OPENING TIPS

1. The Cougars travel to Palm Springs, California to take on nationally ranked Duke (5/5) on Saturday, November 21 at 8 p.m. PT. The game will be played at the Acrisure Arena and broadcasted live on ESPN2. It will be the first ever meeting between the two schools, fourth time this season the Cougs have faced a program for the first time. It will be just the seventh time the Cougs have played an ACC program (SMU, Virginia, and Wake Forest all twice) and the first time they have faced a team ranked inside the Top 5 in the AP Poll since a 77-74 win at Arizona (4/4) on February 22, 2024.

2. WSU used a second half surge in their 79-63 victory over Hawai'i on Wednesday in the first ever college basketball game at the Angel of the Winds Arena. WSU moved to 2-3 this season, with Lazerek Houston dominating on both ends of the floor. Houston flirted with a triple-double, finishing with 16 points, 11 rebounds (seven off.), nine assists and four steals. Ronnie Harrison made his second start of the season after missing the last game with an ankle injury, recording 15 points. Tyler Kropp rounded out the double figuring scoring, with a career-high 13 points and added two steals.

3. The Cougs dominated the paint (38-18) and got a huge boost with 33 bench points. WSU recorded a season-high's in steals (10), block shots (5) and forced a season-high 15 turnovers. The Cougs went 17-23 (.723) from the free throw line in the second half and 21-28 (.750) overall. It is WSU's first win away from Beasley since December 28, 2025 at Portland (67-62), snapping a nine-game losing skid. Washington State moved to 6-2 all-time against Hawai'i, avenging a 51-62 loss in the Diamond Head Classic on December 23, 2022.

COUGAR BASKETBALL NOTES

UP NEXT

The Cougars will be back in Beasley to host Sam Houston on Tuesday, November 24 at 6 p.m. PT. WSU will then host the University of Idaho on Friday, November 27 at 5 p.m. PT, both pieces of broadcasting live on Pac-12 YouTube. The Cougs will take on the Bearkats for the first time in program history. WSU will host Idaho in their 281st all-time meeting on Friday, the 11th-most played series in Division-I history. The Cougs will look to avenge their 81-83 loss to the Vandals in last season's opener.

WHAT HAPPENED LAST GAME?

WSU recorded their first win away from Beasley since December 28, 2025 at Portland (67-62), snapping a nine-game losing skid. Ronnie Harrison would make his presence known early, giving the Cougs their first points of the ball game with a slam and a block on the other end. Tyler Kropp would provide a spark off the bench, scoring a quick five points and guide WSU on a 9-1 run. Houston would command the offense in the first half, recording four assists on WSU's first nine buckets of the game. With 24 seconds remaining in the first half, a three on the wing by Kropp would just miss, but Houston would get the offensive rebound and hit the deep three at the buzzer to take a 30-26 lead at half. A 9-0 run after the break by the Cougs would give them a 39-26 lead and gutsy play by Houston on the offensive boards would lead to three more assists and three more threes to give their biggest lead of the game 52-36. Harrison would be the first Cougar to reach double figures after a nice dish from RJ Jones, as he would convert the and-one. This would push their lead to 16 again with just under nine points to go. Hawai'i would make back-to-back threes and see the Cougar lead cut to six with a 65-59 advantage, but Mohamed Sankhe would grab a pair of offensive boards and help push the lead back to 10 points with three minutes to go and a step back three from Houston in their last possession would be the exclamation point in their 79-63 victory.

INSIDE THE BOX SCORE (VS HAWAI'I)

WSU allowed a Hawai'i team to just 63 points, after averaging 81.8 points per game coming into the contest. They also held Hawai'i to a season-low .327% (17-52) shooting from the field. Washington State recorded 10 steals, their most in a game since 10 steals against Eastern Washington in Spokane Arena on December, 17, 2025. Lazerek Houston fell one assist shy of a triple double, recording his fourth straight game with 10+ points…the last Coug to record a triple double was LeJuan Watts (20 pts, 11rbd, 10 ast) at Santa Clara on January 23, 2025. He played a season-high 34 minutes and has 10 offensive rebounds already this season after recording 15 offensive boards last season. Ronnie Harrison made his second career start as a Coug, recording the highest +/- of any player in the contest (+20). Ladji Dembele and Lazerek Houston are the only Cougs to start in the first five games this season.

ABOUT THE DUKE BLUE DEVILS

This will be the first all-time meeting for the Cougs against Duke, and their seventh meeting against an ACC team. WSU is 3-3 overall against ACC schools, falling in their last game against SMU 60-77 on November 27, 2024. It was also their last game in Palm Desert. Duke is 3-2 this season, with their two losses to Michigan State (73-79) in the State Farms Classic on November 10th and recently losing at home in Cameron Indoor Stadium to Illinois (78-99) on Tuesday, November 17. The Blue Devils went 35-3 (17-1) last season, winning the ACC regular season and conference tournament and making it to the Elite Eight. Former Blue Devil Jon Scheyer (2010) is now in his fifth year as head coach for Duke (124-25).

Washington State is 11-81 all-time against AP Top-5 teams and 55-250 all-time against AP Top 25 teams. Since 2020, WSU is 4-15 against ranked teams, losing their last four match ups. The Cougs have won their last two games against top five opponents, Febuary, 22, 2024 at No. 4 Arizona (77-74) and January 7, 2023, at No. 5 Arizona (74-61). WSU went 0-2 against ranked teams last season (both Gonzaga: Feb. 10, 2026, 53-83 and Jan. 15, 2026, 65-86).

HOUSTON IS YOUR PROBLEM

Sophomore guard Lazerek Houston has made a statement for the Cougs this season. In his last game against Hawai'i on Wednesday, Houston was one assist shy of the first triple-double by a Coug since LeJuan Watts two seasons ago. In WSU's second game of the season at High Point, recorded his eighth career 30+ point game with 31 points, going 9-of-13 and 5-of-8 from beyond the arc. It was the most points scored by a Coug since Ace Glass recorded 40 points against ASU on Nov. 25, 2025. It is also the most points by a Coug in a true road game since Myles Rice's 35 points at Stanford (Jan. 18, 2024). Houston's 18 points in the first half were the most by a Coug since Tómas Thrastarson (also: 18 points on Nov. 10, 2025 vs. St. Thomas). In five games, the Lincoln, Nebraska native is leading the Cougs in points (15.2), assists (4.2), and minutes per game (27.5). Leads the team in three-point percentage (.625) and is shooting .571% (24-42) from the field. He is also 18-for-21 (.857) from the free throw line.

HARRELL IS BALLIN'

Washington State guard Jaylen Harrell was named the Pac-12 Conference Freshman of the Week, the conference office announced Monday, November 9. Harrell, a redshirt-freshman transfer from Providence, shined in his first two games as Coug and averaged 15.5 points per game. In the first start of his career on Nov. 7 at High Point, Harrell recorded 18 points on 8-of-12 shooting from the field with two threes. Averaged 16.0 ppg on 11-19 (.579%) shooting from the field and was perfect from the free throw line (7-7) in his first two games. Through five games, he leads the team in steals (9) and is second in points per game (13.2) and minutes per game (124 mins.) He is also a perfect 9-9 from the free throw line. Among Pac-12 players through Nov. 20, Harrell ranks sixth in field goal percentage (.581).

WHAT IS SHAKIN' FOR AKINS

On Nov. 14 vs. Northwest, Akins led the Cougs and tied his career-high with 27 points, going 8-12 (.667%) from the field with a season-high three made threes, went perfect from the free throw line (8-8) and a season-high five assists. Akins has recorded 3+ assists in four of the first five games played and is second on the team with 14 this season. Akins is third in minutes played (105 mins.) and has gone 12-14 from the free throw line. Ranked 11th in the Pac-12 with a 2.14 assist/turnover ratio (15/7).

WHAT'S KROPPIN'

Sophomore Tyler Kropp has recorded a new career-high in points in his last three games. After zero points in his first games of the season, Kropp has recorded 10, 12 and 13 points, averaging 11.67 points per game on .619% shooting (13-21) from the field in his last three contests. He is also 7-8 from the free throw line this season.

THERE ARE TWO HALVES

In their first five games, the Cougs have outscored their opponent 191-164 (+27) by their opponents in the first half, compared to 214-217 (-3) in the second half. At the charity stripe, WSU has attempted only one more free throw in the first half (35-34) and overall have had 21 fewer free throw attempts this season (97 to 118). Allowing 76.2 points per game in their first five contests. Allowed 78.8 points per game in their first five games last season.

ROAD WOES

WSU have lost their last 10 games on the road, with their last road win on Dec. 28, 2025 at Portland (67-62). Washington State went 1-11 on the road last season, one of 27 schools in the country with one or fewer road wins during the 2025-26 season.

HEAD COACH
THIRD SEASON AT WSU
SIXTH SEASON OVERALL

AT A GLANCE

Head Coach David Riley enters his third season at WSU in 2026-27 and sixth season as a Division-I head coach. Riley was named the 20th men's basketball coach in Washington State history, April 2, 2024. In his second season with WSU, the Cougs were second in the WCC in 3-point field goals made (303) and 3-point field goal percentage (.369). Helped guide freshman Ace Glass rank fourth in the conference in scoring (16.4 ppg) and sixth in total points (525). The Cougars finished 12-20 overal and 7-11 in conference during the 2025-26 season. Riley began his Cougar career with a 19-15 first-season record and postseason berth to the College Basketball Crown.

Over five seasons as a Division-I head coach, Riley has amassed a 93-73 record with two conference titles and three postseason appearances. Riley was named the back-to-back Big Sky Conference Coach of the Year prior to his arrival on the Palouse. In his first season at WSU, Riley guided the Cougar program to a fourth-consecutive postseason berth, setting school records with 968 field goals made and 574 assists in his free-flowing offensive scheme. Riley's Cougs scored 2,683 points – the second-most points by a Cougar men's team in a single season in program history. In the 2025 NBA Draft, WSU's Cedric Coward was selected as the No. 11 overall pick, going in the first round as the highest Cougar NBA selection since Klay Thompson was drafted 11th in 2011.

Riley spent 13 years in Cheney, Washington, beginning as a graduate assistant, eventually being promoted to the role of head coach in 2021 after 10 seasons as an assistant in the program. During his time at EWU, the Eagles achieved unprecedented success, earning two trips to the NCAA Tournament and earning five Big Sky Conference MVP honors. As a player, Riley was a four-year starter and feared shooter at D-III Whitworth University in Spokane. He was born in Seattle and grew up on Stanford University's campus in California. He graduated from Whitworth in 2011 with a degree in mathematical economics, then earned a master's degree in physical education (sport administration) from Eastern in 2013.

FRIEL COURT AT BEASLEY COLISEUM

OPENED DECEMBER 1973

CAPACITY 11,671

The Washington State men's basketball team enters its 54th-consecutive season playing at Friel Court inside Beasley Coliseum. WSU won its 300th game all-time at the venerable facility Feb. 18, 2012 when the Cougars defeated Arizona State and its 350th game Nov. 18, 2017 with a victory over Idaho State. WSU's most recent milestone came with its 400th win at Friel Court, March 15, 2022, a 63-50 victory over Santa Clara in the National Invitation Tournament.

The Cougars first moved to Friel Court Dec. 1, 1973, and christened their new home with an 80-78 victory over LSU in front of 9,000 fans.

WSU has earned a postseason berth 15 times while calling Friel Court home. The 1979-80 season marked the first occasion as the Cougars advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since the 1940-41 team finished as the national runner-up.

During the 2010-11 season, the Cougars hosted, and won, three NIT games at Beasley Coliseum, advancing to the NIT Semifinals in New York for the first time in school history, while winning a program-best three postseason games.

In 2025-26, Wazzu boasted a 9-6 record at Beasley Coliseum, going 6-3 at home in conference play in their second season of WCC action. In 2024-25, Wazzu boasted a 10-4 record at Beasley Coliseum, going unbeaten in nonconference play with a perfect 5-0 record. In the first season of WCC action, the Cougars finished 5-4 at home.

Friel Court has been the site of NCAA Tournament First and Second Round games (1975, 1982 and 1985). In fact, Friel Court was the first stop on UCLA's 1975 NCAA title run, the 10th and final championship for head coach John Wooden. The Bruins needed overtime to defeat Michigan 103-91.

The arena, which currently seats 11,671 for basketball, was formally dedicated in honor of longtime Washington State Head Coach Jack Friel, who directed the Cougars to the 1941 NCAA title game. In the spring of 1981, the coliseum was named in honor of past Washington State Vice President Wallis Beasley. Prior to the 2007-08 season, the court got a new look after being newly refurbished and painted. Prior to the 2011-12 season, the center-hung scoreboard was added to the coliseum, enhancing the fan experience at basketball games. Also at that time, the floor was refurbished again as part of WSU's rebranding initiative. The Cougars gave Friel Court a fresh look again in 2019-20, when the floor was refinished with Gray paint highlighting the Crimson Coug Head at center court.

WSU AND COLVILLE TRIBES ANNOUNCE HISTORIC PARTNERSHIP

JUNE 30, 2026

PULLMAN, Wash. - Washington State University Athletics and the Confederated Tribes of the Colville Reservation announced a historic new partnership grounded in shared values of community, culture, and a commitment to developing future generations of leaders.

Under the five-year agreement, the largest annual sponsorship in WSU Athletics history, all Cougar uniforms will feature a Colville Tribe jersey patch. The initiative represents one of the most comprehensive uniform recognitions in college athletics and a first of its kind within the Pac-12.

"At the heart of this partnership is a shared belief in investing in young people, helping them become exceptional students, future leaders, and ultimately bringing them back home to strengthen the communities they love," said WSU President Betsy Cantwell. "That alignment of values is what made the Colville Tribes the right partner for this historic opportunity."

The partnership brings the 12 Tribes of the Confederated Tribes of the Colville Reservation, who have lived since time immemorial in the lands known today as eastern Washington, together with the state's land-grant university. It builds on a longstanding relationship first formalized in 1997 and rooted in more than a century of shared commitment to this region's diverse and evolving needs.

The Chairman of the Confederated Tribes of the Colville Reservation, Jarred-Michael Erickson, said, "The Colville Tribes has partnered with WSU for decades now on a variety of topics related to education and culture. We are pleased to continue our partnership with this new and historic involvement in WSU's athletic program. Athletics instill character, and that is an important quality for Colville. There are multiple aspects to this deal, but I am sure our membership will especially enjoy seeing a Colville Tribes patch on WSU jerseys. Go Cougs!"

The $8.43 million agreement includes a $250,000 donation to the Cougar Athletic Excellence Fund in year one. It extends beyond sporting competition to include youth clinics in tribal communities, regional basketball development opportunities, and an AAU tribal tournament. A dedicated video series will highlight the connections between WSU student-athletes and tribal youth, creating greater visibility and shared understanding.

Additional elements include Colville Tribes entitlement games across multiple sports, special Nike N7 games for men's and women's basketball, and prominent integration across WSU Athletics platforms and game-day experiences.

"This is a historic partnership rooted in Eastern Washington," said WSU Vice President and Director of Athletics Jon Haarlow. "It brings together two tradition-rich communities as we chart an exciting new path forward as leaders in the Pacific Northwest and the new Pac-12."

This deal was brokered in collaboration with Playfly Sports, the sports industry's leading revenue maximization company. Playfly serves as WSU's multimedia rights partner.
