

TO MY

DAUGHTERS

You are so precious and beautiful. You are my pride and joy. My gratitude is ever growing no matter what you do, and this blanket is a gift from the bottom of my heart. Something that is always a sweet and soft source of comfort and a warm shield to rely on whenever there's a chill, for it is infused with every ounce of my love and with each snuggle you put in, it becomes all the more special. Though it will never magically talk and tell you how much you mean to me, it will always be there as a reminder of how much I really care. I love you, thank you for being my daughter.

-UNKNOWN

Words cannot express how much we thank you for the love that you've shown and the help you've provided during this time of sorrow. We are truly grateful for your friendship and support.
