

IN LOVING MEMORY OF JERRY CURTIS BAIR

Jerry Curtis Bair lived a life defined by faith, family, service, and love. Born to Hyrum Virgil and Mildred Mae Bair, he grew up learning the values of hard work, self-reliance, and quiet service that would guide him throughout his life.

He met the love of his life, Kathryn, at a high school Valentine's dance, and together they built a beautiful marriage that spanned more than 60 years after being sealed for time and all eternity in the Salt Lake Temple. Together they raised six children and were blessed with 16 grandchildren and 17 great-grandchildren, each of whom knew they were deeply loved. Whether sharing popcorn, reading books, cheering on BYU football, or making memories around his treasured Christmas village, Jerry found joy in life's simple moments.

Following his graduation from Brigham Young University, Jerry accepted a commission in the United States Air Force, faithfully serving his country for 20 years before retiring as a Major. His military career took his family throughout the United States and to South Korea, where they embraced new adventures together.

Jerry's greatest devotion was to his Savior, Jesus Christ. He faithfully served in many callings in The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, dedicated countless hours to family history, sang in his ward choir throughout his adult life, served an inner-city mission with Kathryn, and cherished his many years as an ordinance worker in the Jordan River Temple. His quiet testimony and Christlike service were the foundation of his life.

Those who knew Jerry will always remember his mischievous smile, his funny T-shirts, his artistic talents, his quick wit, and his ability to make everyone feel welcome and loved. More than anything, he leaves a legacy of unwavering faith, humble service, and unconditional love for his family.

Though we miss him deeply, we rejoice in the Savior's promise that families are eternal. We are grateful for Jerry's remarkable example and look forward with hope to the day we are reunited again.

IN LOVING MEMORY

JERRY CURTIS BAIR

January 23, 1945 ~ July 17, 2026