May's Obituary

May Liao Leo, devoted wife, loving mother, and cherished grandmother, passed away peacefully in her home on July 16, 2026, at the age of 69. Born in Taishan, Guangdong, China, on January 18, 1957, May was a woman of immense strength and dedication.

She married her childhood sweetheart and together they embarked on a journey to the United States, driven by a profound desire to build a better future for their children. May was a hardworking entrepreneur, owning and operating a restaurant with her husband where her passion for serving others shone brightly. Her dedication to her family was paramount, and she found her greatest joy in spending time with her five beloved grandchildren. She delighted in cooking for them and cherishing every moment, connecting with them through daily phone calls.

May is survived by her loving husband, David; her children, Karen (Dave) and Raymond (Rubi); her mother, You Hao; her brother, Nuan Qiang; her sister, Wan Mei; and her grandchildren: Eli, Micah, Norah, Max, and Marley. She was preceded in death by her father, Tian Ran, and her older brother, Nuan Chang.
