

A LIFE WELL LIVED

In your time on this Earth you've taught us so much

Be kind, serve others, and most of all love.

Family is important and should be cherished each day.

Be humble and for others each night you should pray.

When trials happen and everything seems to go wrong,

Remember these words, "Life Goes On."

So on we must go without you here.

We know you'll be watching and always be near.

We love you and miss you to no end,

You'll always be our mother, sister, grandmother, and friend.
