

Introduction	Composer Securities LLC (“Composer” or “we” or “our”) is registered with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) as a broker-dealer. Brokerage and investment advisory services and fees differ, and it is important for you to understand these differences. As a registered broker-dealer, Composer is a member of FINRA. Free and simple tools are available to research firms and financial professionals at Investor.gov/CRS, which also provides educational materials about broker-dealers, investment advisers, and investing.
What investment services and advice can you provide me?	Composer’s services include introducing the accounts of its affiliated registered investment adviser, Composer Technologies Inc., to Apex Clearing Corp. (“Apex”) who will be the custodian of the accounts offering the services listed below. We will maintain the accounts for the clients of Composer Technologies Inc. but we do not monitor your account or individual investments, unless we state otherwise in writing. We do not have any account minimums. Composer is an introducing broker-dealer and your funds and securities will be custodied by Apex, who services your account by: (i) executing, clearing and settling your trades; and (ii) preparing and distributing your account statements and trade confirmations. We offer the ability to buy and sell U.S. listed equities and exchange-traded funds (“ETFs”). We do not offer proprietary securities products or limit our platform to products that pay us revenue sharing or other compensation. For additional information about our products and services, please visit our website at www.composer.trade.
What fees will I pay?	You may pay certain administrative fees charged by third parties. Please see our fee schedule for more information. We are compensated when you complete a transaction, we therefore have an incentive to encourage you to make larger investments and trade more frequently. You will pay fees and costs whether you make or lose money on your investments. Fees and costs will reduce any amount of money you make on your investments over time. Please make sure you understand what fees and costs you are paying.
What fees will I pay? Continued	For additional information about fees and costs, please refer to Composer’s fee schedule on Composer’s website. Fees may change without notice and any changes will be reflected in Composer’s Fee Schedule.  CONVERSATION STARTER: Ask your financial professional: Help me understand how these fees and costs might affect my investments. If I give you $10,000 to invest, how much will go to fees and costs, and how much will be invested for me?  Responses to these conversation starters can be found here.

CONVERSATION STARTERS: Ask your financial professional:

Given my financial situation, should I choose a brokerage service? Why or why not?
How will you choose investments to recommend to me?
What is your relevant experience, including your licenses, education, and other qualifications? What do these qualifications mean?

What are your legal obligations to me when providing recommendations? How else does your firm make money and what conflicts of interest do you have?	We do not provide recommendations. The way we make money may create some conflicts with your interests. You should understand and ask us about these conflicts because they can affect the services we provide you. Here are some examples to help you understand what this means: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • We are paid when you complete a transaction, which means we have an incentive to encourage you to make larger investments and trade more frequently, as noted below. • We receive Payment for Order Flow (PFOF) when you buy or sell securities from part or all of your transactions. • We earn interest on certain cash or cash equivalents of retail customers. • We earn a share in the interest derived from fully paid securities lending activities from Apex. • We are affiliated with a registered investment adviser, Composer Technologies, Inc. and indirectly benefit when you use the services provided by that affiliate. For additional information, please visit our website at www.composer.trade.  CONVERSATION STARTER: Ask your financial professional: How might your conflicts of interest affect me, and how will you address them?  Responses to these conversation starters can be found here.
How do your financial professionals make money?	Composer financial professionals are paid salaries and discretionary bonuses based on their overall job responsibilities and performance. Our financial professionals do not earn any incentive-based compensation tied to the trading or investments of our customers.
Do you or your financial professionals have legal or disciplinary history?	No. Neither Composer nor our financial professionals have reportable legal or disciplinary events. Visit Investor.gov/CRS for a free and simple search tool to research Composer and our financial professionals. CONVERSATION STARTER: Ask your financial professional: As a financial professional, do you have any disciplinary history?
