

Why volunteer?

Our volunteer roles include:

- Museum guiding;
- Office administration;
- Gardening;
- Painting and maintenance;
- Specialist skills, such as heritage crafts, engineering, science and education;
- Supporting on event days, the catering outlets and visitor reception.

What are the benefits of volunteering?

The Museum can provide you with training and support to learn new skills. Once you have completed a season at the Museum, you will be given your volunteer card in recognition of completing over 50 hours of service to the Museum. This also entitles you to 10% discount in the Museum cafe and shop.

Interested in becoming a volunteer?

If you would like to join our friendly team, you can find out more by filling in the application form. Once we have received your application, we will contact you to arrange an informal interview at the Museum.

We will then do any necessary checks for your chosen role, and the Volunteer Coordinator will arrange a start date convenient to you and the team you will be working with.

You will receive a warm welcome from our staff and volunteers and an induction into your role, along with the relevant health and safety training.

After your first four weeks of volunteering, the Volunteer Coordinator will contact you to make sure that the role you have started is suitable.

Making new friends, working in an amazing place and knowing that you are helping a great cause.

Are just three reasons to volunteer at Amberley Museum.

Volunteers make a real difference to the Museum.

Why not donate your time, expertise and enthusiasm.

Amberley Museum is open for its main season from Mid March until Late October, and also open for February half term and selected dates in December.

We need volunteers all year round to help maintain the exhibits and buildings on the Museum's 36 acre site.

For more information on volunteering at the Museum, please complete the enclosed form and return it to the Museum office at the address below.

Volunteering at Amberley Museum

amberleymuseum.co.uk

Volunteers make a huge contribution to all areas of the Museum in a wide range of diverse roles. Without the time given to us by our volunteers, we would simply not be able to exist.

Why volunteer?

Anyone can apply to volunteer at Amberley Museum, and our volunteers include students, retirees, work experience and anyone with free time. (You must be aged 16 and over to volunteer).

It is an opportunity to:

- Share your skills and knowledge
- Learn new things
- Make new friends
- Strengthen your CV

We appreciate any amount of time that you can give as a volunteer, from once a month to a few days a week. Once you are registered as a volunteer, we just ask you to keep us informed of when you will be volunteering so that we can manage the team efficiently around the Museum.

We ask that new volunteers gain an understanding of the Museum as a whole, maybe training with one of our visitor guides, then progressing to work in a particular area or staying as general helper.

What are we looking for?

At Amberley Museum, we value visitor experience. Volunteers have a key role in interacting with our visitors, helping to make their experience special.

For a list of current volunteer vacancies, please visit our website, www.amberleymuseum.co.uk.

If you are interesting in finding out more and applying to be an Amberley Museum volunteer, please complete this form and return it to the Museum (address over).
