THOUGHTS FOR MY HUSBAND

Life can be difficult, but I choose to remember the blessing of a restored relationship with Kay before he passed.

In the last several weeks, we had the closeness I had hoped for over the last 50 years. I held Kay's hand and I laid my head on his chest and loved him.

He had become himself again. He felt loved, was at peace, humbled himself, became gracious, funny, and the man I married.

My dream come true.

FORGET THE FORMER THINGS;
DO NOT DWELL ON THE PAST.
SEE, I AM DOING
A NEW THING!
NOW IT SPRINGS UP;
DO YOU NOT PERCEIVE IT?
I AM MAKING A WAY IN THE WILDERNESS
AND STREAMS IN THE WASTELAND.

ISAIAH 43:18-19 NIV
