The English Indoor Bowling Association Ltd is delighted to welcome Future Legal Services as an Official Supplier.

As part of the partnership Future Legal Services will be the Title Sponsor of the Top Club Mixed Team national knock out competition.

Throughout the year Future Legal Services will be offering bowlers the opportunity to have their Will professionally written and safeguard the future of everyone and everything that is precious to them.

As well as a specific link on the EIBA website Future Legal Services want to engage actively with Indoor Clubs at a local level. In addition, they will be promoting the sport of Indoor Bowls to their customers throughout England.

Commenting on the sponsorship EIBA's Chief Executive Peter Thompson said: "To secure Future Legal Services as an Official Supplier is a tremendous boost to the Association and the sport. Not only will Future Legal Services be promoting their Services to Indoor Bowlers, they want to help the sport develop by introducing their customers to an Indoor Club near them."

Kate Marston, Future Legal Services's Head of Marketing added: "We are delighted to be working with the EIBA to promote the game to wider audiences, encourage more people to play the sport whilst helping Indoor Bowlers to safeguard their Future."
