~ Pastor’s Message ~

Dear Beloved in the Lord,

Despite the hot weather here in Charleston, a lot of “cool” things have been happening around the Church, especially the Hellenic Center, 11 Race St (AHEPA house), and Parish house.

The Hellenic Center is literally packed up and things are in storage as we prepare for the demolition of the building. The AHEPA House has been transformed into beautiful offices and the Parish House is being prepared for our fellowship gatherings and classrooms. Thus, you can say it is exciting times at Holy Trinity.

Yet, with all that is taking place, I am reminded of St. Paul’s letter to the Corinthian Church. He said, “Brethren we are God’s fellow workers; you are God’s field, God’s building.” (1 Cor. 3:1) In other words, each of us, in our parish are God’s co-workers. We are called to strive to be the light of Christ, to shine within our church community and community at large.

Each of us when we attend the Divine Liturgy, receive Holy Communion and work for the Church, big or small are God’s co-workers making Holy Trinity to be a beacon of love, life and light.

On December 8th Metropolitan Alexios will be here and we will have the ground breaking for the new Hellenic Center and classrooms. As God's co-workers let us all be present and may we keep as our central prayer, from the Psalmist, “Unless God builds the house the builder’s build in vain.” (Psalm 127:1). Let us remember this is God’s project and we as His co-workers are called, every one of us, to help facilitate His work, by helping where you can, be positive and upbeat as we will be inconvenienced, but the outcome will be well worth it. And if you haven’t made a pledge yet, please pray that our Lord will guide you on your commitment.

Yes, my brothers and sisters, we are entering into a new era here at Holy Trinity and it is because of your love, support and prayers for the parish that we are able to do. So, let us be God’s co-workers, prayerfully remember these two verses, “Brethren we are God’s fellow workers; you are God’s field, God’s building. (1 Cor. 3:1) and “Unless God builds the house the builder’s build in vain.” (Psalm 127:1) as our prayer and mantra as we move upward and forward. And let pray for a completion of this task.

Happy New Year

Fr. Ari: “Happy New Year!”
Someone: “What, do you mean, are you confused Fr. Ari?”
Fr. Ari: “Well, not more than usual.”

MONTHLY NEWSLETTER
Any information, articles or pictures to be published in the Philoxenia are due by the 15th of each month at 5:00pm. Please kindly email information to Mary Zervos at: newsletter@gocharleston.org.
September 1st is the beginning of the Ecclesiastical or Church New Year. It is when our Liturgical year commences and it also correlates with everything starting fresh this Season; school, various sports and school activities. Our parish of Holy Trinity is no different as we begin the various ministries of our parish and I challenge all of us to get involved. We are blessed to have many opportunities for our faithful to participate, whether it is our Adult Catechism Classes, Sunday School, the Men and Women’s Study Groups, Bible Study, Altar Boys, Choir, BakingProsphora, Epistle Reader, Vacation Church School, YAL, GOYA, HOPE, JOY, Philoptochos, Greek School, Greek Dance, Senior League, AHEPA, Sunshine Committee, Parish Council, Cooking, Prayer Chain, Library, Website, Philoxenia, Gardening, Plumbing, Electrical, Finance Committee, Fundraising Welcome Team, Stewardship and Feed the Hungry…just to name of few.

Most importantly, I would like all of us to commit to regular Church attendance and receiving Holy Communion. I know that school, work and sport schedules sometimes pull us in different directions, but our spiritual life should be of utmost importance. Thus, I offer the following suggestions:

1st Set aside time each day for prayer. Find a prayer book. In the back of the Orthodox Study Bible are beautiful prayers for morning and night. Read the daily Epistle and Gospel readings for the day. Spend time each day individually or as a family before your icons and pray.

2nd Fast on Wednesdays and Fridays throughout the year, even if you do not plan to receive Holy Communion, on Sunday morning. Parents, we should set the example at home. You may have to prepare a bag lunch for the children to take to school on these days and if you stress the importance of fasting, our kids will catch on. The Church teaches us to make a fasting discipline each week. We fast on Wednesdays because that was the day Christ was betrayed and Fridays because He was crucified that day. There is no fasting on Saturdays except Holy Saturday.

Also, the morning we are to receive the Sacrament, do not eat anything. However, if you are elderly or are talking medications or are in question, speak with Fr. Ari about how you should prepare. Do not be embarrassed.

3rd Take part in the Sacrament of Confession at least twice a year. Spiritual accountability is paramount in growing in our faith. And what is said in confession stays in confession. I always like the closing line in the prayer of absolution that the priest reads, “have no further care of the sins that you have confessed, but go in peace.”

4th Attend the Divine Liturgy on Time. How is it possible to receive the Eucharist without first hearing the Word of God, the Epistle and Gospel lessons? How can we take part in this heavenly banquet if we regularly arrive late for worship? It is unacceptable to consistently arrive at work or school late; worship should have an even higher priority. We need to prepare our minds, bodies and souls before stepping forward to receive Holy Communion, as St. Serapion calls the ‘medicine of immortality.’

5th Invite someone back to church who may have been absent for a while. Let them know they have been missed.

Thus, as we begin this New Year, may we participate in the life of the Church so we will allow our Holy Trinity to be a source of spiritual strength for all.

Happy New Year!

To Those Who Bring Small Children to Church
There you are, we parents can relate. Your baby or toddler is restless. Perhaps even a little boisterous. You try to silence them, and nothing. You try to pacify them with food or toys, and nothing. Eventually, you resort to the last thing you wanted to do: You pick them up, and before a watching congregation, you march them out of church. All the while you are embarrassed and a little frustrated too. You may even think to yourself, “There’s no point in coming to church. I get nothing out of it because I have to care for my kid.”

I want you mothers and or fathers to know just how encouraging you are too many. The elderly lady who often feels alone beams with a smile at the sight of you wrestling with your child. She’s been there before. She knows how hard it can be, but smiles because to hear young sounds, brings back precious memories. Seeing young parents and their small children in Church, brightens her day; she may have received bad news about her health, but seeing the vitality of young ones removes- for a moment, her fears.

The older man who always seems to be grouchy notices you too. He’s always talking about how children in this day have no respect or goodness. But he sees you a young family in church every week. Like clockwork, he can depend on the sight of your family. You give him hope that maybe the Church isn’t doomed after all, because there are still young parents who love God enough to bring their restless children to church.

Bring your children to church: If we don’t hear crying, the church is dying. As hard as it might be for you as a parent who’s sleep deprived, keep on doing what you are doing. You’re an encouragement, and you’re starting off your children’s lives as you should.

Tips For Parents With Children
1. If your child becomes restless, change the environment. The time out room, where the elevator is, has a chair and a place where the parent can sit and the child can crawl or walk around for a few minutes. Then bring them back into the Liturgy.
2. When your child becomes mobile, start coming to Church before Father’s children sermon and Holy Communion, then take your child to their appropriate Sunday School Class.
3. Begin to increase the time you come to Church and before you know it your child will enjoy Church and you the parent will get something out of it.
4. Sit in the front so you children can see what is going on.

Remember our children won’t be little forever so plant the seed now.

CAPITAL FUNDRAISING PROJECT UPDATE

More than Bricks & Mortar - A Foundation of Faith for Our Future

by Dinos Liollio

Well, the move out of the Hellenic Center is almost complete. Father Ari and Cleo are in 11 Race Street and this will now serve as our administrative office until the new buildings are complete. The building has been painted, furniture has been set in place, and the interior is bright, filled with natural light. Additionally, the handicap ramp is installed, the rear property cleared, and the conex boxes are in place and in the process of being loaded.

Regarding our new building, construction documents are close to being completed, with final sets available to the general contractors for pricing at the end of August. As noted before, bids will be received at the end of September. We are inviting 5-6 general contractors for competitive pricing, so we will know soon who we will be working with for the following 14 months of construction.

In the coming weeks, we will be displaying more detailed information regarding the design, including colored renderings of the social hall, floor plans with material pallets, and landscape plans. Please mark your calendars for our December 8, 2019, Ground Breaking Ceremony.

It's an EXCITING time at Holy Trinity…!!!

For I know the plans I have for you, says the Lord, plans for welfare and not for evil, to give you a future and a hope.

As of September 3, 2019, we have collected $341,180.25. 119 pledge cards have been submitted pledging $227,102.00. Our 2019 Stewardship goal is $551,100.00.

In the Gospel of Saint Matthew (6:19), Jesus instructs us, "Do not store up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust destroy, and where thieves break in and steal..." Often in life, we pursue and collect those things that do not last. We must ask, "One hundred years from now, where will our possessions be?" Our greatest blessing is our family. As Orthodox Christians, we are called to be stewards of this great gift. If we are faithful to this calling, perhaps our Lord will say to us as he did to the faithful steward, "Well done good and faithful servant" (Mt 25:23).

SEPTEMBER 2019
The Philoxenia
As my term as president ends, I would like to thank my Philoptochos board and the entire Holy Trinity community for your encouragement and support over the past 2 years. Our Philoptochos chapter is able to support so many charitable endeavors because of you!

Congratulations to our newly elected board members:
Alexandra Pittas - President
Mary Ann Miehe – Vice President
Effie Meletis - Treasurer
Billie Ruby – Recording Secretary
Tia Kontenakos – Corresponding Secretary
Brenda Alvanos – Assistant Treasurer

Thanks to our VA Ministry: Mary Lee Lavelle, Joyce Karnazes, Catalin Baicu, Bobby Manutes, and Gee Manutes, who visited the VA Hospital on Wednesday, June 5. This was a particularly meaningful visit because it was the day before D Day. The visits include doughnuts and red roses for the veterans, and on this visit Krispy Kreme donated the doughnuts for the Vets. With our remaining budgeted funds, Philoptochos was able to make a $107 donation to the VA volunteer department to be used for the needs of the nursing home unit. This will help with toiletries, outings and other needs that may arise.

An appreciation lunch honoring the Philoptochos past presidents was held at Mrs. Rose’s Fine Food Restaurant. A special thanks to my Vice President, Andreea Carabus, for planning this wonderful event!
