St. Mary Magdalene Stoning Sculpture –
Sculpture by Dulce Maria Diaz

Ever felt like you were being stoned just for being a woman?

Share your story

Anonymously write in a piece of small paper that moment when you felt unjustly stoned and release it by sharing your moment of stone to St. Mary Magdalene who was misunderstood for thousands of years – together, we share her story.
Together we release.
Together, we heal.

In small sticky paper we released private moments of being “stoned” and shaped them into a stones sticking to a clay-book sculpture where we all shared our moment of Mary.
