

Buckeye Horse Park

Rules for Rings

The Buckeye Horse Park Assoc. reserves the right to interpret, amend, and/or add to the rules stated herein. Individuals or groups violating these general or specific rules will forfeit all privileges.

Reservations Are Required: Reservations for the use of the rings for shows, riding lessons, training, equine events and riding meetings etc.. are subject to the approval of the Scheduling Chairperson.

Reservations must be in writing or e-mailed and submitted within two (2) weeks of verbal commitment along with the deposit and proof of insurance. It must show the name and address of the person in charge and the date and hours of the activity. The use of the ring(s) is limited to the purpose and duration indicated on the application form and such space must be vacated promptly. Your approved reservation allows set up the day prior the event and tear down the day after your event as long as that was stipulated on your request. If you desire/require other arrangements, please request it on your reservation form. Anyone using the rings must clean up the areas used. This means the rings, the grounds and the Dennison buildings as well as the trash. Use of the facilities is restricted to non-profit charitable organizations and they promise to use the premise for charitable, educational or other public purposes.

Charges: The Buckeye Horse Association does not charge a fee for approved organizations to use the ring for riding meetings. We do require that you fill out and sign a reservation form and get the dates approved. The Buckeye Horse Park Association is pleased to offer your groups the use of these facilities at no charge but we expect you to help us keep the house and grounds clean and free of litter.

Liability: The group making the reservation agrees to protect, indemnify and hold harmless The Buckeye Horse Park Association and Mill Creek District from all loss, cost and expenses by reason of injury or damage to any person and/or property, on or about the Park which damage or injury results from any careless or improper conduct on the part of those making the reservation, its agents or employees.

The invalidity or unenforceability of any provision of this Agreement shall not affect the validity or enforceability of the remainder of the agreement, which shall remain in full force and effect. This agreement shall be governed by and construed according to the laws of the State of Ohio. The parties hereby consent to the personal jurisdiction of the Common Pleas Court of Mahoning County, Ohio.
