gomera-Stevens, the 27th pick in the 2021 NWSL Draft, has been the catalyst in the middle of the Cougs offense having scored the only two goals for WSU in the last four contests.
> Gomera-Stevens was named #36 in the TopDrawerSoccer.com Midseason Top 100 Players to Watch rankings.
> Despite being held in check the last two games the Cougs offense has produced 13 goals with six difference scorers including a pair of first time scorers.
> Senior Elyse Bennett leads the team in scoring with 5 goals, tied for seventh in the Pac-12. She is looking for her first goal since scoring twice against Utah Feb. 26.
> Senior Sydney Pulver is nearing top-10 games played at WSU as she has played in 73 games with the top-10 starting at 76, a mark she will hit by the end of the regular season.
> WSU's freshmen have made an impact notching three goals (Gray, Detrizio (2)) and five assists (Detrizio (2), Whieldon (2), McGill).
> The senior class continues to cement its legacy as the most decorated class in program history having won 44 games (record is 50 wins) and advancing to at least the second round in each of their three seasons, a program first.

COUGAR NOTES

COUGS VS OREGON STATE
The Cougs come home for the first time in over a month having played their last four games on the road. WSU begins its three-game homestand with Oregon State Friday night at Lower Soccer Field, the first game at their home field during the spring season after spending the first month inside the bubble of the IPF due to weather. The Cougs are 8-5-2 all-time against Oregon State at home including winning last season, 2-1, to take down a previously unbeaten Beavers squad. In the game last season the Cougs scored a pair of second half goals to take down OSU with the game-winner coming off the foot of then junior Makamae Gomera-Stevens.
This season, the Beavers have struggled in Pac-12 play going 2-6, however both those wins came last weekend with a 2-0 win over Colorado and a 3-1 win over Utah in Corvallis.

LAST TIME OUT
A scramble in front of the goal, won by the Trojans, proved to be the difference in a closely fought contest Sunday afternoon at Los Angeles as Washington State (5-3-1, 1-2-1) fell 1-0 to USC (6-3-1, 5-3-0) to close out its road schedule in the 2021 spring regular season. Having stymied the potent Trojans' attack for much of the contest, the Cougars appeared on the verge of taking total control of the game midway through the day as WSU pushed the pace on the offensive end with a barrage of opportunities at the end of the opening half only to be denied. The missed opportunities to take the lead into the break proved to be WSU's undoing as USC capitalized on just their second chance of the day 10 minutes into the final 45 minutes when Angeles Escobar turned on a rebound and beat a swarm of Coug defenders for her first career goal.

HOME SWEET HOME
Heading back to the friendly confines of Lower Soccer Field for the first time since the end of the 2019 season, the Cougs will look to get back on track in the 2021 spring season with three-straight home game to end the regular season. The last time the Cougs were are Lower Soccer Field they defeated #14 Memphis, 1-0, to kick start their run to the College Cup in the 2019 NCAA Tournament.
In the last three years coming into the spring the Cougs have gone 23-6-3 at Lower Soccer Field while outscoring their opponents 75-to-28 including posting 11 shutouts.
This season, the Cougs are 3-0-1 at home (all at the IPF) having outscored their opponent 9-to-1 with three shutouts.

OFFENSIVE WOES
After starting the season redhot offensively the Cougars have hit a virtual wall over the past few weeks netting just two goals in the last four games back from a three-week pause due to COVID-19 concerns. The Cougars' lack of goals is not from a lack of chances having posted 51 shots (19 on goal) in the four games.
Since returning from pause, senior Makamae Gomera-Stevens is the lone Coug to have found the back of the net scoring both goals including the golden goal at Colorado for the first Pac-12 win of the year for WSU.

SHUTOUTS A PLENTY
While the offense has been clicking the Cougs defense has quietly put together a solid season having allowed nine goals in nine games (only twice allowing multiple goals) including four clean sheets (two of which have come in Pac-12 play).
Senior Marissa Zucchetto saw her shutout streak end at 383:02 minutes against Washington, the longest streak since 2014 (427 min.). She has 23.5 career shutouts (19.5 in three seasons at Texas Tech).

THE FLYIN HAWAIIAN
Rounding back into the form that made her the 27th pick in the NWSL draft, senior Makamae Gomera-Stevens has been the catalyst in the middle the Cougs attack. The native Hawaiian has notched three goals on the year, second behind team-leader Elyse Bennett, while scoring a pair of game-winners. For the first time in her career, Gomera-Stevens scored in back-to-back games notching unassisted goals at Washington and at Colorado, the later of which was a golden goal, before being held in check at UCLA and USC.
She ranks tied for 4th all-time in WSU's record books with 8 career game-winners, including two golden goals. She is also on the verge of the top-10 for games played having played 71 contests with the list starting at 76.
Last season, Gomera-Stevens broke out with five goals, four of which were game-winners. She became just the second player from Hawaii to earn a senior call-up to the USWNT camp following Natasha Kai. She would be selected as the #27 overall pick in the 2021 NWSL Draft by the Houston Dash.
She was named #36 in the TopDrawerSoccer.com Midseason Top 100 Players to Watch rankings

BENNETT BACK IN HER GROOVE
Taking over as the Cougs' primary target up top, senior Elyse Bennett got off to a quick start in 2021 notching a team-best five goals and one assist in the first four games of the season. The game-winner at Seattle U was her 5th career winner. It was the first time in her career she had scored in three-straight games. She is looking to get back in the score column for the first time since scoring twice against Utah Feb. 26.
She ranks sixth in the Pac-12 in total goals.
Last season, Bennett recorded five goals and five assists, finishing third in scoring on the team.
For her career, the senior has notched 15 goals and 8 assists. She is in search of the Cougs' all-time top-10 which starts at 18 goals.

DETRIZIO ANNOUNCES HERSELF ON THE COLLEGIATE STAGE
Playing for the first time on the collegiate stage, freshman Margie Detrizio has announced herself as force to be reckoned with as the first-year striker has scored a pair of goals and added a pair of assists. The freshman sits third on the team in points with 6 off the bench as a super sub for the Cougs.
Detrizio joined teammates MacKenzie Frimpong-Ellertson and Elyse Bennett as freshmen to score in back-to-back games in their first seasons and both went on to be named to the Pac-12 All-Freshman team.

SENIORS CEMENTING THEIR LEGACIES
Despite the loss of some key players from last season, the 2021 Cougars are back and better than ever as seven of 11 starters return headlined by arguably the most decorated senior classes in program history. Throughout their careers, the seniors have won 44 games and advanced to at least the second round in each of their three year, a program first. In addition, the seniors brought the Cougs to new heights as freshmen, advancing to the program's first Sweet 16 before surpassing the feat last season with a trip to the first College Cup.
The 2015 senior class holds the wins record at 50 games.

FRESH FACES CONTRIBUTING
While the Cougs entered the year with one of the top veteran cores in the country, WSU also welcomed in 9 new faces that have vied for playing time immediately. The most experienced newcomer to the Cougars is goalkeeper-transfer Marissa Zucchetto who came to the Palouse last spring from Texas Tech. As a sophomore Zucchetto led the nation in shutouts and led the Red Raiders into the postseason in each of the last two years.
In the season opener, the Cougs started three freshmen while Zucchetto took over the reins in goal. Freshman Alyssa Gray scored the first goal of the season for the Cougs which was assisted by freshman Margie Detrizio.
The freshman have contributed 3 goals (Gray, Detrizio (2)) and 5 assists (Detrizio (2), Whieldon (2), McGill). Zucchetto in goal has posted 4 shutouts.

RODMAN GOES #2, ALGER #25, GOMERA-STEVENS #27
For the second-straight year the Cougs had the #2 pick in the NWSL draft as freshman Trinty Rodman became the youngest pick in the history of the league. Unfortunately for the Cougs, Covid robbed the team of getting to see the youngster on the field in the Crimson and Gray.
Seniors Brianna Alger and Makamae Gomera-Stevens have continued their ascent into the elite of the college game as the duo went in the third round of the draft, Alger to Chicago and Gomera-Stevens to Houston.

ALGER OUT INDEFINITELY

Entering the year with huge expectations, senior Brianna Alger saw her season come to an abrupt end just 40 minutes into the year as the all-region left back suffered a season-ending knee injury at Seattle U.

Alger, the 25th selection in the 2021 NWSL Draft, earned all-region and all-conference honors in 2019 after moving to left back for the first time in her career. She finished the year with 10 assists, ranked 5th in the Pac-12 and first among defenders.

COUGS ADDS TRANSFER ENZI BROUSSARD

Continuing to add to their stable of strikers, Washington State Soccer Head Coach Todd Shulenberger announced the addition of transfer Enzi Broussard (Dallas, Texas) for the 2021 Fall Season. Broussard will have two years of eligibility after spending two years at West Virginia University. For Coug fans, Broussard will look familiar to those who watched WSU's historic run to the College Cup in 2019 as the Dallas native was on the pitch in Charlottesville, Vir. when the Cougs advanced to the Elite 8. As a freshman, Broussard helped lead the Mountaineers to the third round of the NCAA Tournament for the fourth time in five seasons en route to earning All-Big-12 Freshman honors. She would finish the season scoring three goals and tallying two assists in 22 matches played with 14 starts including starting the third round game against the Cougars. As a sophomore, Broussard saw action in eight of WVU's nine contests in a truncated 2020 Fall Season scoring two goals and adding two more assists as the Mountaineers went 7-2 and pushed their way into a top-5 national ranking

MINNISS NAMED PAC-12 DEFENSIVE POW

For the first time on the year captain Mykiaa Minniss was named the Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Week (Feb. 22). Minniss was the first Cougar to earn a weekly award in 2021 and the first since all-american Morgan Weaver earned offensive honors Nov. 5, 2019 and the first defensive award for the Cougs since Brianna Alger earned her second of the season Sept. 24, 2019. It is the second career award for Minniss who earned the award as a freshman in her second week of action in 2018.

Leading the team to a perfect 3-0 start to the new season, Minniss propelled the Cougs to a 3-0 shutout of regional rival Idaho in the Bubble, earning the team's first shutout of the year. When not dominating the defensive end, Minniss made her presence felt on the offensive end of the pitch as well as the junior made good on one of the many Cougar corners in the match, tapping home the would-be game-winner in the 44' of action.

HUGE SHOES TO FILL

As WSU entered the new year with huge shoes to fill with the graduations of some of the greatest to ever wear the Crimson and Gray. Offensively, Cougs had to make up for the loss of 27 of their 45 goals scored (60%) and 68 of 136 points recorded (50%) in 2019. (15 goals and 35 points coming from the boot of All-American and #2 overall pick in the NWSL, Morgan Weaver).

In addition to offense, the Cougs had to replace its record-setting goal keeper (and her top backup), Ella Dederick, who came up with 10 shutouts in 2019 including three in the postseason. For her career, Dederick finished with: 53 Wins (1st all-time), 8158:25 Minutes (1st all-time), 90 Games Played (1st all-time), 29 shutouts (2nd all-time), 306 saves (2nd all-time), 0.92 Goals Against Average (4th all-time).

SOCCER SELECTED FOURTH BY PAC-12 COACHES

Coming off a historic 2019 campaign, the Washington State soccer team was selected to finish fourth in the Pac-12 Preseason Coaches Poll for the second-straight season. The fourth place pick ties the highest preseason ranking for the Cougars in the preseason poll. Stanford, the five-time defending conference champions and defending national champions, were picked to take the title for a record sixth-consecutive season after receiving five first-place votes. UCLA and USC came in just behind the Cardinal in the poll.

COLLEGE CUP SEMIFINALIST

The Cougs advanced to the College Cup for the first time in program history having taken down #14 Memphis (1-0), #3 Virginia (3-2), West Virginia (3-0, and #5 South Carolina (1-0, OT) in their run to the cup. The final four run is the furthest the Cougs have advanced in program history and the deepest postseason run in the history of WSU Athletics in the NCAAs. The run would come to an end in a 2-1 loss to perennial power North Carolina.

Throughout the run to the College Cup the Cougs took down a No. 1 seed and No. 2 seed, both on the road in hostile environments. In addition, the Cougs defeated the AAC regular season champion, ACC tournament runner-up, and the SEC tournament champion.

WSU was in the postseason for the eighth time in the last nine seasons and the 10th time in the last 12 years. WSU sports an 8-11-4 record in the NCAA tournament. The Cougs have been to the third round in two of the last three seasons and have advanced out of the first round a program record three-straight seasons.

WAZZU IN THE 2019 REGULAR SEASON

The Cougs finished the regular season 12-6-1 overall and 5-5-1 in Pac-12 play, good for sixth in the conference. The 12 wins matched their win total from 2018 as the two seasons were nearly identical on the scoresheet. The Cougs biggest win of the year came on the road at No. 20 Cal, knocking off the Bears 1-0 in overtime. The Cougs scored 36 goals and posted 38 assists in the regular season led by Morgan Weavers 11 goals and four assists. On the year WSU took home four weekly awards with Brianna Alger earning two defensive awards while Weaver and Averie Collins each earned one offensive award.

RECORD WINS

With their win at #3 Virginia in the second round of the NCAA Tournament the Cougars tied the single-season record for wins at 14. Two days later the 2019 Cougars put their names above the rest with a record 15th win after defeating West Virginia 3-0 in the third round of the tournament. The win at #5 South Carolina extended the record to 16 victories.

In addition leading his team to a record number of wins, Coach Shulenberger became the first coach in program history to lead his team into the Sweet 16 twice after becoming the first team in program history to reach the third round in 2017.

THREE PUT ON THE RED, WHITE, AND BLUE

After finishing a historic season at Washington State, senior Morgan Weaver, junior Makamae Gomera-Stevens, and sophomore Mykiaa Minniss continue to play on as the trio of Cougars were called into national team duty in Florida in December. The attacking duo of Weaver and Gomera-Stevens joined the senior national team camp in Bradenton, Fla. while Minniss pulled on the U-20 jersey in Lakewood Ranch, Fla to play in the 2019 Nike International Friendlies. Weaver and Gomera-Stevens became the first Cougs in program history to be called into a Senior National Team camp.

DEFENSIVE DOMINANCE IN 2019

In 2019, the Cougars were dominant on the defensive end of the field with 10 shutouts in 24 games. In the two years prior, the Cougs produced 16 shutouts including 11 in 2017, tied for 2nd most in WSU history.

On the year, the Cougs outscored the opposition 45-26. Ella Dederick in goal was credited with nine full shutouts while sharing another with Rachel Johnson.

The Cougs had six shutouts in the last 14 contests and allowed one goal or fewer in 11 of those games. WSU tallied three shutouts in five postseason games including against #5 South Carolina on the road.

COUGS SIGN 8 FOR 2021

Continuing to build the depth and talent of the Washington State soccer roster, head coach Todd Shulenberger announced the signings of eight new Cougars to National Letters of Intent Nov 11. Adding their names to the roster for 2021 are: Nadia Cooper (Rosenberg, Texas), Macey Formanek (Phoenix, Ariz.), Khalia Gathright (Cypress, Calif.), McKenna Pua (Huntington Beach, Calif.), Rajanah Reed (Glendale, Ariz.), Lindsey Saad (Albuquergue, NM), Reese Tappan (Newcastle, Wash.), and Audrey Weir (Kailua Kona, Hawaii).

The crown jewel of the class was Cooper, a stalwart in the US National Team system having been called up to the U17 National Team for multiple tournaments. Most recently she was named to the U17 National Team training camp at the beginning of the year when the team was training for the 2020 Concacaf Women's U17 Championship which was postponed due to the Covid-19 pandemic.
