

A Mother's Love

By Emily Taylor

Hast thou sounded the depths of yonder sea,
And counted the sands that under it be?
Hast thou measured the height of heaven above?
Then mayst there mite out a mothers love.

Hast thou talked with the blessed of leading on
To the throne of God some wandering son?
Hast thou witnessed the angles bright employ?
then mayst thou speak of a Mother's joy.

Evening and morn hast thou watched the bee go forth on her errand of industry?
The bee for himself hast gathered and toiled,
But the Mothers cares are all for her child.

Hast thou gone with the traveler though afar-
From pole to pole, and from star to star?
thou hast-but on ocean, earth, and sea,
the heart of a mother has gone with thee.

There is not a grand inspiring thought there is not a truth by wisdom taught there is not a feeling pure and high,
that may not be read in a mother's eye.

And ever since earth began that look
has been to the wise an open book,
to win them back from the lore they prize
to the holier love that edifices.

There are teachings in earth, and sea and air,
the heavens the glory of God declare;
But louder than voice beneath or above,
He is heard to speak though a Mothers love.

Just when the caterpillar thought the world was over...

She became a Butterfly!
