HEAD COACH JON SCHEYER

BIO

Former Duke All-American and two-time team captain Jon Scheyer is the 20th head coach in Duke University's storied basketball history. He was named to the position on June 4, 2021, and took the reins from Hall of Fame head coach Mike Krzyzewski entering the 2022-23 campaign.

Scheyer, who is in his fifth season as head coach in 2026-27, has vast experience on the Duke bench, having served on Krzyzewski's staff since the 2013-14 season. His previous roles with the Blue Devils include special assistant, assistant coach and associate head coach. Scheyer and Duke agreed to a new contract in October of 2025, extending him through the 2030-31 season.

When he began his first season, the 35-year-old Scheyer was among the youngest head coaches in Division I men's basketball, and the youngest at a power conference institution.

In his first four seasons as head coach, Scheyer led the Blue Devils to three ACC Tournament titles and four NCAA Tournament appearances, including three trips to the Elite Eight and a Final Four. After consecutive 35-win seasons, Scheyer was named the 2026 NABC Division I Coach of the Year.

As a player, Scheyer sparked the Blue Devils to two ACC championships and the 2010 NCAA title from 2007-10. In his time on the coaching staff, he has helped Duke to a national championship (2015), three Final Fours (2015, 2022, 2025) and five ACC Tournament crowns (2017, 2019, 2023, 2025, 2026).

The Northbrook, Illinois, native has been integral in the recruiting and development of several young Duke stars since joining the staff, and landed the nation's No. 1-ranked recruiting class in 2022, 2024 and 2025, and No. 2-ranked class for 2023 and 2026.

SCHEYER NOTES

SCHEYER CONTINUES TO MAKE HISTORY - 2026 ACC COACH OF THE YEAR | 2026 NABC DIVISION I COACH OF THE YEAR

- Duke men's basketball head coach Jon Scheyer continues to add historic milestones to his résumé.
- During the 2022-23 campaign, Scheyer became the first coach in the conference's storied history to post an undefeated home record in a debut season and the first to lead a team to an ACC title as both a player (2009, 2010) and as a head coach (2023).
- Scheyer also became the first coach in conference history to win two ACC Tournament championships within his first three seasons, and went on to secure a third ACC Tournament title in his fourth season.
- In 2024-25, Scheyer guided the Blue Devils to one of the most dominant seasons in program history and the school's 18th Final Four appearance, becoming the youngest head coach to reach the Final Four since 2011.
- Under Scheyer, Duke posted a 35-4 overall record in 2024-25, joining a rare group as only the sixth team in school history to notch at least 35 wins and the first in a decade to do so.
- The following season, the 2025-26 squad achieved a 35-3 record, marking the first time in Duke's storied history that the Blue Devils won 35 games in consecutive years.
- On Dec. 16, 2025, during his fourth season as a head coach, Scheyer became the fastest head coach to win 100 games in ACC history and the second-fastest Division I head coach to reach 100 victories in the last 45 years, doing so in just 122 games.
- Scheyer's 124 wins are the most by any NCAA Division I men's basketball head coach through his first four seasons.
- Scheyer's 25 victories over Associated Press top-25 opponents are more than any head coach in their first four seasons, topping the standard previously held by Tom Izzo.
- The combined win total of the last two seasons (70) established the best two-year stretch in Duke history, bettering the 69 victories posted from the 1997-98 (32) and 1998-99 (37) campaigns.
- Scheyer averaged 31 wins per season through his first four seasons, earning his 124th victory in the 2026 NCAA Tournament regional semifinals.
