WASHINGTON STATE HEADS TO UTAH STATE FOR FRIDAY NIGHT MATCHUP

Washington State heads to Logan, Utah for a Friday night Pac-12 Conference matchup at Utah State. Kickoff is set for 6 p.m. (PT) on The CW.

ABOUT WASHINGTON STATE

Washington State opened the 2026 season with a pair of tough road contests at No. 17 Washington week one and at Kansas State before beating Duquesne 48-7 in Pullman week three. WSU dropped a close contest to Arizona at home two weeks ago and lost the Pac-12 Conference opener to Fresno State last Saturday. The Cougars returned 24 letterwinners from a team that went 7-6 last season and capped the season with a win over Utah State in the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl in Boise. First-year head coach Kirby Moore brought in 50 new players including 29 transfers from four-year schools led by quarterback Caden Pinnick who earned FCS Freshman All-America honors at UC Davis last season. WSU welcomed back four starters on offense while wideout Tony Freeman, left tackle Ashton Tripp, running back Kirby Vorhees and safety Jaylen Thomas were all named to the Pac-12 Conference Preseason Impact Watch List.

KIRBY MOORE NAMED COUGAR FOOTBALL HEAD COACH

Kirby Moore was named Cougars' Head Football Coach December 12. Moore has strong ties to eastern Washington, having grown up in Prosser, Wash., where his father, Tom, was a legendary football coach at Prosser High School. He has spent the previous three seasons serving as the offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach at Missouri for Head Coach Eli Drinkwitz. During the 2025 season, Moore has helped Missouri to an 8-4 record and a spot in the TaxSlayer Gator Bowl against Virginia, Dec. 27. Prior to Missouri, Moore coached six seasons at Fresno State including the final season as the offensive coordinator. Moore was a four-year letterwinner, two-year starter, at the Boise State (2009; 2010-13), where he helped the Broncos to a 45-8 record and four bowl appearances.

MEDIA INFORMATION

COUGAR SPORTS NETWORK

Washington State football games are broadcast live throughout the region on the Cougar Sports Network. Fans can also listen worldwide via the WSU Cougars Gameday app, wsucougars.com/listen, and SiriusXM Satellite Radio.

Cougar football broadcasts begin two hours before kickoff, carry through the game and conclude with coach and player interviews on the Coug Talk postgame show. Derek Deis hosts pre and postgame coverage and is joined by former WSU players Grady Emmerson and Billy Newman throughout the season.

Chris King enters his third season as Voice of the Cougs, handling play-by-play duties for WSU football, men's basketball and select baseball games along with hosting coaches shows and podcasts. King returned to Pullman in 2024 – where he graduated from the Edward R. Murrow College of Communication in 2009 – after gaining 13 years of DI broadcasting experience in neighboring Idaho. After two years announcing women's basketball at Boise State, King became the men's basketball broadcaster for the Idaho Vandals in 2013 before adding football broadcasting duties in 2021. The Marysville native also announced Minor League Baseball for the Tri-City Dust Devils from 2012-2021. Before his time with the Dust Devils, he spent three seasons as the broadcaster for the Wenatchee AppleSox. King has twice been honored as the Idaho Sportscaster of the Year (2017, 2023) by the National Sports Media Association for his work with the Vandals.

Jessamyn McIntyre returns for her 15th season as a sideline reporter for Cougar football. McIntyre is the assistant program director of Sports Radio 93.3 KJR in Seattle and previously was an executive producer for Q13 FOX in Seattle, was an executive producer for 710 ESPN Seattle (2009-20) and for ESPN Radio in Bristol, Conn. (2005-09). Additionally, she hosted the Seattle Seahawks postgame show on Northwest Cable News and served on the board of directors for the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society.

Alex Brink begins his ninth year as an analyst on the Cougar football broadcasts. As a student-athlete for WSU, Brink was a three-time All-Pac-10 quarterback from 2004-07, setting school records for career touchdowns and passing yards. He is also the only starting quarterback in school history to lead the Cougars to three Apple Cup victories. The Eugene, Ore. native was also a three-time All-Academic honoree and a National Football Foundation Scholar-Athlete during his senior year. Brink was selected in the seventh round of the 2008 NFL Draft by the Houston Texans, where he played two seasons before spending six seasons in the Canadian Football League.

Brink is co-founder of EForce Sports, a performance training, skill development and fitness company in Portland and has served as a quarterback coach at the Elite11 Quarterback Competition. He has previously been part of the Cougar Roadshow pregame broadcast and was a contributor on NBCSports Northwest as well as ESPN 1080 and Rip City Radio in Portland.

COLLEGE GAMEDAY RECORD

Dating back to the 2003 season, ESPN College GameDay has had the WSU flag appear throughout the show. The streak reached 342 last week at Iowa. The first appearance came in Austin, Texas (10/4/03) and the streak began two weeks later in Madison, Wisc. (10/18/03). Two flags – Ol' Crimson and Gray – have been flown in the background of the GameDay set. The Gray flag was added in 2014 after Whitey was retired in honor of Steve Gleason's "No White Flags." Appearance No. 217 was its first in Pullman (10/20/18), a 34-20 win over Oregon.

THE PAC IS BACK!

This summer, seven new full-time member institutions officially joined the Pac-12 Conference, including Boise State, Colorado State, Fresno State, Gonzaga, San Diego State, Texas State and Utah State. With the additions, the new Pac-12 features nine full-time members and is set to compete in its first season with the 2026-27 campaign.

SERIES HISTORY

Washington State leads the all-time series 4-2 against Utah State including a 34-21 win over the Aggies at the 2026 Famous Idaho Potato Bowl in Boise last December. Friday will be the series' second meeting in Logan, the first being a 46-6 Cougar win in 1950. WSU has won the last two meetings, 49-28 in Pullman in 2024 and last year's bowl matchup.

LOGAN NATIVE, COUGAR LEGEND LUKE FALK

Logan, Utah native Luke Falk walked on at Washington State in 2013 under then-head coach Mike Leach and went on to become the Pac-12 Conference's all-time leader in passing yards (14,486), total offense (14,086), passing touchdowns (119), pass completions (357), pass attempts (534) and total plays (2,306). Falk was three-time All-Pac-12 Conference selection, won the Burlsworth Trophy, given to the nation's top former walk-on, set WSU records with 27 wins, 30 300-yard games and seven career fourth-quarter comeback wins.

JAYLEN THOMAS NAMED PAC-12 DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Cougar defensive back Jaylen Thomas was named the Pac-12 Conference Defensive Player of the Week following week two at Kansas State. Thomas, a redshirt-sophomore transfer from San Jose State, picked off two passes and returned the second 50 yards for a touchdown at Kansas State last Saturday. Thomas' first interception came on a KSU fourth-down pass attempt early in the second quarter and the second saw Thomas race 50 yards to score as time expired to end the first half. It was the first two-interception game by a Coug since Sam Lockett III picked off two passes at Arizona in 2022 and the first interception return for a touchdown since 2024 (Buddah Al-Uqdah at Oregon State). The two interceptions were the first of Thomas' career.

FAN EXPERIENCE AT GESA FIELD GETTING TURBOCHARGED

The gameday experience inside Gesa Field is about to get brighter and louder thanks to the support of Washington State University alumni and fans. WSU Athletics raised more than $10 million to pay for the first phase of planned improvements at the home of Cougar Football. These improvements will include a state-of-the-art video board 30 feet wider than the current display, as well as an audio system that'll bring the noise no matter where fans are sitting. New on-field lights will also enable more dynamic moments to build hype for those in the stands and on the field. These improvements are part of a multi-phase improvement plan for Gesa Field, which is expected to cost up to $12 million. All of the cost of the project is being funded by donors.

WSU AND COLVILLE TRIBES ANNOUNCE HISTORIC PARTNERSHIP, JUNE 30

Washington State University Athletics and the Confederated Tribes of the Colville Reservation announced a historic new partnership grounded in shared values of community, culture, and a commitment to developing future generations of leaders. Under the five-year agreement, the largest annual sponsorship in WSU Athletics history, all Cougar uniforms will feature a Colville Tribe jersey patch. The initiative represents one of the most comprehensive uniform recognitions in college athletics and a first of its kind within the Pac-12. The partnership brings the 12 Tribes of the Confederated Tribes of the Colville Reservation, who have lived since time immemorial in the lands known today as eastern Washington, together with the state's land-grant university. It builds on a longstanding relationship first formalized in 1997 and rooted in more than a century of shared commitment to this region's diverse and evolving needs. The $8.43 million agreement includes a $250,000 donation to the Cougar Athletic Excellence Fund in year one. It extends beyond sporting competition to include youth clinics in tribal communities, regional basketball development opportunities, and an AAU tribal tournament. A dedicated video series will highlight the connections between WSU student-athletes and tribal youth, creating greater visibility and shared understanding. Additional elements include Colville Tribes entitlement games across multiple sports, special Nike N7 games for men's and women's basketball, and prominent integration across WSU Athletics platforms and game-day experiences. The partnership was brokered in collaboration with Playfly Sports, the sports industry's leading revenue maximization company. Playfly serves as WSU's multimedia rights partner.

JON HAARLOW NAMED WSU VICE PRESIDENT / DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Washington State University President Betsy Cantwell selected Jon Haarlow as WSU's vice president and director of athletics April 27. Haarlow, who had served as the interim athletic director since November 12, 2025, is the 16th individual to lead Cougar athletics in school history. Haarlow has more than five years of experience at Washington State University and 15 years in collegiate athletics. He joined WSU in 2021 as senior associate athletic director and chief financial officer for WSU Athletics. In spring 2022, he accepted a role with the university's main campus as assistant vice president for business and financial services, where he provided financial leadership for the university system in areas including debt, cash, and investments while collaborating with key institutional units, including accounting, reporting, payroll, student accounts, and contracting services. In July, 2024, Haarlow returned to Cougar Athletics as assistant vice president and senior deputy athletic director/chief operating officer for WSU Athletics. His deep knowledge of the WSU campus, expertise in revenue generation, and strong relationships with campus partners and external stakeholders have contributed to his immediate impact throughout campus and the continued success of the Cougars' 17 varsity athletic programs.

Since assuming the role as Washington State University's Interim Director of Athletics last November, Haarlow has:

- Led department-wide strategic initiatives, driving operational momentum and cross-campus alignment
- Directed the successful hiring of Head Football Coach Kirby Moore and Head Soccer Coach Chris Citowicki, strengthening leadership across marquee and growth programs
- Spearheaded and supported fundraising efforts that generated more than $10 million for the Football Fan Experience Project
- Launched a $3.4 million renovation of the Cougar Football locker room

ABE LUCAS, SEAHAWKS WIN SUPER LX

A pair of Washington State Cougars wrapped up the NFL 2025 season facing off in Super Bowl LX, RT Abraham Lucas and the Seattle Seahawks beat WR Kyle Williams and New England Patriots in Santa Clara. WSU had a player in the Super Bowl for the fourth straight season and fifth in the last six seasons. Lucas started at right tackle and played in all 72 offensive snaps and seven special teams snaps in the Seahawks Super Bowl win over the Patriots. The Seahawks rushed for 141 yards in the 29-13 win in Santa Clara. Playing in his fourth NFL season, Lucas started all 20 games at right tackle this season. Williams played 17 offensive snaps, eight special teams snaps and had a seven-yard catch against the Seahawks. In his rookie season, Williams has appeared in 19 games and made 11 catches for 216 yards and three touchdowns.

WSU ATHLETICS COMMUNICATIONS DIRECTOR BILL STEVENS RETIRES AFTER 21 YEARS

Washington State University Senior Associate Director of Athletics, Strategic Communications Bill Stevens has retired after 21 years working in the Cougars' athletic communications department. Stevens came to WSU as sports information assistant director in August 2005 and since that time, served as the director, assistant athletic director, and beginning in 2014, associate athletic director for athletic communications. Stevens was responsible for the overall communications strategy for the athletic department, working primarily as the communications contact for football along many other Cougar sports and more recently, served as the sport administrator for men's golf and women's tennis. In his 21 years working at WSU, Stevens worked with five athletic directors, seven head football coaches including Mike Leach (2012-19) along with 10 bowl games and the 2018 visit from ESPN College GameDay. Stevens also worked closely with the Pac-12 Conference, was the media contact for the men's and women's basketball NCAA Tournaments hosted by Washington State in Spokane (2005-26), helped cover the baseball NCAA Regional trips in 2009, 2010 and 2026 and hosted a number NCAA and Pac-12 Conference golf and swimming championships in Pullman and Seattle. In 2022, Stevens received the Edward R. Murrow College of Communication Hall of Achievement award, recognizing outstanding accomplishments of alumni and those impacting the Murrow community. Stevens is a 1987 graduate of WSU with a degree in public relations. He was a four-year letterwinner in tennis under Hall of Fame coach Rex Davis. Stevens and his wife, Joni, also a WSU graduate, have two grown sons, Nick and Jake, both WSU graduates.

COUGAR HALL OF FAME COACH JIM WALDEN PASSES AWAY AT 88

WSU Hall of Fame Football Coach Jim Walden passed away in July in Coeur d'Alene. He was 88. Walden, who served as the Cougars head coach from 1978-86, was not one to hold back as a player or a coach, and neither were his Cougar football teams from the time he took over between the 1977 and 1978 seasons through his final campaign in the fall of 1986. Four years later he guided WSU to the 1981 Holiday Bowl, WSU's first postseason bowl game since the 1931 Rose Bowl. Walden delivered on his promises while defeating every team in the Pacific-10 Conference. He finished his nine-year Cougar stint with 44 wins, at that time, second on the Washington State all-time list, while also being named Pac-10 Coach of the Year twice, in 1981 and 1983. After retiring from coaching in 1994, Walden showed his Crimson colors by returning to the Palouse, where he has served as Bob Robertson's broadcast sidekick for 11 seasons. Walden was inducted into the WSU Athletic Hall of Fame in 2009 and the University of Wyoming Athletics Hall of Fame in 2011, where he was an All-American quarterback.

FORMER COUGAR FOOTBALL COACH BILL DOBA PASSES AWAY

Former Washington State Football Coach Bill Doba passes away at the age of 85. Doba, a longtime defensive coordinator and five-year head coach of the Cougars (2003-07), worked 19 seasons at the Washington State coaching staff. Doba posted 30 wins including three Apple Cup victories his five seasons leading WSU. Doba became Washington State's 30th head football coach December 18, 2002, after serving as a Cougar assistant for 14 years. During that time WSU won two Pacific-10 Conference championships and made four bowl appearances, including two trips to the Rose Bowl. In 2003, Doba's first as WSU's head coach, he won more games than any first-year coach in program history, reaching the 10-win plateau for the third straight season. No other Pacific-10 Conference school had back-to-back-to-back 10-win seasons since the early 1930's and for the feat, Doba shared Pac-10 Coach-of-the- Year honors with USC's Pete Carroll. Doba joined WSU as an assistant coach in 1989 and served as linebacker coach for Mike Price's Cougar teams for 14 years. While serving as WSU's defensive leader from 1994-2002, Doba mentored eight players named first team all conference, six All-Americans, and 2002 Outland Trophy Winner Rien Long. The Cougars finished second in the Pac-10 conference and then recorded the biggest bowl victory in the history of the program, defeating #5 Texas in the Holiday Bowl. In 1994, Doba's first season as defensive coordinator, the Cougs finished second in the nation in total defense, yielding a mere 229 yards per game, and third in rushing and scoring defense. The "Palouse Posse," spearheaded by all-conference performers in linebacker Mark Fields, defensive end DeWayne Patterson, and defensive tackles Chad Eaton and Don Sasa, capped a 9-3 season by holding Baylor to just 151 yards total offense and three points in an Alamo Bowl victory. The South Bend, Ind., native entered the college ranks in 1977, joining former ESPN College Gameday host Lee Corso's staff at Indiana University. He coached outside linebackers for five seasons and spent one season tutoring the quarterbacks and receivers.

2026 GAME RECAPS

WASHINGTON STATE AT NO. 17 WASHINGTON

Sept. 6, 2026 • Husky Stadium • Att.: 71,056 • TV: NBC

SEATTLE – Washington State football showcased promise despite a 24-10 loss to Washington Sunday night. The Cougars demonstrated resilience with a strong defensive effort and a notable fourth-quarter drive, even as they faced challenges on third downs and turnovers. Caden Pinnick completed 16 of 25 passes for 142 yards with two interceptions and added 61 rushing yards and a touchdown on 14 carries. Daniel Blood had a team-high five receptions for 57 yards. Keith Brown led Washington State with six tackles, while Khamari Terrell added five tackles. Washington State's best chance in the first quarter came on its opening possession, a 41-yard drive highlighted by Pinnick's 25-yard run and 11-yard completion to Blood before a missed a 52-yard field goal. The defense answered with a three-and-out, including Linus Zunk's stop for no gain and quarterback hurry, but Washington later turned an 11-play drive into a 48-yard field goal. The Cougars were sacked on third down on each of their final two possessions of the quarter and finished the first quarter trailing 3-0. Washington State's defense closed the second quarter with a goal-line stop, with Keith Brown making the tackle on a fourth-and-1 rush at the Washington State 1 as time expired. Earlier, Washington's only points of the quarter came after a Cougars interception, and another short field after a fumble ended with a missed 29-yard field goal. Washington State was held scoreless with two first downs and 22 yards in the quarter, entering halftime trailing 10-0. The Cougars put together a 12-play, 70-yard drive in the third quarter, highlighted by Pinnick's 32-yard completion to Blood, but a delay-of-game penalty preceded a missed 32-yard field goal. The defense kept Washington off the board later, with Nylan Brown making a tackle for loss and Jaylen Thomas hurrying an incomplete fourth-and-1 pass at the Washington State 38. Pinnick hit Darrius Clemons for 12 yards on the final play, and Washington State finished the scoreless quarter trailing 10-0. Washington State opened the fourth quarter with a nine-play, 62-yard drive, converting fourth-and-3 at the Washington 43 on Pinnick's 4-yard run before Pinnick scored from 11 yards out and a Jack Stevens PAT made it 10-7. After Washington pushed its lead to 17-7, the Cougars answered with an eight-play, 51-yard drive, and Stevens' 42-yard field goal with 4:30 left made it 17-10. Washington responded with a touchdown drive, and Washington State's final possession ended on an interception before Washington closed out a 24-10 final.

Earlier, Thomas also intercepted a pass on a fourth down pass atempt at the WSU 24 and returned it 31 yards, but the ensuing drive ended on downs at the Kansas State 36. WSU was held scoreless in the third quarter, while Kansas State scored on a 75-yard run and added a 31-yard field goal to make it 27-7. Wazzu managed two first downs, both on runs by Pinnick and Vorhees, but went 0-for-4 on third down and punted on all four possessions. PULLMAN, Wash. – Washington State defeated Duquesne 48-7 Saturday, scoring 41 unanswered points across six scoring drives after the game was tied 7-7. Caden Pinnick completed 17 of 22 passes for 196 yards and two touchdowns and added 76 rushing yards and a touchdown on 12 carries. Kirby Vorhees rushed for 109 yards and two touchdowns on nine carries. Maxwell Woods finished with 116 rushing yards on 11 carries and added three catches for 20 yards. Branden Ganashamoorthy caught four passes for 67 yards and a touchdown. The Cougars turned a defensive stop into the first quarter's first points, going 72 yards after forcing a Duquesne punt and scoring on Vorhees' 8-yard run. Woods' 45-yard rush put Washington State inside the red zone, and Jack Stevens' extra point made it 7-0. Duquesne later used a 54-yard run to set up a 1-yard touchdown, and the first quarter ended tied 7-7. Pinnick put the Cougars in front with a 19-yard touchdown run at the 4:30 mark, and Stevens' extra point made it 14-7. Washington State's defense kept Duquesne off the board in the second quarter, holding it to 0-for-3 on third down. The second quarter ended with the Cougars ahead 14-7. Washington State controlled the third quarter by scoring touchdowns on all three of their possessions and holding Duquesne scoreless. Pinnick threw touchdown passes to Jack Pedersen and Ganashamoorthy, the latter capping a 10-play, 88-yard drive, before Vorhees broke a 58-yard touchdown run on the final play. The Cougars ended the third quarter ahead 35-7. The Cougars did their fourth-quarter scoring on special teams, as Jaylen Thomas returned a punt 47 yards for a touchdown at 5:32 to make it 41-7, and Tank Hawkins brought back another punt 65 yards for a touchdown at 3:05. Stevens converted the PAT after Hawkins' return, and Washington State held Duquesne scoreless in the fourth quarter while forcing punts on all four Duquesne possessions to finish a 48-7 win.

ARIZONA AT WASHINGTON STATE

Sept. 26, 2026 • Gesa Field • Att.: 23,903 • TV: CBS

PULLMAN, Wash. – Washington State football lost to Arizona 34-24 Saturday. WSU's late push included Caden Pinnick's 46-yard touchdown pass to Branden Ganashamoorthy with 7:15 left, trimming Arizona's lead to 31-24, but it was not enough. Pinnick completed 24 of 41 passes for 241 yards and one touchdown and added 35 rushing yards and a score. Ganashamoorthy caught four passes for 67 yards and a touchdown. Jackquintin Bal led the Cougars with nine tackles and returned an interception 25 yards for a touchdown. Linus Zunk recorded six tackles and 1.5 sacks. WSU's first offensive possession went 10 plays and 71 yards, capped by Pinnick's 11-yard touchdown run and Jack Stevens' PAT for a 7-0 lead. The defense added the next score when Bal intercepted an opponent and returned it 25 yards for a touchdown, with Stevens' kick making it 14-0. Arizona answered in the final seconds on a 28-yard touchdown pass, leaving the Cougs ahead 14-7 at the end of the first quarter. The Cougars put together the second quarter's final scoring drive, moving 52 yards in 1:31 before Stevens hit a 33-yard field goal with 22 seconds left to make it 17-14. Earlier, Arizona tied the game at 14 with a 4-yard touchdown pass and the ensuing PAT, and WSU's next drive reached the Arizona 21 before Stevens' 39-yard try was blocked. Josh Wedel and Zunk combined for a sack on the following Arizona possession, helping force a punt that set up WSU's late field-goal drive. Wazzu was held scoreless in the third quarter, with its four drives ending in three punts and a lost fumble while going 0-for-4 on third down. The defense limited the damage after Arizona started twice in WSU territory, including Damarjhe Lewis' block of a 43-yard field-goal attempt, but Arizona later finished an 82-yard drive with a touchdown and extra point to make it 21-17. The Cougs finished the third quarter down 21-17. WSU answered Arizona's touchdown with a six-play, 75-yard drive, capped when Pinnick hit Ganashamoorthy for a 46-yard touchdown on fourth-and-10 and Stevens' PAT made it 31-24 with 7:15 left. Arizona added a 51-yard field goal, and the Cougs' final possession reached the Arizona 24 before a fourth-down incompletion turned it over with 39 seconds remaining. Wazzu finished with a 34-24 loss.

FRESNO STATE AT WASHINGTON STATE

Oct. 3, 2026 • Gesa Field • Att.: 26,471 • TV: USA

PULLMAN, Wash. – Washington State football lost to Fresno State 26-6 Saturday night at Gesa Field. The Cougars' defense kept Fresno State out of the end zone in the first quarter, stopping their opponent for no gain on third-and-1 at the WSU 5 before Fresno State settled for a 27-yard field goal and a 3-0 lead. Wazzu was held scoreless, punted on its first two possessions, and finished the quarter with one first down while trailing 3-0. WSU got both of its second-quarter scores from Stevens, who made a 32-yard field goal and then hit a 50-yarder as time expired to tie the score at 6-6. Jirah Leaupepetele forced a fumble on fourth down and Terrell recovered at midfield, setting up Stevens' 32-yard kick that made it 3-3. Fresno State moved back in front with a 22-yard field goal, but the Cougars went 56 yards in the final 1:46 to pull even before halftime. Wazzu's defense limited the damage after Pinnick's fumble at the WSU 24, as Damarjhe Lewis blocked a 33-yard field-goal attempt and Matyus McLain recovered at the WSU 10 with 7:13 left in the third quarter. Earlier, Fresno State drove 56 yards for a touchdown and extra point to make it 13-6, and the Cougars were held scoreless in the quarter. WSU had one first down in the quarter, with Pinnick's 23-yard completion to Daniel Blood its longest gain, and the quarter ended with Fresno State ahead 13-6. The Cougars were held scoreless in the fourth quarter. Fresno State turned a Wazzu turnover on downs at the WSU 8 into an 8-yard touchdown, then added a field goal after an interception. Jack Stevens converted both field-goal attempts, including a long of 50 yards. Caden Pinnick completed 21 of 34 passes for 152 yards. Isaiah Hung led the Cougars with seven tackles. Khamari Terrell recorded six tackles and recovered a fumble.

Washington State University Interim Director of Athletics Jon Haarlow announced Dec. 12, 2025 that Kirby Moore had been named the Cougars' Head Football Coach. Moore agreed in principle to a five-year contract and becomes the 36th head football coach in program history.

Moore has strong ties to eastern Washington, having grown up in Prosser, Wash., where his father, Tom, was a legendary football coach at Prosser High School. He has spent the past three seasons serving as the offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach at the University of Missouri for Head Coach Eli Drinkwitz.

During the 2025 season, Moore has helped Missouri to an 8-4 record and a spot in the TaxSlayer Gator Bowl against Virginia, Dec. 27. Under his guidance, sophomore running back Ahmed Hardy became one of the nation's premier rushers, leading the country in rushing on a per-game basis (130.0 YPG) while ranking second nationally in total yards rushing (1,560) and fifth in total touchdowns (16). One of three national finalists for the prestigious Doak Walker Award given to the nation's top running back, he was named the Associate Press Newcomer of the Year, the SEC Newcomer of the Year, while also garnering First-Team All-America honors from The Athletic, USA Today, CBS Sports and Sports Illustrated.

Moore, who has over 10 years of coaching experience, mentored quarterback Brady Cook to an illustrious career, including 2023 Goodyear Cotton Bowl Offensive MVP and 2024 TransPerfect Music City Bowl honors. Under two years with Moore's guidance, Cook completed 445-of-690 (.645) passes for 5,852 yards with 32 touchdowns, while adding 200 rushing attempts for 542 yards (2.71) with 13 scores. Cook, a three-time team captain, went 21-5 during that stretch and 26-13 all-time as Mizzou's starter, which ranks second in wins by a Tigers quarterback.

Moore also helped in the development of running back Cody Schrader and wide receiver Luther Burden III, who both garnered Associated Press All-America recognition in 2023. Schrader, a First Team All-Southeastern Conference (SEC) selection, was named the winner of the prestigious Burlsworth Trophy, which honors the most outstanding player in the nation who began his career as a walk-on. He compiled 1,627 rushing yards on 276 carries (5.89) with 14 touchdowns during his final season with the Tigers. Burden III finished his career a two-time First Team All-SEC honoree (2023 & 2024) after registering 192 receptions for 2,263 (11.79) yards with 21 touchdowns.

In his first two seasons with Moore calling the plays, the Tigers went from 58th nationally in third down conversion percentage the year prior to his arrival, to 41st and 16th respectively, since. Additionally, the Tigers have improved in red zone offense (90th in 2022 to 3rd and 10th in 2023 and 2024), fumbles lost (111th to 3rd and 15th), turnovers lost (91st to 6th and 3rd), passes had intercepted (48th to 21st and 5th), total offense (81st to 28th, 63rd) and tackles for loss allowed (121st to 74th and 33rd).

The 2023 Mizzou offense, led by the trio of Cook, Schrader and Burden III, helped Mizzou become the only unit in the country to produce a 3,000-yard passer, 1,500-yard rusher and 1,000-yard receiver that season. It was the first time the Tigers accomplished the feat in program history and just the second time in SEC lore.

Moore arrived at Missouri after a one-year (2022) stint as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at California State University, Fresno (Fresno State), under head coach Jeff Tedford. He was named the Bulldogs' primary play caller for the 2021 New Mexico Bowl – a 31-24 win featuring 467 yards of total offense – 181 rushing and 286 passing. Before being promoted, Moore spent five seasons as the Bulldogs' wide receivers coach and passing game coordinator (2020-21) and wide receivers coach (2017-19).

In 2022, Fresno State won the Mountain West Conference championship and defeated Washington State, 29-6, in the Jimmy Kimmel LA Bowl. The Bulldogs ended the season on a nine-game winning streak, the first team in NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision history to begin the year 1-4 and finish with 10 wins. Fresno State was ranked second in the FBS in completion percentage (.710) and led the Mountain West in scoring and total offense, averaging 30.6 points per game and 402.6 yards per game, respectively.

Under Moore's guidance, five Bulldogs earned All-MWC honors, including three first-teamers in quarterback Jake Haener, wide receiver Jalen Moreno-Cropper and running back Jordan Mims. Haener finished his final season completing 252-of-350 (.720) pass attempts for 2,896 yards with 20 touchdowns. He added a 158.65 efficiency rating and averaged 290.00 passing yards per game. Fresno State narrowly missed having a 3,000-yard passer, 1,000-yard rusher (Mims – 1,370 yards) and 1,000-yard receiver (Moreno-Cropper – 1,086 yards) in 2022, because Haener missed four games early in the year due to injury.

Moreno-Cropper concluded his Bulldogs career a three-time All-MWC selection and graduated ranked fifth all-time in program history in receptions (220), eighth in receiving touchdowns (21) and ninth in receiving yards (2,701). Mims wrapped up his tenure in the Cardinal red and blue, ranking tied for third all-time in school lore for rushing touchdowns (37), fourth in rushing yards (3,290), and fifth in all-purpose yards (4,592).

In his two seasons (2020-21) as the passing game coordinator, Moore guided the Bulldogs to a national ranking of fifth in 2020 and ninth in 2021 in passing offense, while finishing 32nd and 17th in completion percentage. He mentored Haener during that stretch to 2,021 and 4,096 passing yards with 14 and 33 passing touchdowns, respectively.

Moore was named to 247Sports.com 30-under-30 list as one of college football's rising stars in 2017 and 2018 and was 247Sports.com's top recruiter in the Mountain West in 2019. In two of his first three seasons at Fresno, the Bulldogs wideout unit finished with one 1,000-yard and one 500-yard receiver. Keesean Johnson led the way with back-to-back 1,000-yard seasons following his 1,013 receiving yards in 2017 and 1,340 yards in 2018. Johnson became the program's all-time leader in both career receptions (275) and career receiving yards (3,463) during his final season in 2018.

Prior to his time on staff at Fresno State, Moore was an offensive graduate assistant at the University of Washington (2015-16). While with the Huskies, Moore was part of the 2016 team that won the Pac-12 Championship, advanced to the College Football Playoffs, and climbed as high as No. 4 in the CFP rankings.

Moore started his career as the wide receivers coach at the College of Idaho in 2014.

Moore was a four-year letterwinner, two-year starter, at the Boise State University (2009; 2010-13), where he helped the Broncos to a 45-8 record, including a 2009 WAC Championship and a 2012 Mountain West Co-Championship. He also helped the Broncos to four consecutive bowl appearances (2009 Tostitos Fiesta, 2011 and 2012 MAACO Las Vegas and 2013 Hawai'i Bowls) as well as a final national top-20 ranking in three-of-four seasons (2009, 2011, 2012). Moore, a wide receiver, caught 115 receptions for 1,137 yards with six touchdowns in 45 career games. Following the 2013 season, he earned Academic All-District VII and Academic All-Mountain West Conference honors.

Moore graduated from Boise State with a bachelor's degree in communications in 2012 and received his master's degree from Washington intercollegiate athletic leadership in 2016. He played for his father, Tom, at Prosser High School, and played with his older brother Kellen, at Boise State for three seasons (2009-11). Tom compiled a record of 234-38 (.860) record over 23 years as a high school coach, winning 21 league titles and playing in eight state championship games. Kellen, a 2018 Boise State Hall of Fame inductee, was a four-time first-team All-American and the first Heisman Trophy finalist in school history. He led Boise State to a 50-3 record over his four-year starting career and concluded his time as a Bronco as the winningest quarterback in college football history. Kellen is currently the head coach with the New Orleans Saints of the National Football League.

Moore, 35, is married to the former Kayla Smasne of Prosser, Wash., and they are the parents of daughter, Sutton, and sons, Cohen and Crew.
