Isaiah 6: 1-8

In the year that King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord, high and exalted, seated on a throne; and the train of his robe filled the temple. ² Above him were seraphim, each with six wings: With two wings they covered their faces, with two they covered their feet, and with two they were flying. ³ And they were calling to one another:

“Holy, holy, holy is the LORD Almighty;
the whole earth is full of his glory.”

⁴ At the sound of their voices the doorposts and thresholds shook and the temple was filled with smoke.

⁵ “Woe to me!” I cried. “I am ruined! For I am a man of unclean lips, and I live among a people of unclean lips, and my eyes have seen the King, the LORD Almighty.”

⁶ Then one of the seraphim flew to me with a live coal in his hand, which he had taken with tongs from the altar. ⁷ With it he touched my mouth and said, “See, this has touched your lips; your guilt is taken away and your sin atoned for.”

⁸ Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, “Whom shall I send? And who will go for us?”

And I said, “Here am I. Send me!”

Restoration Song (Myung Sik Kim)

In obedience to His call, I gave my life to Jesus, calling on His Name.

People couldn't understand, but I wanted to follow you no matter the result;

Looking back, I humbly see I've done nothing by myself, everything is because of God's grace.

God's hand has led me, who stood at the edge of a precipice, and guided me to where I am today.

God's love will never leave me. Because He loves to the very end.

As I look to Jesus and His cross alone, once again I desire to give my life unreservedly to Him.

Chorus

May my song raise up the broken hearted,
I pray it will become a song that restores people back to life,
When I see the Lord, I want to hear Him say,
“Well done, good and faithful servant”
